

THE NEWTON GRAPHIC.

VOL. XXVIII.—NO. 2.

NEWTON, MASS., FRIDAY, OCTOBER 6, 1899.

TERMS, $2.00 A YEAR.

WALTER C. BROOKS & CO.,

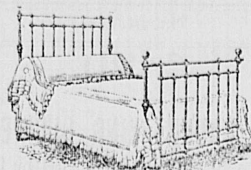

Importing - - Tailors,

15 MILK STREET, - BOSTON.

Birthplace of Franklin, Opp. Old South Church.

The Largest Assortment of Foreign Woollens Shown in Boston.

POPULAR.

Our Brass and Iron Beds are popular. The finish, construction and enduring qualities, combined with our low prices, make them so. It is worth your while to call on us before purchasing.

MORRIS, MURCH & BUTLER,
42 Summer St., Boston.
Mattresses and Chamber Furniture.
Sole proprietors of the "Noiseless" Spring.

SHIRTS MADE TO ORDER.

Best material, first-class work, perfect fit. Only one quality, the very best, $1.50 each. (Plain shirt without collar or cuffs.) Samples made for trial.
Repairing is done neatly, correctly and promptly. New neck-bands, 15c. each. Wristbands, 15c. pair. Full cuffs, 30c. pair. Collars, 25c. Bosoms, 50c. Centre pleats, 15c. Shirts to repair left Tuesdays or Thursdays with parties named below will be ready for delivery at same places in one week.
Newton, 43 Thornton St. or with J. H. Bacon; Newtonville, J. V. Sullivan; N. U. Falls, J. T. Thompson; W. W. Newton, J. T. Thompson; N. Highlands, C. E. Stewart; Auburndale, H. M. Childs; N. Centre, H. S. Williams; N. L. Falls, Kenney Bros.

E. B. BLACKWELL 43 Thornton Street Newton.

WALTER R. FORBUSH, ARCHITECT.

Stevens Building,
Nonantum Square, NEWTON
High class Domestic Work a specialty.

REUBEN FORD, Accountant.

John Hancock Building, Room 208,
BOSTON.

Established 1874.

BUNTING'S FISH MARKET.

Closed to settle estate,
Has been Re-Opened

BY THOMAS & BURNS,

who will endeavor to please the public by carrying on a strictly first class Fish Market. This is the only store in this part of the city that makes fish of all kinds a specialty.
Orders called for and delivered. Please favor us with your patronage.

SATISFACTION GUARANTEED.
Telephone Connection 198-4.

12 Centre Place,
NEWTON, - - MASS.

DENTISTRY

Save your teeth; don't have them extracted; you know not their value until they are gone; crown and bridge-work a specialty; whenever teeth or roots remain in the mouth this system can be used; all dental operations known to the profession are performed in this office in a thorough and skillful manner. It is no longer necessary to pay exorbitant fees for dentistry. We charge about one half the regular rates and guarantee entire satisfaction in each case. Examination made free; seventeen years' experience. 194 Boylston street, Boston, room 3. Take Elevator.

DR. W. H. DUDDY.

Juvene

Will show exclusive Styles in

Millinery
Commencing Wednesday, Oct. 11, 1899.

E. JUVENE ROBBINS,
Eliot Block, Newton, Mass.
NO CARDS.

Pigeon Hill House,

EVERGREEN AVE.,
Riverside Station, AUBURNDALE.

Opposite Newton Boat Club, two minutes from Riverside Station. Boating, Canoeing, Tennis, etc. American and European Plan. Special terms to permanent guests.
E. E. MARDEN, Prop.

OTIS E. LITTLE, Maker of Ladies' COATS. SUITS. GOWNS.

All garments produced by me are of perfect fit and finish and are made in exclusive styles by most accomplished Men Tailors.

84 Summer Street, - Boston.

Room 22. Elevator Second Floor.

EBEN SMITH.

1872.

MRS. ABEN SMITH,

1897.

Picture Frames,

147 SUMMER ST.,
Cor. South. ELEVATOR.

OVER JAYNES'
New Drug Store.

(FORMERLY LINCOLN ST.)

PORTTRAITS

In Carbon and Platinum.

MARSHALL & KELLEY, - 263 Washington Street, Newton.

Don't wait too long before attending to your

FURS

For the Coming Season.

New Styles
Are Especially Becoming

By ordering garments now you can save money.

Lamson & Hubbard,
Manufacturers and Retailers

HATS AND FURS
For Men and Women

Cor. Bedford and Kingston
and 229 Washington St.

"The Hunnewell,"

NEWTON, MASS.

SELECT FAMILY HOTEL.

Under New Management. Thoroughly Renovated.

Delightfully located in beautiful suburb of Boston, convenient to electric and steam cars, every 5 minutes between Boston and Newton.

R. A. LEONARD, Prop.

MONEY TO LOAN

By the Merchants
Co-operative Bank

Why not begin now to pay for your home? The easiest and best way is through the Co-operative Bank system of regular monthly payments, which has been in successful operation in this State over 22 years. Do you want to buy a house? A loan of $2000 requires a monthly payment of $18.35, of which $10 applies on the loan, the balance being 8 per cent. interest. If your mortgage is about due, or overdue, or you want a low rate of interest why not call and look into the system? Money also advanced to build in partial payments. Deal direct with the Bank, and pay no commissions. Further information of

A. E. DUFFILL, Secretary,
19 MILK STREET, BOSTON.

THE NEXT QUARTER DAY

Newton Savings Bank,

Oct. 10th.

Money deposited on or before that day will then begin to earn dividends.
BANKING HOURS 9 to 3. SATURDAYS 9 to 1.
For further information see the Bank's regular advertisement in another column.
A. J. BLANCHARD, Treasurer.

W. E. McLELLAN,
Photographic Studio,
COPYING AND FRAMING.

771 Washington St., BOSTON

D. TOY & COMPANY Tailors,

71 BEACON STREET, BOSTON, MASS.

MANAGEMENT, W. J. EDGERTON

UNIVERSITY TAILORS.
Representatives for WHITAKER & CO. and HILL BROTHERS, London, W.

Telephone, Haymarket 1287-3.

We have, this season, added a new feature to our large and increasing business. Owing to the frequent expressed requests of our patrons to obtain a foreign fabric at a moderate figure in styles not represented by Merchant Tailors in general, we decided on a new departure which, by designing our own patterns and having them made by the best tailors, will enable us to present a large and varied assortment of confirmed styles that we are prepared to make into suits at

THIRTY FIVE DOLLARS.

A THOUSAND STYLES TO SELECT FROM.

Rooms single or en suite, with or without bath, Woodland Park Hotel, Auburndale, Mass. Telephone, West Newton 61-2.

The engagement is announced of Miss Alice Brooks, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Brooks of Waverley Avenue to Mr. Robert Stanley Gunn of Paris, France.

The rehearsal for the coming season of the Newton Choral Society will begin in the Y. M. C. A. rooms on Thursday evening of next week at 7:30. Mr. Henry I. Wade has been engaged as conductor.

Last Sunday at the Immanuel Baptist church, Rev. F. B. Matthews preached both morning and evening. The morning topic was, "The Condition of Fellowship," and the evening topic, "The Thunder of the Mites."

Rev. Dr. R. Wardlaw Thompson of the London Missionary Society, who was a delegate to the Congregational Council, was the preacher at Eliot church, Sunday morning. In the evening an address was made by Dr. Michael Burnham of St. Louis.

Hon. Gorham D. Gilman was the speaker at Channing church last Sunday evening, the general topic considered being the business of the Christian church to aid the government in efforts to establish its sovereignty in the new island possessions.

There was a delay of 30 minutes on the Boston & Albany between 9 and 10:30 yesterday morning, caused by an accident in the yards of Huntington Avenue, Boston. The accident was caused by the electric car for some time, and in the end the electric received a liberal patronage.

Rev. Dr. Hornbrooke's sermon at Channing church last Sunday morning, was of great interest to the large audience present, it being a review of the changed conditions which have happened during the long period, and of the now prosperous condition of the church.

Mr. W. F. Hammett of Sargent street is not the treasurer or director of the Commonwealth Zinc Company, as reported. The error arose from a similarity of names, the treasurer having the same name and

Springer Bros., Cloak, Suit and Fur House,

Now Located at 155 TREMONT ST., West St.

NEW FALL STYLES.

Ladies' Tailor Suits, Coats, Capes, Furs, Golf Capes and Skirts, Bicycle and Walking Skirts, Waists, Travelling Rugs, etc., etc.

Superior Grade Furs a Specialty.

NEWTON.

—Pianos, Farley, 433 Washington St. tf

—Shirt repairing, see Blackwell's adv. tf

—Mr. Frank A. Day and family are at their home on Sargent street.

—Mr. Roy S. Whitney of Jefferson street has returned from Fitchburg.

—Mr. and Mrs. Herbert C. Stearns have returned from their wedding tour.

—Wm. E. Pike, electrician and licensed gas-fitter. Telephone 215, Newton. tf

—Miss Carrie Coppins of Centre street has returned from her New York trip.

—Mr. and Mrs. D. J. McNichol have moved from Oakland street to Bacon street.

—Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Quinby, formerly of Wesley street, have moved to Elmwood street.

—The offering at Eliot church last Sunday was for the Boston Seaman's Friend Society.

—Mr. Alexander Griswold and family have moved from Newtonville to Channing street.

—Miss Bessie Hood of Cambridge has been the guest of Miss Ida Barker of Park street.

—Mr. Curtis N. Smith has returned from California and is at his home on Fairmont avenue.

—Mr. James Stevenson and family of Willard street have returned after an extended absence.

—Mr. and Mrs. George O. Almy (nee Jenon) will be at home after Oct. 1st, at 19 Williams street.

—A women's prayer meeting was held at the Immanuel Baptist church, last Wednesday afternoon.

—Rev. F. B. Matthews was in charge of the Young People's meeting at the Baptist church, Sunday evening.

—The Eliot Guild, formerly the Young Ladies Sewing Society, met in the Eliot chapel, Tuesday afternoon.

—Mr. Wm. I. Howell of 91 Newtonville avenue is ready to resume piano lessons at residence of his home. tf

—The young people's meeting at Eliot church last Sunday evening, was in charge of the pastor, Rev. Dr. Davis.

—Mr. A. J. Blanchard of the Newton Savings Bank has returned from his vacation outing at East Jeffrey, N. H.

—Mrs. L. C. Allen of Centre street has left Denver for Los Angeles, Cal., where she will probably spend the winter.

—Mrs. C. L. Goodrich, modiste, Taylor's building, is in New York, this week, attending the opening of fall dress styles.

—Dr. Kenelm Winslow and family of Winslow street have moved this week to Groton where Dr. Winslow will practice medicine.

—Prof. Walters opening reception on Friday evening, Sept. 29th, at Temple hall, Newtonville. Dancing 8 till 11:30. See adv. 2t

—Miss Fay Crowell of Hunnewell avenue has returned to Woods Hill after a short visit here. She will remain there until November.

—Yesterday afternoon in the parlors of Grace church Miss Edna Wheeler gave an interesting address on the mission work in Southern Pines.

—The first meeting for the season of the Channing Sewing Circle will be held in the Unitarian church parlors on Thursday morning, Oct. 12th.

—Lieut. Col. A. M. Ferris has been away this week with the Ancient and Honorable Artillery Company on a trip to Gettysburg and Philadelphia.

—Nonantum Colony 77, United Order of Pilgrim Fathers, will hold a whist party and social in the lodge hall, Nonantum building, next Monday evening.

—At the inauguration of President Hazard at Wellesley College last Tuesday, Prof. Mary W. Calkins was a member of the committee of arrangements.

—The engagement is announced of Miss Alice Brooks, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Brooks of Waverley Avenue to Mr. Robert Stanley Gunn of Paris, France.

—The rehearsal for the coming season of the Newton Choral Society will begin in the Y. M. C. A. rooms on Thursday evening of next week at 7:30. Mr. Henry I. Wade has been engaged as conductor.

—Last Sunday at the Immanuel Baptist church, Rev. F. B. Matthews preached both morning and evening. The morning topic was, "The Condition of Fellowship," and the evening topic, "The Thunder of the Mites."

—Rev. Dr. R. Wardlaw Thompson of the London Missionary Society, who was a delegate to the Congregational Council, was the preacher at Eliot church, Sunday morning. In the evening an address was made by Dr. Michael Burnham of St. Louis.

—Hon. Gorham D. Gilman was the speaker at Channing church last Sunday evening, the general topic considered being the business of the Christian church to aid the government in efforts to establish its sovereignty in the new island possessions.

—There was a delay of 30 minutes on the Boston & Albany between 9 and 10:30 yesterday morning, caused by an accident in the yards of Huntington Avenue, Boston. The accident was caused by the electric car for some time, and in the end the electric received a liberal patronage.

—Rev. Dr. Hornbrooke's sermon at Channing church last Sunday morning, was of great interest to the large audience present, it being a review of the changed conditions which have happened during the long period, and of the now prosperous condition of the church.

—Mr. W. F. Hammett of Sargent street is not the treasurer or director of the Commonwealth Zinc Company, as reported. The error arose from a similarity of names, the treasurer having the same name and

NEWTON.

—Two registered Jersey cows are offered for sale in the business notices.

—At Grace church last Sunday afternoon a baptismal service was held.

—Mrs. Ralph Bartlett and children have returned from Ironwood, Mich.

—Mrs. Arthur Hudson of Channing street is at the White Mountains, N. H., this week.

—Gentlemen who appreciate Harvard College styles of hair cutting go to Burns, Cole's block.

—Mr. James Stevenson and family of Willard street have returned from Nova Scotia.

—The Juvenile will open exclusive styles in millinery, beginning Wednesday, Oct. 11. See adv.

—Mr. F. S. Wood and family of Belmont have moved here and will reside on Church street.

—Mr. J. E. Lawrence and family of Church street have returned from Winthrop.

—Rev. Dr. Forsythe left Tuesday on the "Teutonic" from New York, for his home in England.

—Mrs. Walter D. Eaton and the Misses Eaton of Centre street have moved out of town.

—Mr. W. F. Jones and family of Church street have moved to the Cobb house on Centre street.

—Dr. Dwight, who was the guest of Mr. J. W. Davis of Centre street, left Friday for Vermont.

—Mr. Robert D. Holt of Centre street has been away this week on a short trip to New York.

—Mr. Horace C. Harrington of Centre street has been in New York this week for a short stay.

—Mr. and Mrs. Edward Burbeck of Centre street have returned from their White Mountain trip.

—Mr. Charles Lawrence and family of Newtonville avenue have recovered from their recent illness.

—Mr. and Mrs. George Pearson of Paradise, N. S., have been in town this week visiting friends.

—Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Corey of Copley street are moving back from their summer residence at Pt. Allerton.

—Mr. and Mrs. Charles B. Gallouf of Tremont street have moved to one of their houses on Church street.

—The annual offering for the Newton Y. M. C. A. will be taken up at the Baptist church next Sunday.

—Miss Carrie Bronson of Providence was in town this week, the guest of relatives on Richardson street.

—Patrolman B. F. Burke is enjoying his annual vacation. Patrolman J. J. Davis is covering his route.

—Mr. Young is making extensive alterations and repairs to his house on Newtonville avenue.

—An exhibition of missionary pictures will be held in the parish house of Grace church this evening.

—Mrs. D. B. O. Bourdon of Carleton street has returned from an extended stay at Poland Springs, Me.

—Rev. Andrew Hahn of Wolfboro, N. H., was in town last week, the guest of his mother, at her home on Nonantum place.

—Mr. Harry B. Day, formerly organist of Grace church, and who is now at his old home in Bedford, was in town Tuesday.

—Mr. Umberto C. Crosby has been elected chairman of the factory improvement committee by the New England Insurance Exchange.

—Rev. F. B. Hornbrooke gave an address before the Woman's Alliance of the Unitarian church in Roxbury, Tuesday afternoon.

—At the Y. M. C. A. next Sunday, men's meeting at 4 o'clock, with an address by Rev. F. B. Matthews, pastor of the Baptist church.

—The gymnasium classes for boys and young men began this week at the Y. M. C. A. Mondays, Wednesdays and Saturdays are class days.

—Prof. William G. Farlow of Harvard College is to give a course of six lectures on "Fungi and Mushrooms" before the Lowell Institute this season.

—Hon. and Mrs. Henry E. Cobb and the Misses Cobb attended the inauguration exercises of President Hazard at Wellesley College, Tuesday morning.

—Mrs. Samuel Wright Simpson of Hunnewell terrace, president of the Boston Flower Mission, has been in Worcester this week, attending the W. C. T. U. meeting.

—Rev. Dr. John Brown, who has been the guest of Dr. Davis of Park street, has gone to New York, and later will give the Lyman Beecher lectures at Yale.

—A number of Newton ladies attended the meeting of the Woman's Baptist Foreign Missionary Society held Tuesday in the First Baptist church, Boston.

—Rev. F. B. Matthews with a delegation from the Baptist church, attended the meeting of the Boston West Baptist Association, held in Foxboro, Wednesday.

—Mr. W. F. Bowman, formerly of the Hunnewell, has accepted the position of manager of The Curtis, the apartment hotel on Mt. Vernon street, Boston.

—The Newton men at the meeting of the American Board in Providence, this week, are Rev. Dr. Davis, Rev. Dr. Daniels, Rev. Dr. Byington and Mr. Thomas Weston.

—Marshall & Kelly, photographers, have placed in their studio in the Stevens Building, Nonantum square, a telephone for the convenience of their customers. Newton 183-6.

—Mrs. H. G. Safford, foreign secretary of the Woman's Board of Missions, was one of the speakers at the missionary meeting held in the First Baptist church, Boston, Tuesday.

—The annual meeting of the Epworth League Society will be held at the Methodist church next Monday evening, when reports will be read and officers elected for the coming year.

—A pastor's reception is to be tendered to Dr. William H. Davis and Mrs. Davis, under the auspices of the Woman's Association in the Eliot church parlors next Thursday evening.

—The Monday Evening Club will hold its annual meeting at the residence of Dr. J. F. Frisbie on Centre street, next Monday evening. The season's program will be presented and the members will give five minute talks on vacation experiences.

—Miss Francis Elizabeth Austin, an old resident of Newton, died at her home on Park street, after a lingering illness, on Wednesday, in her 74th year. The funeral was held this afternoon and the interment was at Forest Hills.

—The Boston Men's Class at Eliot church next Sunday after the morning service. The topic, "The parents' privilege and obligation to their children." To what extent should their lives come together? Opened by Wm. B. Blakemore.

CITY GOVERNMENT.

ORDER TO PURCHASE ADDITIONAL LAND FOR NEW BIGELOW SCHOOL SITE ADOPTED WITHOUT DISCUSSION—SCHOOL BOARD HEARD ON ITS PETITION FOR MORE ROOMS AT THE WILLIAMS BUILDING IN AUBURNDALE—SHORT DOCKET OF ROUTINE BUSINESS AND BOARD ADJOURNS AT 8.52.

In disposing of the much-mooted Bigelow school question and transacting a fairly long docket of routine business at its meeting last Monday evening, the board of aldermen pleasantly surprised themselves as well as the reporters and the small audience of city officials gathered to watch the proceedings.

Promptly at 7.45 President Knowlton called the board to order. There were four members absent, including Aldermen Ivy and Lyman.

HEARINGS.

Hearings on the following subjects were opened and as there were no speakers on either side, were immediately closed: On the petition of the Boston Elevated for right to locate a curved track in Nonantum square; on the petition of West Newton residents for the laying out of Forest avenue, Wards 2 and 3; on the petition of Wallace and others that locations be granted the Newton Street Railway on Waltham, Crafts and Walnut streets, and on the petition of Ward 4 residents asking that a portion of Lexington street be widened.

At 8 Mr. Bacon of the school board appeared to speak on the school board's request that the aldermen parcel out additional land at Auburndale, that the Williams school building may be increased in size. Mr. Bacon exhibited a map showing the location of the present building and of the land which the school board desires that the city should purchase.

Mr. Bacon said that the condition of the Williams district demanded increased accommodations. The growth in five years had been phenomenal. He recommended that the land in the rear of the Williams school building be purchased and the present building extended. He said that there was complaint among teachers and pupils because of the insufficient light, as the rooms were darkened by the dense growth of trees at the sides and in the rear of the building. Further Mr. Bacon expressed his opinion that the new addition if constructed should include a school hall.

Principal Godfrey of the Williams school was next called upon, and in his remarks called particular attention to the fact that a school hall was greatly needed. Mr. Godfrey thought the growth of trees prevented the rays of light from penetrating the rooms and compelled the teachers and pupils to strain their eyes. The speaker continued, saying that to erect a church where truth may always have a pulpit, and priestly sacrifices an altar, is indeed to excel in an illustrious well-doing.

"These ceremonies have clearly defined the scope and aim of this building. What ever may have been your efforts, your joy and happiness is all deserved. Be it remembered that to erect a church where truth may always have a pulpit, and priestly sacrifices an altar, is indeed to excel in an illustrious well-doing."

"How shall man show his gratitude—the gratitude that is expected of him? To the credit of humanity it may be said that human gratitude has been shown in some manner of devotion. In these manners of devotion we see man's tribute placed at the feet of God. These devotions are like flowers putting forth blossoms of good work and exalting the perfume of God's purity. Perhaps among these devotions the greatest is that of the Sacred Heart."

"The morning service was brought to a close shortly before 1. During the afternoon there were many visitors, as the edifice was opened for inspection."

In the evening at 7.30, solemn vespers with the benediction was celebrated. An elaborate musical program was rendered under the direction of Rev. John Sullivan was celebrated, Rev. John Cronley of South Lawrence, deacon, Rev. Thomas Flanagan, sub-deacon, and Rev. C. J. Galligan, master of ceremonies. The service was delivered by Rev. Fr. Supple of Cambridge.

The upper portion of the Church of the Sacred Heart, which was dedicated last night, has been already described in the columns of the Graphic. The corner stone was laid in October, 1891, and when the basement and exterior of the new edifice had been completed the parishioners attended the first mass on Christmas Day in 1891.

For several years it was deemed advisable to relinquish the work of construction and not until nearly two years ago, did the workers begin their labors on the interior of the upper auditorium.

What they have accomplished has been most gratifying to Rev. Fr. Wholey, the pastor, and his parishioners. Such a marvel of stucco work as the interior presents, has no equal in this vicinity. The designs are most complete and elaborate.

Of all the beauty of this magnificent interior there has been much praise, especially of the arrangement of the sanctuary.

The five sanctuary windows are suggested by the writings of blessed Margaret Mary Alacoque and St. Gertrude. The beautiful designs and harmonious coloring make them conspicuous in a very beautiful church.

The subjects of the sixteen windows of the nave are as follows: "Sacred Heart of Jesus and Mary"; "St. Joseph and the four Evangelists"; "Blessed Margaret Mary Alacoque"; and representative Christian emblems.

The following orders were presented and adopted without any discussion: Assigning hearing on taking land for sewer in Gray Cliff road, Ward 6; laying out of Forest avenue, Wards 2 and 3; widening portion of Lexington street, Ward 4; appropriating $2,500 for drainage of Forest avenue district; for election, Nov. 7; granting telephone company attachments on Fountain street, Ward 3; Highland street, Ward 3; Washington street, Wards 3 and 4; Jefferson street, Ward 7; River street, Ward 3; Homer street, Ward 6; granting telephone company attachments on Woodman road, Ward 6; Waverley avenue, Ward 7; Wales street, Ward 4; Maple street, Ward 7; Lawrence road, Ward 6; Henshaw street, Ward 3; California street, Ward 1; Lake avenue, Ward 6; Irvington street, Ward 5; Neholiden road, Ward 5; Crofton street, Ward 5; granting attachments to gas company on Centre street, Ward 6; granting gas company location on Chestnut street, Ward 5.

Adjourned at 8.52 o'clock.

CHURCH OF SACRED HEART.

DEDICATORY EXERCISES SUNDAY AT NEWTON CENTRE—ARCHBISHOP WILLIAMS OFFICIATES—CEREMONY WITNESSED BY FULLY 800.

With ceremonies of marked impressiveness and in the presence of fully 800 people, the recently completed Church of the Sacred Heart at Newton Centre was dedicated last Sunday morning.

His Grace Archbishop Williams pronounced the blessing of the church, and in the exercises which followed, several prominent Catholic clergymen of the Boston archdiocese participated.

There were many in the congregation from the various Newtons, Boston, Watertown, Waltham and other neighboring cities.

At 10.30, Archbishop Williams, preceded by 30 altar boys and six of the clergy, entered from the door at the left of the sanctuary, and, passing down the main aisle of the auditorium in solemn procession, left through the front door and crossed the church grounds.

The blessing of the church was pronounced on the exterior of the building, and again the procession entered the sanctuary. Through the side aisles the archbishop, the priests, the acolytes and the altar boys passed, the large congregation bowing in prayer.

The celebration of solemn high mass followed. Rev. J. D. Boland of St. Vincent's church, Baltimore, Md., was the celebrant. Rev. Philip O'Donnell, pastor of St. Philip's church, Boston, deacon; Rev. William Ryan of Boston, sub-deacon, and Rev. Fr. Doody, master of ceremonies.

The singing by the choir, under the direction of Prof. John A. O'Shea, added much to the solemnity of the service.

The musical program included the mass in honor of St. Theresa, by La Hache, and before the sermon, "Veni Creator," by Cirillo, was introduced. The selection during the offertory was an improvisation by Prof. O'Shea.

The regular church choir was assisted by Mr. Michael Buckley, basso, Miss Mary Buckley, soprano, and a quartet composed of Miss Margaret O'Shea, soprano, Mrs. D. W. O'Brien, alto, Mr. M. J. Dwyer, tenor, and Mr. Maurice O'Shea, basso. Miss Mary Healey, the church organist, presided at the organ.

The dedicatory sermon was delivered by Rev. Peter Roman of St. Peter's church, Dorchester. His text was from Hebrews 1, 12. "God, who at sundry times and in divers manners, spake in times past unto the fathers by the prophets, hath in these days spoken unto us by His Son, whom He hath appointed Heir of all things, by whom also He made the worlds." Rev. Fr. Roman said in part:

"Our hearts have been filled with joy and thanksgiving as we witnessed the dedication of this church to the service of God. In order to bring about this event it has cost many sacrifices and privations on the part, as well as your hearty co-operation with your pastor. Today, both pastor and people have the supreme happiness of seeing the transfer of this church as a temple of God."

"These ceremonies have clearly defined the scope and aim of this building. What ever may have been your efforts, your joy and happiness is all deserved. Be it remembered that to erect a church where truth may always have a pulpit, and priestly sacrifices an altar, is indeed to excel in an illustrious well-doing."

"How shall man show his gratitude—the gratitude that is expected of him? To the credit of humanity it may be said that human gratitude has been shown in some manner of devotion. In these manners of devotion we see man's tribute placed at the feet of God. These devotions are like flowers putting forth blossoms of good work and exalting the perfume of God's purity. Perhaps among these devotions the greatest is that of the Sacred Heart."

"The morning service was brought to a close shortly before 1. During the afternoon there were many visitors, as the edifice was opened for inspection."

In the evening at 7.30, solemn vespers with the benediction was celebrated. An elaborate musical program was rendered under the direction of Rev. John Sullivan was celebrated, Rev. John Cronley of South Lawrence, deacon, Rev. Thomas Flanagan, sub-deacon, and Rev. C. J. Galligan, master of ceremonies. The service was delivered by Rev. Fr. Supple of Cambridge.

The upper portion of the Church of the Sacred Heart, which was dedicated last night, has been already described in the columns of the Graphic. The corner stone was laid in October, 1891, and when the basement and exterior of the new edifice had been completed the parishioners attended the first mass on Christmas Day in 1891.

For several years it was deemed advisable to relinquish the work of construction and not until nearly two years ago, did the workers begin their labors on the interior of the upper auditorium.

What they have accomplished has been most gratifying to Rev. Fr. Wholey, the pastor, and his parishioners. Such a marvel of stucco work as the interior presents, has no equal in this vicinity. The designs are most complete and elaborate.

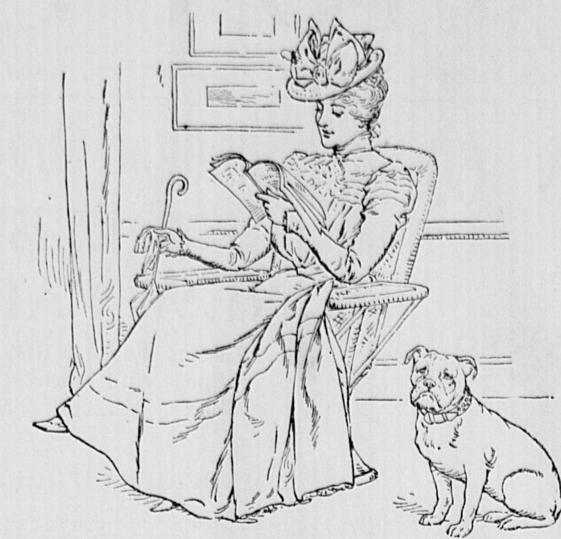

Of all the beauty of this magnificent interior there has been much praise, especially of the arrangement of the sanctuary.

The five sanctuary windows are suggested by the writings of blessed Margaret Mary Alacoque and St. Gertrude. The beautiful designs and harmonious coloring make them conspicuous in a very beautiful church.

The subjects of the sixteen windows of the nave are as follows: "Sacred Heart of Jesus and Mary"; "St. Joseph and the four Evangelists"; "Blessed Margaret Mary Alacoque"; and representative Christian emblems.

The following orders were presented and adopted without any discussion: Assigning hearing on taking land for sewer in Gray Cliff road, Ward 6; laying out of Forest avenue, Wards 2 and 3; widening portion of Lexington street, Ward 4; appropriating $2,500 for drainage of Forest avenue district; for election, Nov. 7; granting telephone company attachments on Fountain street, Ward 3; Highland street, Ward 3; Washington street, Wards 3 and 4; Jefferson street, Ward 7; River street, Ward 3; Homer street, Ward 6; granting telephone company attachments on Woodman road, Ward 6; Waverley avenue, Ward 7; Wales street, Ward 4; Maple street, Ward 7; Lawrence road, Ward 6; Henshaw street, Ward 3; California street, Ward 1; Lake avenue, Ward 6; Irvington street, Ward 5; Neholiden road, Ward 5; Crofton street, Ward 5; granting attachments to gas company on Centre street, Ward 6; granting gas company location on Chestnut street, Ward 5.

Adjourned at 8.52 o'clock.

Some persons say they are never influenced by an advertisement.

It is not expected that any one will buy Ivory Soap solely because it is suggested by an advertisement, but if you have never used Ivory Soap, you may be induced to ask some friend about it; should you find—as you probably will—that she is enthusiastic in its praise, then you may try it.

Millions of people use Ivory Soap; they use it because they like it. You too will like it. There is a difference in soaps.

COPYRIGHT 1899 BY THE PROCTOR & GAMBLE CO. CINCINNATI

NEWTON CLUB FIXTURES.

ENTERTAINMENT PROGRAM FOR '99-100 INCLUDES AN ATTRACTIVE LIST OF FEAT URES THAT PROMISES THE MOST BRILLIANT SEASON IN THE ORGANIZATION'S HISTORY.

Judging from the list of social fixtures issued last Saturday evening by the entertainment committee of the Newton Club, the coming season promises to be the most brilliant that this popular organization has yet enjoyed.

While the club is for gentlemen, the wives and lady friends of the members have not been forgotten, there being 22 evenings during the season set apart for them, exclusive of seven matinees. In June the committee has provided for the usual promenade concerts, which in past years have proved so attractive to the club members and their friends. During the season there will be 16 gentlemen's whist nights, 14 gentlemen's entertainments and four Saturday evening concerts.

The fixtures in detail are as follows: October—Saturday, 7th, gentlemen's whist; Tuesday, 10th, golf night at 8.30, talk on golf by Mr. E. A. Wilkie; Saturday, 14th, club meeting to elect nominating committee; Wednesday, 18th, concert by Boston Festival orchestra, Emil Mollenhauer conductor, Miss Janet Spencer soloist; Saturday, 21st, gentlemen's whist; Wednesday, 25th, ladies' night, whist, songs by Charles F. Atwood; Saturday, 28th, ladies' night, social club dinner (subscription).

November—Wednesday, 1st, ladies' night, whist and assembly, whist 8 to 10, dancing 10.30 to 11.30; Saturday, 4th, gentlemen's whist; Saturday, 11th, gentlemen's entertainment, "Sunetaro," the oriental wonder; Tuesday, 14th, ladies' matinee at 3 p. m.; Mr. Leland Powers impersonator, "Lord Chumley"; Wednesday, 15th, ladies' night, whist, songs by Mr. Charles F. Atwood; Saturday, 20th, gentlemen's whist; Wednesday, 23rd, ladies' night, whist, songs by Mr. Charles F. Atwood; Saturday, 26th, children's party, 2.30 to 5 p. m.; Saturday, 30th, gentlemen's whist.

December—Wednesday, 2d, ladies' night, whist and assembly, whist 8 to 10, dancing 10.30 to 11.30; Saturday, 6th, gentlemen's whist; Wednesday, 9th, ladies' night, whist, songs by Mr. Charles F. Atwood; Saturday, 13th, ladies' matinee at 3 p. m.; Mr. Leland Powers impersonator, "Lord Chumley"; Wednesday, 16th, ladies' night, whist, songs by Mr. Charles F. Atwood; Saturday, 20th, gentlemen's whist; Wednesday, 23rd, ladies' night, whist, songs by Mr. Charles F. Atwood; Saturday, 26th, children's party, 2.30 to 5 p. m.; Saturday, 30th, gentlemen's whist.

January—Wednesday, 2d, ladies' night, whist and assembly, whist 8 to 10, dancing 10.30 to 11.30; Saturday, 6th, gentlemen's whist; Wednesday, 9th, ladies' night, whist, songs by Mr. Charles F. Atwood; Saturday, 13th, ladies' matinee at 3 p. m.; Mr. Leland Powers impersonator, "Lord Chumley"; Wednesday, 16th, ladies' night, whist, songs by Mr. Charles F. Atwood; Saturday, 20th, gentlemen's whist; Wednesday, 23rd, ladies' night, whist, songs by Mr. Charles F. Atwood; Saturday, 26th, children's party, 2.30 to 5 p. m.; Saturday, 30th, gentlemen's whist.

February—Wednesday, 2d, ladies' night, whist and assembly, whist 8 to 10, dancing 10.30 to 11.30; Saturday, 6th, gentlemen's whist; Wednesday, 9th, ladies' night, whist, songs by Mr. Charles F. Atwood; Saturday, 13th, ladies' matinee at 3 p. m.; Mr. Leland Powers impersonator, "Lord Chumley"; Wednesday, 16th, ladies' night, whist, songs by Mr. Charles F. Atwood; Saturday, 20th, gentlemen's whist; Wednesday, 23rd, ladies' night, whist, songs by Mr. Charles F. Atwood; Saturday, 26th, children's party, 2.30 to 5 p. m.; Saturday, 30th, gentlemen's whist.

March—Wednesday, 2d, ladies' night, whist and assembly, whist 8 to 10, dancing 10.30 to 11.30; Saturday, 6th, gentlemen's whist; Wednesday, 9th, ladies' night, whist, songs by Mr. Charles F. Atwood; Saturday, 13th, ladies' matinee at 3 p. m.; Mr. Leland Powers impersonator, "Lord Chumley"; Wednesday, 16th, ladies' night, whist, songs by Mr. Charles F. Atwood; Saturday, 20th, gentlemen's whist; Wednesday, 23rd, ladies' night, whist, songs by Mr. Charles F. Atwood; Saturday, 26th, children's party, 2.30 to 5 p. m.; Saturday, 30th, gentlemen's whist.

April—Wednesday, 2d, ladies' night, whist and assembly, whist 8 to 10, dancing 10.30 to 11.30; Saturday, 6th, gentlemen's whist; Wednesday, 9th, ladies' night, whist, songs by Mr. Charles F. Atwood; Saturday, 13th, ladies' matinee at 3 p. m.; Mr. Leland Powers impersonator, "Lord Chumley"; Wednesday, 16th, ladies' night, whist, songs by Mr. Charles F. Atwood; Saturday, 20th, gentlemen's whist; Wednesday, 23rd, ladies' night, whist, songs by Mr. Charles F. Atwood; Saturday, 26th, children's party, 2.30 to 5 p. m.; Saturday, 30th, gentlemen's whist.

May—Wednesday, 2d, ladies' night, whist and assembly, whist 8 to 10, dancing 10.30 to 11.30; Saturday, 6th, gentlemen's whist; Wednesday, 9th, ladies' night, whist, songs by Mr. Charles F. Atwood; Saturday, 13th, ladies' matinee at 3 p. m.; Mr. Leland Powers impersonator, "Lord Chumley"; Wednesday, 16th, ladies' night, whist, songs by Mr. Charles F. Atwood; Saturday, 20th, gentlemen's whist; Wednesday, 23rd, ladies' night, whist, songs by Mr. Charles F. Atwood; Saturday, 26th, children's party, 2.30 to 5 p. m.; Saturday, 30th, gentlemen's whist.

June—Wednesday, 2d, ladies' night, whist and assembly, whist 8 to 10, dancing 10.30 to 11.30; Saturday, 6th, gentlemen's whist; Wednesday, 9th, ladies' night, whist, songs by Mr. Charles F. Atwood; Saturday, 13th, ladies' matinee at 3 p. m.; Mr. Leland Powers impersonator, "Lord Chumley"; Wednesday, 16th, ladies' night, whist, songs by Mr. Charles F. Atwood; Saturday, 20th, gentlemen's whist; Wednesday, 23rd, ladies' night, whist, songs by Mr. Charles F. Atwood; Saturday, 26th, children's party, 2.30 to 5 p. m.; Saturday, 30th, gentlemen's whist.

July—Wednesday, 2d, ladies' night, whist and assembly, whist 8 to 10, dancing 10.30 to 11.30; Saturday, 6th, gentlemen's whist; Wednesday, 9th, ladies' night, whist, songs by Mr. Charles F. Atwood; Saturday, 13th, ladies' matinee at 3 p. m.; Mr. Leland Powers impersonator, "Lord Chumley"; Wednesday, 16th, ladies' night, whist, songs by Mr. Charles F. Atwood; Saturday, 20th, gentlemen's whist; Wednesday, 23rd, ladies' night, whist, songs by Mr. Charles F. Atwood; Saturday, 26th, children's party, 2.30 to 5 p. m.; Saturday, 30th, gentlemen's whist.

August—Wednesday, 2d, ladies' night, whist and assembly, whist 8 to 10, dancing 10.30 to 11.30; Saturday, 6th, gentlemen's whist; Wednesday, 9th, ladies' night, whist, songs by Mr. Charles F. Atwood; Saturday, 13th, ladies' matinee at 3 p. m.; Mr. Leland Powers impersonator, "Lord Chumley"; Wednesday, 16th, ladies' night, whist, songs by Mr. Charles F. Atwood; Saturday, 20th, gentlemen's whist; Wednesday, 23rd, ladies' night, whist, songs by Mr. Charles F. Atwood; Saturday, 26th, children's party, 2.30 to 5 p. m.; Saturday, 30th, gentlemen's whist.

HENRY E. BULLARD CHOSEN.

NOMINATED BY 1ST MIDDLESEX DISTRICT REPUBLICANS FOR SENATOR.

It took but two ballots, both formal ones, to nominate a Republican candidate for state senator at the 1st Middlesex District Convention held in Pythian hall, South Framingham, Monday afternoon. The candidate is Henry E. Bullard of Holliston, a native of that town, who has had previous experience in the lower branch of the Legislature.

The contestants were Mr. Bullard, Harvey B. May of Natick, Col. William Nutt of Natick, and the Hon. George A. Reed of Framingham. On the deciding ballot the vote was as follows: Bullard, 37; May, 28; Reed, 2. Sixty-five votes was the full strength of the convention, which was presided over by Col. David W. Farquhar of Newton with Arthur F. Gray of Watertown as secretary. The nomination was made unanimous. Samuel L. Powers of Newton was elected a member of the Republican state central committee.

Robbed The Grave.

A startling incident, is narrated by John Oliver of Philadelphia, as follows: "I was in an awful condition. My skin was almost yellow, eyes sunken, tongue coated, pain continually in back and sides, no appetite, growing weaker day by day. Three physicians had given me up. Then I was advised to use Electric Bitters, to my great joy, the first bottle made a decided improvement. I continued their use for three weeks, and am now a well man. I know they robbed the grave of another victim." No one should fail to try them. Only 30c, guaranteed, at all drug stores.

Prof. Walters Reunion and Reception. Prof. Walters' opening reception given in Temple hall last Friday evening was attended by over one hundred and fifty former pupils and friends.

The grand march was led by Mr. Fred B. Young and wife followed by 75 couples. The party was notably a full dress affair and was a grand success. Floor director, Prof. Walters, assistants, Mr. Fred B. Young, Mr. Cyrus W. Hicks, and Messrs. Ben K. Brown, Leonard E. Seaton, Geo. H. Bailey, Albert S. Partridge, Benj. O. Atkins, Fred S. Marshman, matrons, Mesdames, A. K. Atkins, H. J. Marshman, Frank Barron.

An Attractive Autumn Outing.

A very attractive Autumn tour to Gettysburg, Blue Mountain, Luray, Natural Bridge, Virginia Hot Springs, Richmond and Washington will leave Boston under the personally conducted tourist system of the Pennsylvania Railroad on October 18. Special train of parlor cars, in which the entire trip from New York is made, is provided for the exclusive use of the party. Rate from Boston, including hotel expenses, carriage drives, &c., $75.00. Itinerary of D. N. Bell, Tourist Agent, 205 Washington Street, Boston.

NO USE TRYING

I can't take plain cod-liver oil. Doctor says, try it. He might as well tell me to melt lard or butter and try to take them. It is too rich and will upset the stomach. But you can take milk or cream, so you can take

Scott's Emulsion

It is like cream; but will feed and nourish when cream will not. Babies and children will thrive and grow fat on it when their ordinary food does not nourish them.

Persons have been known to gain a pound a day when taking an ounce of Scott's Emulsion. It gets the digestive machinery in working order so that the ordinary food is properly digested and assimilated.

SCOTT & BOWNE, Chemists, New York.

Schools and Teachers.

Mr. Cutler's Preparatory School, NEWTON, MASS.

Thirteenth Year Begins Sept. 18, 1899. Particulars may be had of Mr. EDWARD H. CUTLER, Linder Terrace, Newton, Mass.

The Newton Private School, 251 Washington Street.

Will open Monday, September 18th, 1899. Primary, Grammar School and High School Grades. ANNA M. GOODNOW, Principal, will be at the school rooms, every day, beginning Friday, September 18th.

Private Instruction

as usual, from now till next summer, in Mathematics and other studies, for Grammar, High and Technology grades needing it for any purpose. Apply to

S. EDWARD WARREN, 77 Washington Street, Newton.

Gymnastics and Dancing Calisthenics

Miss SARAH S. WEBBER

will Re-open her Gymnasium Wednesday, October 18, 1899.

Inquiries and applications to join classes can be made of Miss Sarah S. Webber, 279 Highland, cor. Lenox Streets, West Newton, during the week ending October 14; previous to that date by letter or special appointment; after October 18th, on Wednesday afternoons, at 3 o'clock, or Saturday mornings at the Gymnasium.

MISS FLORENCE E. PERCIVAL

TEACHER OF

Piano-Forte and Accompanist.

MISS BLANCHE H. PERCIVAL,

Pupil of Mr. C. M. Loeffler.

Solo Violinist and Teacher

Music furnished for Weddings, Receptions, Parties, etc.

Address MISS PERCIVAL, 106 Galen Street, Newton.

MISS ALICE F. PEIRCE, Will resume Lessons in Piano-Forte Monday, October 2nd, at her Studio, Room 6, Elliot Block, Newton. Residence, 79 Chestnut Street, West Newton.

NEWTON BLUE BOOK

House Directory and Reference Book

Will be issued soon Published Annually

A Double List of Residents. List of Clubs, Societies, etc., with officers time and place of meetings. Streets, Fire Alarm, etc. New Map of Newton.

Bound in Cloth, and Cover Lettered in Gold. Price $1.00

If you want one and have not yet ordered it, DO NOT DELAY. FOR ONLY A LIMITED NUMBER WILL BE ISSUED. Hand order to canvasser, or send order to

EDWARD A. JONES, 115 Congress St. Boston

Vineland Grape Juice.

As a table luxury, as a delicious and in every way a satisfactory beverage for the table, Vineland Grape Juice has no equal.

It is thoroughly wholesome; especially desirable to serve at whist parties or social entertainments. Served in a punch bowl with chopped ice, it is preferable in every way to the usual stronger beverage.

25 Cents Pint. 45 Cents Quart. 10 Cents Trial Bottle.

Can be supplied by the case.

Arthur Hudson,

NONANTUN SQUARE, NEWTON.

STEVEN'S BLOCK.

REPAIRED. 10c for 5 cents, at drugstores, grocers, restaurants, saloons, news-stands, general stores and barber shops. They banish pain, induce sleep, prolong life. One gives relief.

T. H. SMITH.

Hack, Boarding and Livery Stable

OAK STREET, Newton Upper Falls.

Telephone 107-2, Newton Highlands.

New Elmwood Stables.

GEO. W. BUSH, Proprietor.

Livery, Hack and Boarding Stable.

Particular attention paid to Boarding Horses. Hacks at depot for the conveyance of passengers to any part of the city. Horses and carriages to let for business or pleasure.

ELMWOOD STREET, NEWTON.

Telephone 45-3.

Carpenters and Builders.

E. N. SOULIS & CO., CONTRACTORS AND BUILDERS.

Remodeling and General Jobbing. Corner Washington and Park Streets, NEWTON.

Telephone connection.

S. K. MACLEOD, Carpenter and Builder.

Jobbing of all kinds neatly and promptly executed. Bathrooms and fittings for plumbers' work a specialty. Shop, Centre Place, opp. Public Library. Residence, Boyd Street, near Jewett.

Physicians

CLARA D. WHITMAN REED, M. D. Residence and Office, 140 Church St., Newton, opp. Farlow Park.

Hours: Until 9 A. M. 1 to 3 and 7 P. M. Telephone 46-3.

F. W. WEBBER, M. D., Physician and Surgeon.

465 Centre St., opp. Elliot Church. Office Hours: 8 to 9 A. M., 3 and 7 P. M. Telephone 36-4.

Undertakers.

CARD.

The UNDERTAKING BUSINESS

long and ably conducted by the late S. F. Cate is continued with the aid of the same experienced corps of assistants. All calls answered, day or night. Satisfaction guaranteed.

HENRY F. CATE, Manager.

NEWTON FREE LIBRARY.

LIST OF NEW BOOKS.

- Beard, Volcott Le Clear. Sand and Cactus. 65.1050
- Fifteen stories which deal principally with life in Arizona and the extreme southwest.
- Bie, Oscar. History of the Pianoforte and Pianoforte Players; trans. and revised by E. E. Kellett and E. W. Naylor. 106.530
- Conder, Edward. Records of the Hole Crafte and Feildship of Masons; with a Chronicle of the History of the Worshipful Company of Masons of the City of London. 86.232
- Deele, Lionel. Trooper 3800, a Private Soldier of the Third Republic. 92.853
- Gives an account of the French army from the experiences of a cavalry trooper. "An introduction describes the make-up of the army from highest officers to lowest subalterns, their various duties, their rights and privileges."
- Dewar, George A. B. Wild Life in Hampshire Highlands. 104.630
- Hamp, S. The Treasure of Mushroom Rock: a Story of Prospecting in the Rocky Mountains. 65.1051
- Hore, A. H. Eighteen Centuries of the Orthodox Greek Church. 96.478
- "An attempt to supply an acknowledged want, and to give in a popular form a history of the oldest church in Christendom." Preface.
- James, Henry, and others. Novelists. (Warner Classics, No. 2.) The subjects treated are Hawthorne, Balzac, George Eliot, Thackeray, and Cooper. 91.968
- Knackfuss, Hugo. Rembrandt. (Monographs on Artists, No. 3.) This illustrated monograph on the life and works of Rembrandt has been translated by Campbell Dodgson. 57.473
- Le Bon, Gustave. The Psychology of Socialism. 86.237
- MacDonagh, Michael. Irish Life and Character. 53.634
- A collection of Irish anecdotes which throw light on the character, customs, manners, and ways of thought.
- Peattie, Elia W. Jockery Ann and other Girls and Boys. 65.1049
- Ragozin, Zenaida Alexeion. A History of the World; Earliest Peoples. 71.508
- A brief outline sketch covering pre-historic times and the peoples of the valley of the Tigris and Euphrates, illustrated with reproductions from such sources as the British Museum and other famous historical collections.
- Roark, Ruric N. Method in Education. 82.243
- An attempt to develop in detail the applications of psychology in the work of teaching.
- Scharf, R. F. History of the European Fama. (Contemporary Science Ser.) 101.969
- Vladimir, pseud. Russia on the Pacific and the Siberian Railway. 74.363
- The writer wishes to correct the impression that Russia's advance across Northern Asia has taken place within recent years, and to give a clear idea of Russia's work in Asia two centuries ago.
- Wyeth, John Allan. Life of Nathan Bedford Forrest. 96.479
- Gives the details of the early days of this cavalry leader of the confederate army; his civil and private life and facts of his military record, which includes the Confederate side of many notable campaigns.
- E. P. THURSTON, Librarian.

A NEW WEST NEWTON PASTOR.

THE REV. EDWARD F. SNELL BEGINS HIS LABORS AT THE FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH IN THAT PLACE.

The Rev. Edward F. Snell of Hampton, N. H., who has recently been called to the First Baptist church of West Newton, occupied the pulpit in his new church Sunday morning for the first time. The Rev. Mr. Snell took as his text, 1. Corinthians, III, 9, and spoke in part as follows:

The church in Corinth was worldly, and weak because it was worldly. Any church that is worldly is weak. Worldliness is always the same. It matters not where it is found or whether in Paul's day or in ours, in Greece or in America. Worldliness is that spirit that puts its trust in the flesh, that opposes his will; that denies his wisdom; that seeks as best something other than that which he declares as best. There is nothing that you can call worldly in itself; there is nothing so sacred that it may not be degraded into worldliness. Worldliness is not this or that thing; it is the spirit that actuates ill-ense.

Now, we all must feel concern over this particular form of worldliness, which was wrecking this church at Corinth. It was a case of division into factions. They had two pastors and about each had gathered a clique. This was the spirit of worldliness that Paul so severely rebuked. It was a form of a deeply religious difference that was dividing them. God works with us. The church that had come to overestimate the importance of its ministers. In other words, God must move first. It is he that starts the work of men, if we are to be saved. God works with us by preparing the least of his children for his own salvation.

It might be easy for us to get discouraged and dismayed at the seemingly unequal contest between good and evil, and righteousness and evil, the church and the world, if we look merely to our visible forces. But there is a hand that is working for us that we often forget to reckon upon. There is an eye that is looking upon the work, not with the eye of an onlooker, but as one who is giving his own part to the work. We are fellow-workers with God, and he does his part. How desperate would be any attempt to rescue a soul if this were not so. If God does not give salvation to any man, it is because of some obstacle that perfect love cannot surmount.

That obstacle would be in the man himself. God cannot save a man who refuses to be saved. You are perfectly supreme and your own life is your choice. If you choose to say, "let thee behind me, God," you can do it just as you can say, "let thee behind me, Satan." It is perfectly unreasonable to conclude that this is not so. We have seen how God works with men. We are now to think of the way we work with God. We have seen how God gives the increase, but we must not forget that God gives the increase after we have sown the seed, and carefully tended it. Brethren, we are to be God's fellow-workers. My conception of the true relation of people and pastor is exactly expressed in those words. While we are mindful of that, we shall not fail.

Bismarck's Iron Nerve

Was the result of his splendid health. Indomitable will and tremendous energy are not found where Stomach, Liver, Kidneys and Bowels are out of order. If you want these qualities and the success they bring, use Dr. King's New Life Pills. Only 25 cents at all drug stores.

TWENTY YEARS ITS PASTOR.

REV. DR. HORNBOOKE PREACHES A SPECIAL SERMON IN CHANNING CHURCH.

Special services were held Sunday morning at the Channing Unitarian church, commemorative of the 20th anniversary of the pastorate of Rev. Dr. Francis B. Hornbrooke, one of the most popular Newton pastors. There was a large congregation, including many former members of the society. The church quartet rendered special music.

Dr. Hornbrooke took for his text II Corinthians, IV, 13, "We also believe and therefore speak." He said in part:

"It is often regarded as one of the disadvantages under which a liberal Christian minister labors that he has no formulated creed which he can utilize as an authority. He must persuade his hearers and, whatever he speaks must be from the depths of his own convictions."

"Twenty years ago I was installed as minister in this church, and if at that time one had asked me what methods of teaching I should pursue I fear my answer would have been most inadequate. But after all these years of experience I have come to realize what the spirit and methods of my teachings have been. I have endeavored to be sincere and to speak from the corner of my own heart. I have also endeavored to show that some of the doctrines which we cannot accept contain some substantial truths which we should cherish. I have sought to understand rather than criticize the many forms in which Christianity is presented to us."

"It is a great thing to build up an institution, but it is a greater thing to build up the lives of men and women to the creation of a sweeter and purer world."

Dr. Hornbrooke spoke at considerable length upon the growth and progress of the Channing church since his ministry began. The present building has been erected and the society is now free from debt. He spoke feelingly of the cordial relations which have at all times existed between his parishioners and himself and of the widespread influence of the society upon the community.

Meeting of Trustees of Newton Hospital

The quarterly meeting of the trustees was held at the Newton Hospital, on Friday afternoon, Sept. 29th. Those present were Messrs M. L. Bacon, A. B. Cobb, W. H. Gould, E. B. Haskell, John T. Lodge, John Lowell, J. Howard Nichols, Messrs. Geo. S. Bullens, Chas. C. Burr, C. S. Dennison, W. P. Ellison, D. R. Emerson, T. B. Fitzpatrick, J. R. Leeson, Otis Pettie, L. G. Pratt, Rev. Geo. W. Shinn, W. P. T. Dr. S. L. Eaton, W. C. Hunt, E. P. Seales, F. L. Thayer; President Leeson occupying the chair, and Dr. Eaton acting as clerk pro tem.

The treasurer's report showed receipts for the quarter of $5599 while the expenses were $7499, of which $1140 were for new buildings and renewal of old wards. The treasurer stated that the available funds with the addition of the income of the hospital would enable him to pay next month's bills, but that he expected a shortage in November. He further stated that the total extra cost which the hospital was obliged to bear in connection with the construction of new buildings, corridors, etc., has been $9000, all of which has been paid, but to do this, the Emergency Fund of $5000 has been exhausted and the balance taken from the current funds, hence the deficit.

Mr. Pratt, chairman of the finance committee, corroborated the statement of the treasurer as to the shortage of funds, and foretold a deficit of at least $3000 for the current year. In order to meet this, a corresponding increase in the Hospital Sunday collections was imperatively needed, and urged in the strongest terms that all the members present aid in accomplishing this result.

The report of the executive committee as well as that of the managers of the training school, evidenced the progress which the work of the hospital has been doing, and the satisfactory results accomplished.

The daily average number of patients in June was 48, in July 31, in August 31. After a general discussion as to the best measure to produce the needed revenue, the meeting adjourned.

You assume no risk when you buy Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. A. Hudson, Newton; E. F. Farnham, Newtonville; R. Billings, Newton Upper Falls; H. Green, Newton Highlands will refund your money if you are not satisfied after using it. It is everywhere admitted to be the most successful remedy in use for bowel complaints, and the only one that never fails. It is pleasant, safe and reliable.

Thought the Reporter Had Been Pinched.

Crowded about a police signal-box, against which there was leaning a helpless individual supported by a police patrolman, stood a number of men, women and children. They were waiting for the patrol wagon to arrive that they might see this victim of alcohol and circumstances hustled off to the police station.

As the crowd caught sight of the patrol wagon in the distance, it closed in on the officer and prisoner, but in a minute scattered as the patrol wagon drove up to the box.

As often as the curious throng had seen a patrol wagon they could not resist looking into the interior of the big black top which is designed to keep from the eyes of the public the unfortunates under arrest.

This curious crowd was much surprised to see a very respectable young man without any apparent signs of liquor about him, seated in the corner of the wagon. Immediately all eyes were on the new arrival and the drunk was for a moment forgotten.

"I wonder what he has been up against," said a young man who stood with his hands in his pockets and was busy chewing tobacco.

"Isn't it a shame" came from the lips of a number of young ladies. "Too bad, too bad" observed a motherly looking old lady "it makes me feel horrid to see a nice young man like that taken to prison."

It was very evident that this "nice young man's" case had enlisted much sympathy, until a remorseful shiftless appearing citizen remarked quite loudly "Aw, so on that mug ain't pinched, he's a fly reporter."

Does Coffee Agree With You?

If not, drink Grain-O—made from pure grain. A lady writes: "The first time I made Grain-O I did not like it, but after using it for one week nothing would induce me to go back to coffee." It nourishes and feeds the system. The children can drink it with great benefit. It is the strengthening substance of your grocer. Get a package today from your grocer, follow the directions in making it and you will have a delicious and healthful table beverage for old and young. 15c. and 25c.

Drink Grain-O

after you have concluded that you ought not to drink coffee. It is not a medicine but does order it, because it is healthful, invigorating and appetizing. It is made from pure grains and has that rich brown color and tastes like the finest grades of coffee and costs about 14c. as much. Children like it and thrive on it because it is a genuine food drink containing nothing but nourishment. Ask your grocer for Grain-O, the new food drink. 15c. and 25c.

SUNDAY READING.

On the side wall of the chapel of Balliol College in Oxford, England, there is a slab of alabaster on which is carved this inscription:

"He loved great things and thought little of himself. Desiring neither fame nor influence he won the devotion of men and was a power in their lives. Seeking no disciples he brought to many the greatness of the world and of men's life."

The man whose character and work are thus eloquently summed up served twenty years as a college tutor, doing his duties patiently and faithfully, and now "being dead he yet speaketh." All action is glorified by the temper of the soul, as George Herbert puts it in "The Elixir":

"All may of thee partake,
Nothing can be so mean,
Which with this tincture—for thy sake,
Will not grow bright and clean.
A servant with this clause
Makes drudgery divine:
Who sweeps a room as for thy laws,
Makes that and th' action fine."

Many labor for fame and many for wealth, but the most enduring riches and the most lasting renown are the impressions for good which are made in our mortal lives. To do one's work well, just where God puts us, to do it for the love of God and of man, this is to win an everlasting memorial.

"The devotional life," says a writer, "is in all ages essentially the same. It takes new forms, finds fresh doctrinal expressions, but it is forever the same in essence. The soul hunger for that which is real, for the true bread of heaven. The spiritual experience of men, wide apart in many things, bring them very near each other. They form a brotherhood of those who live in the Spirit, and find what is simple, genuine and inspiring in religion. When we read their experiences we feel the charm and the power of their faith in God, and we long for the peace which they have found in trusting Him."

Dr. Fairbairn, who was listened to with so much interest in the recent Congregational conference in Boston, gave utterance some years ago to the following words concerning prayer: "What am I? An embodied spirit. And what is my relationship to the great embodied Spirit of the universe? That of a child to its father. And shall this living spirit, with its instincts that science cannot satisfy, with its convictions of right and wrong that transcend the physical relations of time, with its sense of sin and sorrow, its shrinking from death and horror of the grave—be persuaded to train to stoical silence any one side of its every-sided relation to its living parent. I would not try to suppress the instinct of man to cry out amidst his pain to God. I would not try to make him wait, but I would have the more man becomes conscious of a God everywhere around him and helpful at every point, the nearer will he be to the great Eternal Reality. So long as the soul of man lives and believes that over it broods the living God, it will cry out to Him in all its trouble."

"The Mystics," says the Rev. Francis Tiffany, "who throughout the ages have been the saviors of free, poetic, spiritual religion, emphasize all of them one essential truth, namely, that God is the all in all, and that religion never fulfills itself in mere dreary treadmill task work, but that there is in store for all who will go on faithfully and trustingly a jubilee year of spiritual freedom and joy. Too much of our New England religion is but moral rules, conscience run mad. It is a perpetual harping on one frayed string of will and duty, that can finally give out, but a note of plaintive waiting. Shall we never come to believe that the ever blessed God will some day inundate the garden of our souls with a plentiful rain while we shall cry out in transport, 'How, under the shadow of a willow, I have waited for thee, O Lord, and thy bow is stretched in the flowers bloom and exhale their perfume.'"

An old minister told this to a friend the other day: "A man came to see me a while ago, and in the course of conversation said he could not believe the Bible because it had in it a very foolish story about the bones of dead men. Where do you find the story, I asked him. He could not tell, and then I said that he ought to be very sure about it. If he was going to give up the Bible he should be very sure about the story that had so shaken his faith. Well, he had heard some one say it was in the Bible, and he did not believe that any army ever marched out of the bones of the dead. Now look here, I said, what I think you have in your mind in this, and I handed him the Bible open at the 37th chapter of the 1st of Kings. He read the story that while I write this, and then tell me what you think of it. He took the book and read it all over, and as he finished he exclaimed: 'Why this is a vision. It is not intended as a history. It is used as an illustration. Now I see my blunder. And so I told him many are blundering. If they would give anything like intelligent study to the Scriptures their difficulties would speedily be removed.'

Gentle manners are impossible where selfishness reigns. Men who would resent any suspicion of being unduly friendly away from home forget the very rudiments of civility as soon as they reach their own doors. Wives who would be mortified at any violation of social propriety in a neighbor's home, behave most unkindly and selfishly in their own. Let selfishness grow in a home and gentle manners disappear. All that really belongs to good manners must have its roots in unselfishness. It must spring out of a spirit that really cares for others, and so it will be genial and tender. The people who try to be generous, self-sacrificing, self-denying at home may seem for a while to be the losers, but look ahead and see the difference that grows between their home and that of selfish people. There is a happy future for them. There is a harvest of thorns for those who have aimed merely at selfish enjoyment.

A Thousand Tongues

Could not express the rapture of Annie E. Springer of Philadelphia, when Dr. King's New Discovery cured her of a hacking cough that for many years had made life a burden. She says: "After all my remedies and doctors failed it soon removed the pain in my chest and I can now sleep soundly, something I can scarcely remember doing before. I feel like sounding its praises throughout the Universe." Dr. King's New Discovery is guaranteed to cure all troubles of the Throat, Chest or Lungs. Price 50c and $1. Trial bottles free at all drug stores.

Mortality Statistics for September.

According to the mortality statistics of the board of health, during the month of September 27 deaths occurred in Newton, as against 37 during the previous month. Of this number 14 were males and 14 were single. The principal cause of death was cholera infantum. At present there are practically no contagious diseases in the city.

The Appointment of Dewey.

(From the New York Journal.)

The truth seems to be that Senator Proctor urged Dewey's claims upon the President, that the latter ordered his appointment through Secretary Long, and that Long ordered Roosevelt to notify Dewey of his selection, just as he would have dictated a letter to a stenographer. Dewey's appointment as made out by the department bears the signature of Secretary Long.

Not even Roosevelt can fool all the people all the time.

THE very word "operation" strikes terror to a woman's soul.

Nearly always these operations become necessary through neglect.

If the menses are very painful, or too frequent and excessive, get the right advice at once and stop taking chances. It will cost you nothing for advice if you write to Mrs. Pinkham at Lynn, Mass., for it, and if you let the trouble run along it will surely cost you a great deal of pain and may mean an operation.

MISS SARAH J. GRAHAM, Sheridanville, Pa., writes: "DEAR

by prompt attention to it, Pinkham's advice.

WOMEN
AVOID OPERATIONS

MRS. PINKHAM—I had suffered for several years with female troubles and doctored until I was discouraged. I felt wretched and tired of living. I had disease of kidneys, bladder trouble, dropsy and bloating, had womb trouble and a large tumor had formed; in fact all my organs were out of fix.

"Seeing a woman's letter praising your remedies, I wrote to her and she begged of me to try it, telling me all that it had done for her. I bought six bottles of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and now cannot express my gratitude to you. The tumor began to come away in pieces and I got better all the time. I believe now that I am entirely cured."

"My doctors could not believe it at first, as they all had told me that my case was a hopeless one, and no human power could do me any good. They were astounded. If I can say anything that can help other women, I shall be glad to."

It is not safe to wait until the last moment. Head off trouble. Don't be satisfied without Mrs.

IF YOU HAVE AN OLD PIANO

That has outgrown its usefulness, why not exchange it for a beautiful new Upright Ivers & Pond Piano? We will make you a liberal allowance for your old instrument, balance in easy monthly payments. If inconvenient to call, write to-day and we will send a man to place a value on your instrument. We send pianos at our expense on trial, we paying railway freights both ways if unsatisfactory. It will not be necessary to part with the old till you have seen and approved the new.

Ivers & Pond Piano Co.,
114 & 116 Boylston St., Boston.

ASSOCIATED CHARITIES—The office hours of the Secretary of the Associated Charities are from 9 to 10 every week day and from 7:30 to 8:30 Saturday evenings. The Provident Committee will be at the office to distribute clothing Tuesday forenoon and Saturday evenings. At R. Martin, Secretary, Office, Newton, State Square.

THE
CLEANSING
AND HEALING
CURE FOR CATARRH
IS
Ely's Cream Balm

Easy and pleasant to use. Contains no irritants. It is quickly absorbed. Gives relief at once. It opens and cleanses the nasal passages. Allays inflammation. Cleanses and protects the Membrane. Restores the Senses of Taste and Smell. Large size, 10 cents by mail. ELY BROTHERS, 56 Warren St., New York.

ESTAB. 1851—INCOR. 1895.

Brackett's Market Company, Provisions.

8 & 10 Cole's Block, Newton.

E. H. GREENWOOD,
REAL ESTATE.

Stevens Building,
Newton Highlands.

A large variety of Newton Highlands property for sale and to let. Some bargains in house lots.

KING'S MALT,

A sure cure for that tired feeling. Also some specialties in Canned Goods.

G. P. ATKINS,

396 Centre Street, NEWTON.

WANTED—A case of bad health that R-I-P-A-N-S will not benefit. They banish pain and prolong life. One gives relief. Note the word R-I-P-A-N-S on the package and accept no substitute. R-I-P-A-N-S, 10 for 5 cents or twelve packets for 45 cents, may be had at any drug store. Ten samples and one thousand testimonials will be mailed to any address for 5 cents, forwarded to the Ripans Chemical Co., 10 Spruce St., New York.

Railroads.

SPRINGFIELD LINE BETWEEN
Boston and New York

Trains leave either city at 9:00 A. M., except Sunday; 12:00 noon, except Sunday; 4:00 P. M., daily; 11:00 P. M., daily. Drawing-room cars on all day trains and sleeping cars on all night trains. The train between Boston and New York leaves either city at 12 noon and makes the run in five hours and forty minutes. No excess fare. A. S. HANSON, Gen. Pass. Agt., Boston, Mass.

Fitchburg Railroad.

Hoosac Tunnel Route

The Short Line between BOSTON AND ALBANY, NIAGARA FALLS, CHICAGO, ST. LOUIS, CINCINNATI, And All Points West.

Lake Champlain Route

BETWEEN BOSTON AND BURLINGTON, VT., MONTREAL, OTTAWA And All Canadian Points.

Palace, Sleeping or Drawing-Room Cars on all through trains. For Time-Tables or Space in Sleeping Cars call on any Ticket Agent of the Company, or address J. R. WATSON, Gen. Pass. Agt., Boston, Mass.

Real Estate and Insurance.

FOR CHOICE BUILDING LOTS

—ON—
FARLOW HILL

AND ELSEWHERE IN THE NEWTONS.

APPLY TO
W. S. & F. EDMANDS,

429 Centre St., Newton, Bray's Bk., Newton Cen.
178 Devonshire Street Boston.

ESTABLISHED 1840. TELEPHONE 2802.

HYDE'S
Real Estate Agency

32 MILK STREET.

Room 205,
BOSTON, MASS.

Auctioneer, Mortgages Negotiated.

Newton Office:

JOHN A. EVANS, Agt., 67 Elmwood Street
Newton Property a Specialty.

Newton Highlands Office:

NEWHALL'S BLOCK, Lincoln Street,
Newton Highlands Property a Specialty

ELLIOTT J. HYDE

ABAN, TROWBRIDGE & CO.,

AUCTIONEERS, APPRAISERS.

REAL ESTATE

Money to loan

on mortgage.

Brackett's Block, 407 Centre St., Newton. Notary Public.

930 Exchange Building, 53 State Street, Boston. Telephone.

FRANCIS MURDOCK,

Insurance Agent

Gas Office, Brackett's Block Newton, Mass.

INSURANCE TO ANY AMOUNT

placed in first-class Stock and Mutual companies

Middlesex Mutual of Concord, Mass.

WARM HOUSES

ARE BEST SECURED BY USING THE WINCHESTER

HEATER

FOR STEAM OR WATER

SMITH & TRAYER CO.

BOSTON, 236 CONGRESS ST.

Established 1857. Telephone 2957.

EDWARD F. BARNES,

Real Estate Agent and Broker.

Expert Appraiser.

MONEY TO LOAN ON MORTGAGES

Insurance Agent and Auctioneer Member of the Real Estate Exchange.

31 State St., Boston. Brackett's Block, Newton.

Use the Telephone and Save

TIME, TRAVEL, TROUBLE, and Money.

and

TRY IT

A message by telephone brings immediate answer.

RIGHT RATE one half the day rate, except where the day rate is 15 cents or less. Very convenient for social conversation.

NEW ENGLAND

Telephone and Telegraph Company.

R-I-P-A-N-S, 10 for 5 cents at drug stores. They banish pain and prolong life. One gives relief. No matter what's the matter you will find you good.

Soothes Tired Nerves and Sore Muscles.

Many aches and pains are but the cry of a weary, impoverished nerve for rest, or an Anodyne to soothe the neuralgia-like pains and tired nerves.

JOHNSON'S ANODYNE LINIMENT

is the Anodyne to use in curing such cases. If from exposure you have taken cold, and every muscle in your body feels lame and sore, as if you had been pounded; or from severe work, exercise, or from "growing pains" the nerve force is exhausted, and the muscles of the legs and arms have a dull, nervous aching; or from a chill or strain you have cramps in the muscles, which seem to be all tied up in knots, and each movement sends a sharp neuralgic pain through the flesh, then you need a safe, soothing, penetrating Anodyne that will cure, not simply give temporary relief, and the many aches and pains soon return again with greater intensity.

In the last ninety years, the one devour several applications, like as a family remedy that has been used hungry animal will food. This old with greatest success, and been in Anodyne rubs so smoothly that it all dorsed by generations after genera- penetrates and soothes the inflamma- tions, because originated for that very purpose by an old Family Physician, irritation. Cure the inflammation in is our old reliable household remedy, Johnson's Anodyne Liniment.

EVERY MOTHER SHOULD Have it in the house to relieve and cure many common ailments that may occur in every family. The best treatment for all aches or cramps and pains like the above, is the following: Bathe the afflicted part with water as hot as can be borne; wipe the flesh dry. This or- cleanses the skin and opens the pores, for colic, cholera, morbus, colds with Then apply liberally our old Anodyne, rubbing the part

THE NEWTON GRAPHIC

PUBLISHED EVERY FRIDAY AT
16 CENTRE PLACE, NEWTON, MASS.

Entered as second-class matter.

Subscription, per year . . . $2.00
Single copies . . . 5 cents
By mail free of Postage.All money sent at sender's risk. All checks, drafts, and money orders should
be made payable to
EDWARD D. BALDWIN,
Editor and Publisher.

TELEPHONE NO.

THE GRAPHIC is printed and mailed Friday afternoons, and is for sale at all News
Stands in the Newtons, and at the Boston &
Albany News Room, Boston Depot.All communications must be accompanied with the name of the writer, and unpublished
communications cannot be returned by mail unless stamps are enclosed.

NOTICES

of all local entertainments to which admission fee is charged must be paid for at regular rates, 25 cents per line in the reading matter, or $1 per inch in advertising columns.

The agitation over trusts is bringing out
the fact that there are trusts and trusts, some that are harmful and prosper by illegal methods, such as the Standard Oil trust variety, and others that are not in violation of any law, such as the tremendously over capitalized concerns that have sprung up in the past year or so. The usual course of business will take care of these, as the effort to pay interest on double or quadruple the amount of capital invested will make them an easy prey to any company that starts up in opposition, and which will have to earn interest only on its actual capital. But trusts have been built up by illegal methods, such as discrimination in freight rates, or by hiring criminals to burn the plants of their opponents, and other illegal methods of stamping out competition; these trusts are on a different footing, and some means should be found of bringing them to justice and making them disgorge their ill gotten millions, and this is a proper campaign issue.

Then there are the trusts that have been formed as a result of concessions by the government, in the shape of the Dingley tariff bill, whose object is to keep up prices to the full limit possible under the tariff, and which send their surplus products to foreign countries and sell them there in competition with foreign goods and at a price in some cases of 50 per cent. under the price fixed for the home market. This is another feature of trust formation that should receive attention, and probably will in the coming campaign for the presidency.
When a trust confines itself to ordinary legal business methods, the regular business competition will take care of it and good judges look for a good deal of squeezing of water logged combinations before many months. Their stocks, however, are mostly regarded simply as a good gamble, so that careful investors ought not to be caught. But the question of illegal railroad rebates is one that will furnish much trouble, as it is difficult to get at the facts, and railroads and trusts evade the law and flout the officials who try to bring them to justice. An instance is found in a recent case in Ohio, where an attorney general of the state was set at naught by trust officials, who set themselves up as superior to all law, and it is such combinations as these that are dangerous to our national honor. What would prevent such a combination, for instance, of handling over a campaign contribution of two or three millions, to some political manager, on the pledge that it should not be interfered with. It would be a profitable investment, and such a huge campaign fund would find enough corrupt voters in some states to carry the election. Such vast aggregations of wealth in the hands of a few men are an element of danger to any nation. Men who have heaped up wealth by illegal methods would not be at all scrupulous as to the means taken to make their millions secure.

The revelations of Rev. Peter McQueen of Somerville as to the corruption and dishonesty he found in the Philippines, are certainly amazing, but only what might have been expected from the long distance the islands are from home and the strict censorship that has been established. Rev.
McQueen seems to have been in a worldly atmosphere, as he says "that the impression at Manila is that some of the American soldiers and civilians could give the Spaniards cards and spades and then beat them at the game of theft." His statements are re-inforced by a published statement from Napoleon E. Guyot of Pueblo, Col., which has just been published. He was a volunteer, but being an expert accountant, he was detailed for duty in the office of the United States auditor of public accounts in Manila. His reliability is attested for by prominent men in Pueblo, and his statements reveal such wholesale corruption and thieving, as to be almost beyond belief. Rev. Mr. McQueen's testimony, however, confirms these charges, and as each man made his statements without knowing of the other, there must be something in them. Both give names and particulars of specific cases, so that it would be easy to find out the truth and punish the guilty parties, if the administration desires to do this. It might and probably would be unfair to charge that the men who are back of the movement to seize the Philippines are the ones who are profiting by this corruption, but such a charge will be made, and it would be well for those in authority to clear themselves by having the whole thing shown up, not by an Egan investigating committee, but by men in whom the people can have confidence.
These revelations show what kind of a government we should be likely to have in those far off islands, and also what a rich field it would be for political heelers and others, whom it was desired to reward for political work, and whose reputations were too bad for them to be given an office at home. The revelations show that there are great riches in Manila, under Gen. Otis's management, for those who have no conscientious scruples, and who can secure official protection.

A PROTEST appears in another column against the way the motor wagons are driven through the streets. The correspondent, who claims to represent the sentiments of many citizens, claims that they are driven recklessly, and that the drivers pay no attention when horses are frightened, and that all the accidents could easily have been avoided, if the drivers of the wagons had wished. Until horses become accustomed to this strange vehicle, a due amount of care should be used, and this is done by the few wagons owned by private parties. The motormen on the electric cars always slow up or even stop their cars, when a horse is frightened, and for this reason very few accidents are caused by the electricies. But electricies can be avoided, while these wagons cannot, so that there is greater need of caution. Probably now that the officers of the Locomobile Company have had the matter called to their attention they will instruct their young men to be more careful, and it might be well also to suggest to them that it is not necessary to exercise the wagons on the busiest streets of the city. A little regard for the rights of others would prevent the wagons from becoming a public nuisance.

SENATOR HANNA is very indignant over this talk of Admiral Dewey for President, and says it is "indecent" and "contemptible," and says it places Dewey in the ranks of "those shifting aspirants for presidential honors who have not the stamina to resist flattery or blandishments of political schemers." But the Dewey talk comes from the people and not from political schemers, such as Senator Hanna of Ohio, who schemed so successfully in the last presidential campaign. The nomination of Dewey would leave Hanna in a bad plight, and no wonder he hurries to Washington to try and head off the Dewey movement.
The election of Dewey would be welcomed by all patriotic people, for one thing, as it would mean the retirement from national prominence of this vulgar and sordid political boss of Ohio, who thinks he has a mortgage upon both the White House and the government.

The frost of Monday morning was the most severe for this season in twenty-seven years. In Newton the mercury went several degrees below freezing point and all tender plants and shrubs were blighted.
The same day we had several flurries of snow, and it would seem that winter has begun in earnest, though some weeks of mild weather are still possible. There was a great flurry on Monday after furnace men, and orders for coal poured into the local offices in a way to drive the managers distracted. Usually it is well on into October before the furnace fires have to be started, and this sudden cold snap found most people all unprepared. However this is claimed by the politicians to be the most prosperous year for a decade or more, so that people ought to be able to stand the extra expense of having winter a month before the usual time.

The searching inquiry into Boston &
Albany management, that has been published this week, shows that this road is charging higher rates in proportion to its expenses than any other road in the state.
For this reason it is argued that to demand a higher rate of interest than has been offered by the New York Central would prevent any reductions in passenger and freight rates, which ought to have come years ago. The Boston & Albany has lost the greater part of its profitable suburban traffic by making no attempt to meet the competition of the electricies. With more frequent trains and lower fares they would probably have retained most of this patronage, without cutting down their dividend rate.

ONE would have thought, judging from the talk at the school board meeting last week, that the relations between the school board and Mayor Wilson were rather strained, but Chairman Benner is said to have assured the Mayor that it was all the invention of the wicked reporters, which statement rather paralyzed the reporters, when it was repeated to them, as they had thought that they gave only a very mild version of the talk against the Mayor.
Even that probably looked worse in type than it sounded in the speeches at the meeting, and hence Mr. Benner thought the reporters must have imagined it.
Things look so differently in print!

THINK of the cheek of that Filipino general who says of us: "You know nothing about the way to govern colonies. We do not want to be experimented on for a century while you learn how." It may be all true but that makes it so much the worse, and no wonder Otis refused to treat with him, or to recognize the Filipino government in any way. Otis is only following the example set by the British in the Revolutionary war, when British generals refused to treat with the "rebels" in any way, or to recognize their government or their generals.

GEN. CURTIS GUILD has conceded the fact that Speaker Bates has a majority of the delegates and has withdrawn from the contest, in a cordial letter to Mr. Bates, assuring the latter of his hearty support. It was a very interesting contest and well worth the money, as it gave the people an entertaining spectacle. Now that it is over, it does not matter how those contests over delegates in two Newton wards were decided.

The report of the annual meeting of the District Nursing Association will be found on another page. Our readers will be surprised at the amount of work this association has accomplished the past year, and the great number of sick persons that have been cared for. Evidently there is need of such an association in Newton, and all the contributions that can be obtained will be used to the best advantage.

The Holliston candidate carried off the nomination for senator from this district after all the work that had been done by the candidates from larger places. Natick had very little show and it is said that the Holliston scheme was really gotten up in Frammingham, and it was certainly well carried out. The small towns should have a chance once in a while.

ADMIRAL SCHLEY seems to be a very popular man with the people, judging from the favor shown him at New York and Washington. He came next to Dewey in the enthusiastic plaudits he received, and evidently many people think he has been unfairly treated.

THE Newton & Boston Street Railway has asked for a location on Auburn street, which extension has been talked of for several years. It would be a great convenience to many people, and a hearing will be given Nov. 7th.

THE West Roxbury and Newton Street Railway is again after a location, this time on Walnut, Boylston, Parker and Dedham streets. A hearing will be given Nov. 7th, when the usual warm time may be expected.

GEN. DRAVER denies that he is an aspirant for the vice-presidency, and says he favors Secretary Long, if Hobart does not run. If New England was at all doubtful, Mr. Long might have a chance, but as it is the office will go to some man who can help to carry some doubtful state.

THE Board of Aldermen has finally passed the order for the purchase of more land for the Bigelow school site. Bonds are to be issued, so it will not appear in the taxes for some time.

NEWTON.

—Mr. and Mrs. William F. Garcelon have returned from their wedding trip and are at their home on Hollis street.

—Mr. A. E. Whitney of Joplin, Missouri, has been visiting relatives on Jefferson street the past week.

—Rev. Frank B. Matthews made an address on "Sunday Observance in Our Cities," before the Boston West Baptist Association, at the annual meeting held in Foxboro, Wednesday.

—In the Eliot chapel, Monday evening, an interesting and well attended meeting of the Sunday school teachers was held.
Plans for the coming season were considered and a social hour enjoyed.

—The Woman's Association of Eliot church held the first meeting of the season in the ladies' parlor, Tuesday afternoon.
There was a good attendance and plans were made for the winter's work.

—The Boston Herald, this morning, contained an interesting account of the working of the single tax, as applied to Winter street, in Boston, read by President C. B.
Fillebrown at the meeting of the Single Tax League. Another paper was "Home Rule in Local Taxation," read by Thomas G. Shearman of New York, and a warm debate followed.

—The Young Men's Christian Association has secured skilled instructors for young men who desire to study the French language, or learn to play the mandolin, banjo or guitar. Particulars may be obtained from the general secretary.

CLAFIN AND HYDE SCHOOLS.

QUESTION OF CONNECTING THESE BUILD-INGS WITH SEWER BELIEVED TO BE SATISFACTORILY SETTLED.

The question of connecting the Clafin and Hyde school buildings with the sewer, which has been much discussed throughout the city and has for some time been a subject for no little debate in the board of aldermen and school committee, has at last been settled to the complete satisfaction, it is believed, of all parties interested. Tuesday morning members of the Wards 2 and 5 committees of the school board, Dr. Utley, Agent H. A. Stone and Inspector A. M. Russell of the board of health, appeared before Mayor Wilson and every feature of the case was presented.
The Clafin and Hyde buildings are equipped with the Fuller-Warren system of cremating sewage and last June the residents of Newtonville and Newton Highlands, in which these schools are respectively located, brought the question of connecting the buildings with the city sewer before the school board and later the city government. Hearings followed and at its only meeting, last July, the board of aldermen voted to appropriate sufficient money for completing the work.

Mayor Wilson vetoed the order at that time, expressing his opinion that the condition of the buildings did not demand the immediate completion of the work. The school board was, however, dissatisfied with the mayor's communication, and at its regular meeting last Wednesday evening voted that members of the Wards 2 and 5 committees should confer with Mayor Wilson.
Among the features brought out at the conference Tuesday morning were the facts that the board of health recognized the necessity of making sewer connections, although a portion of the Clafin building is partly equipped with the much-desired service, but did not consider the existing conditions a menace to public health. Mayor Wilson said if the board of health had declared there was any danger in the present sanitary arrangements he would order the connections to be made within 48 hours.
At the close of the conference Tuesday morning Mayor Wilson said that during the next 90 days the entire Clafin building would be connected with the sewer, and that a provision for the work at the Hyde school would be made in the budget for 1900.

REAL ESTATE.

John R. Robertson, the boat house proprietor at Riverside, has purchased two parcels of land near the station of that name. One lies between the grounds of the Newton Boat Club and the Boston & Albany railroad, fronting on Charles street and the Charles river, and having on it several boat houses. The other parcel is across the street, running from a row of pine trees to the railroad, and containing 52,526 square feet. Both pieces belonged to Frank Rid-don.

Charles A. Potter has sold to Phoebe A.
Houghton a frame dwelling and 7000 square feet on Bourne street, Auburndale.

Established 1878.
Samuel Appleton
Shoes
are SUPERIOR to all others. They are made to PROPERLY fit
your wife, children, or yourself.
48 WINTER ST.
No other Office in Boston.

Ladies' Tailor.

Otis E. Little, who has many patrons in Newton, calls special attention to the perfect fit of his garments and his exclusive styles. Garments are made by skilled men tailors. See adv. First page.

MARRIED.

YEATEN-WINKLEY. In Newton Lower Falls,
Oct. 3, by Rev. G. W. Mansfield, Alfred Daniel Yeaten of Manchester, N. H., and Evelyn May Winkley of Newton Lower Falls.

DOTY-BARRIS. At Newton, by Rev. Daniel
Green, William E. Doty of Newton and Sarah Barry of Detroit, Michigan.

LEWIS-WILSON. At Everett, Oct. 4, by Rev.
W. L. D. Taubman of Newtonville, Thomas H.
Lewis and Margaret M. Wilson, both of Everett, Cambridge.

SMITH-FILMAN. At Newtonville, Sept. 27,
by Rev. Edward H. Seabrook, Angus S.
Smith and Josephine Edith Filman.

HAHN-BICKNELL. At Newton, Sept. 28, by Rev. F. B. Hornbrook, William Frederick Hahn of Newton, and Bertha Orrell Bicknell, of Cambridge.

MORRISSEY-LANE. At North Billerica, Oct. 2,
by Rev. J. M. Leveyer, John Joseph Morrissey of Newton and Louise Jane Lane of Billerica.

DOUGETT-CHISHOLM. At Newton Lower
Falls, Oct. 1, by Rev. E. F. McLeod, John Reine Dougett and Margaret Chisholm.

MILLS-MARTELL. At Newtonville, Sept. 26,
George William Mills and Ida May Martell.

DIED.

FITZGERALD. At Newton Hospital, Sept. 29,
John Henry Fitzgerald, 30 yrs. 12 mos.

CHRONIN. At West Newton, Oct. 1, James, son of Timothy and Mary Cronin, 1 mo. 17 ds.

MOORE. At Newton, Oct. 4, Theodore Fisher, son of John T. and Minnie Moore, 1 yr. 4 mos.

AUSTIN. At Newton, Oct. 4, Francis Elizabeth
Austin, 72 yrs. 10 mos. 26 ds.

Boys'

"Knockabout"

School and Play Suit

Sizes, 7 to 16 Years.

$5.00.

Manufactured only by
A. SHUMAN & CO.

WE produce this suit from cloth made especially for us, which we subject to the most rigorous examination and test for purity of fibre, strength of double and twisted weave and permanency of its non-fading colors, before we allow a yard to be cut.

Substantially trimmed with tough and durable linings, threads, etc.; seams double stitched and stayed with tape, rendering them impossible to rip. Trousers fitted with our patent "Cavalry" or double knee and seat.

Extra pieces and buttons accompany each suit.
THIS suit is made exclusively by us, and the name "Knockabout," as applied to Boys'
Clothing, was originated and copyrighted by A.
Shuman & Co. Therefore all manufacturers are cautioned against the use of same.

A. Shuman & Co.
Boston

'99 FOOD FAIR
Mechanics' Building, Boston.
Oct. 2 to Oct 28,
10 A. M. TO 10 P. M.

SOUSA, GODFREY,
REEVES, HISSUD.
And other Famous Handmasters and their Celebrated Musicians.

72,000 DEWEY
SOUVENIR SPOONS
GIVEN AWAY FREE.

3000 each morning to the First 1500 Ladies purchasing tickets of admission at EXHIBI-TION HALL, TICKET OFFICE, No. 99
Huntington Ave. (No other entrance.)
Popular Price—A Quarter

Miss S. A. Smith,
OPENING OF
FALL MILLINERY,

Wednesday, Thursday, Friday,
OCTOBER 4th, 5th, 6th.

Pattern Hats and Bonnets, representing the most advanced designs in trimmings and the latest novelties in materials.

309 Centre St., Newton.

TREMONT THEATRE
BOSTON.
POSITIVELY LAST 3
WAY WEEKS DOWN EAST.
EVERY EVENING.
MATINEES WEDNESDAY AND SATURDAY.

Real Estate

Mortgages Insurance

Special Attention paid to Sale and Leasing of Estates in the above villages.

Representatives of All the Leading Insurance Companies.

—OFFICES—
J. C. FULLER, Newtonville.

J. FRENCH & SON, Tremont Building, 73 Tremont St., Boston. Rooms 650 & 651.

PAINTING, DECORATING, PAPER-HANGING AND GLAZING.

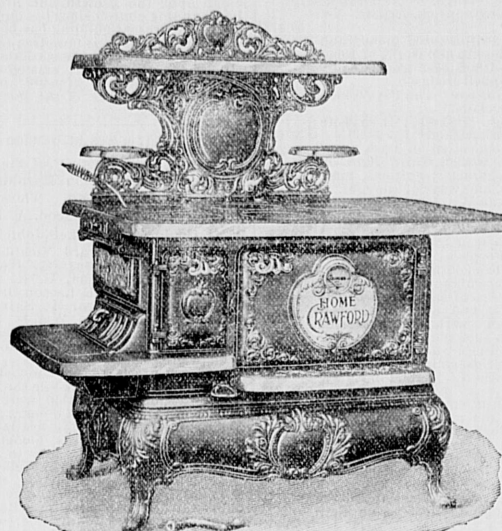

Window Shades, good ones with fixtures all complete, for 30 cents each.
Much better ones for 75 cents.

Wall Paper, Picture Moulding, Picture Frames, Metal Ceilings, and Parquet Flooring.

Prompt attention, Reasonable Prices and Superior Workmanship.

We shall be pleased to call on you at any time with sample books of Wall Paper and make estimates without expense to you.HOUGH & JONES, Nonantum Building, 245 Washington St., Newton.

Home Crawford!

The Finest Range in the World.

WALKER & PRATT MFG. CO.

24 MAIN ST., WATERTOWN.

TELEPHONE 30, NEWTON.

BUSINESS NOTICES.

All notices of three lines and under, 25
cents each time; over three lines, ten cents a line.

To Let.

TO LET—In Newtonville, from
$8 to $12 per month. Apply to D. P. O'Sullivan, 286 Cabot Street. Telephone 98-3, Newton.

TO LET—Room with gas and furnace heat.
Use of bath. Apply, 273 Cabot St., Newtonville.

FOR RENT—Private family, two furnished
connecting rooms, steam heat, bath, convenient to electric and steam cars. Address,
"17" Graphic Office.

TO LET—Two rooms, furnished or unfurnished, one minute from Newtonville Station.
Inquire of H. A. Bombard, opposite depot.

TO RENT—Part of a house, 5 or 6 rooms, near the schools, Newton Centre. Furnace and bathroom, fruit and shade trees. Apply to W.
Thorpe, 35 Pelham street, Newton Centre.

APARTMENTS TO LET in West Newton; all modern improvements; five rooms and bath. Address Caroline J. Barker, Washington St., West Newton.

Wants.

WANTED—To buy in Newton, Newton-ville or West Newton, new or modern 8 or 9 room house. Address "S. X." Graphic Office.

WANTED—Furnaces to take care of in the winter, will also do chores at very reasonable prices. Carpets cleaned and put down.
Address, Bernard Conolly, 229 Lowell Avenue,
Newtonville, Mass.

WANTED—A $3000 mortgage on a good
Newton property. Faithful particulars.
Address "Y." Graphic Office, Newton.

Miscellaneous.

LOST—Monday, Oct. 2nd, Silver Rosary. Reward if returned to 209 Church street,
Newton.

LESSONS in Out-door Sketching and Watercolor Painting. Terms reasonable. Miss Alice M. Rollins, 291 Washington street, Newtonville, Mass.

STORAGE—Separate rooms in brick block;
$1.00 to $3.50 per month. Apply at Brack-ett's Coal Office.

For Sale.

FOR SALE—Two registered Jersey Cows.
Apply at 131 Vernon street, Newton.

FOR SALE—New 8 room House, off Boyd st., Newton. Bath room, furnace, gas and electric lights and bells; all modern conveniences. Price $4,500.00. Apply to J. Henry Bacon, 273 Washington street, Newton.

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN, that the sub-criber has been duly appointed executor of the will of Frederick R. Smith, late of Newton in the County of Middlesex, deceased, testate, and has taken upon himself that trust by giving bond, as the law directs. All persons having demands upon the estate of said deceased are required to exhibit the same, and all persons indebted to said estate are called upon to make payment to
CHARLES B. MOORE, Executor.

155 Summer Street, Newton Centre.
Oct. 2, 1899.

Newton
NewtonvilleWest Newton
Auburndale

—IN—

—OFFICES—
J. C. FULLER, Newtonville.

J. FRENCH & SON, Tremont Building, 73 Tremont St., Boston. Rooms 650 & 651.

PAINTING, DECORATING, PAPER-HANGING AND GLAZING.

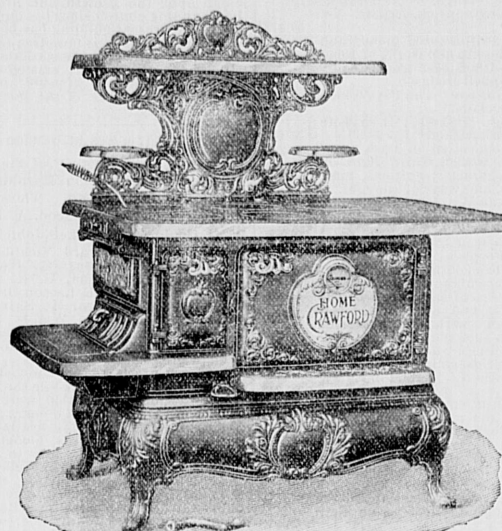

Window Shades, good ones with fixtures all complete, for 30 cents each.
Much better ones for 75 cents.

Wall Paper, Picture Moulding, Picture Frames, Metal Ceilings, and Parquet Flooring.

Prompt attention, Reasonable Prices and Superior Workmanship.

We shall be pleased to call on you at any time with sample books of
Wall Paper and make estimates without expense to you.HOUGH & JONES, Nonantum Building, 245 Washington St., Newton.

Home Crawford!

The Finest Range in the World.

WALKER & PRATT MFG. CO.

24 MAIN ST., WATERTOWN.

TELEPHONE 30, NEWTON.

BUSINESS NOTICES.

All notices of three lines and under, 25
cents each time; over three lines, ten cents a line.

To Let.

TO LET—In Newtonville, from
$8 to $12 per month. Apply to D. P. O'Sullivan, 286 Cabot Street. Telephone 98-3, Newton.

TO LET—Room with gas and furnace heat.
Use of bath. Apply, 273 Cabot St., Newtonville.

FOR RENT—Private family, two furnished
connecting rooms, steam heat, bath, convenient to electric and steam cars. Address,
"17" Graphic Office.

TO LET—Two rooms, furnished or unfurnished, one minute from Newtonville Station.
Inquire of H. A. Bombard, opposite depot.

TO RENT—Part of a house, 5 or 6 rooms, near

NEWTONVILLE.

—Mrs. E. H. Johnson of Walnut place is enjoying a hunting and fishing trip.

—Mr. A. R. Mitchell of Walnut street is enjoying a short stay in Connecticut.

—Miss Goldsmith of Brookside avenue has returned after a short stay in Vermont.

—Miss Llewellyn of Colorado is the guest of Mr. O. F. Clark at his home on Central avenue.

—Mr. A. B. Rice's family have returned from their summer vacation near Point Allerton.

—Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Lovell of Bangor, Me., are the guests of friends here for a few weeks.

—Mr. W. O. Chamberlain of Westboro was the guest of friends here for a short time this week.

—Mr. George F. Williams of Washington park has returned after a short stay at the mountains.

—Miss Grace Walker of Bowers street has returned after several weeks stay in New Hampshire.

—Mr. F. B. Homer and family, formerly of Malden, have moved into the Ross house on Clyde street.

—Miss Dimmock of Walnut street has returned from New Hampshire where she passed several weeks.

—The regular meeting of Dalhousie Lodge will be held in Temple hall, Wednesday evening.

—Mr. Fred Walker of New York is the guest of his mother at her home on Highland avenue.

—Mr. F. F. Raymond and family of Otis street have returned from their summer home at Jefferson, N. H.

—Mrs. Maude Nias West's first class in dancing will open at the Newton Club Thursday, Oct. 12th, 4 to 6.

—Mr. W. P. Soule of Walker street has returned from New York, where he attended the Dewey celebration.

—Miss Florence Campbell of Cambridge was the guest last week of Mr. and Mrs. Charles French of Otis street.

—Mr. Frank W. Lucas and family have moved from Crafts street to one of Higgins & Nickerson's houses, Lowell avenue.

—Mrs. A. W. Cole, who resides at the Bellevue, Boston, was the guest this week of her son, Mr. Alfred C. Cole, Otis street.

—Mr. M. W. French and family of Newtonville avenue returned this week from their summer home in East Jaffrey, N. H.

—The Christian Endeavor Society of the Methodist church resumed its regular prayer meeting services on Sunday evening last.

—The Ladies' Society of the Methodist church held its first social of the season at the vestry on Thursday afternoon and evening last.

—Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Heath of Highland avenue have returned from New York, where they attended the Dewey celebration.

—Mrs. Emmett W. Robinson of Highland terrace has gone to New York on a business trip, looking over styles of dressmaking, etc.

—Mr. Carl Behr, the well-known musician, has been added to the staff of the Hale Studio. Mr. Behr will teach the cello and zither.

—Among the fall engagements is announced that of Miss Lattie A. Caley of Austin street and Mr. C. H. Goodwin, Jr., of Winthrop.

—Among the engagements recently announced is that of Miss Lattie Willey of Turner street and Mr. Charles Davidson of Central avenue.

—Mr. B. F. Horn of California is the guest of friends here for a few weeks. Mr. Horn was a former resident of this place, but left here about twelve years ago.

—The regular meeting of the Newtonville Baptist Division will be held at the residence of Mrs. May E. Clark, 49 Cross street, Wednesday, Oct. 11th, at 2 p. m.

—A large number of Newtonville people attended the Chapman-Dean wedding at Grace church, Tuesday evening. Miss Chapman was a popular resident of this place for several years.

—Among the Newtonville people who attended the Brockton fair this week, were Mr. and Mrs. John F. Payne, Bowers street, Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Johnson, and Mr. E. M. Johnson, Washington street.

—Wednesday evening there was an alarm of fire from box 227 at 6:20, for a fire in the house of Walter A. Corson, Highland park. The cause was the lighting of a match lying on the floor. It escaped notice until quite a fire was started. Damage $50.

—A meeting of the Ladies' Sewing Circle will be held in the parlors of the Universalist church, Washington park, Thursday afternoon, Oct. 12th, at 2:30 o'clock. Harvest supper will be served at 6:30. Social in the evening. It is hoped a large number will be present to meet Mr. Dunham the new pastor.

—"Revival Day" was observed at the Methodist church on Wednesday morning last, in accordance with the recommendation of Bishop Maloney. The service was given by the pastor, Rev. W. J. Thompson, on the general nature and necessity of a revival spirit, and this was followed by a short prayer meeting service, participated in by several of the members.

—At the Central Congregational church, Sunday morning at 10:45, Rev. Charles H. Daniels, D. D., secretary of the American Board of Commissioners for Foreign Missions will preach. Dr. Daniels has just returned from the annual meeting of the board at Providence, and will give some interesting facts in regard to the work of the board throughout the world. He will make a short address at the vesper service in the evening at 7:30. All are cordially invited to be present at both these services.

WEST NEWTON.

—Mr. Willis Stacy of Henshaw street is ill at his home.

—Mrs. Perry of Berkley street is enjoying a short stay in New York.

—Mr. J. Moody of Chestnut street attended the Brockton fair this week.

—Mr. A. F. Thompson and family of Otis street have returned from Nantasket.

—Mr. O. D. Homer and family of Highland street are at home after a short absence.

—Major Lawrence of Otis street has returned after several weeks' stay in England.

—Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Hunt of Webster street are enjoying a short stay in New York.

—Mrs. George P. Whitmore of Winthrop street is at Hamilton, Ontario, for a few weeks.

—The Misses Germain have moved from Watertown street to Bowen street, Newton Centre.

—Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Slocum of Portland are the guests of friends here for a few weeks.

—Mr. Foster and son, Mr. William Foster of Lenox street are at Poland Springs for a short stay.

—Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Humphrey of Webster street are in New York for a week's stay.

AUBURNDALE.

—Mr. E. R. English and family of Hillside avenue have returned after several weeks' absence.

—Mr. Frank Crafts of Reading was the guest this week of his brother, Mr. H. W. Crafts, River street.

—Mr. and Mrs. Wilder M. Bush of Temple street have returned from a season at Rangeley Lakes.

—Mr. H. A. Pike and family of Winthrop street have returned from their summer home at Hull.

—Rev. Edwin Snell and family, formerly of Hampton Falls, are occupying the Baptist parsonage, Lincoln park.

—Mr. Hugh O'Neil has purchased the business recently conducted by Mr. John Marden, Washington street.

—Mr. C. G. Sprague and family of Sterling place have returned from their summer home on the Cape.

—Mr. George Hatch of Watertown street has returned from Richfield Springs, N. Y., where he passed several weeks.

—John Eliot Lodge, A. O. U. W., will meet Wednesday evening in Odd Fellows hall. Several candidates will be initiated.

—A home circle whist will be held Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Philip Gardner, Melrose street, Auburndale.

—The first regular meeting of the Woman's Guild was held Wednesday afternoon in the parlors of the Congregational church.

—Rev. Edwin Snell began his pastorate at the Baptist church last Sunday. A large congregation was present to greet him.

—The local delegates to the state convention of the W. C. T. U. at Worcester this week were Mrs. S. N. Waters and Mrs. E. E. Burdon.

—Mr. and Mrs. John Marden of Washington street left this week for Hunter, North Dakota, where they will reside with their daughter.

—A devotional meeting will be held in the Congregational chapel this evening. The subject will be "The Continual Renewal of Strength."

—Mrs. C. B. Abbey and daughter, Ruth, who were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Charles French, have returned to their home in Janesville.

—The cake, candy and preserve sale which was to be held at the home of Mrs. Stetson, Saturday, Oct. 14, will be postponed for one week.

—The fall season of the West Newton Women's Educational club will open with a reception Friday afternoon from 3 to 5 at the home of the president, Mrs. E. N. L. Walton.

—The regular monthly meeting of the Newton Veterans Firemen's association was held Wednesday evening at the engine house, Watertown street. The invitation to the muster at Manchester was discussed and will be decided at the meeting Monday evening.

—The fire department was called out at 6:53 Wednesday morning by an alarm from box 334, to extinguish a slight blaze in the residence of Mr. John Greenwood, Temple street. The fire was caused by a quantity of clothing coming in contact with a kitchen stove. Damage $20.

—The fair committee of the Suffrage League met Wednesday forenoon at the home of Mrs. E. N. L. Walton. Arrangements were made for the Newton table at the fair which is to be held in Boston in December. It is to be hoped that the Newton table will be the most attractive in the hall, and all persons interested in equal suffrage should add their donation to the table.

—The Newton Ladies' Home Circle held its regular meeting Wednesday afternoon in the parlors of the First Unitarian church. Reports of the different branches were read and these officers elected: Mrs. S. A. Langley, pres.; Mrs. G. E. Keyes, 1st vice president; Mrs. L. E. Coting, 2nd vice president; Mrs. G. M. Fiske, corresponding secy.; Mrs. W. F. Hadlock, recording secy.; Mrs. J. M. H. Smith, treas.

—The tournament committee of the Brae-Burn Golf club has been busy arranging for a tournament on Oct. 14 for the Faneuil cup, and a ladies' championship tournament Oct. 18. These will both be open to club members. The fall schedule of the club has been nearly completed by the committee, and will come out within a few days. It will include events for every Saturday from now to the 1st of December. During the season it is not likely there will be any team matches.

—The first game of both Allen and Volkman was played Wednesday afternoon. Frequent fumbling, at first on Allen's side, gave Volkman a decided advantage, but although within 10 yards of the goal several times she failed to score. Allen opened the scoring by kicking off, securing a touchdown and making a touchdown in four minutes' play. The rest of the game the ball was kept well in Volkman's eleven's territory, except when they resorted to punting, in which they excelled.

—The younger society set of the Newtons was well represented at the wedding of Miss Eleanor Barnard, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Barnard, to Mr. Edward C. Hinkley, which took place Wednesday evening in the First Unitarian church. The ceremony was performed at 8 o'clock by Rev. Julian C. Jaynes, pastor of the church, and was witnessed by more than 40 guests. The bride was gown in white silk with trimmings of pearls. She wore the customary tulle veil and carried a spray of lilies of the valley. She was attended by Miss Louise Leonard of this place, who acted as maid of honor, and the following bridesmaids: Miss Bertha Booddy, Miss May Rand, Miss Alice Rowe, and Miss Mary Elder. The best man was Mr. Fred Jones, and the following were ushers: David Hinkley, Roger Barnard, William Barnard, James Barnard, Arthur Howland, and Philip Spaulding. A reception at the residence of the bride's parents on Shaw street, followed the ceremony, and Mrs. Hinkley will make their home in West Newton.

AUBURNDALE.

—For other news see page 6.

—Mr. and Mrs. C. O. Wilcomb and Mrs. Guilford have moved to Everett.

—Mrs. D. H. Huston has resigned her position as station agent at Riverside, after twenty-eight years faithful service.

—The employees of the Commonwealth Avenue street railway have presented Mr. Richard Callahan with a substantial purse. Mr. Callahan continues quite ill at his home on Bourne street.

—Mr. George B. H. Griffin of Vista avenue died last week at the Mass. General Hospital. He was a popular young man of Auburndale, and was at one time a pitcher on the Boston base ball nine. The remains were taken to his old home at La Porte, Indiana, for interment.

NONANTUM.

—On Monday evening a large number of the friends of Rev. Daniel Greene, who has just closed a pastorate of seven years at the North Congregational church, met at the parsonage and passed a pleasant evening with the retiring pastor and his family. The evening was spent socially with music and refreshments were served. The best wishes of the many friends will follow their pastor and his family in the years to come. A substantial token of love and esteem was presented the pastor and his wife, Rev. and Mrs. Greene tender to their friends their heartfelt thanks.

WABAN.

—Rev. Wm. Safford Jones of Newton Highlands will preach at the special service in the Church of the Good Shepherd next Sunday evening.

—For greater convenience to my patrons I desire to announce that all calls for my services may be transmitted to me by public telephone from Waban drug store, at my expense. Respectfully, Henry F. Cate, Jr.

Lasell Notes.

Mrs. Elizabeth Gardner Bougeteau's painting, "The Judgment of Paris," which she recently gave to Lasell, is now on exhibition at the gallery of Williams & Everett, 100 Boylston street, Boston.

The usual fall excursion to the White Mountains was taken last Saturday, when a company of thirty went from the seminary, under conduct of Principal Bragdon, for a three days pleasure trip amid scenes of the most exquisite natural beauty that America affords. During the stay at the mountains, the party visited the principal points of interest, enjoyed sundry walks and drives, and had the satisfaction of seeing the unrivalled loveliness of the autumnal foliage, the year's sunset in this beautiful region.

On Monday, Dr. Winslow and Miss Carpenter accompanied another party of thirty or so to Cambridge and Mt. Auburn, visiting the college buildings, museums and other interesting places of the former, and looking over the famous cemetery with its graves of famous men, the choice spirits of our land. Such an excursion is worth pages of history and hours of class work, if rightly taken.

High School Notes.

The officers of the Girl's Athletic Association this year are—Pres., Miss Dresser; secy., Miss Frost; treas., Miss W. Rand. Captain of basket ball team, Miss Mears, '01.

Superintendent of Schools Fifield gave a short address in the assembly hall to the scholars, Wednesday morning.

Class '00 held a meeting Wednesday, to elect officers for the present year. Those elected were Pres., Mr. Wait; secy., Miss Dresser; treas., Mr. Herbert Andrews. A vice president was not elected owing to a tie between two of the young ladies, which will necessitate another election for that office.

The beginning of the league game will commence next week when Newton High plays Brookline. High, Newton High's foot ball team is working hard, and it is expected to make a good showing with other school teams. Although it started unpropitiously, and is severely handicapped by the loss of many of the old men, it is extremely gratifying to those interested in its success that so many good men have turned out to the trials for positions on it. The team is about as heavy as it was last year, and it is hoped to be better than last year's team.

A sophomore team was organized last Saturday morning. E. S. Hamblen, Jr., was elected captain. Owing to the rivalry between the sophomore and freshman classes, the sophomores will have to do some hard work to defeat the freshmen as they have a pretty heavy team right through, while the '02 team has only three very heavy men, Shelton, Henderson, and Cheney, who are also candidates for the school team.

A tennis tournament was held by the girls last week at the Neighborhood Club West Newton.

1st round—Miss Phelps beat Miss Freeman 6-0, 6-0; Miss Gore beat Miss Smith 6-1, 4-6, 6-2; Miss Fletcher beat Miss Rye; Miss Mears beat Miss Frost 6-3, 6-4; Miss Leatherbee beat Miss Rand 6-6, 6-3; Miss Cheney beat Miss A. Sprague 2-6, 1-6; Miss Kidder beat Miss Chamberlain by default.

2nd round—Miss Phelps beat Miss Wile 6-2, 6-1; Miss Gore beat Miss Fletcher 7-5, 6-2; Miss Mears beat Miss Leatherbee 6-1, 6-4; Miss Kidder beat Miss Cutter 8-6, 6-4.

Semi-Finals—Miss Phelps beat Miss Gore 6-4, 6-2; Miss Mears beat Miss Kidder 7-5, 6-2.

Finals—Miss Phelps beat Miss Mears 6-1, 6-3.

Newton Centre Beats Allston.

At the Newton Centre Golf Club Wednesday a match was played between six members of the home club and a picked team from the Allston Club. The home team won, 17 to 10.

NEWTON CENTRE. ALLSTON.

Holes up	Holes up
E. M. Noyes..... 6	E. Hartshorn..... 6
W. Wardsworth..... 5	L. P. Phinney..... 0
C. W. Boyce..... 3	A. A. Sprague..... 0
D. D. Grease..... 3	P. R. Jones..... 0
E. L. Allen..... 0	L. T. Pratt..... 4
F. Gilbert..... 0	J. W. Chick..... 6
Total..... 17	Total..... 10

Lowest Handicap Team Wins.

A mixed foursome was played at the Newton Centre Golf Club Wednesday with the following result:

Players.	Gross.	Net.
Mrs. Clark and Mr. Noble.....	104	5
Mrs. and Mr. Bailey.....	122	35
Miss Shannon and F. A. Shannon.....	121	28
Miss Kidder and E. H. Kidder.....	137	33
Miss Fend and Henry Haynie.....	128	7

The Central had a friend at the factory that accounts for the remarkable offering in men's underwear mentioned in another column. Lucky strike, fortunate Central.

Miner Robinson,

Electrical Engineer

Room 302, Equitable Building, Boston. Residence, West Newton.

The fitting of private residences for the electric light and power of every description.

Boston, 3311. TELEPHONES—W. Newton, *141.

For Carbon and

Platinum Photos

and Frames

Call on

Newtonville Studio opp. Depot.

Tel. No. 44-1 Newton.

ESTABLISHED 1869.

SIMPSON BROTHERS,

(CORPORATION) CONTRACTORS FOR

Concrete Walks and Driveways, Asphalt Floors, Artificial Stone Walks and Steel-Bound Curbs.

We are ready to receive orders or give estimates for work in private grounds.

P. O. Address, Newton, or Boston Office, Room 58, 166 Devonshire St. Telephone 1155, Boston. Refer to 25 Years' Work in Newton.

A GOOD HOME

May Be Found in

NEWTON

TO LET

—OR—

FOR SALE

By Reading the Real Estate

Columns of the

BOSTON HERALD

DAILY AND SUNDAY.

The Herald is New England's great Real Estate Medium. The Herald is new, The Herald is "up to date," and the special features of The Sunday Herald are a great attraction.

PROF. WALTERS'

Class in Dancing will re-open on Friday evening, October 6th, at 7:45.

TEMPLE HALL, NEWTONVILLE.

The latest popular society dances will be taught. Terms for 10 lessons including reception: Ladies $1.00, Gentlemen $2.00. Send for circular.

PROF. WALTERS, 85 ORANGE ST., WALTHAM.

LIQUOR HABIT A DISEASE.

You can be treated without interruption to business. No publicity. References unequalled.

Pleasant to take. DR. H. P. BAILEY.

Perfectly safe. 50 Bromfield St., Boston.

Your Seal Coat

Or other Furs may need renovating or put in order for the cold weather, which will soon be here. If you cannot come in send me a postal and I will call and give estimates. Best of work at fair prices.

E. B. SEARS

29 Temple Place, Boston.

FUR GARMENTS

Redyed and Remodeled, all kinds of Fur work done in the most satisfactory manner. 10 years experience, references given.

Miss ANNIE M. FOOTE, 40 Union Park, BOSTON.

Seal Garments

—AND—

FURS RE-DYED

—LINED—

into the COMING FALL STYLES at EXTRAORDINARY LOW PRICES.

Satisfaction Guaranteed.

S. ARONSON, Furrier,

Up one flight. 12 West Street, Boston

Turner & Williams,

Successors to G. H. Loomis,

Real Estate, Insurance

and Mortgagees.

Personal attention given to care of Estates. Collecting, rents, etc.

Newtonville. — Mass

JOHN B. TURNER. GEO. F. WILLIAMS

T. J. MALONE & CO.,

Slate, Metal and Gravel Roofing.

Gutters, and Conductors Put Up and Repaired

Galvanized Iron Workers.

21 SOLEY ST., CHARLESTOWN.

Order Boxes, 2 Barrett St. and 36 Brattle St., Boston.

JOHN J. REGO,

Merchant Tailor,

West Newton, Mass.

Customers can always rely on getting the best material and workmanship, and perfect fitting garments at moderate prices.

Special attention given to Ladies' Suits, riding habits, etc. Servants' livery to order.

Caroline Block, Washington Street.

Ask Your Friends. They Will Tell You.

That every day in the year we sell Dry Goods, Gent's Furnishings and Ladies' Garments, best styles and quality, at lower prices than any firm in this vicinity because

WE BUY FOR CASH AND SELL FOR CASH

And can afford to sell at lower prices than dealers who buy on time; give credit and have to allow for bad debts, book-keeping and expenses of making collections.

CORSETS.

Regular 75c. Pink, Blue and Lavender	39c
Regular 75c. Drab and Black	50c
" 81 Fine Sateen	69c
" 150 Short	$1.00
" 150 Nursing	1.00
" Warners' 67 Rust Proof	1.00
" Thompsons' Glove Fitting	1.00
" Royal Worcester's 3 styles	1.00
" R. and C. 3 styles	1.00
" Armorside "extra heavy	1.00
" Dwyer "for stout ladies	2.00
" Waterspring "absolutely unbreakable, very pliable	1.25

GLOVES.

Ladies 80c. 2 clasp Kid, all colors	69c
" 1.25 2 "	98c
" 1.25 ex. qual. White Kid	98c
" 1.50 Kid, superior quality	$1.25
" 1.25 Black Kid	1.00

We guarantee every pair of Kid Gloves regardless of selling price.

LADIES' and MISSES' JACKETS.

Good quality, Beaver strap seams	$9.98
" Kersey Romaine lining	4.98
" Plaid Back	3.98
All wool Oxford grey, Silk lining	4.98
All wool Kersey embroidered	4.98
Ex. qual. " stitched edge	6.25
" " " all col.	7.25
Heavy Covert, satin lined	8.98
Black Venetian	9.25
Oxford Grey	9.98
Ex. qual. Tan and Castor Kersey	12.50
Salt's Plush, fur trimmed	13.50
" Jet and trimmed	18.00
Superior Kersey, fur collar	18.00
" trimmed	15.00

LADIES' CAPES.

Fur Trimmed, Plush	$2.25
" Embr. Plush	2.98
Salt's Plush Embroidered	4.98
" Embr. and Fur trim.	5.98
Good quality Boucle	4.98
Plaid Back, Bounce Golf	4.25
Good qual. Kersey, Embr.	4.98
Good qual. Boucle	6.50
Ex. qual. Golf Plaid back	7.98
Salt's Best Plush, fur trimmed	8.98
Ex. qual. Embr. Kersey	7.98
Red and Black Kersey, fur collar	10.98
Elegant Castor Kersey, fur collar	15.98
Best Boucle, fur trimmed	11.98 and 150 others in all the latest styles and colors from $2.25 to $18.

MISSIE'S REEFERS.

Age 4 to 12.
All Wool Check, trimmed	$1.49
" Navy, white braid	1.98
" Beaver, 3 colors	2.25
" Novelty, 2 colors	2.50
" Chinchilla, 3 colors	2.98
" Boucle, 2 colors	3.50
Superior qual. Beaver, 2 colors	3.98
Good qual. Plaid Back	3.98
Ex. qual. Rough Beaver	4.98
Two tone Boucle, 3 colors	4.98
Fine Diagonal, stitch collar and cuffs	5.98

CHILDREN'S GRETCHENS.

Age 2 to 6.
Fur trim Boucle, blue and green	$5.98
Braid and Fur trim Cashmere	4.98
Braid Trim Boucle	2.98
" Cashmere	1.98
Fur Trim Elderdown	1.50

LADIES' WAISTS.

Flannelette lined body and sleeves	75c
" " " " "	85c
" " " " "	98c
All Wool Flannel Braided	98c
Extra heavy fancy Flannel	98c
All Wool Flannel braided and lined	$1.25
" " " " "	1.50
Fancy check and Black Flannel	1.75
All Wool Corded Flannel	1.98
Fine Henrietta braided	2.75
Extra Fine French Flannel	2.75
Good qual. Satin, white front	2.98
Ex. qual. Silk, corded all over	2.98
Black satin Duchess, cords and tucks	3.98
Black Taffeta, cords and tucks	3.98
Ex. qual. Taffeta, cords and hem-	4.98
stitched	5.98
Ex. qual. Corded Velvet	2.75
Very fine Taffeta, straight tucks	4.98
" Satin, " " "	3.98

LADIES' TRIMMED HATS.

Cashmere, Velvet band with quill	75c
Felt, Silk band with quill	85c
Fine Felt, Silk band with quill	$1.25
French Felt, Silk band with quill	1.50

LADIES' DRESSING SACQUES.

Good quality fancy Flannel	69c
" Elderdown	89c
Extra " fancy Flannel	89c
Fine " fancy Flannel	$1.25

FLANNEL NIGHTROBES.

Children's outing Nightdresses	29c
" Nightrobes (2 to 6)	29c
" " " " "	39c
" " " " "	49c
" " " " "	59c
" " " " "

Engagement Announcements.

Among the long list of engagements announced in this city of late are the following:

Miss Harriet A. Severance of Waban, daughter of Mrs. Bertrand S. Boutman, to Mr. Arthur B. Harlow, son of Mr. Louis K. Harlow, the well-known artist.

Miss Caroline B. Stewart of Minneapolis, Minn., to Rev. Frank Matthews of Tona-wanda, N. Y., who has been called to the Newton Baptist church.

Miss Dorothy L. Stuart of Newton Centre to Mr. Fred S. Gouley of Allston.

Miss Helen Stewart of Auburndale to Mr. Bengt Krieger.

Miss Letitia W. Shaw of Auburndale to Mr. Walter B. Mansfield.

Miss Hattie Arnold Wiley of Newtonville to Mr. Charles W. Davidson.

Miss Marjorie King of West Newton to Mr. W. Stewart Gilman of Sioux City, Ia.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Brooks of Newton announce the engagement of their daughter Alice, to Mr. Robert Stanley Gunn of Paris, France.

The engagement of Miss Elizabeth Casey, daughter of Mr. John Casey of Newtonville, and Dr. Frederick H. Baker of Worcester is announced.

Cup Match at Newton Centre.

An interesting 18-hole handicap tournament was played Saturday afternoon at the Newton Centre Golf Club, Clinton Hunter winning the silver loving cup offered by the president, George E. Gilbert. Mr. Hunter's net score was 78.

Player.	Gross	Cap	Net
C. Hunter	108	30	78
F. H. Hovey	118	40	78
W. Rand	108	30	78
A. Hubbard	108	30	78
W. Merrill	108	30	78
Henry Baily	108	30	78
W. Wardsworth	108	30	78
George Warren	108	30	78
J. L. Greene	108	30	78
H. B. Nash	108	30	78
Henry Haynie	108	30	78
E. L. Allen	108	30	78
J. E. Daniels	108	30	78
C. W. Royce	108	30	78
D. B. Bowen	108	30	78
E. A. Harrington	108	30	78

Doctors Win a Foursome.

In a men's foursome 18-hole medal play Saturday afternoon at the Brae Burd Club, West Newton, Drs. H. P. and H. C. Perkins made the best net score of 91, while the best gross score was made by G. T. Lincoln and G. A. Frost, 102.

Players.	Gross	Cap	Net
H. P. and H. C. Perkins	118	27	91
J. W. Stanley and E. R. Wetherbee	119	25	94
G. A. Frost and G. T. Lincoln	112	0	112
P. B. Chase and W. L. Carter	116	14	102
H. B. Day and S. S. Smith	118	14	104
E. C. Fletcher and E. H. Ferry	118	11	107

COBB WINS AT THE NEWTON CLUB.

A DOZEN PLAYERS TAKE PART IN AN 18-HOLE HANDICAP.

An 18-hole handicap was played at the Newton Golf Club Saturday, the scores being as follows:

Player.	Gross	Cap	Net
A. B. Cobb	109	30	79
W. T. Mann	118	46	72
A. A. Adams	118	44	74
George Linder	107	33	74
J. Anderson Lord	106	32	74
A. C. Walworth, Jr.	106	32	74
Marshall Rice	110	28	82
Morton E. Cobb	121	23	98
L. H. Bailey	144	5	149
H. S. Kimball	119	28	91

ATTEMPTED SUICIDE.

LOUIS A. WRIGHT OF WEST NEWTON SLASHES HIMSELF WITH A RAZOR—MENTALLY UNBALANCED.

Because of his infatuation for a young woman, who recently declined to receive the attentions he was wont to pay her, Louis A. Wright of West Newton, attempted last Friday to take his own life.

Wright is 23 years old and lived with his mother and sister at their home on Lexington street, West Newton.

He is the young man who confessed to setting a fire in Boston, thereby causing the blaze which was the origin of the famous Lincoln street fire in that city. Shortly after his confession he was committed for insanity, but was later released.

Aside from this affair, Wright, who is well known in this city, was implicated in a number of minor offenses in Newton, and in 1891 was brought before the court for breaking and entering.

Since his release from the insane asylum several years ago, Wright has followed the occupation of a clerk and has had more or less regular employment.

According to his statements to the police last Friday, Wright had received a few days previous, a letter from a Waltham young lady, in which he was requested to discontinue his calls at her home.

In a fit of despondency, young Wright went to Waltham last Thursday night, and purchased twelve-quarter grains of morphine. Several of these he took during the night.

When his mother went to call him last Friday morning, she saw the bed clothes on his bed were smeared with blood. Pulling aside the bed clothes she revealed her son, who had cut his left arm in several places. The wounds were bleeding, and he was weak from the loss of blood.

The half-distracted mother summoned the neighbors who did all they could to help her. Several physicians were sent for and soon arrived.

After a consultation with Mrs. Wright the doctors advised her to notify the police. Soon a patrolman arrived from headquarters and took the young man in charge.

Young Wright was placed in a cell at police headquarters and later committed to the insane asylum at Worcester by Judge Kennedy, who declared him insane.

Mrs. Wright and the young man's brother and sister have the deep sympathy of friends.

Health of Children Endangered.

To the Editor of the Graphic:

The recent action of the mayor in vetoing the order to connect the Clinton school with the sewer, is deserving of the severest condemnation by every parent or person interested in the health of our children. The present, so called, sanitary arrangements, are not only unsanitary but disgusting filthy, and a great menace to the health of every scholar and teacher confined in this building, and obliged to inhale the emanations from this hot bed of disease.

If one doubts that the present system is filthy and dangerous to health, they have only to make a personal inspection to be convinced. It is no idle statement that the health of every child and teacher in the building is endangered every day that the present condition of things exists, and the fact that more sickness has not resulted, is good fortune, and in no way a guarantee that this exemption will continue.

If it is necessary to economize in the expenditures of the city, let it be done in some other way than at the expense of the children's health.

G. N. T.
Newtonville, Oct. 2, 1899.

Newton Single Tax Club.

The opening meeting of the season will be held at 230 Bellevue street on Monday evening, Oct. 9, at 7.45. The speaker will be Rev. R. C. Bryant, Congregationalist clergyman of Somerville, upon the Single Tax and the Trusts. Mr. Bryant's treatment of this timely subject has received the highest kind of commendation.

It is the plan of the club for the coming season to hold monthly meetings.

Mr. Thomas G. Shearman is hoped for in November, and Prof. Geo. D. Herron for December.

Miss Anna Metzger, the well known pianist, has consented to contribute to the interest of the occasion.

Diehl-Chapman.

At Grace church, Newton, on the evening of October 3d, the marriage of Elizabeth Helen Chapman, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William F. Chapman, formerly of Newtonville, to Mr. Everett Diehl of Everett, was solemnized by the Rev. George Wolfe Shinn, D. D., rector of Grace church.

The brother of the bride, Dr. William Louis Chapman of Providence, R. I., presided at the organ and rendered a choice program of appropriate music during the assembling of the guests.

The chancel was decorated with white asters and carnations and the altar was in its festal white hangings. Indeed, it was a "white wedding," the only touch of color being in the blue crepe de chene gown of the maid of honor, Miss Amy Ethel Taylor of Lexington, Mass., and Smith college. She carried violets.

At a few minutes before 8 o'clock the six bridesmaids entered by the left transept door, next the organ, and marched down the broad aisle to the Lachner wedding march to meet the bride. They were Misses Ardelle H. Fenn, Gertrude M. Young and Ruth H. Crawley, all of Newton, Miss Anna M. Diehl of Everett, Miss Elizabeth K. Berry of Cambridge and Miss C. Hortense Toppa of Brookline. They were gown in white Point d'esprit trimmed with white satin ribbons, en fichu, and wore veils. They carried bouquets of white asters.

The ushers preceded the bridesmaids up the aisle. They were Prof. N. Richard of Mass. Inst. of Tech., Mr. William F. Ferguson of Boston, Mr. John Berry and Mr. Milton L. Bernstein of Harvard university, Mr. Franklin L. Wood of Waban and Samuel A. Chapman.

The bride-elect entered on the arm of her father, who gave her away. She was clad in white satin, en traine, trimmed with pearls ornaments and giraffe and the tulle of her mother's bridal veil. She wore a customary veil hung with orange blossoms and the groom's gift, a diamond sunburst, and carried a bouquet of lilies-of-the-valley. She was met at the altar by the groom and his "best man," Mr. George C. Melville of Somerville, and the impressive ritual of the Episcopal church soon made them man and wife.

The bridal procession left the chancel to the strains of Mendelssohn's wedding march, the young bride looking fair and happy on the arm of her consort, preceded by the flower maiden, little Norma Libbey, a niece of the bridegroom, dressed in accordance with the bride, and carrying a basket of white blooms with which she strewed the pathway of the newly wedded pair. As their carriage drove away from the church door the "Bridal Chorus" from Lohengrin pealed out from the chimes overhead played by Mr. Howard Hackett of Newtonville.

There was no reception except for the bridal party and the two families. The young couple departed at 10 o'clock on their wedding journey, after which they will reside at the Bartoli, Boston.

NONANTUM.

The Bemis bridge is now open for travel.

Dr. Stearns and brother attended the Dewey celebration in New York last week.

Mr. J. E. Parkinson of Philadelphia has resumed his employment in the Etna Mills.

At the basket party Sept. 27th, held by the Court (Quebec 148, A. O. O. F., about 200 persons attended from Newton, Cambridge and Waltham.

Next Sunday Edwin Adams of Boston will speak at the 3 p. m. service of the Benial Baptist Mission. In the evening at 7 o'clock, Cuthbert will lead the praise service.

The Nonantum Club celebrated the home coming of Dwyer last Saturday evening by a supper and entertainment. There was speaking by Mr. Weldon, song by Mr. Redmond and Mr. Allen, and recitations by Mr. Robertshaw and others.

D. Toy & Co. of 71 Beacon street, Boston, are presenting their London note for the season and it would be well to note the fact that this line is not shown in this country by any other firm, the entire collection being confined to their house. The goods are from the very best manufacturers of Great Britain; only the latest fashions and newest designs shown. An early inspection of this extensive line of novelties is a matter of mutual importance.

NEWTON UPPER FALLS.

For greater convenience to our patrons I desire to announce that all calls for my services may be left with Mr. John W. Lowe, High street, who will forward them to me with the greatest possible dispatch. Respectfully, HENRY F. CATE.

There were a number of worshippers at the all-day service held Wednesday in the Methodist church. The morning sermon was preached by Rev. Samuel Fuller of Watertown and in the evening the pulpit was occupied by Rev. Wm. Lookwood of Boston.

The Quinobegun Association held its first meeting last Tuesday evening. There was a large attendance of members already an active social season has been planned. As usual a bowling tournament will be enjoyed by the members this winter.

The new building of the Pettie & Saco machine shops is rapidly nearing completion. The building will probably be ready for occupancy earlier than was at first expected.

Wednesday morning at St. Mary's church took place the marriage of Miss Ida J. Buckley of Needham and Mr. Michael Lowe of Wakefield. The bride was a former school teacher in Needham and popular both in that place and Newton Upper Falls. After a wedding trip Mr. and Mrs. Lowe will make their home in Wakefield.

"I wish to express my thanks to the manufacturers of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, for having put on the market such a wonderful medicine," says W. W. Massingill of Beaumont, Texas. "There are many thousands of mothers whose children have been saved from attacks of dysentery and cholera infantum who must also feel thankful. It is for sale by A. Hudson, Newton; E. F. Partridge, Newtonville; B. Billings, Newton Upper Falls; J. H. Green, Newton Highlands."

"This 'Gates Ajar' design is a handsome one," said the tombstone man. "It is just what I want," said the widow. "He never shut a door in all our married life without being told."—Indianapolis Journal.

AUBURNDALE.

Mr. W. F. Hadlock has moved back into his old store.

Mr. John Dix of Lexington street has moved to Boston.

Mr. Frank W. Holt left Tuesday on his annual vacation.

Mr. Edward B. Wildman of the post office is on duty again.

Mr. Johnson is ill this week at his home on Lexington street.

Mrs. A. M. Winters of Commonwealth avenue is back from Newport.

Mr. William Gillfillin of Central street is able to be out after his recent illness.

Mr. Cilley of the Boston & Albany has removed from Riverside to Grove street.

Miss Alice Gregory of Grove street is visiting her aunt in New York this week.

Mrs. Thomas F. Melody and daughter of Auburn street are visiting in New York.

Mr. Charles Nichols of Auburn street has returned from his recent New York visit.

Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Desoe of Ware road have been entertaining guests from Boston.

The annual meeting of the Woodland golf club was held Wednesday evening at the hotel.

Rev. George M. Adams of Hancock street is able to be out after his recent illness.

A missionary concert was held last Sunday evening at the Congregational church.

Patrolman John Quilty has been on duty at Newtonville in the absence of Patrolman Soule.

Mrs. Hiram Purcell of Central street returns home soon from her visit to relatives in Westfield.

Mr. George F. Pond and family of Lexington street returned this week from their summer home in Winthrop.

Miss Gertrude H. Young of Woodland road was a bridesmaid at the Diehl-Chapman wedding in Newton Tuesday night.

Mrs. Edward P. Allen was in charge of the mother's meeting at the Congregational church last Wednesday afternoon.

The annual offering for the American Board of Foreign Missions will be taken at the Congregational church next Sunday.

It is reported that the old Plummer block has been moved five feet to the rear more than was required by the provisions of the widening.

At the Worcester musical festival held on Tuesday of last week a fine rendering of Prof. Horatio W. Parker's, "King Trojan" was given.

Mr. J. Walter Davis has been elected president and a member of the board of directors of the American Mining and Tunneling Company.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward L. Pickard Jr., have been in this place a portion of the week the guests of Mr. Pickard's parents at their residence on Woodland road.

Auburndale lodge 111, A. O. U. W., held its regular session in McVicker's hall on Auburn street Wednesday evening. There was a good sized attendance of members.

On Monday evening a large number of Riverdale lodge, N. E. O. P., members were entertained by ex-Alderman and Mrs. W. F. Hadlock at their residence on Lexington street.

At the Methodist church next Sunday will be the pastor's special message on "Some of the Perils of the Republic." In the evening he will speak on "The Divine Presence."

It is confidently expected that the new Taylor block will be ready to receive its tenants the latter part of the month. Among the first to occupy one of the stores will be druggist E. W. Keyes.

Dr. and Mrs. Francis E. Clark of Central street entertained those interested in the Christian Endeavor Movement last Saturday evening. The work for the coming year was considered, and a social hour was enjoyed.

Friday of this week, in response to the call of Rev. Maltbie, there will be special devotional meetings at the Methodist church, at the following hours: 9:30 to 11 a. m.; 2:30 to 4, and 7:30 to 9 p. m. Everybody invited.

There are letters in the post office for Mrs. C. C. Arlitt, Miss M. A. Cron, Mrs. J. P. Fisher, Miss Agnes Hastings, Miss Harris, Mrs. Hollis, C. S. Haults, Miss A. Moore, Mrs. Franklin Smith, E. Y. Franklin, N. H. Harris and Ernest Webster.

The Review Club held the first meeting of the season at Mrs. Wm. H. Blood's, on Tuesday, Oct. 3rd. The officers for the coming year are as follows: President, Mrs. C. C. Barr; vice-president, Mrs. S. W. Dike; secretary, Mrs. F. P. Marshall; treasurer, Mrs. H. G. Hillett; executive committee, Mrs. Wm. Fuller, Mrs. Albert Van Wagener, Mrs. Edward F. Miller.

Services at the Church of the Messiah Sunday: Holy Communion at 9:45; morning Prayer, Sermon and Holy Communion at 10:30; Evening Prayer at 7:30. The new organ built by Mr. James Cole of Boston, will be opened on Sunday. Changes have been made in the cancel, and these changes with the more powerful organ will help to make the services at the Messiah more effective, reverent and helpful.

Music next Sunday at the Church of the Messiah:

	MORNING.	GADSBY
Processional Hymn 523.	Vento.	Holden
Te Deum in D minor, No. 7.	Holden	Fisher
Psalm 150.	Holden	Sullivan
Hymn 394.	Holden	Sullivan
Antiphon, "Sing Alleluia Forth."	Holden	Sullivan
Recessional Hymn 516.	Sullivan	Sullivan

	EVENING.	GADSBY
Processional Hymn 523.	Reed	Reed
Magnificat in B flat.	Reed	Shelley
Nine Lessons in B flat.	Reed	Sullivan
Antiphon, "Hark! Hark my Soul!"	Sullivan	Sullivan
Hymn 394.	Sullivan	Sullivan
Recessional Hymn 516.	Sullivan	Sullivan

Avoid all drying inhalants and use that which soothes and heats the throat. Ely's Cream Balm is such a remedy and cures Catarrh easily and pleasantly. Cold in the head vanishes quickly. Price 50 cents at druggists or by mail.

Catarrh caused difficulty in speaking and to a great extent loss of hearing. By the use of Ely's Cream Balm dropping of mucus has ceased, voice and hearing have greatly improved.—J. W. Davidson, Atty at Law, Monmouth, Ill.

$100 Reward, $100.

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers, that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials. Address, F. J. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, O. Sold by druggists, 75c.

Hall's Family Pills are the best.

The Safety of our Streets.

To the Editor of the Graphic:—I write to ask whether the streets of Newton are owned by the people of the city, and are for their use, or whether they are owned by this Locomobile company and are simply for the testing of their steam wagons, and the people have no rights that the steam wagons are bound to respect. We have accidents almost daily, in almost every instance due to the reckless manner in which these wagons are driven through the streets, and they appear from all directions, shoot round corners leaving a long trail of steam behind, and if a horse is frightened and smashes a carriage, or throws out the occupants, the steam carriage men seem to regard it as a good joke and drive right on, leaving the overturned people to pick themselves up the best way they can.

The accident of last week was needless and would not have happened if the motor wagon driver had exercised any care, but he seemed to think the accident by which a hardworking farmer lost his load of produce and smashed his wagon was a good joke.

A while ago a lady was thrown from her carriage and lay upon the sidewalk half stunned, but the motor wagon man rode right on and left her to pick herself up as she could.

If this corporation must test their wagons, why should not they have a private track as the breeders of trotting horses do where they could speed up as fast as they desired without interfering with the rights of the public. The streets should be kept safe for the use of the public, and our city authorities have been very remiss in their duty to allow the state of things that has prevailed here for the past six months. If there were many of the carriages owned and used by Newton people it would be a different matter, as regard for the opinions of their neighbors would lead them to be careful, but there are less than a half dozen owned here and owners of the hundreds of horses in the city put their lives in danger every time they drive down town, because of these motor wagons that are being tested before being sent to other places.

It is a good deal of an imposition on the public and the officers of the company should give instructions to their employees, and compel them to have some regard for the rights of the people. The streets of the city are not a playground for the people and the officers of the company should be prohibited from the streets, entirely unless driven by the actual owner. It is really the case of a corporation against the whole public. Present conditions are almost unbearable and it is hoped that something will be done at once. The streets of Newton are more unsafe today than were the American vessels in Dewey's fight at Manila.

MANY CITIZENS.
During the winter of 1897, Mr. James Reed, one of the leading citizens and merchants of City, Clay Co., Va., struck his leg against a cake of ice in such a manner as to bruise it severely. It became very much swollen and pained him so badly that he could not walk without the aid of crutches. He was treated by physicians, also used several kinds of liniment and two and a half gallons of whisky in bathing it, but nothing gave any relief until he began using Chamberlain's Pain Balm. This brought almost a complete cure in a week's time and he believes that had he not used this remedy his leg would have had to be amputated. Pain Balm is unequalled for such bruises and rheumatism. For sale by A. Hudson, Newton; E. F. Partridge, Newtonville; B. Billings, Newton Upper Falls; J. H. Green, Newton Highlands.

Compliment to Mr. John J. Wholey.

The following is taken from "Under the Rose" column of the Boston Globe of last Monday:

"The parishioners of Sacred Heart church, Newton Centre, have dedicated Sunday over their new edifice, dedicated Sunday with such impressive ceremonies. The interior is an achievement in stucco the like of which was never seen in this vicinity, and the whole building is an artistic innovation in church architecture that reflects eloquent credit upon Mr. John J. Wholey, who superintended the work. The many beautiful novelties originated entirely with Mr. Wholey, whose genius has been crowned by an art triumph that will prove a lasting adornment to the garden city."

Mr. Wholey is a brother to Rev. Fr. Wholey, rector of the new church.

FLABBY FELLOWS
WHO WANT TO BUILD UP THEIR BODIES WILL FIND THE "ONE THING NEEDFUL" IN DR. PIERCE'S GOLDEN MEDICAL DISCOVERY

The body is built up from the food we eat. But before food can be assimilated by the body it must be prepared for assimilation by the stomach and other organs of digestion and nutrition. Food does not feed when the stomach is "out of order." The result is, weak muscles and flabby flesh. "Golden Medical Discovery" heals diseases of the stomach and digestive and nutritive system. It works with Nature to make manly muscle and form firm flesh.

In a letter received from A. D. Weller, Esq., of Pensacola, Escambia Co., Fla., Box 549, he states: "I have, since receiving your diagnosis of my case, as stomach trouble and liver complaint, taken eight bottles of the 'Golden Medical Discovery' and must say that I am transformed from a walking shadow (as my friends called me) to perfect health."

—A TRUE—
Temperance Medicine.
CONTAINS NO ALCOHOL.

Mason & Hamlin
stand for the highest in all relating to pianos and organs, and it is an undoubted fact that their PIANOS
are sure to prove an excellent investment. They are of fine tone, and have remarkable lasting qualities, and they unquestionably
ARE THE BEST
Mason & Hamlin Co.
146 Boylston St., Boston.

The Coming Man
will unquestionably continue to wear clothing of our make, just as the man of the present now does. In quality of materials, in "style," and in excellence of fit and finish our
..Clothing
certainly is not surpassed anywhere. PRICES are always moderate.
MACULLAR PARKER COMPANY,
400 Washington Street, BOSTON.

Leading Architects
endorse Neponset Waterproof Red Rope Fabric. It is unquestionably better and cheaper than back plaster, and makes a most excellent permanent lining or covering at a very low price.
NEPONSET
Black Building Paper
Thoroughly waterproof, will not become dry and brittle with age, clean to handle, and no waste.
For full information and samples apply to BARBER BROS.
415 Center St., Newton, Mass.
Hardware, Cutlery, etc.

HURCHILL AND BEAN
Tailors
GOOD QUALITY AT Moderate Prices
41 Temple Place BOSTON.
Elev ator at 37.
FINE DRESS SUITS A SPECIALTY.

C. B. Somers
Tailor
149 A TREMONT ST BOSTON MASS.
WILL ADD TEN YEARS TO YOUR LIFE.
RUBBER TIRES.
Applied to any carriage, new or old.
Moderate Prices.
P. A. MURRAY.
CARRIAGE BUILDER,
200 to 210 Washington Street, - - - Newton.

WATER BUGS AND ROACHES.
CLEAR THEM OUT WITH OUR No dust. No trouble to use. Price, 50c. Satisfaction guaranteed or money refunded. If your druggist or grocer does not keep it, we will mail package on receipt of price.
BARNARD & CO.,

Massachusetts State Federation of Women's Clubs.

At the invitation of the Winchendon Women's Educational Club and in accordance with the policy of the State Federation to hold its meetings in different sections, making them available to all clubs, the regular quarterly meeting will be held in the Methodist Episcopal church, Winchendon, Thursday evening and Friday, Oct. 19 and 20, 1899.

The federation has secured an illustrated stereoscopic lecture for the benefit of the clubs, which is in charge of the social service committee. The lecture slides have been supplied through the courtesy of the Metropolitan Park Commission, and Mr. Frederick Law Olmsted, Jr., has kindly consented to prepare the lecture. It will be given the first time on Thursday, Oct. 19, evening session at 8 p. m. Subject, "Landscaping Beauties of the Boston and Metropolitan Park System," by Mr. Frederick Law Olmsted, Jr.

The federation announces the publication of a song book, its object being to stimulate chorus singing at all club meetings; and it will be used for the first time at this evening session.

Friday, Oct. 20, morning session, 10.30 a. m. to 12.30 p. m. The subject will be, "Outdoor Living and Outdoor Thinking." Introduction by the chairman of the committee, Mrs. Allen Taylor Jacobs. "The Practical Work of the Forestry Association," Mr. Allen Chamberlain, Winchendon, Mass. "Arbor Day and the Possibilities for Women's Clubs," Mrs. C. A. Cones, Roxbury, Mass. "Village Improvement Societies." Speaker to be announced later. Discussion until 12.30. Intermission and luncheon.

Afternoon session, 2.30 to 4.30 p. m. "Social and Economic Significance of Horticulture," Hon. J. H. Hale, South Glastonbury, Ct. "Remunerative Outdoor Occupations for Women," Miss Mary E. Cutler, Holliston, Mass. Discussion.

Chance for Investment.

In these days of advancement there are many golden opportunities that are within our grasp, and if we keep posted we need not miss such as were offered only a few years ago by the Bell Telephone Co., which so many failed to benefit by. Messrs. Lawson & Co. of 81 Milk street, Boston, are offering just such another chance for investment, and we should advise you to look into it at once. They are men of unquestionable business integrity and are widely and very favorably known throughout the west. One can obtain nothing but the best results who deals with them.

On the 10th of December, 1897, Rev. S. A. Donahoe, pastor of M. E. Church, South Pl. Pleasant, W. Va., contracted a severe cold which was attended from the beginning by violent coughing. He says: "After resorting to a number of so-called 'specifics,' usually kept in the house, to no purpose, I purchased a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, which acted like a charm. I most cheerfully recommend it to the public." For sale by A. Hudson, Newton; E. F. Partridge, Newtonville; B. Billings, Newton Upper Falls; J. H. Green, Newton Highlands.

NEWTON CLUB.

"A Talk on Golf" by Mr. E. A. Wilkie of the Newton Golf club will be given at the Newton Club on the evening of Oct. 10. Mr. Wilkie is one of the best posted men on golf literature and the game itself in the vicinity of Boston. Beside the members of the various Newton clubs, a large number of golfers from outside are expected to be present.

REAL ESTATE.

The Bass River Savings Bank has sold its property on the corner of Woodliff road and Centre street, Newton Highlands, to Charles C. Metcalf, who will make it his home. It consists of a 10 room house and 11,000 square feet of land.

Newton District Nursing Association.

The annual meeting of the Newton District Nursing Association was held Monday, Oct. 2nd, in the parlors of the Channing church, Newton. Both the nurses were present and gave particulars of the work which the association is doing. The treasurer's report showed a balance on hand of about $600, with all bills paid. Remarks were made by Dr. Lowe, each of the nurses and several officers of the association. Letters were read from several physicians showing the good work that the association is doing, among others the following from the city physician:

"In the local papers I noticed that there was to be a meeting of your association, in which I am deeply interested. It gives me great pleasure to most heartily endorse the work of your nurses, particularly Miss Kennedy, with whom I have been associated and greatly helped in my work as city physician. She is very conscientious and painstaking. The patients very highly respect her and there being no other nurse through her efforts in their behalf, not only in caring for the sick, but also in looking out for their general welfare, such as securing employment for the wage earners of the family. Your association is to be congratulated upon its successful work, furnishing aid and succor to those who could not gain admission to the hospital, being regarded as chronic cases, which the hospital would not accept of them to receive. Wishing your association every success for the ensuing year, and promising you my most hearty support and assistance when called upon, I am,

Yours very respectfully,
E. R. UTLEY,
Mr. Edwin M. Fowle, secretary of the Overseers of the Poor, wrote as follows: "It gives me great pleasure to endorse the good work your association is daily accomplishing in this city, and especially as I have been brought in touch with it through the kind deeds of Miss C. F. Kennedy, one of your active workers, who is ever on the alert to extend aid and comfort to the needy. In several cases we have worked in harmony to aid the unfortunate. I trust success may attend your efforts so that you may receive from the public the financial aid you so clearly merit."

The following extracts from the secretary's report explain the workings of the association during the past year: "The nurses have been called by 30 different physicians to attend 370 cases, upon whom 482 calls have been made. Of the 370 patients 13 have been taken to the Newton hospital, 21 have died and 314 have become convalescent, or have fully recovered. Patients have suffered from many causes, among which have been 7 cases of cancer, 19 of tonsillitis, or bronchitis, 7 of typhoid, 24 of fractures, 31 of grip and malaria, 25 of pneumonia, 21 of dysentery and 7 of rheumatism.

"A very large part of our work has been the care of obstetrical cases, the nurses having been called to attend 170 such cases during the year.

"The number of cases treated in the different wards is as follows: Ward 1, 13; Ward 2, 13; Ward 3, 49; Ward 4, 15; Ward 5, 12; Ward 6, 60; Ward 7, 87.

"Two cases, one of cancer and one of hip disease have been visited by one or other of our nurses every day, except on a few Sundays, during the past year.

"As heretofore, in each village of this city there is a supply closet containing medicines, bedding, baby clothes, and things that are most necessary in the sick room. A friend of the association has provided $600, the funds necessary to furnish a bed for two years at the Newton hospital for the occupancy of such patients as our nurses may consider proper for hospital care, and under this arrangement this bed has since been occupied almost without interruption by different patients. Our relations with the officers and managers of the Newton hospital have always been and still remain very friendly.

"Many donations of food and clothing have been made and many families have been assisted in times of distress, who otherwise would have become either state or city paupers.

"One of the most important parts of the nurse's work is the instruction she gives, teaching the common rules of health and cleanliness, how to make and put on a bandage, to prepare baby's food, and to cook broths and simple foods for the sick. Many people have yet to learn that fresh air and clean water are not deadly enemies to the sick room. Our nurses make 5 to 13 visits a day, in many different sections of the city. They are obliged to attend first to the immediate wants of the patients, and though they are expected to give instruction, they naturally cannot devote as much time to this important branch of their work as they could had they less calls to make. If we were provided with the necessary funds more nurses could be employed in attending to the sick, time could be devoted to this instruction.

"The following officers were elected for the ensuing year: President, Mrs. S. L. Powers; vice-president, Mrs. B. F. Fitzpatrick; treasurer, Mrs. J. C. Hockman; secretary, Mrs. Wm. H. Colledge; assistant secretary, Miss Caroline Lovett.

BOOKS AND MAGAZINES.

G. W. Stevens, the war correspondent who became famous for his dramatic narrative of Kitchener's campaign to Khartoum, shows, in a thoughtful article in the October number of Harper's Magazine, the debasing effect of the Dreyfus affair on France. An article by Hon. John Barrett, late United States Minister to Siam, and for ten months war minister at Manila, gives an admirable representation of the character and personality of Admiral Dewey. Sir Martin Conway, the greatest mountain climber in the world, opens the number with the story of his ascent of Illimani, one of the highest and most inaccessible peaks of the Bolivian Andes. Part second of "The First American: His Homes and His Households," by Lelia Herbert, gives an interesting description of Washington's life in New York, when that city was the seat of the national government. Julian Ralph, under the title "Fencing on Two Sides," describes a voyage on one of the famous P. & O. steamers from England to Calcutta. Short stories are contributed by Seumas MacManus, I. Zangwill, Mary Hartwell Catherwood and Stephen Crane.

The largest issue of Harper's Weekly ever published was the Dewey Memorial Number, which was ready Sept. 28th. Between its ornamental covers, printed in colors, are fifty-six pages, devoted almost entirely to Admiral George Dewey and the eventful incidents in his career. Rudyard Kipling contributes a poem, his most striking work since his illness, appropriately entitled "Let Us Now Praise Famous Men." A history of the Dewey campaign, a sketch of the Admiral's life is contributed by the Hon. John Barrett, late United States Minister to Siam, an intimate friend of the Admiral, and closely associated with him for months at Manila. The number contains also an important article on the "United States Navy," by Henry Loomis Nelson, and special articles on Dewey and the Manila campaign, illustrated with many heretofore unpublished portraits and with superb drawings of naval scenes. The issue for Oct. 7th describes Admiral Dewey's reception in New York, and the number will be given over to the story of the contest for the America's cup.

The special fashion number of Harper's Bazar, published Oct. 7th, contains a comprehensive and authoritative presentation of autumn and winter fashions. The number is illustrated by the most famous designers of the reception gowns, outfit costumes, capes, wraps, house gowns, and negligee costumes which will be worn during the coming autumn and winter. The large number of new and original fashion hints make this issue invaluable to every woman.

Where Some Money Would Do Good Just Now.

To the Editor of the GRAPHIC:—Last week there was a very interesting meeting at the hospital. The trustees listened with great satisfaction to the reports as to the new buildings. All completed, old buildings put in good shape, and all the bills paid!

But—as they looked forward a few months, and counted up the probable receipts from all sources for running expenses they had to face the fact that they would be about $3000 behind. In other words the hospital will be that much in debt the first of January, unless in some way $3000 can be had in addition to the usual Hospital Sunday collections.

One reason why there is this deficit is the extra expenses were made necessary by the construction of the new buildings, and the repairs upon old ones. Among the heaviest items was the cost of putting in new boilers for heating the wards.

It is needless to say that the affairs of the hospital are managed with scrupulous care and exactness. Not a dollar is wasted. It is also needless to enlarge upon the good the institution is doing and the fine contributions something more than last year, the outlook will be bright enough.

Those who do not realize the extensive work the hospital is doing will get some idea of it when they learn that the expenditures this year will be about $30,000, and the number of patients treated will probably exceed 600.

G. W. SIMON.

Maynard Chapter of the Newton Natural History Society.

The tenth regular meeting of this chapter was held Friday, Sept. 9th, at Mr. Maynard's Laboratory, 447 C street. As Mr. Austin Clark was unable to be present, his communication was read by Mr. Maynard. The subject was "Fresh Water Shells," and specimens from various parts of the country were shown. In some of our western rivers the bottom is paved in some places for ten miles or more by these shells. The effect of carbon dioxide on them was clearly brought out. A most interesting talk on mushrooms was given by Miss Helen M. Noyes, and specimens of many of our native varieties were shown. First the difference between fungi and flowering plants was demonstrated. Then the mushrooms which are not edible were described and shown. The poisonous Amanita with its swollen base, white gills, ring and veil is one of these. But the large majority of our mushrooms are edible. Among these are the puff balls which are white inside, the honey mushroom with a ring and gills attached to the stem, the blusher, whose sharp-curved gills are conspicuous, and the milky mushroom, which will pour out milk when broken.

THOMAS FITZPATRICK, Sec'y.

Legal Notices.

By J. ALFRED ANDERSON, Auctioneer.
Office 200 Washington St., Boston.

Mortgagee's Sale.

By virtue of the power of sale contained in a mortgage deed given by Charles F. Bowker to Philip Gardner, dated December 5, A. D. 1898, and recorded with Middlesex South District Deeds, book 2394, page 284, for breach of the condition of said mortgage, and for the purpose of foreclosing the same, will be sold at public auction upon the premises hereinafter described, on Monday, the twenty-third day of October, A. D. 1899, at four o'clock in the afternoon, all and singular the premises conveyed by said mortgage, namely: A certain parcel of land with the buildings thereon situated in that part of Newton Highlands, and bounded as follows,

Beginning at a point on the northwesterly side of Saxon Road at land of Moses G. Crane (said Saxon Road being a new street leading North easterly from Griffin Avenue, and distant one hundred and seventy and 68-100 feet northeast from said Saxon Road), thence running Northwesterly by said land of Crane, one hundred and thirteen feet; thence running Southwesterly by said land of Crane, one hundred and thirteen feet; thence running Southeasterly by land of Richards, one hundred thirty and 50-100 feet; thence running Southeasterly by land of Richards, one hundred thirty and 50-100 feet; thence to the point of beginning. Containing 9178 square feet of land. And being the same premises conveyed to me by Nathan D. Barker by deed dated September 16, 1898, and duly recorded Book 2494, Page 556. Subject to the restrictions referred to therein and to a mortgage of Forty Two Hundred Dollars to the Newton Savings Bank Recorded Book 2233, Page 126.

Together with a right of way in said Saxon Road at Griffin Avenue.

Sold subject to a mortgage of $4200 to the Newton Savings Bank and accrued interest, and to all unpaid taxes and assessments.

Terms $500 cash at sale; other terms made known at time and place of sale.

Assignee and owner of mortgage.

Sept. 28, 1899.

Mortgagee's Sale.

By virtue of the power of sale contained in a certain mortgage deed given by Daniel Manning to George G. Brewer, dated Aug. 24th, A. D. 1898, and recorded with Middlesex South District Deeds, book 2394, page 304, for breach of the condition of said mortgage, and for the purpose of foreclosing the same, will be sold at public auction upon the premises hereinafter described, on Monday the twenty-third day of October, A. D. 1899, at four o'clock in the afternoon, all and singular the premises conveyed by said mortgage deed, and therein described substantially as follows: A certain parcel of land with the buildings thereon situated in Newton in the County of Middlesex and Commonwealth of Massachusetts, and being the same premises conveyed to me by Daniel Manning by deed dated August 24, 1898, and duly recorded with Middlesex South District Deeds, book 2394, page 304, for breach of the condition of said mortgage, and for the purpose of foreclosing the same, will be sold at public auction upon the premises hereinafter described, on Monday the twenty-third day of October, A. D. 1899, at four o'clock in the afternoon, all and singular the premises conveyed by said mortgage deed, and therein described substantially as follows: A certain parcel of land with the buildings thereon situated in Newton in the County of Middlesex and Commonwealth of Massachusetts, and being the same premises conveyed to me by Daniel Manning by deed dated August 24, 1898, and duly recorded with Middlesex South District Deeds, book 2394, page 304, for breach of the condition of said mortgage, and for the purpose of foreclosing the same, will be sold at public auction upon the premises hereinafter described, on Monday the twenty-third day of October, A. D. 1899, at four o'clock in the afternoon, all and singular the premises conveyed by said mortgage deed, and therein described substantially as follows: A certain parcel of land with the buildings thereon situated in Newton in the County of Middlesex and Commonwealth of Massachusetts, and being the same premises conveyed to me by Daniel Manning by deed dated August 24, 1898, and duly recorded with Middlesex South District Deeds, book 2394, page 304, for breach of the condition of said mortgage, and for the purpose of foreclosing the same, will be sold at public auction upon the premises hereinafter described, on Monday the twenty-third day of October, A. D. 1899, at four o'clock in the afternoon, all and singular the premises conveyed by said mortgage deed, and therein described substantially as follows: A certain parcel of land with the buildings thereon situated in Newton in the County of Middlesex and Commonwealth of Massachusetts, and being the same premises conveyed to me by Daniel Manning by deed dated August 24, 1898, and duly recorded with Middlesex South District Deeds, book 2394, page 304, for breach of the condition of said mortgage, and for the purpose of foreclosing the same, will be sold at public auction upon the premises hereinafter described, on Monday the twenty-third day of October, A. D. 1899, at four o'clock in the afternoon, all and singular the premises conveyed by said mortgage deed, and therein described substantially as follows: A certain parcel of land with the buildings thereon situated in Newton in the County of Middlesex and Commonwealth of Massachusetts, and being the same premises conveyed to me by Daniel Manning by deed dated August 24, 1898, and duly recorded with Middlesex South District Deeds, book 2394, page 304, for breach of the condition of said mortgage, and for the purpose of foreclosing the same, will be sold at public auction upon the premises hereinafter described, on Monday the twenty-third day of October, A. D. 1899, at four o'clock in the afternoon, all and singular the premises conveyed by said mortgage deed, and therein described substantially as follows: A certain parcel of land with the buildings thereon situated in Newton in the County of Middlesex and Commonwealth of Massachusetts, and being the same premises conveyed to me by Daniel Manning by deed dated August 24, 1898, and duly recorded with Middlesex South District Deeds, book 2394, page 304, for breach of the condition of said mortgage, and for the purpose of foreclosing the same, will be sold at public auction upon the premises hereinafter described, on Monday the twenty-third day of October, A. D. 1899, at four o'clock in the afternoon, all and singular the premises conveyed by said mortgage deed, and therein described substantially as follows: A certain parcel of land with the buildings thereon situated in Newton in the County of Middlesex and Commonwealth of Massachusetts, and being the same premises conveyed to me by Daniel Manning by deed dated August 24, 1898, and duly recorded with Middlesex South District Deeds, book 2394, page 304, for breach of the condition of said mortgage, and for the purpose of foreclosing the same, will be sold at public auction upon the premises hereinafter described, on Monday the twenty-third day of October, A. D. 1899, at four o'clock in the afternoon, all and singular the premises conveyed by said mortgage deed, and therein described substantially as follows: A certain parcel of land with the buildings thereon situated in Newton in the County of Middlesex and Commonwealth of Massachusetts, and being the same premises conveyed to me by Daniel Manning by deed dated August 24, 1898, and duly recorded with Middlesex South District Deeds, book 2394, page 304, for breach of the condition of said mortgage, and for the purpose of foreclosing the same, will be sold at public auction upon the premises hereinafter described, on Monday the twenty-third day of October, A. D. 1899, at four o'clock in the afternoon, all and singular the premises conveyed by said mortgage deed, and therein described substantially as follows: A certain parcel of land with the buildings thereon situated in Newton in the County of Middlesex and Commonwealth of Massachusetts, and being the same premises conveyed to me by Daniel Manning by deed dated August 24, 1898, and duly recorded with Middlesex South District Deeds, book 2394, page 304, for breach of the condition of said mortgage, and for the purpose of foreclosing the same, will be sold at public auction upon the premises hereinafter described, on Monday the twenty-third day of October, A. D. 1899, at four o'clock in the afternoon, all and singular the premises conveyed by said mortgage deed, and therein described substantially as follows: A certain parcel of land with the buildings thereon situated in Newton in the County of Middlesex and Commonwealth of Massachusetts, and being the same premises conveyed to me by Daniel Manning by deed dated August 24, 1898, and duly recorded with Middlesex South District Deeds, book 2394, page 304, for breach of the condition of said mortgage, and for the purpose of foreclosing the same, will be sold at public auction upon the premises hereinafter described, on Monday the twenty-third day of October, A. D. 1899, at four o'clock in the afternoon, all and singular the premises conveyed by said mortgage deed, and therein described substantially as follows: A certain parcel of land with the buildings thereon situated in Newton in the County of Middlesex and Commonwealth of Massachusetts, and being the same premises conveyed to me by Daniel Manning by deed dated August 24, 1898, and duly recorded with Middlesex South District Deeds, book 2394, page 304, for breach of the condition of said mortgage, and for the purpose of foreclosing the same, will be sold at public auction upon the premises hereinafter described, on Monday the twenty-third day of October, A. D. 1899, at four o'clock in the afternoon, all and singular the premises conveyed by said mortgage deed, and therein described substantially as follows: A certain parcel of land with the buildings thereon situated in Newton in the County of Middlesex and Commonwealth of Massachusetts, and being the same premises conveyed to me by Daniel Manning by deed dated August 24, 1898, and duly recorded with Middlesex South District Deeds, book 2394, page 304, for breach of the condition of said mortgage, and for the purpose of foreclosing the same, will be sold at public auction upon the premises hereinafter described, on Monday the twenty-third day of October, A. D. 1899, at four o'clock in the afternoon, all and singular the premises conveyed by said mortgage deed, and therein described substantially as follows: A certain parcel of land with the buildings thereon situated in Newton in the County of Middlesex and Commonwealth of Massachusetts, and being the same premises conveyed to me by Daniel Manning by deed dated August 24, 1898, and duly recorded with Middlesex South District Deeds, book 2394, page 304, for breach of the condition of said mortgage, and for the purpose of foreclosing the same, will be sold at public auction upon the premises hereinafter described, on Monday the twenty-third day of October, A. D. 1899, at four o'clock in the afternoon, all and singular the premises conveyed by said mortgage deed, and therein described substantially as follows: A certain parcel of land with the buildings thereon situated in Newton in the County of Middlesex and Commonwealth of Massachusetts, and being the same premises conveyed to me by Daniel Manning by deed dated August 24, 1898, and duly recorded with Middlesex South District Deeds, book 2394, page 304, for breach of the condition of said mortgage, and for the purpose of foreclosing the same, will be sold at public auction upon the premises hereinafter described, on Monday the twenty-third day of October, A. D. 1899, at four o'clock in the afternoon, all and singular the premises conveyed by said mortgage deed, and therein described substantially as follows: A certain parcel of land with the buildings thereon situated in Newton in the County of Middlesex and Commonwealth of Massachusetts, and being the same premises conveyed to me by Daniel Manning by deed dated August 24, 1898, and duly recorded with Middlesex South District Deeds, book 2394, page 304, for breach of the condition of said mortgage, and for the purpose of foreclosing the same, will be sold at public auction upon the premises hereinafter described, on Monday the twenty-third day of October, A. D. 1899, at four o'clock in the afternoon, all and singular the premises conveyed by said mortgage deed, and therein described substantially as follows: A certain parcel of land with the buildings thereon situated in Newton in the County of Middlesex and Commonwealth of Massachusetts, and being the same premises conveyed to me by Daniel Manning by deed dated August 24, 1898, and duly recorded with Middlesex South District Deeds, book 2394, page 304, for breach of the condition of said mortgage, and for the purpose of foreclosing the same, will be sold at public auction upon the premises hereinafter described, on Monday the twenty-third day of October, A. D. 1899, at four o'clock in the afternoon, all and singular the premises conveyed by said mortgage deed, and therein described substantially as follows: A certain parcel of land with the buildings thereon situated in Newton in the County of Middlesex and Commonwealth of Massachusetts, and being the same premises conveyed to me by Daniel Manning by deed dated August 24, 1898, and duly recorded with Middlesex South District Deeds, book 2394, page 304, for breach of the condition of said mortgage, and for the purpose of foreclosing the same, will be sold at public auction upon the premises hereinafter described, on Monday the twenty-third day of October, A. D. 1899, at four o'clock in the afternoon, all and singular the premises conveyed by said mortgage deed, and therein described substantially as follows: A certain parcel of land with the buildings thereon situated in Newton in the County of Middlesex and Commonwealth of Massachusetts, and being the same premises conveyed to me by Daniel Manning by deed dated August 24, 1898, and duly recorded with Middlesex South District Deeds, book 2394, page 304, for breach of the condition of said mortgage, and for the purpose of foreclosing the same, will be sold at public auction upon the premises hereinafter described, on Monday the twenty-third day of October, A. D. 1899, at four o'clock in the afternoon, all and singular the premises conveyed by said mortgage deed, and therein described substantially as follows: A certain parcel of land with the buildings thereon situated in Newton in the County of Middlesex and Commonwealth of Massachusetts, and being the same premises conveyed to me by Daniel Manning by deed dated August 24, 1898, and duly recorded with Middlesex South District Deeds, book 2394, page 304, for breach of the condition of said mortgage, and for the purpose of foreclosing the same, will be sold at public auction upon the premises hereinafter described, on Monday the twenty-third day of October, A. D. 1899, at four o'clock in the afternoon, all and singular the premises conveyed by said mortgage deed, and therein described substantially as follows: A certain parcel of land with the buildings thereon situated in Newton in the County of Middlesex and Commonwealth of Massachusetts, and being the same premises conveyed to me by Daniel Manning by deed dated August 24, 1898, and duly recorded with Middlesex South District Deeds, book 2394, page 304, for breach of the condition of said mortgage, and for the purpose of foreclosing the same, will be sold at public auction upon the premises hereinafter described, on Monday the twenty-third day of October, A. D. 1899, at four o'clock in the afternoon, all and singular the premises conveyed by said mortgage deed, and therein described substantially as follows: A certain parcel of land with the buildings thereon situated in Newton in the County of Middlesex and Commonwealth of Massachusetts, and being the same premises conveyed to me by Daniel Manning by deed dated August 24, 1898, and duly recorded with Middlesex South District Deeds, book 2394, page 304, for breach of the condition of said mortgage, and for the purpose of foreclosing the same, will be sold at public auction upon the premises hereinafter described, on Monday the twenty-third day of October, A. D. 1899, at four o'clock in the afternoon, all and singular the premises conveyed by said mortgage deed, and therein described substantially as follows: A certain parcel of land with the buildings thereon situated in Newton in the County of Middlesex and Commonwealth of Massachusetts, and being the same premises conveyed to me by Daniel Manning by deed dated August 24, 1898, and duly recorded with Middlesex South District Deeds, book 2394, page 304, for breach of the condition of said mortgage, and for the purpose of foreclosing the same, will be sold at public auction upon the premises hereinafter described, on Monday the twenty-third day of October, A. D. 1899, at four o'clock in the afternoon, all and singular the premises conveyed by said mortgage deed, and therein described substantially as follows: A certain parcel of land with the buildings thereon situated in Newton in the County of Middlesex and Commonwealth of Massachusetts, and being the same premises conveyed to me by Daniel Manning by deed dated August 24, 1898, and duly recorded with Middlesex South District Deeds, book 2394, page 304, for breach of the condition of said mortgage, and for the purpose of foreclosing the same, will be sold at public auction upon the premises hereinafter described, on Monday the twenty-third day of October, A. D. 1899, at four o'clock in the afternoon, all and singular the premises conveyed by said mortgage deed, and therein described substantially as follows: A certain parcel of land with the buildings thereon situated in Newton in the County of Middlesex and Commonwealth of Massachusetts, and being the same premises conveyed to me by Daniel Manning by deed dated August 24, 1898, and duly recorded with Middlesex South District Deeds, book 2394, page 304, for breach of the condition of said mortgage, and for the purpose of foreclosing the same, will be sold at public auction upon the premises hereinafter described, on Monday the twenty-third day of October, A. D. 1899, at four o'clock in the afternoon, all and singular the premises conveyed by said mortgage deed, and therein described substantially as follows: A certain parcel of land with the buildings thereon situated in Newton in the County of Middlesex and Commonwealth of Massachusetts, and being the same premises conveyed to me by Daniel Manning by deed dated August 24, 1898, and duly recorded with Middlesex South District Deeds, book 2394, page 304, for breach of the condition of said mortgage, and for the purpose of foreclosing the same, will be sold at public auction upon the premises hereinafter described, on Monday the twenty-third day of October, A. D. 1899, at four o'clock in the afternoon, all and singular the premises conveyed by said mortgage deed, and therein described substantially as follows: A certain parcel of land with the buildings thereon situated in Newton in the County of Middlesex and Commonwealth of Massachusetts, and being the same premises conveyed to me by Daniel Manning by deed dated August 24, 1898, and duly recorded with Middlesex South District Deeds, book 2394, page 304, for breach of the condition of said mortgage, and for the purpose of foreclosing the same, will be sold at public auction upon the premises hereinafter described, on Monday the twenty-third day of October, A. D. 1899, at four o'clock in the afternoon, all and singular the premises conveyed by said mortgage deed, and therein described substantially as follows: A certain parcel of land with the buildings thereon situated in Newton in the County of Middlesex and Commonwealth of Massachusetts, and being the same premises conveyed to me by Daniel Manning by deed dated August 24, 1898, and duly recorded with Middlesex South District Deeds, book 2394, page 304, for breach of the condition of said mortgage, and for the purpose of foreclosing the same, will be sold at public auction upon the premises hereinafter described, on Monday the twenty-third day of October, A. D. 1899, at four o'clock in the afternoon, all and singular the premises conveyed by said mortgage deed, and therein described substantially as follows: A certain parcel of land with the buildings thereon situated in Newton in the County of Middlesex and Commonwealth of Massachusetts, and being the same premises conveyed to me by Daniel Manning by deed dated August 24, 1898, and duly recorded with Middlesex South District Deeds, book 2394, page 304, for breach of the condition of said mortgage, and for the purpose of foreclosing the same, will be sold at public auction upon the premises hereinafter described, on Monday the twenty-third day of October, A. D. 1899, at four o'clock in the afternoon, all and singular the premises conveyed by said mortgage deed, and therein described substantially as follows: A certain parcel of land with the buildings thereon situated in Newton in the County of Middlesex and Commonwealth of Massachusetts, and being the same premises conveyed to me by Daniel Manning by deed dated August 24, 1898, and duly recorded with Middlesex South District Deeds, book 2394, page 304, for breach of the condition of said mortgage, and for the purpose of foreclosing the same, will be sold at public auction upon the premises hereinafter described, on Monday the twenty-third day of October, A. D. 1899, at four o'clock in the afternoon, all and singular the premises conveyed by said mortgage deed, and therein described substantially as follows: A certain parcel of land with the buildings thereon situated in Newton in the County of Middlesex and Commonwealth of Massachusetts, and being the same premises conveyed to me by Daniel Manning by deed dated August 24, 1898, and duly recorded with Middlesex South District Deeds, book 2394, page 304, for breach of the condition of said mortgage, and for the purpose of foreclosing the same, will be sold at public auction upon the premises hereinafter described, on Monday the twenty-third day of October, A. D. 1899, at four o'clock in the afternoon, all and singular the premises conveyed by said mortgage deed, and therein described substantially as follows: A certain parcel of land with the buildings thereon situated in Newton in the County of Middlesex and Commonwealth of Massachusetts, and being the same premises conveyed to me by Daniel Manning by deed dated August 24, 1898, and duly recorded with Middlesex South District Deeds, book 2394, page 304, for breach of the condition of said mortgage, and for the purpose of foreclosing the same, will be sold at public auction upon the premises hereinafter described, on Monday the twenty-third day of October, A. D. 1899, at four o'clock in the afternoon, all and singular the premises conveyed by said mortgage deed, and therein described substantially as follows: A certain parcel of land with the buildings thereon situated in Newton in the County of Middlesex and Commonwealth of Massachusetts, and being the same premises conveyed to me by Daniel Manning by deed dated August 24, 1898, and duly recorded with Middlesex South District Deeds, book 2394, page 304, for breach of the condition of said mortgage, and for the purpose of foreclosing the same, will be sold at public auction upon the premises hereinafter described, on Monday the twenty-third day of October, A. D. 1899, at four o'clock in the afternoon, all and singular the premises conveyed by said mortgage deed, and therein described substantially as follows: A certain parcel of land with the buildings thereon situated in Newton in the County of Middlesex and Commonwealth of Massachusetts, and being the same premises conveyed to me by Daniel Manning by deed dated August 24, 1898, and duly recorded with Middlesex South District Deeds, book 2394, page 304, for breach of the condition of said mortgage, and for the purpose of foreclosing the same, will be sold at public auction upon the premises hereinafter described, on Monday the twenty-third day of October, A. D. 1899, at four o'clock in the afternoon, all and singular the premises conveyed by said mortgage deed, and therein described substantially as follows: A certain parcel of land with the buildings thereon situated in Newton in the County of Middlesex and Commonwealth of Massachusetts, and being the same premises conveyed to me by Daniel Manning by deed dated August 24, 1898, and duly recorded with Middlesex South District Deeds, book 2394, page 304, for breach of the condition of said mortgage, and for the purpose of foreclosing the same, will be sold at public auction upon the premises hereinafter described, on Monday the twenty-third day of October, A. D. 1899, at four o'clock in the afternoon, all and singular the premises conveyed by said mortgage deed, and therein described substantially as follows: A certain parcel of land with the buildings thereon situated in Newton in the County of Middlesex and Commonwealth of Massachusetts, and being the same premises conveyed to me by Daniel Manning by deed dated August 24, 1898, and duly recorded with Middlesex South District Deeds, book 2394, page 304, for breach of the condition of said mortgage, and for the purpose of foreclosing the same, will be sold at public auction upon the premises hereinafter described, on Monday the twenty-third day of October, A. D. 1899, at four o'clock in the afternoon, all and singular the premises conveyed by said mortgage deed, and therein described substantially as follows: A certain parcel of land with the buildings thereon situated in Newton in the County of Middlesex and Commonwealth of Massachusetts, and being the same premises conveyed to me by Daniel Manning by deed dated August 24, 1898, and duly recorded with Middlesex South District Deeds, book 2394, page 304, for breach of the condition of said mortgage, and for the purpose of foreclosing the same, will be sold at public auction upon the premises hereinafter described, on Monday the twenty-third day of October, A. D. 1899, at four o'clock in the afternoon, all and singular the premises conveyed by said mortgage deed, and therein described substantially as follows: A certain parcel of land with the buildings thereon situated in Newton in the County of Middlesex and Commonwealth of Massachusetts, and being the same premises conveyed to me by Daniel Manning by deed dated August 24, 1898, and duly recorded with Middlesex South District Deeds, book 2394, page 304, for breach of the condition of said mortgage, and for the purpose of foreclosing the same, will be sold at public auction upon the premises hereinafter described, on Monday the twenty-third day of October, A. D. 1899, at four o'clock in the afternoon, all and singular the premises conveyed by said mortgage deed, and therein described substantially as follows: A certain parcel of land with the buildings thereon situated in Newton in the County of Middlesex and Commonwealth of Massachusetts, and being the same premises conveyed to me by Daniel Manning by deed dated August 24, 1898, and duly recorded with Middlesex South District Deeds, book 2394, page 304, for breach of the condition of said mortgage, and for the purpose of foreclosing the same, will be sold at public auction upon the premises hereinafter described, on Monday the twenty-third day of October, A. D. 1899, at four o'clock in the afternoon, all and singular the premises conveyed by said mortgage deed, and therein described substantially as follows: A certain parcel of land with the buildings thereon situated in Newton in the County of Middlesex and Commonwealth of Massachusetts, and being the same premises conveyed to me by Daniel Manning by deed dated August 24, 1898, and duly recorded with Middlesex South District Deeds, book 2394, page 304, for breach of the condition of said mortgage, and for the purpose of foreclosing the same, will be sold at public auction upon the premises hereinafter described, on Monday the twenty-third day of October, A. D. 1899, at four o'clock in the afternoon, all and singular the premises conveyed by said mortgage deed, and therein described substantially as follows: A certain parcel of land with the buildings thereon situated in Newton in the County of Middlesex and Commonwealth of Massachusetts, and being the same premises conveyed to me by Daniel Manning by deed dated August 24, 1898, and duly recorded with Middlesex South District Deeds, book 2394, page 304, for breach of the condition of said mortgage, and for the purpose of foreclosing the same, will be sold at public auction upon the premises hereinafter described, on Monday the twenty-third day of October, A. D. 1899, at four o'clock in the afternoon, all and singular the premises conveyed by said mortgage deed, and therein described substantially as follows: A certain parcel of land with the buildings thereon situated in Newton in the County of Middlesex and Commonwealth of Massachusetts, and being the same premises conveyed to me by Daniel Manning by deed dated August 24, 1898, and duly recorded with Middlesex South District Deeds, book 2394, page 304, for breach of the condition of said mortgage, and for the purpose of foreclosing the same, will be sold at public auction upon the premises hereinafter described, on Monday the twenty-third day of October, A. D. 1899, at four o'clock in the afternoon, all and singular the premises conveyed by said mortgage deed, and therein described substantially as follows: A certain parcel of land with the buildings thereon situated in Newton in the County of Middlesex and Commonwealth of Massachusetts, and being the same premises conveyed to me by Daniel Manning by deed dated August 24, 1898, and duly recorded with Middlesex South District Deeds, book 2394, page 304, for breach of the condition of said mortgage, and for the purpose of foreclosing the same, will be sold at public auction upon the premises hereinafter described, on Monday the twenty-third day of October, A. D. 1899, at four o'clock in the afternoon, all and singular the premises conveyed by said mortgage deed, and therein described substantially as follows: A certain parcel of land with the buildings thereon situated in Newton in the County of Middlesex and Commonwealth of Massachusetts, and being the same premises conveyed to me by Daniel Manning by deed dated August 24, 1898, and duly recorded with Middlesex South District Deeds, book 2394, page 304, for breach of the condition of said mortgage, and for the purpose of foreclosing the same, will be sold at public auction upon the premises hereinafter described, on Monday the twenty-third day of October, A. D. 1899, at four o'clock in the afternoon, all and singular the premises conveyed by said mortgage deed, and therein described substantially as follows: A certain parcel of land with the buildings thereon situated in Newton in the County of Middlesex and Commonwealth of Massachusetts, and being the same premises conveyed to me by Daniel Manning by deed dated August 24, 1898, and duly recorded with Middlesex South District Deeds, book 2394, page 304, for breach of the condition of said mortgage, and for the purpose of foreclosing the same, will be sold at public auction upon the premises hereinafter described, on Monday the twenty-third day of October, A. D. 1899, at four o'clock in the afternoon, all and singular the premises conveyed by said mortgage deed, and therein described substantially as follows

WALTER THORPE, Newton Centre.
Agent for THE GRAPHIC, and receives subscriptions and makes deliveries for it. He also makes terms for advertising, hand bills, and other kinds of printing. Also, Real Estate, and to rent, and insurance against fire in the English and American companies.

NEWTON CENTRE.

—Miss Winslow has returned to August, Me.
—Mr. G. W. Beal has taken a house on Elgin street.
—Mr. H. A. Robinson has taken a house on Morton street.
—Mrs. Doane of Duxbury is visiting Mrs. W. F. Woodman.
—Miss Hannah Coveney is ill at the Newton Hospital.
—Miss Keeler of the Mason school is staying at the Pelham.
—There was a slight snow fall on Monday noon in this village.
—Mr. W. O. Knapp is in New York on a business and pleasure trip.
—Mr. F. W. Clark of Pleasant street has moved to Newton Highlands.
—Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Knapp are enjoying a brief visit in New York.
—The Misses Knapp and Turner are back from the White Mountains.
—Mr. H. N. Clark and family have removed from Gibbs street to Boston.
—Mr. W. B. Stetson of Pleasant street has returned from Brooklyn, N. Y.
—Mr. John Proudfoot of Maple park returned this week from New Hampshire.
—Mr. Slade and family of Beacon street have moved to their winter home in Boston.
—Letter-carrier George Walker is on duty again after an enjoyable vacation of two weeks.

—Mr. and Mrs. Chas. A. Clark of Cypress street are spending the month of October in Joplin, Mo.
—Mr. F. W. Clark has moved from Pleasant street to a house he has built in Newton Highlands.

—Mrs. Maude Nias West's first class in dancing will open at Bray's Hall, Wednesday, Oct. 11, to 6.

—Mr. E. W. Darrell, Mrs. William Donaldson and Mrs. Jesse Jackson have returned from Nova Scotia.

—Mr. J. F. D. Paine and family have removed from Beacon street to Boston, where they will pass the winter.

—Mr. W. H. Puffer and family of Beacon street have this week returned from their summer home at Nonquit.

—It is expected that Rev. Mr. Chambliss will occupy the pulpit of the First Baptist church during the month of October.

—Miss Baker of the Rice school has returned from a three months' trip abroad and will resume teaching on Monday.

—Mr. Anton Miller left last week for St. Louis, Mo., where he goes to accept a position with one of the large shoe companies.

—Miss Jennie Conroy of Braeland avenue gave a very pretty party to a number of her young friends last Wednesday evening.

—"Some lessons from suffering" will be the topic at the Young People's Union at the First Baptist church on Sunday evening.

—A meeting of the Woman's Benevolent Society was held in the parlors of the First Baptist church last Wednesday morning.

—At the Unitarian church Sunday, services will be conducted at 10:30 a. m. by Rev. Mr. Lutz of Cambridge. Sunday school at 12.

—A delegation from the First Baptist church attended the meeting of the Boston West Baptist Association held in Foxboro on Wednesday.

—There will be an informal social and dance in Associates small hall next Monday evening, given by a number of young men of this place.

—Mr. G. P. Guerrier and family, who have been passing the summer at Oak Hill, have this week removed to their winter residence in Boston.

—Mr. Franklin Williams is building a house on Lawrence road to cost $7,500. Chapman & Fraser are the architects and John Campbell is the builder.

—Mr. Richards and family, formerly guests at the Pelham, have taken a house on Commonwealth avenue near Grant avenue, which they are soon to occupy.

—The engagement is announced this week of Miss Florence Louche, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. C. Armstrong of West Newton to Mr. Harry Leslie Kimball of West Newton.

—Again mischievous boys have been tampering with the life-saving apparatus on the shore of Crystal Lake. Yesterday it was ascertained that the locks had been broken and the ladders disturbed.

—While Davis Zindell of Thompsonville and his wife were driving in Boston their carriage was struck by an electric car. Both Mr. and Mrs. Zindell received painful injuries and are at present confined to their beds.

—While Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Melcher of Bowden street were enjoying a drive last Saturday their horse became frightened and ran away. Mr. and Mrs. Melcher were thrown from the carriage and slightly injured.

—Mr. Geo. E. B. Putnam has moved into his recently finished house, 16 Elmore street, coming here from Allston. Mr. Putnam is one of the editors of the Boot & Shoe Recorder, having been connected with that paper since 1890, and his writings are well known in the boot and shoe trade throughout the country.

—The death of Mr. F. W. Turner, formerly of Norwood avenue, occurred at his summer residence at Atlantic Hill, Nantasket, last Tuesday. He was a member of the firm of Henry A. Turner & Co. Funeral services were held at Mt. Auburn chapel yesterday afternoon and the interment was in the family lot.

—"Wireless Telegraphy" is the subject just announced by the Edward Everett Hale Club, for its first meeting, Tuesday, Oct. 10th. The speaker will be Prof. A. E. Doherty of Tufts College, of Telephone fame, who has come into new prominence through patents granted in this country several years since, which are substantially identical with those of Marconi. Most of the meetings will be held, as usual, in the church parlors of the Unitarian society, and will be addressed by the following well known men: November—Mr. Andrew J. Chase and W. H. Walker, Ph. D. (Geotectonics) of the Dept. of Chemistry of the Mass. Inst. of Technology. Mr. Chase is responsible for what may be called the invention of Liquid Air. Complete experimental apparatus will be used. Subject—Liquid Air. December—Prof. Frank Parsons of the Boston University Law School. Prof. Parsons is well known by his writings and lectures on Socialism, and is one of its ablest defenders and advocates. January—Mr. S. G. Ferguson of the Blue Hill Observatory, Milton. "Scientific Kite Flying." February—Rev. Thomas Van Ness of the Second Church in Boston on "The Parsifal." March—Mr. Horace G. Wadlin, Mr. Wadlin holds the unique position of being the only State Chief in charge of the census in the United States. Subject to be announced. April—"Ladies' Night." Col. Curtis Guild, Jr.

NEWTON HIGHLANDS.

—Mrs. Havens has returned from a stay at Gloucester, much improved in health.
—The C. L. S. C. will meet with Miss Bacall, Forest street, next Monday, Oct. 9.
—Mr. Robert Hopkins of Newton Centre now occupies his new house on Pierce street.
—The Monday Club will hold its next meeting with Mrs. Bail, Walnut street, at 2:30.
—The West End Literary Club will meet next Monday at the home of Mrs. Leonard, Standish street.

—Mr. James Simpson and family have returned from a stay at their summer home at Wrentham.

—Mr. J. L. Bailey of Lakewood road is moving this week to Newton, where he was formerly a resident.

—The Walter Allen family, after an absence of several years, now re-occupy their estate on Walnut street.

—The heirs of Wm. Chaffield are having additions and improvements made to their estate on Hartford street.

—Mr. L. S. Fogg, the builder at Eliot, has purchased thirty-five lots of land of the Phoenix Land Co. near Eliot station.

—Mr. Alfred V. Shaw, who has been north with the Peary Expedition, has returned after an absence of two months.

—There are letters remaining in the post office for Mary Fahey, Thomas Keaveny, Mrs. Addie J. Lee, Cassie T. Morash, Mrs. N. Pratt.

—Mr. N. Amsden, who has been at his summer home in Hardwick, for most of the summer, has returned to his home on Hartford street.

—Mr. Howard Emerson, who has been summering at Newton Centre, and the beach, has taken the house on Pierce street formerly occupied by Mr. Teulon.

—Rev. Mr. Jones, who has been the guest of Mr. Seward W. Jones, and was a delegate to the International Council, has returned to his home in Philadelphia.

—There will be a Christian Endeavor Sabbath at the chapel of the Congregational church next Monday evening at 7:30 for the choice of officers and matters of business.

—Greenwood's Real Estate Agency has let the south side half of the house on Thornton street belonging to Alderman Chesley, to Mr. George W. Bayley, who now occupies the same.

—A special meeting of the All Souls Unitarian society will be held at the residence of E. Moulton, Walnut street, this (Friday) evening, at 8 o'clock, to take up the unfinished business of the annual meeting.

—Miss Mary McDonald, who has conducted a convalescent home at Wellesley, will establish a "Home" at Eliot terrace, on Carver road, at corner of Endicott street, in a new house belonging to Mr. King of Brookline.

—Mr. F. W. Clark of Newton Centre, who purchased the estate on Montfort road, and occupied for several years by Mr. J. P. Estabrook, has had the house greatly improved inside, and now has taken up his residence there.

—The new house, with eleven thousand feet of land belonging to the Bass River Savings Bank, at "Rockledge," fronting on Centre street, has been sold to a Mr. Metcalf, who is now having the grounds graded, and house put in order for his own occupancy.

—Mr. L. M. Dorr, who has occupied the Walter Allen estate on Walnut street, for several years, has removed to Dickinson road at Eliot, and taken the house belonging to Mr. W. E. Moore, and lately vacated by Mr. Chabourne, who has bought an estate at Waban.

—Prof. L. T. Townsend, D. D., well known as an author and orator, whose recent address at the Berkeley Temple, Boston, on the Philippine question awakened so much interest and comment, will preach at the Methodist church next Sunday evening at 7:30. The pastor, Rev. T. W. Bishop, will preach in the morning at 10:45.

—The first social of the season of the Congregational society was held on Wednesday evening in the chapel, which was well attended, a large proportion of which were the younger members. The entertainment was a musical program, consisting of piano solos by Harold Shaw, songs by Miss Susannah and Mr. Forbes of Newton Centre, with Miss Morse at the piano as accompanist. Refreshments consisting of sandwiches, cake and ice cream were served by a large corps of the younger portion of the young people, aided by the members of the entertainment committee. The chapel was beautifully decorated with flowers and autumn leaves. A special invitation had been extended to those who have lately taken up their residence here, and a good number of such were present.

NEWTON LOWER FALLS.

—There are at present three physicians residing and practicing here.

—Registration officers were in session at Freeman hall, Monday evening.

—Mr. Harry Vyett, barber, will open for business next week in Gammon's new block.

—Miss Florence Ball has returned from a trip to Plainville, Conn., where she has been visiting.

—The severe frost Sunday night caught many unprepared and as a result many flowers and precious plants were destroyed.

—It is generally believed when the Waban district has free delivery about January, the system will be extended to include this place.

—Mr. John Warren returned from New York this week after reviewing the Dewey parade and reception. The yacht races were also taken in.

—Mr. James Early has two houses ready for occupants. The property was purchased from park commissioners and thoroughly remodelled.

—A napping machine of considerable value has recently been set up at the Dudley Mills. The machine is of the latest make and it is now being manufactured almost exclusively.

—The rector of St. Mary's will give a series of discourses on some of the eminent men of the church of England on Sunday afternoons in Oct. and Nov. Service at 4:30. All are invited.

—The Rectory Club of St. Mary's parish will meet on Tuesday evening, Oct. 10th, in the parish house. There will be a debate followed by readings and a prepared paper with general discussion on an assigned topic.

—The management of the Natick & Cohasset Street Railroad inaugurated the 3 cent fare last Sunday after a long agitation over this matter. Judging from the number of persons the worse of liquor from this vicinity on that date, and since the saved nickel is not used for the best purpose.

—The play will consist of a preliminary round of 36 holes, medal play, all to be played on one day, or 18 holes on each of the two days. The first sixteen players will qualify for the championship, the next eight for the consolation prize. After the preliminary round all play will be match play, 18 holes for a match, except the finals, which will be 36 holes.

—All matches, except the finals, may be played on any course in the city, to which both opponents agree. In case of disagreement the match shall be played on the Newton course. The finals shall be played on the Newton course not later than Nov. 4th, at a time to be appointed by the committee. All prior matches shall be played as soon as possible after the conclusion of the qualifying round. Opponents in the first round of match play will be drawn by lot, and must at once notify the committee of the time and place they choose for their matches. Opponents in subsequent rounds must give a similar notice. Any player failing to appear at the time and place chosen or appointed shall be defaulted.

—The committee in charge includes H. L. Ayer, C. W. Royce, E. A. Wilkie, A. J. Wellington, Thos. Weston, Jr.

—There are 39 entries in all, and nearly all players of prominence in the city are included. The entries by clubs follow: B. A. Burn of West Newton—George A. Froit, George H. Phelps, Herbert C. Perkins, H. P. Perkins, Jr., E. C. Fletcher, D. S. Fisher, E. C. Fowler, C. E. Wellington, H. L. Ayer, H. B. Day, G. T. Lincoln, J. Dana Thomas, W. B. Merrill; Newton Centre Golf Club—D. T. Kidder, E. H. Kidder, E. M. Noyes, C. W. Royce, J. D. Green, Henry Bailey, E. L. Allen, D. A. Harrington, F. H. Hovey, George E. Warren, Allen Hubbard, Clinton Hunter, Percy Gilbert, S. Shannon; Newton Golf Club—A. B. Cobb, F. N. Robbins, A. C. Wellington, E. A. Wilkie, J. J. Walworth, J. A. Lord, Percy Dewey, Marshall Stinson, George Linder; Commonwealth Golf Club—Messrs. Little and Watson.

Entries for Championship Golf Tournament.

A golf tournament for the championship of Newton, will be held on the links of the Newton Golf Club, today and tomorrow, Oct. 6 and 7, open to all players who have been residents of Newton for six months next preceding the tournament, and who are duly accredited members of one of the golf clubs within the limits of the city.

The play will consist of a preliminary round of 36 holes, medal play, all to be played on one day, or 18 holes on each of the two days. The first sixteen players will qualify for the championship, the next eight for the consolation prize. After the preliminary round all play will be match play, 18 holes for a match, except the finals, which will be 36 holes.

—All matches, except the finals, may be played on any course in the city, to which both opponents agree. In case of disagreement the match shall be played on the Newton course. The finals shall be played on the Newton course not later than Nov. 4th, at a time to be appointed by the committee. All prior matches shall be played as soon as possible after the conclusion of the qualifying round. Opponents in the first round of match play will be drawn by lot, and must at once notify the committee of the time and place they choose for their matches. Opponents in subsequent rounds must give a similar notice. Any player failing to appear at the time and place chosen or appointed shall be defaulted.

—The committee in charge includes H. L. Ayer, C. W. Royce, E. A. Wilkie, A. J. Wellington, Thos. Weston, Jr.

—There are 39 entries in all, and nearly all players of prominence in the city are included. The entries by clubs follow: B. A. Burn of West Newton—George A. Froit, George H. Phelps, Herbert C. Perkins, H. P. Perkins, Jr., E. C. Fletcher, D. S. Fisher, E. C. Fowler, C. E. Wellington, H. L. Ayer, H. B. Day, G. T. Lincoln, J. Dana Thomas, W. B. Merrill; Newton Centre Golf Club—D. T. Kidder, E. H. Kidder, E. M. Noyes, C. W. Royce, J. D. Green, Henry Bailey, E. L. Allen, D. A. Harrington, F. H. Hovey, George E. Warren, Allen Hubbard, Clinton Hunter, Percy Gilbert, S. Shannon; Newton Golf Club—A. B. Cobb, F. N. Robbins, A. C. Wellington, E. A. Wilkie, J. J. Walworth, J. A. Lord, Percy Dewey, Marshall Stinson, George Linder; Commonwealth Golf Club—Messrs. Little and Watson.

Woodland Park Hotel.

F. S. Stanford, Boston, arrived Saturday for the month of October.

Mrs. Alex. Margesson and daughter of East Milton, Mass., are at the hotel for a few days stay.

W. S. McManus of Troy, N. Y., was a guest of Mr. Gooding last week.

Mrs. H. H. Mawhinney and daughter of Framingham, were at the hotel for a few days this week.

H. M. Phillips and wife of Springfield, are driving through the state, stopped at the hotel last Saturday and Sunday.

F. F. Rhodes and wife and Mrs. A. W. Hobart Boston, have taken apartments for the season.

Mrs. M. E. Cruikshank and Miss Mary Cruikshank have returned to the hotel and taken rooms for the winter.

A progressive euchre party was held in the hotel on Thursday evening. Sixteen couples participated and prizes were won by Mrs. Robinson, Miss Walker and Mrs. Morse, Mr. Richards, Mr. Robinson, and Mr. Hallett.

The Woodland Golf Club held their annual meeting at the hotel last evening, and the following officers were elected for the ensuing year. Pres., S. L. Walton, Secy., and treas., G. E. Blackmur, executive committee E. D. Chamberlain, F. M. Train, and E. E. Plummer. The links have been greatly improved, and the first tournament will probably be held on Oct. 14th. Seventeen new members were elected to membership.

Mr. L. D. Blodgett and family of Framingham are expected to arrive about Oct. 15th.

FAIRBAIN FOR SHERIFF.

MIDDLESEX REPUBLICANS NOMINATE HIM AND COMMISSIONER GOULD.

Ballots were unknown at the Middlesex County Republican Convention, which was held Wednesday morning in Institute hall, East Cambridge. Nominations were made by acclamation, and there was not a semblance of a contest. It was a veritable love feast.

The veteran officers of the convention, the Hon. James Pierce of Malden, who has served 21 consecutive years as chairman of the county convention, and Henry W. Pitman of Somerville, who has served 22 consecutive years as secretary, were again chosen for their respective places.

Levi S. Gould of Melrose was renominated for county commissioner, and John R. Fairbairn of East Cambridge was nominated for sheriff, succeeding Henry Cushing of Lowell, deceased.

Auburn Improvement Society.

Much interest was manifested by the members of the Auburn Improvement Society who gathered in McVicker's hall on Auburn street last evening, in all the affairs of local importance presented for consideration.

Mr. A. C. Farley presided, and about 30 were present. The records of the public meeting held April 19, 1898 were read and approved. In the report of the treasurer it was shown that there was a balance in the society's treasury of $350.

The committee appointed last April to consider the advisability of petitioning the city government to extend Central street reported progress.

The committee authorized to solicit subscriptions and complete arrangements for a reading room in this place, was heard from through several of the members. Some had been active in canvassing the village, while others had encountered obstacles.

It was at last voted to accept the resignation of Mr. E. L. Pickard as chairman of the reading room committee, and to authorize this committee to appoint a new chairman and continue its work. The committee was also instructed to report at a meeting to be held November 4th.

The various phases of the Williams school question were presented and thoroughly discussed. There appeared to be a large number in favor of asking the city government to erect a new school house on the north side of the track instead of adding to the present Williams building.

These officers were chosen for the coming year: A. C. Farley president, Quincy Pond vice-pres., William Fuller secretary, Henry Hildreth treasurer, W. A. Knowlton, G. M. Fiske, C. A. Brown, G. D. Harvey and Frederick Johnson, directors.

"Mrs. Chipperton took care of my palm while I was away and ruined it." "How?" "It was one of those varnished palms and she watered it every day."—Chicago Record.

ANIMALS WHO SHUN HEAT.

Where They May Be Found on a Scorching Day.

"Wild animals oppressed by heat are almost human in their actions," observed a naturalist. "They seek shelter from the sun, thirst much for water and fall down at last, sunstruck. The tigers of India and the lions of Africa seek jungles that are nearly impenetrable to man, where in pools they wallow for hours, chin deep, in the water rather than endure the intense heat of the sun driving through the mass of foliage overhead. Further than this, they may sometimes be surprised like deer in the water."

"In hot weather fishermen often see along the shores of the Adirondack and Maine lakes numbers of deer. These animals make frequent visits during the day to the water, where they nibble at a lily pod now and again and swim across to the islands or to the opposite shore to cool off their overheated bodies."

"The woodchuck retires to the moist depths of its burrow, the squirrel to its home tree. The hare lies in the long grass beside the brook in an alder bed."—Washington Star.

Not a Sincere.

On the conclusion of prayers the speaker of the house of commons ascends his own high chair. It is a comfortable pulpit, with lofty back and roof and with mysterious recesses for pens and ink and paper in the eaves. There are electric buttons for the summoning of attendants. The speaker touches a knob, and in a moment the gas is lit in the roof of the house. In this wonderful chair he sits for hour after hour, with ears always on the alert and with eyes never closed, listening to speeches dull or brilliant, grave or gay.

At 3 o'clock he enters the house on the ordinary sittings, and with a break of only half an hour he remains till after midnight. On Wednesday the hours are 12 to 6, and when there are "morning sittings" the house meets at 2 and adjourns for dinner between 7 and 9. Frequently during the busy season, when the weather is hottest, the speaker is at his post for a couple of the clock. Arthur Onslow was speaker for 33 years, but in our hard worked age such a feat would be impossible.—Woman at Home.

Iron Smelting in Africa.

Iron is smelted from a rich hematite ore in high blast furnaces, strongly built of ant heap mud and heated by charcoal. It is a trade confined to few families only, who have the necessary "medicines" for success and who know the rules which have to be observed. They are certainly very good tradesmen and turn out in hoos, axes and knives some very creditable work, but it is the "medicine" which gets the credit of the skill.

One of the missionaries once tried to smelt iron, and his attempt was watched with interest by the natives. He could not get on enough heat and failed. He might have had the correct "medicines" (ceremonial galls is said to be one), but he did not observe the rules. Any tyro could have told him that it was impossible to smelt iron and continue to live at the same time with his wife.—Geographical Journal.

How He Manages Her.

"How is it that your wife is so tractable?"

"Why, I told her when we were married that she could do just exactly as she pleased, and of course she finds no pleasure in doing it."—Chicago Post.

The Webfoot La-Cache Consolidated Mining Co.

Own four full mining claims of gold copper ore in one block within 600 feet of the Big Iron Mine in Pierce's Lake Mining District, Colville Res., Washington, near Northport smelter, stocked for 750,000 shares, par value $1.00, full paid and non-assessable, 250,000 shares treasury stock. We offer 25,000 shares of the treasury stock at TEN CENTS PER SHARE. Orders will be received for $1.00 and upwards. Subscription closes October 27th. This property is the making of a big mine. A GOOD BUY. Yours truly, LAWSON & CO., BROKERS, 81 Milk Street, Room 34, Boston, Mass. Telephone 3694-3 Boston.

DEFAULTED MORTGAGES AND WESTERN LANDS BOUGHT FOR CASH.

I desire especially to buy in Kansas, Nebraska and the Dakotas. Correspondence solicited.

S. K. HUMPHREY, 640 Exchange Bldg., BOSTON, MASS.

FOR BUTTER

of the highest grade and a First-class line of all Groceries go to

W. O. KNAPP & CO., LANGLEY ROAD.

Wedding Decorations, (ARTISTIC DESIGNS) Cut Flowers and Plants.

E. T. MOREY, WASHINGTON AND TREMONT STREETS, NEAR NEWTON LINE.

Carpets.

Our business has been the selling of Carpets and Rugs for considerably more than three-quarters of a century—since 1817, to be exact.

Our stock is at all times by far the largest in New England—including many choice private patterns which we control exclusively.

Our prices are invariably at the lowest point.

JOHN H. PRAY, SONS & CO.,

CARPETS AND UPHOLSTERY,

658 Washington St. (opp. Boylston St.), Boston.

We Have

influence at the Factory.

So when two cases of

Fleeced Goods

were accidentally omitted from a Wholesaler's shipment our friend had them sent to us, which enables us to offer you as good fleeced underwear as was ever sold at 50c. a garment at

39c each

4 pieces for

$1.50.

These Prices for Monday, Oct. 9th,

ONLY.

The CENTRAL DRY GOODS CO.

107 to 115 MOODY ST.,

Waltham, Mass.

Sheriff's Sale.

Commonwealth of Massachusetts.

MIDDLESEX ss. September 16th, 1899.

Seized and taken on execution and will be sold at public auction at my office in my dwelling house No. 233 Church Street in Newton in said County of Middlesex, on Wednesday the 11th day of November, 1899, at nine o'clock A. M., all the right title and interest that Annie K. Henderson had on said September 16th, 1899, at 11 o'clock A. M. that being the time when the same was seized and taken by me on this execution in and to the following described real estate, to wit:—

1st. A certain parcel of land with the buildings thereon situated in Everett, in said County of Middlesex, and being lots numbered 6 and 7 and a part of lot numbered 8 on a Plan of land in Everett, belonging to Henderson Brothers, A. F. and N. S. Sargent, Surveyors, dated December 15, 1888, recorded with Middlesex South Dist. Deeds, Book of Plans 47, Plan number 29. Bounded Southerly on Hawthorn street 110 feet; Easterly on Main street 50 feet; Northerly on said Plan 106.08 feet; Westerly by the remaining part of lot No. 8, 50 feet.

2nd. Also a certain lot of land with the buildings thereon, situated in said Everett, being lot No. 5 on a Plan of building 1-18

THE NEWTON GRAPHIC.

VOL. XXVIII.—NO. 3.

NEWTON, MASS., FRIDAY, OCTOBER 13, 1899.

TERMS, $2.00 A YEAR.

WALTER C. BROOKS & CO.,

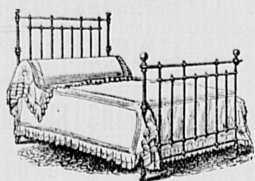

Importing - - Tailors,

15 MILK STREET, - BOSTON.

Birthplace of Franklin, Opp. Old South Church.

The Largest Assortment of Foreign Woollens Shown in Boston.

POPULAR.

Our Brass and Iron Beds are popular. The finish, construction and enduring qualities, combined with our low prices, make them so. It is worth your while to call on us before purchasing.

MORRIS, MURCH & BUTLER,
42 Summer St., Boston.
Mattresses and Chamber Furniture.
Sole proprietors of the "Noiseless" Spring.

SHIRTS MADE TO ORDER.

Best material, first-class work, perfect fit. Only one quality, the very best, $1.50 each. (Plain shirt without collar or cuffs.) Samples made for trial.
Repairing is done neatly, correctly and promptly. New neck-bands, 15c. each. Wrist-bands, 15c. pair. Full cuffs, 25c. pair. Collars, 25c. Bosoms, 50c. Centre pleats, 15c. Shirts to repair left Tuesdays or Thursdays with parties named below will be ready for delivery at same places in one week.
Newton, 48 Thornton St. or with J. H. Bacon; Newtonville, J. V. Sullivan; N. U. Falls, J. T. Thomson; West Newton, F. D. Tarleton; N. Highlands, C. E. Stewart; Auburndale, E. M. Childs; N. Centre, H. S. Williams; N. L. Falls, Kenney Bros.

E. B. BLACKWELL 43 Thornton Street Newton.

WALTER R. FORBUSH, ARCHITECT.

Stevens Building,
Nonantum Square, NEWTON
High class Domestic Work a specialty.

REUBEN FORD,

Accountant.

John Hancock Building, Room 208,
BOSTON.

Established 1874.

BUNTING'S FISH MARKET.

Closed to settle estate.

Has been Re-Opened

BY

THOMAS & BURNS,

who will endeavor to please the public by carrying on a strictly first class Fish Market. This is the only store in this part of the city that makes fish of all kinds a specialty.
Orders called for and delivered. Please favor us with your patronage.

SATISFACTION GUARANTEED.
Telephone Connection 198-4.

12 Centre Place,
NEWTON, - - MASS.

DENTISTRY

Save your teeth; don't have them extracted; you know not their value until they are gone; crown and bridge-work a specialty; whenever teeth or roots remain in the mouth this system can be used; all dental operations known to the profession are performed in this office in a thorough and skillful manner. It is no longer necessary to pay exorbitant fees for dentistry. We charge about one half the regular rates and guarantee entire satisfaction in each case. Examination made free; seventeen years' experience. 194 Boylston street, Boston, room 3. Take Elevator.

DR. W. H. DUDDY.

Juvene

Will show exclusive Styles in

Millinery

Commencing Wednesday, Oct. 11, 1899.

E. JUVENE ROBBINS,
Eliot Block, Newton, Mass.
NO CARDS.

JOHN IRVING, FLORIST

Cut Flowers, House Plants, Funeral Designs, Flowers for Weddings and Parties.
Pearl St. - - - Newton.
Telephone Connection.

The Secret Discovered How to make the perfect Blueing!
Mrs. Henry Vincent Pinkham of Newton invites the attention of all housekeepers to this new production (manufactured by herself under the name of the E. F. Pierce Co. of Boston) which is pronounced by experts to be the best blueing known to science.
For sale by the S. S. Pierce Co. of Boston and the leading grocers of Newton.

JAPANESE BLUEING,

EBEN SMITH.

1872.

MRS. EBEN SMITH,

1897.

Picture Frames,

147 SUMMER ST.,

Cor. South. ELEVATOR.

OVER JAYNES'

New Drug Store.

(FORMERLY LINCOLN ST.)

PORTTRAITS

In Carbon and Platinum.

MARSHALL & KELLEY,

263 Washington Street, Newton.

W. E. McLELLAN,

Photographic Studio. 14 Cabinets and 16x20 hand finished Crayon for $2.00.

COPYING AND FRAMING.

771 Washington St., BOSTON

D. TOY & COMPANY Tailors,

71 BEACON STREET, BOSTON, MASS.

MANAGEMENT, W. J. EDGERTON

UNIVERSITY TAILORS.

Representatives for WHITAKER & CO. and HILL BROTHERS, London, W.

Telephone, Haymarket 1387-3.

We have, this season, added a new feature to our large and increasing business. Owing to the frequent expressed requests of our patrons to obtain a foreign fabric at a moderate figure in styles not represented by Merchant Tailors in general, we decided on a new departure, which, by designing our own patterns and having them made by the best mills, will enable us to present a large and varied assortment of confined styles that we are prepared to make into suits at THIRTY FIVE DOLLARS.

A THOUSAND STYLES TO SELECT FROM.

BARGAINS IN FURS.

Real Marten Collarettes

$3.50 to $15.00.

All other Furs at proportional Low Prices.

FURS ALTERED AND REPAIRED

In the best manner possible. Satisfaction Guaranteed.

S. ARONSON, Furrier.

(Up one flight) 12 West St., Boston.

Millinery Novelties

Seasonable and Stylish

Will be displayed on Tuesday and Wednesday, Oct. 17 and 18,

-AT THE-

"Elite" 312 Centre Street.

Miss A. H. LYNCH,

Room 21 - - Nonantum Block,

NEWTON, MASS.

& Dancing &

Prof. G. PERCIVAL CHICK will resume his class in dancing in connection with the West Newton English and Classical School, Allen Brothers, on Friday, October 27th, Hall over Post Office.

Hours 4 to 6 P. M.

STERLING RANGE

WITH

COAL and GAS Combination

IF YOU WISH.

For COAL Only

If You Prefer.

You can add the gas attachments at any time.

Cyrus Carpenter & Co.,

B. P. LOVEJOY, Sole Proprietor.

44 HANOVER ST., BOSTON.

Springer Bros., Cloak, Suit and Fur House,

Now Located at 155 TREMONT ST., Near West St.

NEW FALL STYLES.

Ladies' Tailor Suits, Coats, Capes, Furs, Golf Capes and Skirts, Bicycle and Walking Skirts, Waists, Travelling Rugs, etc., etc.

Superior Grade Furs a Specialty.

NEWTON.

-Pianos, Farley, 433 Washington St. tf

-Shirt repairing, see Blackwell's adv. tf

-Wm. E. Pike, electrician and licensed gas-fitter. Telephone 215, Newton. tf

-Mr. Robert D. Holt of Centre street returned Friday from his New York trip.

-Mrs. E. R. McKenzie of Baldwin street has gone to New York on a business trip.

-Miss Hattie Stevens of Church street has returned from New York and Saratoga.

-Mr. A. H. Waitt has been spending a few days in the Maine woods on a hunting trip.

-Mrs. D. A. Sargent and son are passing the winter at Mrs. Hallett's, 507 Centre street.

-Dr. and Mrs. Miller of Needham were in town on Friday visiting friends on Centre street.

-Mr. Horace Harrington of Centre street returned Friday from his trip to Albany and New York.

-Mr. and Mrs. John J. Morrissy (nee Lane) have returned from their wedding trip to New York.

-Mr. Robert S. Cody was in charge of the young people's meeting at Eliot church, last Sunday evening.

-Mr. Charles H. B. Brock has been elected a vice president of the Massachusetts Horticultural Society.

-The special offering for foreign missions at the Eliot church last Sunday, amounted to $282.84.

-Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Dana and Miss Dana of Centre street have returned after a several weeks' absence.

-Mr. John B. Ryan, a machinist by trade, has enlisted in the 40th Infantry, United States Volunteers.

-Mr. Wm. L. Howell of 91 Newtonville avenue is ready to resume piano lessons at residences or home.

-Miss Dora Daniels of Washington street has returned from her trip to Saratoga and Brooklyn, N. Y.

-The Newton Golf Club will hold a Women's handicap competition on the club links Wednesday, Oct. 18th.

-Mr. F. A. Foster and family, formerly of Newton Centre, have moved here and are residing on Centre street.

-Miss Florence Butterfield was the leader of the meeting of the Young People's Society at the Baptist church last Sunday.

-Mr. John Kingman was one of the ushers at the Haveney-Mitchell wedding at St. John's church, Cambridge, last week.

-Mr. James T. Leonard has bought of Sarah T. Stone a two-family house with 10,000 square feet of land on Bigelow hill in Brighton.

-The subject of the "Crusades" was the topic considered by Rev. F. B. Hornbrooke in the pastor's class at Channing church last Sunday.

-A number from here attended the 25th wedding anniversary celebration of Mayor and Mrs. William F. Davis held last week at their home in Woburn.

-At the women's prayer meeting held at the Baptist church last Wednesday afternoon, the subject of foreign missions in China and the Chinamen was considered.

-At the annual meeting of the Mass. W. C. T. U. held last week in Worcester, Mrs. Katherine Loe Stevenson of Willard street was elected president for another year.

-The Helping Hand Chapter of Grace church will meet in the parish house next Monday. An address on the work of the Newton District Nursing Association will be given by Miss Kennedy.

-The first morning meeting of the Channing church was held in the parlors of the Unitarian church, yesterday. The evening meetings to which the gentlemen are to be invited will soon begin.

-Mr. Winthrop B. Allen has just returned from a vacation trip. He spent some time at Centre Harbor, North Conway, and Keenecan, N. H., and made the ascent of Mt. Washington and Mt. Kearsarge.

-The business men's topic class met at Eliot church last Sunday noon. "The parents' privilege and obligation to their children" was the topic considered, the discussion being opened by Mr. William B. Blakemore.

-Mrs. Katherine Lente Stevenson, Mrs. Lydia A. Earle, and Mrs. Samuel Wright Simpson returned the last of the week from Worcester where they attended the Silver Anniversary Convention of the Massachusetts W. C. T. U.

-Co. C, 3th Regt., will participate in the military parade in honor of Admiral Dewey, in Boston, Saturday. Lieut. Col. George H. Benyon and Major Robert B. Edes will be members of Gen. Bancroft's second brigade staff.

-Mr. Horton S. Allen is spending this week in New York and Philadelphia. On Wednesday evening he was one of the ushers at the Mitchell-Thorp wedding at Woodbury, New Jersey, a large society event, in one of Philadelphia's suburbs.

-The sessions of the New England Branch of the Woman's Foreign Missionary Society held in Lawrence this week, have been attended by a large number of Newton people. At a public meeting held Tuesday evening, Rev. Dillon Bronson of Salem was one of the speakers.

-The Willing Workers Society connected with the Methodist church, held its annual meeting, Thursday evening of last week. The officers for the coming year are, Pres., Mrs. C. E. Holmes; vice pres., Miss Mary MacLennan; rec. sec'y, Miss Moffett; treas., Miss Jennie MacLennan.

-Mr. Geo. S. Ballens sailed Wednesday on the Canada, for London, and will be absent about six weeks. He goes in company with his son-in-law, Mr. S. M. Raymond, who is on his way from Australia to Johan-nisburg, to represent there the great London Exploration Co., which owns mines in all parts of the world.

-Frank Zoller has entered the employ of Cox's express.

-Mrs. J. L. Caverly of Jewett street continues quite ill.

-Mr. Henry C. Daniels has opened his new office on Washington street.

-Mrs. Albert Brackett of Sargent street is in New York visiting relatives.

-Mr. and Mrs. George L. Pearson left yesterday, for their home in Paradise, N.S.

-Ellis Ward has returned from Vermont and has entered the employ of C.O. Tucker.

-The mason work on the foundation for the new Bigelow school was started this week.

-Mr. Pitt F. Parker has moved to the residence of Mrs. Charles Read on Washington street.

-All the stores will close Saturday at noon, as all Newton is expected to go to Boston to see Dewey.

-Mr. P. F. Parker gave a chalk talk before the Y. M. C. A. in Somerville, last Sunday afternoon.

-Mr. and Mrs. Frank O. Barber of Maple avenue returned last Saturday from a trip to New York.

-The annual offering for the Newton Y. M. C. A. was taken at the Immanuel Baptist church last Sunday.

-Mrs. Mary F. French of Eldridge street has taken a suite of apartments in "The Weld," on Centre street.

-At the Central church, Newtonville, last Sunday the preacher was Rev. Charles H. Daniels of Church street.

-Mr. Robert F. Cummings of Richardson street has been on a business trip through New England the past week.

-Mrs. Louis Cushman of Richardson street left this week for Europe, where she will take a course in vocal culture.

-The opening meeting of the season of the Helpers' Mission Circle was held at Eliot church this (Friday) afternoon.

-Rev. Scott F. Hershey of Boston will speak at the men's meeting at the Y. M. C. A. at four o'clock next Sunday afternoon.

-Mr. Frank H. Burt of Charlesbank road has been elected vice-president of the New England Shorthand Reporters' Association.

-Mr. F. W. Hooper and family of Bennington street leave next week for Jamaica, where Mr. Hooper goes into the pineapple business.

-Miss Mollie Morrissey of Boyd street returned Monday from a two weeks' stay at the Mount Pleasant House, Jefferson, N. H.

-Messrs. S. M. Sayford, C. D. Kepner and F. O. Barber will be the delegates to the Y. M. C. A. convention in Lowell next week.

-Mr. John F. Bailey and family of Newton Highlands have moved back here and are residing in the Wheelock house on Eldridge street.

-The business of the "Corner Market," formerly owned by McLaughlin & Hayden, has been bought by Mr. Webster S. Hayden, the junior partner.

-Mr. Thomas H. Hall will represent the real estate interests of Mr. Ransom C. Taylor of Worcester, and has opened an office in the Stevens building.

-A number from here are attending the Moody meetings at Tremont Temple, Boston this week. Rev. G. Campbell Morgan of England is making interesting addresses.

-Rev. Dr. Daniels of Church street returned Friday from Providence, R. I., where he attended the meeting of the American Board of Foreign Missions.

-Mr. William T. Coppins of Centre street was one of the ushers at the Burgess-Ruggles wedding held at St. Mary's Episcopal church, Dorchester, Tuesday evening.

-Mr. E. P. Burnham and Mr. Sterling Elliott have been nominated as representatives at large to the next annual convention of the League of American Wheelmen.

-Rev. William H. Davis, D. D., will make one of the addresses at the Suffolk West Conference, to be held in the Congregational church, Newton Highlands, Wednesday, Oct. 18th.

-Messrs. Frank W. Stearns of Park street, H. A. Wilder of Fairmont avenue and F. A. Day of Sargent street attended the inauguration of President Harris of Amherst College this week.

-Mr. Charles A. Balcoum has returned from the Adirondacks in greatly improved health, and will remain in Newton for the winter. His friends are glad to see him again at his desk in the gas office.

-Rev. Charles H. Daniels, D. D., was elected a corresponding secretary and Hon. H. E. Cobb an auditor at the annual convention of the American Board of Foreign Missions, held last week in Providence.

-The Woman's Association held a meeting at Eliot church last Tuesday afternoon, when an interesting address was given by Mrs. Ida Woodbury on the work of the American Missionary Association in the South.

-Messrs. E. A. Wilkie, Percy Dewey, M. Stimson and J. J. Walworth were the members of the Newton Golf Club having the highest scores in the championship tournament held on the home links last week.

-The Unitarian Club will meet in the parlors of Channing church, Thursday evening of next week. At the close of the supper Rev. Dr. Hornbrooke will give an account of his European trip taken last summer.

-The first promenade concert at the Hunnewell Club will be given Tuesday evening, Oct. 17th. Music will be furnished by the Boston Cadet Orchestra. Members and their friends are invited. The calendar of the season's entertainments will soon be issued.

-Mr. Justin Jaquith has returned from the Newton Hospital and is visiting Mr. Warren Jaquith of Russell road.

-Mrs. Kimball and children, who have been the guests of Mrs. Kimball's father, Mr. L. L. Tower of Newbury avenue, have returned to Burlington, Vt.

-Mr. and Mrs. Charles A. Haskell of Sargent street announce the engagement of their daughter, Miss Jennie Louise Haskell, to Mr. Edward H. Huxley of Newton.

-The Misses Lynch have returned from New York, where they have been for the fall styles of millinery, and will have a display of stylish and seasonable goods at the Elite, room 21, Nonantum block.

-The business men's class next Sunday at Eliot church will consider the topic "How can the business man best preserve himself from the too great encroachment of the commercial spirit?" Opened by Hon. H. E. Cobb.

-Mr. William Dorson of Newton and Miss Hattie Broadbent of Lonsdale, Rhode Island, were married in that place last Wednesday. On their return from a short wedding trip Mr. and Mrs. Dorson will make their home on Thornton street.

-A shell shaped sounding board, made by Mr. Holway of New York, has been placed over the pulpit of Eliot church. The acoustic properties of the audience room have been somewhat unsatisfactory, and this experiment is being tried as a possible remedy. It is hoped that in future the speaker's voice will be more clearly heard.

-A reception was tendered to Dr. and Mrs. Davis in the parlors of Eliot church last evening. The affair was under the auspices of the Woman's Association, and a large number of the church and congregation were present. During the evening music was furnished by choir members and refreshments were served.

-While Albert Lefevre and Elger Segvini were driving on Park street, about 8.30 last Sunday evening, their carriage collided with a Boston Elevated electric car and was considerably damaged. Monday morning, Lefevre and Segvini were complained of in the police court by Patrolman Lucey for drunkenness. Lefevre was fined $15 and Segvini $5.

-The Entertainment Club is preparing a series of three performances in the Channing church parlors. The first will be given Wednesday, Nov. 15. Patrons of the club will be given an opportunity to purchase season tickets at a sale which will be held next Wednesday evening at 7.30 o'clock in the church parlors. Reserved seats for the entire season, $1.25 each.

-A quiet home wedding took place at the home of the groom in Waltham, Thursday, Oct. 13th, when Mr. Clarence Tebbetts was united to Miss Abbie L. Carpenter of Park street, Newton. The officiating clergyman was Rev. Charles E. Harrington, D. D., pastor of the Congregational church, and only the relatives and a few friends were present.

-A "smoke talk" was held in the lodge hall, Nonantum building, last Sunday evening, under the auspices of Newton lodge 21, A. O. U. W., which was attended by about 50 members and their guests. An enjoyable program was offered, including addresses by District Deputy, J. W. Duffell of Somerville, Rev. Mr. Crathern of South Braintree and Mr. A. L. Bateman of Norwood.

-The Epworth League of the Methodist church held its annual meeting last Monday night. The reports from the different departments were read and the following officers were elected: President, Charles H. Peterson; first vice-president, D. Fletcher Barber; second vice-president, Miss Helen Blackwell; third vice-president, Miss Eva Warren; fourth vice-president, Rupert C. Thompson; secretary, Miss Edith Coffin; treasurer, Harold Barber.

-Miss Mabel Gray Paul, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William F. Paul, formerly well known residents of this place, and now of Somerville, and Mr. Geo. Sweetzer Munroe of Baltimore, were married last Tuesday, Oct. 11th, at the North Avenue Universalist church in Cambridge. The maid of honor and the bridesmaid were the bride's sisters, Miss Bertha F. Paul and Miss Emma F. Paul. Mr. and Mrs. Paul will make their future home at 3 Preston street, West Baltimore, Maryland.

-The Nonantum Colony, Pilgrim Fathers, inaugurated its season Monday evening with a whist party and dance in the lodge hall of the Nonantum building. The attendance was very gratifying to the members of the committee on arrangements. The evening's entertainment included an address by H. S. Treatwell of South Boston, lieutenant governor of the supreme colony, which was much appreciated. The Nonantum Colony has already planned a series of assemblies of the best events which cannot fail to prove attractive.

-The thefts of milk in the vicinity of Newton and Newtonville, have of late been the cause of much activity and anxiety among the police department members of division 2. So numerous have been the complaints of missing cans that unusual methods to apprehend the thieves were decided upon. Patrolmen who pull their last nail in a m., were armed with anti-sunrise, and Sgt. Purcell of division 2 devoted a number of extra hours directing his men. The perseverance of the officers was rewarded last Saturday when about 5.30, Patrolman McGee arrested William J. Anderson, a milkman, whom he claimed took a bottle of milk from the steps of a house on Jefferson street. Anderson was brought before Judge Kennedy and pleaded guilty. He told the court Monday morning that the bottle which the patrolman averred he had stolen was the only one he had ever taken. Anderson said also that a large number of Newton milkmen were in the habit of stealing milk cans. The court asked Anderson to tell the names of the alleged offenders and the prisoner replied he had already furnished the chief of police with this information. Anderson was severely reprimanded and fined $10.

-Philip Carby, 63 years old, of 5 Gardner street, was attending a meeting of the Holy Name meeting, connected with the Church of Our Lady, Washington street, last Sunday evening, when he was stricken with heart failure and died suddenly. As Mr. Carby was walking from a seat in the middle of the hall toward the presiding officer's desk, he suddenly fell forward. Medical attendance was summoned but the old gentleman showed no signs of life. The physician, who soon arrived, gave as his opinion that death was instantaneous. The cause he believed to be heart failure. Mr. Carby had enjoyed excellent health up to and during the day seemed in the best of spirits. He was one of the most respected residents of this city where he had made his home for nearly 50 years, coming here from Ireland when a young man. During the greater part of his residence here he conducted a wheelwright business, though of late he had given up active duties to care for his property. He was the owner of considerable property and held in high esteem by many. A widow survives him. The funeral took place Wednesday morning at 9 o'clock, from the church. The service was attended by a large number of relatives and friends. Requiem mass was celebrated by the Rev. Fr. Gilfeather. At the close of the service, the body was removed to Calvary cemetery, Waltham. The pallbearers, six nephews of the deceased, were as follows: J. E. O'Neill, J. H. O'Neill, C. H. O'Neill, A. T. O'Neill, Bernard McDonald and James McDonald.

Holmes-Cutler.

Grace church was the center of interest for Newton people, Monday evening, when Miss Emily Cutler, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward H. Cutler, was married to Mr. Walter E. Holmes, eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. S. Welles Holmes. The church was filled with friends of the contracting parties, many coming from out of town, and while the guests were assembling Mr. Harry Brooks Day, formerly organist of the church, who has recently returned from several years' study in Europe, gave a varied program of organ music, including Handel's "Largo," the march from Lohengrin as the bridal party entered, and the Mendelssohn bridal chorus after the benediction.

The chancel was made very attractive with autumn foliage and greenery, and smilax and white blossoms marked the scene reserved for the wedding guests. The bride's party entered the church at 7:30, and was preceded by the six ushers, after whom came the bridesmaids, Misses Elizabeth L., Katherine W. and Gertrude Holmes, sisters of the groom. Next came the maid of honor, Miss Edith Cutler, the bride was attended by her father. They were met at the chancel steps by the groom and his best man, Mr. George Rice of Newton Centre. Rev. Dr. Shinn, rector of the church, officiated, and the bride was given away by her father.

The ushers were Messrs. Miner Robinson of West Newton, William P. Howe, Frank V. Holmes, Alden Cutler and Henry Cutler of Newton, and Lambert Whitney of New York.

The bride wore a very handsome gown of white duchesse satin, with long court train, and veil, and carried a shower bouquet of bride roses. The maid of honor and the bridesmaids wore white dotted muslin, with short tulle veils, and carried bouquets of daybreak pinks.

A reception for the relatives followed the ceremony, at the residence of the bride's parents on Linder terrace, after which Mr. and Mrs. Holmes left for a wedding tour. Upon their return they will occupy their new home at 3 Breuners road, Haverhill Hill, and will be at home after Nov. 23.

Capron-Hassler.

Miss Edith D. Hassler, daughter of the late Charles W. Hassler of New York was married Monday evening to Mr. John F. Capron, son of the late George Capron, at the residence of Mrs. Hassler on Elgin street, Newton Centre.

The ceremony was performed by the Rev. T. A. Nelson, D. D., of Brooklyn, former pastor of the bride, assisted by the Rev. Edward McArthur, rector of the First Congregational church of Newton Centre. The young couple were married in a veritable bower of brilliant autumn leaves, most effectively contrasting the bride's gown of India muslin, with ancestral point lace, tulle, orange blossoms and bride roses. The maid of honor, Miss Alice Patton of New York, and the bridesmaids, Miss Clara B. Hassler, youngest sister of the bride, was maid of honor, and was gowned in white over pink, with La France roses. Mrs. Hassler, the bride's mother, wore a gown of white, sole, point lace and amethysts, and Miss A. May Hassler white chiffon over yellow, with topaz parure. Mrs. George Capron also wore black and white, with garniture of violet. Mr. Sumner C. Clement of Newton Centre was best man.

The ceremony was witnessed by the family and a few intimate friends only. A reception was held, most of the invitations being to friends in New York, the former family residence. There was a fine display of presents.

Mr. and Mrs. Capron are to spend a few days on Lake George, and will return, after a trip through Canada, to their new home in Boston for the winter. Among those present were noticed:

Dr. Anita Newcomb McGee of Washington, Dr. Robert E. Bigelow of Boston, and Mrs. Atwood Collins of Hartford, Mr. Robert A. Leeson and Mr. William May, both of Newton Centre, Dr. and Mrs. Robert Loring of Newton Centre, Miss Florence Southwick of New York, Mr. Alice Patton of New York, and Mr. Baker of Newton, Miss M. B. Clark of West Newton, Miss Ethel Tyler of Dallas, Tex., Mrs. William O. Mason of Woonsocket, Mr. and Mrs. Benton Williams of Woonsocket.

Arnold-Potter.

The most important social event of the mid-week was the wedding of Miss Mabel Howe Potter, daughter of Mrs. John Sturgis Potter of Walnut park, to Mr. Harry Lincoln Arnold of Bangor, Me., which took place Wednesday at noon in the Eliot Congregational church, Newton.

Elaborate decorations of palms, potted plants and southern ivy beautified the interior of the edifice. A mass of white chrysanthemums was banked about the rail of the choir gallery and pulpit platform.

The guests included many prominent Newton men and women, representing the society sets of the north and south sides of the city as well as Boston and Brookline. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. William H. Davis, the pastor.

The bride was gowned in white satin, trimmed with ribbon and orange blossoms. She carried a bouquet of lilacs and white roses. The maid of honor was Miss E. W. Potter, a sister of the bride. She was dressed in white silk and chiffon, and carried a bouquet of bride roses. The bridesmaids were Miss M. J. Heroy of New York and Miss A. F. Clarke of Brookline. They were gowned in pink and white crepe lace and wore white tulle hats.

The best man was Mr. Edward C. Webster of Bangor, Me. The ushers: Mr. L. H. Bailey, Mr. George Angier, Mr. F. H. Cleveland, Mr. F. A. Carlton, Mr. R. H. Harris and Mr. D. H. Bennett.

The bridal party enjoyed a wedding breakfast at the home of the bride. After supper, Mr. and Mrs. Arnold will reside at Bangor, where they will be at home at the Bangor house after Jan. 1st.

NEWTON CLUB.

The fall season of social events was inaugurated last Saturday evening by a whist party given by the gentlemen of the club. The affair was given in the club assembly hall, which was decorated for the occasion. About 150 members were present and 25 tables of whist were enjoyed from 8 to 10:30 o'clock. Prizes, handsome cut glass pieces, were awarded as follows: Messrs. Lincoln and Gill; Avery and Gregory; Bishop and Jewett; Hickox and Anders.

An informal talk on golf was given last Tuesday evening by E. A. Wilkie at the Newton Golf Club. Mr. Wilkie is a member of the Newton Golf Club, one of the best authorities on the game in Massachusetts, and the owner of one of the largest golf libraries in this country. A large number of golfers, representing the various Newtons, were present and gave Mr. Wilkie a cordial reception. Mr. Wilkie, by means of a blackboard and a set of clubs, illustrated the various points brought out, and showed how the game could be played in good form as well as in poor form. He said that good style in playing consisted in gracefully driving the ball in a straight direction with a uniformly accelerated speed. He then went on to show how this could be accomplished. Many players, he said, made exaggerated statements as to how many yards they could drive, but if he was fully confident he could always drive 150 yards he would be willing to challenge the world. The whole matter depended upon the weather conditions.

THIRTY-EIGHT SEEK TITLE.

WELL-KNOWN GOLFERS WOULD BE CHAMPIONS OF NEWTON—ARE FAVORED WITH GOOD WEATHER DURING PRELIMINARY ROUND—FINAL MATCHES WILL CONTINUE FROM DAY TO DAY UNTIL NOV. 4.

Preliminary play in the Newton championship golf tournament at the Newton Golf Club links was finished last Saturday afternoon.

There were 38 competitors, representing the city's five or six clubs, and nearly every player of prominence in Newton was in the list. Contrary to expectation, there were only four defaults, and of these, one was on account of accident and another was ineligible because he had not lived in Newton the required six months.

Excepting for some skirmishing in the morning, the real play of the day came in the afternoon. As there were 38 contestants, and 18 of these had 36 holes to play, having failed to play the first 18 holes Friday, the fair green soon presented a most animated scene.

Judging from the play Friday and Saturday, the tournament promises to be one of the most successful ever held in the city. That it opened so auspiciously was due principally to the management of E. A. Wilkie of the Newton Club and to the members of the committee who assisted him.

The total gross scores for the 36 holes necessary to qualify were as follows:

Name and club.	Total.
J. D. Thomas, Brae Burn	183
C. W. Royce, Newton Centre	183
E. E. Warren, Newton Centre	183
E. M. Noyes, Newton Centre	183
C. I. Travelli, Brae Burn	184
F. H. Royce, Newton Centre	185
E. A. Wilkie, Newton Centre	185
Dr. H. C. Perkins, Brae Burn	188
Percy Dewey, Newton Centre	189
J. D. Greene, Newton Centre	190
E. H. Kidder, Newton Centre	203
G. A. Frost, Brae Burn	204
M. Stinson, Newton Centre	205
W. B. Merrill, Brae Burn	205
H. B. Day, Brae Burn	205
J. Walworth, Newton Centre	206
J. A. Lord, Newton Centre	208
Percy Gilbert, Newton Centre	208
George Linder, Newton Centre	208
F. N. Robbins, Newton Centre	210
G. H. Phelps, Brae Burn	211
Hubbard, Newton Centre	211
Henry Haynie, Newton Centre	212
H. L. Ayer, Brae Burn	213
A. B. Cobb, Newton Centre	214
F. Woods, Brae Burn	214
H. D. Ward, Newton Centre	217
H. S. Fletcher, Brae Burn	217
E. C. Fletcher, Brae Burn	218
C. H. Watson, Commonwealth	220
D. A. Harrington, Newton Centre	222
E. L. Allen, Newton Centre	222
Henry Bailey, Newton Centre	225
G. T. Lincoln, Brae Burn	226
Shannon, Newton Centre	226
F. H. Little, Commonwealth	229
Clinton Hunter, Newton Centre	229
W. L. Carter, Brae Burn	230

At the close of the tournament the first 16 players drew for the championship as follows: E. A. Wilkie vs. J. D. Greene, G. A. Frost vs. H. B. Day, J. Walworth vs. A. B. Cobb, Newton Centre vs. F. H. Royce, J. D. Thomas vs. C. I. Travelli, E. M. Noyes vs. W. B. Merrill, C. W. Royce vs. G. E. Warren, Percy Dewey vs. H. C. Perkins.

Following this drawing the next eight players drew for the consolation prize as follows: Henry Haynie vs. George Linder, H. L. Ayer vs. G. H. Phelps, Percy Gilbert vs. Allan Hubbard, F. N. Robbins vs. J. A. Lord.

The finals in the tournament will be played at the Newton Club, but the other matches may be played on any of the links in the city that the players agree on. All play, including the finals, will have to be concluded by Nov. 4.

Saturday was a quiet day on the other links of the city, owing to the fact that many of the members were either participating in or spectators of the championship tournament, and none of the other events scheduled for the day were played off.

Resignation of a Sinking Fund Commissioner.

Mr. Arthur F. Luke has resigned as a member of Newton sinking fund commissioners. Mr. Luke's withdrawal was made necessary by his increased business duties which call him to New York frequently. He was looked upon as a most valuable member of the board. Mayor Wilson will undoubtedly announce Mr. Luke's successor at next Monday evening's meeting of the board of aldermen. Though the sinking fund has been learned, it has it that Mr. John J. Eddy will be appointed to fill the vacancy. The chairman of the sinking fund commissioners, Mr. George S. Bullens, is at present in Europe. During his absence Mr. Alden Speare will preside.

Newton Congregational Club.

The next regular meeting of the Newton Congregational Club will be held in the chapel of Central church, Newtonville, on Monday evening, Oct. 16.

The doors will be open at five o'clock, and supper will be served at six o'clock. Each member has the privilege of bringing a guest. The topic for the evening will be "Our Winter's Work: Difficulties of the Sabbath School."

The leading speaker will be the Rev. Edward M. Noyes of Newton Centre, to be followed by free discussion by the Club. Music will be furnished by members of the choir of the Central Congregational church.

A Warning to Letter Writers.

To the Editor of the Graphic:—It ought to be known to people in this city that in some of its most populous neighborhoods it is impossible to have a letter delivered within twenty-four hours after post ing it. Having had some rather unpleasant experiences of this kind of late, I have made inquiry of others, and find that they have given up all hope of anything like prompt delivery.

We might suppose that notices of a meeting mailed at 9 a. m. would be delivered before the next day, but do not depend upon it. You may be disappointed. What is the matter? Is the working force too small? Whatever be the cause the officials in charge should devise a remedy. It is not creditable to our city to be so far behind. In the meantime while we are waiting for the greatly needed remedy we must write our letters earlier. If you want a letter to reach your friend who lives in a quarter of a mile away by Wednesday be sure to mail it early on Monday.

GEO. W. SHINN.

$100 Reward, $100.

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces, by the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers, that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials.

Address: F. J. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, O.

Sold by druggists, 75c.

Hall's Family Pills are the best.

AT THE THEATRE.

As the cue is given, a last look into the mirror testifies to a fairness not gained with paints and powders, but by the use of a soap free from harmful alkali, and made of clean vegetable oils. Such a soap is "Ivory"—it is 99 $\frac{1}{2}$ per cent. pure.

COPYRIGHT 1898 BY THE PROCTOR & GAMBLE CO. CINCINNATI

DAINTY DISHES DEMONSTRATED.

MISS RANCHE DELIGHTS THE LADIES AT THE BOSTON FOOD FAIR—THE FAMOUS SALEM CADET BAND THIS WEEK—SOUSA SETS NOW ON SALE.

Miss Nellie Dot Rancho, of Chicago, the accomplished instructor in cookery, has made a great hit at the Boston Food Fair. Every afternoon at 3 the Domestic Science Department headquarters are filled with ladies, who derive both pleasure and information from the description, preparation and serving of dainty dishes and delicacies, and from the informal little "talks" which accompany the demonstrations. The fair is the most attractive ever held by the Association, many of the exhibitors having expended large sums of money in the building and decoration of elaborate and beautiful booths. The leading food products of the country are shown in profusion, and countless free samples are served to visitors. On every hand are found attractive and entertaining features, including the Sportsman's Exhibit, with its Indian and splendid specimens of game animals and birds; the 25-day camp, the Irish village, and the "Judgment of Paris," about which the art critics have had so many controversies. The lunch room, Caterer Bow, is doing a rushing business, having proved conclusively that good quality, prompt service and popular prices are appreciated by the people.

The musical program for the second week introduced Jean M. Missud's famous Salem Cadet Band, in fine selections and solo numbers. The particulars are detailed in the official program which is, without doubt, the handsomest souvenir ever devised in connection with any similar exhibition. The cover is printed in green and gold from an original design by a well-known artist, and its pages contain portraits of prominent members of the Association. The publishers, Frank M. Porter Co., are to be congratulated on their artistic production.

The advance sale of reserved seats for Sousa week, Oct. 16 to 21, is now in progress at 50 cents each, including admissions to the fair, and may be obtained at the Paul Revere ticket office from 2 to 9 p. m. daily. These seats include the entire balcony of Grand Hall except those reserved for the press. Seats in the two front rows are 75 cents each, including admission. There are two concerts daily, at 3 and 8 p. m. Orders by mail enclosing correct amount and return postage will be promptly filled. The fair is open from 10 a. m. to 10 p. m., and the general admission is only a quarter.

Robbed The Grave.

A startling incident, is narrated by John Oliver of Philadelphia, as follows: "I was in an awful condition. My skin was almost yellow, eyes sunken, tongue coated, pain continually in back and sides, no appetite, growing weaker day by day. Three physicians had given me up. Then I was advised to use Electric Bitters, to my great joy, the first bottle made a decided improvement, and continued their use for three weeks, and am now a well man. I know they robbed the grave of another victim." No one should fail to try them. Only 50c, guaranteed, at all drug stores.

High School Notes.

Tuesday afternoon the foot ball team lined up against Brookline High's team. It being the first game Newton High's team has played, a great number of interested spectators watched it. The game was short, the time being only two 10-minute halves. Although Newton High was defeated by Brookline High by a score of 11 to 6, it may be proud of making a better score than last year's team. The line up was:

BROOKLINE.	NEWTON.
Farley 1	Converse 1
Converse 1	Converse 1
Dexter 1	Dexter 1
Phillips 1	Phillips 1
Barnsdall 1	Barnsdall 1
Fox 1	Fox 1
Strickland 1	Strickland 1
Wilcox 1	Wilcox 1
Quigley 1	Quigley 1
Marshall 1	Marshall 1
Hallowell 1	Hallowell 1
Score—Brookline 11, Newton 6. Touchdowns—Dexter, Fox, Skelton. Goals from touch-downs—Marshall, P. Johnson. Free—H. R. Nash. Referee—Wilber. Linesmen—Morris and Barnes. Time—Two 10-minute halves.

Transfer of Police Sergeants.

Following are the orders recently issued by chief of police Fred A. Tarbox: Sergt. Thomas C. Clay of the police department, formerly attached to division 3, will this week assume charge of division 1; Sergt. Bartlett has been transferred from division 1 to division 3. No other shifts are expected.

Bismarck's Iron Nerve

Was the result of his splendid health. Indomitable will and tremendous energy are not found where Stomach, Liver, Kidneys and Bowels are out of order. If you want these qualities and the success they bring, use Dr. King's New Life Pills. Only 25 cents at all drug stores.

The Perils of Mormonism.

A meeting of more than ordinary interest, for both sexes, will be held at 4 o'clock next Sunday afternoon, in the Y. M. C. A. hall, when Rev. Scott F. Hershey, pastor of the First Presbyterian church of Boston will deliver his great and timely address on "The Perils of Mormonism." Mr. Hershey has personally investigated the condition of society in Salt Lake City, and is familiar with the methods employed by these so-called "latter day saints" in the propagation of their evil doctrines. The admission to this lecture will be free to all.

To Cure a Cough in One Day
To Cure a Cold in One Day
To Cure Sore Throat in One Day
To Cure Hoarseness in One Day

Take Cleveland's Lung Healer, 25 cents. If it fails to cure, we will cheerfully refund your money. (Trial size free.)
Arthur Hudson, Druggist, Newton.

All-Newton Beats Wollaston.

A golf feature in Newton Tuesday afternoon was a match between a picked team from the Wollaston Golf Club and an All-Newton team, at the Fuller street links of the Brae Burn Club. The honors of the day were won by the Newton team, 31 to 14.

ALL-NEWTON.	WOLLASTON.
Holes up.	Holes up.
A. G. Lockwood.....3	G. E. Atherton.....3
E. M. Noyes.....2	J. L. Bremer.....2
C. W. Royce.....2	R. Cracknell.....2
J. D. Thomas.....2	F. H. Smith.....2
E. A. Wilkie.....2	R. R. Freeman.....2
W. Wadsworth.....2	Porter.....2
H. C. Perkins.....2	E. H. Brock.....2
W. B. Merrill.....2	T. Bell.....2
P. Dewey.....2	Lansley.....2
E. F. Woods.....2	Farrington.....2
Total.....34	Total.....14

Grain-O Brings Relief

To the coffee drinker. Coffee drinking is a habit that is universally indulged in and almost as universally injurious. Have you tried Grain-O? It is almost like coffee but the effects are just the opposite. Coffee upsets the stomach, ruins the digestion, effects the heart and disturbs the whole nervous system. Grain-O tones up the stomach, aids digestion and strengthens the nerves. There is nothing but nourishment in Grain-O. It can't be otherwise. 15 and 25c per package.

Yale-Dartmouth Game at 4 O'clock.

The most important athletic event in this city during the fall season will be the Yale-Dartmouth football game which takes place tomorrow afternoon at 4 o'clock on the Newton Club Athletic Association's grounds at Newton Centre.

The hour originally planned was 3 o'clock but was this week changed that Dewey admirers might not be inconvenienced, still be enabled to see the great admiral in Boston as well as the college gladiators in Newton Centre.

25 Cents Pint.

45 Cents Quart.

10 Cents Trial Bottle.

Can be supplied by the case.

Arthur Hudson,

NONANTON SQUARE, NEWTON.

STEVENS BLOCK.

ELMWOOD STREET, NEWTON.

Telephone 48-3.

Telephone 48-3.

Telephone 48-3.

Telephone 48-3.

Telephone 48-3.

Telephone 48-3.

Telephone 48-3.

Telephone 48-3.

Telephone 48-3.

Telephone 48-3.

Telephone 48-3.

Telephone 48-3.

Telephone 48-3.

Telephone 48-3.

Telephone 48-3.

Telephone 48-3.

Telephone 48-3.

Telephone 48-3.

Telephone 48-3.

Telephone 48-3.

Telephone 48-3.

Telephone 48-3.

Telephone 48-3.

Telephone 48-3.

Telephone 48-3.

Telephone 48-3.

Telephone 48-3.

Telephone 48-3.

Telephone 48-3.

Telephone 48-3.

Telephone 48-3.

Telephone 48-3.

Telephone 48-3.

Telephone 48-3.

Telephone 48-3.

Telephone 48-3.

Telephone 48-3.

Telephone 48-3.

Telephone 48-3.

Schools and Teachers.

Mr. Cutler's Preparatory School,
NEWTON, MASS.

Thirteenth Year Begins Sept. 18, 1899.
Particulars may be had of Mr. EDWARD H. CUTLER, Linder Terrace, Newton, Mass.

The Newton Private School, 251 Washington Street.
Will open Monday, September 18th, 1899. Primary, Grammar School and High School Grades. ANNA M. GOODNOW, Principal, will be at the school rooms, every day, beginning Friday, September 8th.

Private Instruction
as usual, from now till next summer, in Mathematics and other studies, for Grammar, High and Technology grades needing it for any purpose. Apply to
S. EDWARD WARREN,
77 Washington Street, Newton.

Gymnastics and Dancing Calisthenics
Miss SARAH S. WEBBER
will Re-open her Gymnasium
Wednesday, October 18, 1899.

Inquiries and applications to join classes can be made of Miss Sarah S. Webber, 279 Highland, cor. Lenox Streets, West Newton, during the week ending October 14; previous to that date by letter or special appointment; after October 15th, on Wednesday afternoons, at 3 o'clock, or Saturday mornings at the gymnasium.

MISS FLORENCE E. PERCIVAL
TEACHER OF
Piano-Forte and Accompanist.

MISS BLANCHE H. PERCIVAL,
Pupil of Mr. C. M. Loeffler.
Solo Violinist and Teacher
Music furnished for Weddings, Receptions, Parties, etc.
Address MISS PERCIVAL,
106 Galen Street, Newton.

MISS ALICE F. PEIRCE,
Will resume
Lessons in Piano-Forte
Monday, October 2nd, at her Studio, Room 6, Eliot Block, Newton. Residence, 79 Chestnut Street, West Newton.

NEWTON
BLUE BOOK
House Directory and Reference Book

Will be issued soon
Published Annually

A Double List of Residents.
List of Clubs, Societies, etc., with officers time and place of meetings.
Streets, Fire Alarm, etc.
New Map of Newton.

Bound in Cloth, and Cover
Lettered in Gold. Price $1.00
If you want one and have not yet ordered it,
DO NOT DELAY FOR ONLY A LIMITED NUMBER WILL BE ISSUED. Hand order to canvasser, or send order to

EDWARD A. JONES,
115 Congress St. Boston

Vineland
Grape Juice.

As a table luxury, as a delicious and in every way satisfactory beverage for the table, Vineland Grape Juice has no equal.

It is thoroughly wholesome; especially desirable to serve at whist parties or social entertainments. Served in a punch bowl with chopped ice, it is preferable in every way to the usual stronger beverage.

NEWTON FREE LIBRARY.

LIST OF NEW BOOKS.

- Beardslee, John Walter. The Bible among the Nations: a Study of the Great Translations. 91.1003
- Besant, Sir Walter. The Orange Girl. 65.1038
- Bird, Frederick Spencer. The Land of Dykes and Windmills, or Life in Holland, with Anecdotes and Historical Incidents in Connection with England. 33.521
- Connor, Ralph. Black Rock: a Tale of the Selkirk; with Intro. by George Adam Smith. 61.1262
- Conway, William Martin. Literary Remains of Albrecht Dürer. 97.465
- Esquiro, Henri. Alphonse. The Dutch at Home: Essays from the "Revue des Deux Mondes." 33.518
- Gumplowicz, L. The Outlines of Sociology. 86.235
- "Distinguished from earlier sociological works by the character of the sociological unit upon which it is based, which is the group. The author makes a study of the action of groups on each other, and the action of the group on the individual."
- Hale, Richard W. The Dreyfus Story. 81.328
- The author says in his introduction "a lawyer tries to state with some legal accuracy, but without technical language, just what the general facts are. The highest book was published last May."
- Hardin, Willett. Rise and Development of the Liquefaction of Gases. 102.802
- Hayward, Abraham. The Art of Dining; with Annotations and Additions by Chas. Sayle. 54.1275
- Henty, George Alfred. No Surrender: a Tale of the Rising in La Vendée. 65.1055
- Hutton, Frederick. Wollaston, Davy and Lavoisier, Old and New: Four Lectures. 103.766
- Hyde, William De Witt. God's Education of Man. 91.1002
- Dr. Hyde seeks to state the commanding doctrines of the religious life and thought in forms that appeal to the experience of men of to-day.
- Mung-r, Theodore T. Horace Bushnell, Preacher and Theologian. 92.892
- Murison, A. F. King Robert the Bruce. 92.842
- This volume and an earlier one on Sir Wm. Wallace in the Famous Scots series together outline the prolonged and successful struggle of the Scots against the aggression of Edward I. and Edward II.
- Perce, Walter R. Genesis and Modern Science. 104.631
- Suter, William Norwood. Handbook of Optics, for Students of Ophthalmology. 102.864
- Trent, William P. The Authority of Criticism, and Other Essays. 54.1272
- Contents. The authority of criticism. The authority of science. Literature and morals. The nature of literature. The Byron revival. Teaching the spirit of literature. Mr. Howells and romanticism. Tennyson and Musset once more.
- Volkman, Ludwig. Iconographia Danica: Pictorial Representation to Dante's Divine Comedy. 57.470
- Warner, Charles Dudley, and others. Poets. Warner Classics, No. 3. 91.999
- The subjects chosen are Byron, Dante, Tennyson, Milton and Burns.
- Whitney, Adeline. Dutton Train. Square Pegs. 65.1061
- E. P. THURSTON, Librarian, Oct. 11, 1899.

BOOKS AND MAGAZINES.

THE KING'S MIRROR.

Anthony Hope's new book is a departure from the series of "Young Heroes of the Kingdom," but it is one that his admirers have been accustomed to, but it will probably be no less popular than his "Prisoner of Zenda" and other favorites. The King is a good deal of a philosopher and the mirror gives an account of his thoughts and feelings, and the conditions that surround royalty in these modern days. The interactions of the people and royals, the intrigues surrounding him, the cares of state and the craving for love, are some of the motives developed, and with the accompaniments of incident and adventure, wherein the author shows his power of sustaining the interest and bringing out strong dramatic effects. There is a very fascinating story and the working out of the plot brings no end of surprises. The King is a very able fellow, but his wishes are thwarted in every direction for reasons of state, beginning from the day he was crowned at the age of eight years, when his nurse whips him and puts him to bed, to the day when he finds himself unable to marry the woman he loves, and has to enter into an engagement with the eight year old daughter of a neighboring ruler. There are a number of characters in the book who stand out as clearly as Mr. Hope's men and women have the habit of doing, and some of them have a pleasing resemblance to old friends whom we met in other romances. Although the Kingdom of Forstard is not down on any map, its story is probably not unlike the experience of many real kings with real kingdoms. The story cannot fail to add to the author's reputation as a writer of interesting the public in his characters and making his imaginary kingdoms seem more real to us than those that actually have an existence. The book is published in handsome style by D. Appleton & Co.

THE HERO OF MANILLA.

Of books about Admiral Dewey there promises to be no end, and one of the earliest is in the series of "Young Heroes of Our Navy," published by D. Appleton & Co. It is written by Rossiter Johnson, and although it bears evidence of some haste in the preparation, it gives numerous facts about the early days of the great Dewey that will be eagerly read by the public. Anything that relates to him is sure to be popular for some time to come, and the book should meet with a large sale. The author carries his hero down almost to his New York reception, and gives a very good account of the battle of Manila, but why he should choose to close the book with the alleged interview with Dewey referring to even consider the nomination to the presidency, is something that really needs explanation. If Dewey ever said it, he may change his mind, and then the author would be in a sad predicament. The Admiral may not have understood at that time how unanimous the people were in desiring him as a candidate, or the necessity of having an honest and fearless man for President, in whom the people could have confidence.

"A Bitter Heritage," by John Blount de Burton, an English writer, and the author of "Fortune's My Foe," "The Scourge of God," and other high-seasoned historical romances, is an exciting story of life in Central America. A young Englishman named Julian Rutherford goes out to inquire into some property supposed to be left him, and is in repeated peril of his life from a treacherous kinsman. A bucking horse, a stray rifle shot, a snake in a bed, a poisoned fish, a deadly perfume, these are choice specimens of the risks incurred by the "bitter heritage." A new and potent drug is a real find for the romancer, and Mr. Burton is to be congratulated on "Amancaes," the Central American herb, a drop of the juice of which, dropped on the lapel of an enemy's coat, may be trusted to do the business. The book is published by D. Appleton & Co.

The last issue in Appleton's Library of Useful Stories is "The Story of the Living Machine," by H. W. Conn, professor of biology in Wesleyan University, the author of numerous scientific works. The book presents a review of the conclusions of modern biology, in regard to the mechanism which controls the phenomena of living activity, and is presented in language that the average reader can understand.

Appleton's Home Reading Books met with a hearty welcome from teachers and parents. The last to be issued is entitled "Harold's Quests," by John W. Troeger, A. M., B. S., and aims to interest children in what are called nature studies. It is one of the common things in nature, which the child is likely to meet, and find interesting, such as grasshoppers, crickets, bees, fireflies, the different kinds of forest trees and animals, and goes on to more abstruse subjects, such as heat, light, sound, etc.

This is an entertaining romance of Fisherman's Island, off Boothbay Harbor, by Edith A. Sawyer, and part of the story takes place in Newton, so that it will have an additional interest for Newton people. It is the story of a young girl, the daughter of a Maine fisherman, who becomes the keeper of an island belonging to the Samoan Island Association. She grows up amid the wild surroundings, and by means of an ambitious mind, becomes a cultured woman, just as many New England girls have done before her. Her struggles and trials make the story interesting, and the usual love story is skilfully managed. There is much local color, which summer visitors to that portion of the Maine coast will recognize with pleasure. The book is published by Benj. H. Sanborn & Co. of Boston.

BOSTON AMUSEMENTS.

TREMONT THEATRE—Only one week remains of the long and successful run of "Way Down East" at the Tremont Theatre. The 125th performance in Boston on Wednesday, October 13th, will be commemorated by the presentation to ladies occupying reserved seats on the lower floor and in the first balcony, at both the matinee and evening representations, of beautiful souvenirs in the form of cut glass flasks, mounted in the precious metal and bearing excellent portraits of Miss Phoebe Davies in the character of Anna Moore, the heroine of the play, and Odell Wilton in the role of old Squire Barnum. On Monday, October 23, "Three Little Lambs," the latest and greatest of the Boston Cadets' successes, will be presented at the Tremont, with a strong cast of singers and comedians, many of whom were members of the famous musical company that was disbanded on the death of Augustin Daly. The piece, originally called "Queen of the Ballet," is recast, and the plot has been changed to that of Mr. R. A. Barnett, and in every way worthy the author of "1912," "Jack and the Beanstalk" and other productions that will readily be recalled by playgoers.

PARK THEATRE—Lieber & Co., the managers of Viola Allen in "The Christian," and the producers of The Zangwill Play "Children of the Ghetto," which begins its metropolitan run at the Herald Square Theatre in New York the 16th inst., will make their debut at the production at the Park Theatre in Boston during the week commencing Monday, the 23rd inst. They will present James A. Herne's new play, "Sag Harbor," a story from the pen of this talented actor and playwright. Mr. Herne will himself play the principal role.

In "Sag Harbor" he will present another "A Tale of the Drama," a new play, an effort, however, differing from it widely in character of story, locale of scenes and personalities in the play. The scenes of the new production are all laid in the little town of Sag Harbor on Long Island, New York, which was once one of the three great out-fitting ports of this country for whalers. Seventy sail of whale-hunters sailed from Sag Harbor as their home port on their stunts.

"Sag Harbor" will be staged in four acts and three scenes. The first scene will show the exterior of the old boat house where United States lifeboats are built, presenting a great perspective view of famous Gardner's bay and Hog's Neck, with Shelter Island, the noted summer resort, in the distance. The second scene will show the interior of the boat shop, and the third a room in the home of Capt. Turner, the boat builder. Mr. Herne will play the part of Capt. Dan Marble, a seafaring fisherman who fishes for seals in winter and sails city company in summer. His support will be an excellent one and will include his beautiful and talented daughters, Julia and Chrystal. The principal members of Mr. Herne's company are Forrest Robinson, Frank Munroe, Sydney Booth, W. T. Dodge, Charles S. Pitt, W. H. Young, T. H. Burke, Robert Gillig, Mrs. Sol. Smith, Marion Abbott, Jessie Doran, Sara McDermott and Gertrude Finley. Forrest Robinson and Marion Abbott are well known in Boston and throughout New England.

Herne's new play will appeal particularly to the same class of people to whom "The Christian" has proved so attractive. Wednesday and Saturday matinee performances will be given during Mr. Herne's stay at the Park Theatre in Boston.

Give the Children a Drink called Grain-O. It is a delicious, appetizing, nourishing food drink to take the place of coffee. Sold by all grocers and liked by all who have used it because when properly prepared it tastes like the finest coffee, but is free from all its injurious properties. Grain-O aids digestion and strengthens the nerves. It is not a stimulant but a health builder, and children, as well as adults, can drink it with great benefit. Costs about 1-4 as much as coffee. 15c and 25c.

Lasell Notes.

On Monday afternoon a party of students attended the Food Fair in Boston.

A number of the French pupils saw Mansfield in "Cyrano de Bergerac" on Monday evening.

The special services at the Episcopal church, connected with the dedication of the new organ, were largely attended on Sunday morning, by the students.

On Sunday afternoon Mr. Bragdon took a party walking, the route including Chestnut Hill, Waban, and Nonantum Hill. It was a very enjoyable trip, according to the reports of the pedestrians.

Sunday evening's congregational service, an address by the Rev. Otis Carey, just about to leave for the mission field of Japan, drew about twenty-five of the pupils, and several of the teachers.

The work of the cooking classes has begun. Instruction in swimming began last week. The number desiring to learn this art is so large that not all can be accommodated this term.

ALL THE TALK.

THE STANLEY AUTOMOBILE. THE SENSATION OF THE GREAT FRENCH CAPITAL. WHAT LE FIGARO, LE TEMPS AND OTHERS SAY—THE IDEAL CARRIAGE.

[Paris Special to Lewiston Journal.]

All Paris is talking of the Stanley horseless carriage. Unheralded it burst on France as a revelation of American inventive genius. At a time when the automobile was still the subject of discussion as to its future, it answered all the questions. The French public is in a hurry for the Stanley and can not get enough of them.

I have translated for the Journal the following from the current Paris newspapers relative to the Stanley:

Le Figaro says:— This is indeed the perfection of the automobile, this exquisite, light, elegant and noiseless horseless carriage from which I descend in wonder to write this article. The enthusiasts will hear this with delight and those who have delayed to purchase such a carriage until it should be perfected will be glad to know that now this has been accomplished; for this carriage, about which they have dreamed, exists to-day. It is called the "Stanley."

Let us compare yesterday with to-day. Yesterday it was an enormous vehicle, dangerous, noisy and nauseous. It left behind it a cloud of oil. The carriage made such an incessant noise that conversation was impossible. You were in imminent danger of being thrown into a ditch, the heavy machine being so difficult to guide. The mechanism was complicated. There were valves to open and close, numerous brakes to manoeuvre, changes of speed which required some one's incessant attention. There was the prospect of suddenly stopping on the road and a crowd gathering about you, the fear of ridicule (which so chagrins a Frenchman) at not being able to start up again. Yesterday everybody expected to wait for 3 months before anything better could be expected and then it was believed that it would cost 20,000 or 30,000 francs.

Today, we have the Stanley, a light and graceful phaeton, without apparently other mechanism than a chain for the transmission of power, not exacting any special knowledge to run it, without any complicated machinery, noiseless, odorless, safe. A reservoir to fill with water, an "all-moist" to light, four minutes to wait for pressure and off you go.

The mechanism is so simple that a child can understand it and it will delight the people who have found running horseless carriages a difficult thing to do. With a little lever in the right hand, one can guide the carriage, and with a lever in the left hand, a spirited horse with a slight pressure on the rein.

In short, one can feel perfectly at home with a Stanley a few days after running it, and it only costs 2000 francs.

It is needless to add that the Stanley is an American invention. Everybody knows that the Americans are inimitable inventors and the automobile which comes to Paris from the U. S. is simply a wonder. Le Temps says:— Everybody is talking about the new carriage which will make a revolution in the mode of transport. The Stanley is an American invention, possesses, it appears, all the advantages of speed of those carriages now in use, and is, besides, exempt from the many and serious inconveniences of our machines. Extreme simplicity in mechanism and in the method of controlling it, a total suppression of noise and smell, and a lightness without precedent are its chief characteristics. The motive power being steam there is no variation in the speed.

The carriages may be used for all purposes, can go down hill as well as climb, and are suited to all climates. They are in the right hand. The price is only 5000 francs and the carriages are delivered a few days after they are ordered.

A Thousand Tongues

Could not express the rapture of Annie E. Springer, of Philadelphia, when Dr. King's New Discovery cured her of a hacking cough that for many years had made life a burden. She says: "After all other remedies and doctors failed it soon relieved the pain in my chest and I can now sleep soundly, something I can scarcely remember doing before. I feel like sounding my praises throughout the Universe." Dr. King's New Discovery is guaranteed to cure all troubles of the throat, chest and lungs. Price 50c and $1. Trial bottles free at all drug stores.

Advantages of Nominating Dewey.

Niels Gron, who was chairman of the Scandinavian department on the Republican National committee in 1896, comes out for the nomination of Dewey for President. For these unique reasons:

1. That Dewey will never be able to see his way clear to refuse.
2. That we will not need a large campaign fund for buying votes to elect him.
3. A repetition of the business depression usually accompanying a presidential campaign will be avoided, for business men will not only buy votes but will be elected, but in his wise administration afterward.
4. After his inauguration he will not have to pay political obligations by making appointments, and the contrary, the way would be absolutely clear then for him to establish a consular and diplomatic corps based not on political pools, but on merit and ability, and there is nothing which at this new stage in her existence the United States needs more.

Dewey's nomination would mean the destruction of the power of the political bosses. We believe it, and therefore, if for no other reason, it is the duty of every intelligent and well meaning citizen to make it his affair to see that Dewey is nominated.

To those who may be in doubt as to whether Dewey has had the proper training and necessary experience for the high position in the land we can only say: study his career, and you will quickly discover that it is not possible for many American politicians to boast of such a thorough preparation in the science of leadership and diplomacy.

During the winter of 1897 Mr. James Reed, one of the leading citizens and merchants of Clay, Clay Co., W. Va., struck his leg against a cake of ice in such a manner as to bruise it severely. It became very much swollen and pained him so badly that he could not walk without the aid of crutches. He was treated by physicians, also used several kinds of liniments, and a half gallon of whiskey in bathing it, but nothing gave any relief until he began using Chamberlain's Pain Balm. This brought almost a complete cure in a week's time. He is now able to walk without crutches. This remedy his leg would have had to be amputated. Pain Balm is unequalled for sprains, bruises and rheumatism. For sale by A. Hudson, Newton; E. F. Partridge, New Bedford; B. Billings, Newton Upper Falls; J. H. Green, Newton Highlands.

On the 10th of December, 1897, Rev. S. A. Donahoe, pastor M. E. Church, South Pt. Pleasant, W. Va., contracted a severe cold which was attended from the beginning by violent coughing. He says: "After resorting to a number of so-called 'specifics,' usually kept in the house, to no purpose, I purchased a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, which acted like a charm. I most cheerfully recommend it to the public." For sale by A. Hudson, Newton; E. F. Partridge, New Bedford; B. Billings, Newton Upper Falls; J. H. Green, Newton Highlands.

EVERY woman suffering from any female trouble can be helped by Mrs. Pinkham. This statement is based on sound reasoning and an unrivaled record. Multitudes of America's women to-day bless Mrs. Pinkham for competent and common-sense advice. Write to her if you are ill. Her address is Lynn, Mass. Absolutely no charge is made for advice. "I suffered seven years and would surely have died but for your help," writes Mrs. Geo. BAINBRIDGE, Morea, Pa., to Mrs. Pinkham. "It is with pleasure I now write to inform you that I am now a healthy woman, thanks to your kind advice and wonderful medicine. I can never praise it enough. I was a constant sufferer from womb trouble, and leucorrhoea, had a continual pain in abdomen. Sometimes I could not walk across the floor for three or four weeks at a time. Since using your medicine, I row have no more leaning-down pains, or tired feelings, and am well and hearty. I shall recommend Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound to all my suffering friends as the greatest remedy for all female weakness."

Mrs. SUSIE J. WEAVER, 1821 Callowhill St., Philadelphia, Pa., writes: "DEAR MRS. PINKHAM—I had inflammation of the womb and painful menstruation, and by your advice I began taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. Have taken four bottles and used one package of Sanative Wash and feel like a new woman. I thank you so much for what your medicine has done for me."

Mrs. M. BAUMANN, 771 W. 21st St., Chicago, Ill., writes: "After two months' trial of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound I can not say enough in praise for it. I was a very sick woman with womb trouble when I began its use, but now I am well."

THE SAFETY OF OUR STREETS.

MR. STANLEY REPLIES TO THE CRITICS OF THE MOTOR WAGONS.

To the Editor of the GRAPHIC: I read with much surprise the article in last week's issue of the GRAPHIC entitled, "The Safety of our Streets." I was surprised at the gross exaggeration and misrepresentation of the facts. "Accidents are of daily occurrence," the writer says. As a matter of fact, there have been but four accidents on account of horses being frightened by the Locomobiles on the streets of Newton in the last eighteen months. Three of those accidents occurred before the Locomobile Co. had purchased the business, or when it was owned by Stanley Bros. of Newton.

Regarding the case referred to where the farmer's horses were frightened and ran away, from all we can learn the men who were running the automobile were to blame, and to some extent, at least, responsible for the accident. The Locomobile Co. have done their best to ascertain who the guilty parties are, but up to the present time have failed. If they could ascertain, the men would be discharged. All the men who have anything to do with running the carriages on the streets know very well that if a complaint is made and it is found that they have been careless or reckless in running the machine in violation of the rules of the street, and causing accidents by frightening horses, they will be discharged.

In regard to the accident referred to where the lady was thrown from the carriage and left upon the sidewalk as described, I will say that this is not only a misrepresentation of the facts but from my standpoint a personal insult as I am running the carriage at the time. When I saw that the horse which the lady was driving was frightened, I turned my machine into the side of the street, and stopped it quickly as possible, and got out of the carriage, and the only reason why I did not assist the lady was because several others reached her before I did. No one regretted the accident more than I. This is the only accident where a lady has been thrown from a carriage on account of the horse being frightened by one of the motor carriages, and this also occurred before the Locomobile Co. had purchased the business.

The Locomobile Co. would thank any one for reporting any case of carelessness in the handling of their carriages on the streets, and are doing all they can to prevent the same.

I may be wasting time in replying to the article referred to for a person who has so little respect for himself as to publish his own name to an article which he writes is hardly entitled to notice from others.

F. E. STANLEY.

Newton's Tribute to Admiral Dewey.

Newton will rely chiefly on the members of Charles Ward Post 62, G. A. R., to represent it at the ceremonies in honor of Admiral Dewey in Boston this evening and tomorrow. Commander Flood of the post will have 50 men in line at the parade which is to take place this evening.

So far as is known this city will have no other representation in the Boston's Dewey celebration except that many of its residents will join the sightseers at the Hub. Many citizens have planned to greet the Admiral from the sidewalk or whatever point of vantage they may obtain, and safe to say their voices will be heard in the cheering.

Mayor Wilson gave orders yesterday that City Hall should be closed at 12 and that the members of all city departments, police and fire excepted, might enjoy a half-holiday. Perhaps this is a little unexpected as it has for years been the custom to give City Hall officials "all that's a-coming to them" in the way of half-holidays.

Job Couldn't Have Stood It. If he'd had Itching Piles, They're terribly annoying; but Bucklen's Arnica Salve will cure the worst case of Piles on earth. It has cured thousands. For Itch, Pains or Bodily Eruptions it's the best salve in the world. Price 25c. a box. Cure guaranteed. Sold by all druggists.

MAISON & HAMLIN

stand for the highest in all relating to pianos and organs, and it is an undoubted fact that their

PIANOS

are sure to prove an excellent investment. They are of fine tone, and have remarkably lasting qualities, and they unquestionably

ARE THE BEST

Mason & Hamlin Co.

146 Boylston St., Boston.

Real Estate and Insurance.

FOR CHOICE BUILDING LOTS
—ON—
FARLOW HILL

AND ELSEWHERE IN
THE NEWTONS.

W. S. & F. EDMANDS,
429 Centre St., Newton. Bray's Bl'k, Newton Cen.
178 Devonshire Street Boston.

ESTABLISHED 1840. TELEPHONE 2892.

HYDE'S
Real Estate Agency
32 MILK STREET.
Room 205,
BOSTON, MASS.

Auctioneer, Mortgages Negotiated.

Newton Office:
JOHN A. EVANS, Agt., 67 Elmwood Street
Newton Property a Specialty.

Newton Highlands Office:
NEWHALL'S BLOCK, Lincoln Street.
Newton Highlands property a Specialty

ELLIOTT J. HYDE

ABAN, TROWBRIDGE & CO.,
AUCTIONEERS, APPRAISERS.

REAL ESTATE
Money to loan
on mortgage.

Brackett's Block, 407 Centre St., Newton.
Notary Public.

930 Exchange Building,
53 State Street, Boston.
Telephone.

FRANCIS MURDOCK,
Insurance Agent

Gas Office, Brackett's Block Newton, Mass.

INSURANCE TO ANY AMOUNT
placed in first-class Stock and Mutual companies
Sole Agent for Newton of the Middlesex Mutual of Concord, Mass.

WARM HOUSES ARE BEST SECURED BY USING THE

WINCHESTER
HEATER
FOR STEAM OR WATER
SMITH & THAYER CO.
BOSTON, 236 CONGRESS ST.

Established 1857. Telephone 2957.

EDWARD F. BARNES,
Real Estate Agent and Broker.

Expert Appraiser.

MONEY TO LOAN ON MORTGAGES

Insurance Agent and Auctioneer Member of the Real Estate Exchange.

31 State St., Boston. Brackett's Block, Newton.

Use the Telephone and Save

TIME, TRAVEL, TROUBLE,
and

You can telephone 100 words in one minute easily.

TRY IT

A message by telephone brings immediate answer.

NIGHT RATE one half the day rate, except where the day rate is 15 cents or less,
Very convenient for social conversation.

NEW ENGLAND
Telephone and Telegraph Company.

R-I-P-A-N-S. 10 for 5 cents at druggists. They banish pain and prolong life. One gives relief,
No matter what the matter one will do you good.

THE
CLEANSING
AND HEALING
CURE FOR

CATARRH

is Ely's Cream Balm

Easy and pleasant to use. Contains no injurious drug.
It is quickly absorbed.
Gives relief at once.
It opens and cleanses
the Nasal Passages.
Alleviates Inflammation.
Heals and Protects the Membrane. Restores the Senses of Taste and Smell. Large size, 70 cents at Druggist or by mail. Trial size, 10 cents by mail.
ELY BROTHERS, 56 Warren St., New York.

COLD IN HEAD

E. H. GREENWOOD,
REAL ESTATE.

Stevens Building,
Newton Highlands.

A large variety of Newton Highlands property for sale and to let.
Some bargains in house lots.

THE NEWTON GRAPHIC

PUBLISHED EVERY FRIDAY AT
26 CENTRE PLACE, NEWTON, MASS.

Entered as second-class matter.

Subscription, per year . . . $2.00
Single copies . . . 5 cents
By mail free of Postage.All money sent at sender's risk. All checks, drafts, and money orders should
be made payable to
EDWARD D. BALDWIN,
Editor and Publisher.

TELEPHONE NO.

The Graphic is printed and mailed Friday afternoons, and is for sale at all News
Stands in the Newtons, and at the Boston &
Albany News Room, Boston Depot.All communications must be accompanied with the name of the writer, and unpublished
communications cannot be returned by mail
unless stamps are enclosed.

NOTICES

of all local enterprises to which admission fee is charged must be paid for at regular rates, 25 cents per line in the reading
matter, or $1 per inch in advertising columns.

The State Inspector of public buildings, John T. White, whose specialty is school-houses, gives some interesting facts about low-priced buildings, which are of general interest in these days, when new school-houses cost such huge sums. He cites the cost of the Lincoln school, recently built in Everett, a building of pleasing architectural appearance, slated roof, copper gutters and conductors, spacious entrances with ornamental iron work, and ideal interior arrangements. There are eight class rooms, a principal's office, teachers rooms, library and reception rooms. The cost of construction was $25,583, and the heating and ventilation, plumbing and architect's fees brought the total up to $31,099.

Another case is that of the Locke school, erected last year in Arlington, built of brick with freestone trimmings, slate roof, copper gutters, finials and conductors. It has eight class rooms, and the interior finish is hard wood, where the finish of the Everett school is North Carolina pine. Both buildings are heated by steam and the plumbing is of the best. The class rooms are 28 by 32 feet. The cost of construction is $21,481.53, and the extras bring the total up to $25,883.27. The Lincoln school has seats for 380 pupils and the Locke school for 381. Mr. E. M. Wheelwright, under whose supervision Boston school houses are built, has said that it was impossible to build school houses at anything near the cost of these two buildings, which is $1.35 and $1.25 per foot of floor space respectively, and he puts the lowest possible cost at $1.64. Compared with these figures the cost of our new schoolhouses in Newton looks pretty large, and our city fathers might figure whether our new buildings are any better in any way than the two just cited. Judging from the details given, the average reader would say they were not, but the difference in cost may possibly lie in the fact that Newton is a wealthy city, and Arlington and Everett have to look carefully after expenses. Some architects, also, are unable to plan a moderate priced building, and that may have something to do with the matter. The general impression that we are paying altogether too much for our new school buildings, seems to be confirmed by the figures above quoted.

The complaints of poor postal service in Newton are becoming louder and more frequent and the people are greatly dissatisfied. In Newton itself there has not been an increase in the force of carriers in seven years, although a great number of new houses have been built, new streets opened, and many inhabitants added. The carriers do the best they can, but they are not allowed to work over eight hours per day, and they are unjustly blamed for the poor service and made uncomfortable by harsh criticisms. The routes are too long, and some points can not be reached other than once a day, and important letters are delayed. The revenue of the Newton office has increased by great leaps in these seven years, but the people get no returns. Last Friday the carriers found it impossible to deliver a great part of the local papers, and there was a good deal of "kicking" in consequence. Societies and clubs and churches that depend upon the mail for the delivery of their notices, find that a great number do not receive their notices in time, and so do not attend the meetings. The protests are becoming so vigorous that the authorities may be moved to do something, but possibly we may have to wait until some of our influential citizens fail to receive an important letter that happens to be sent to their home address, and then they may wake up. Other parts of the city also make the same complaints, although as they have had free delivery for a short time, they do not object so strongly to one delivery a day, regarding it as better than nothing.

The Republican platform is distinctly anti-imperialistic and is taken to represent the views of the candidate for governor and also of the majority of the party. It stands with Senator Hoar and is against Senator Lodge and the jingoists generally, much to the grief of the Boston Journal, which has been weeping in public ever since the convention. But the Journal is an organ and it should have no views outside of the party platform. Ex-Governor Boutwell expresses himself as highly pleased with the anti-imperialistic plank, and the same seems to be true of Republicans generally. Mr. Boutwell says: "When the platform expresses a hope for an early termination of hostilities and that a government will be established in the islands as free, as liberal and as progressive as our own, in accordance with the sacred principles of liberty and self-government upon which the American republic so securely rests, it means freedom and independence for the Philippines, and you cannot distort it into meaning anything else, read it how ever you may." The platform expresses the conscience of Massachusetts Republicans and shows that they do not believe in criminal aggression.

Mr. Stanley replies to the critic, who charged reckless driving of the motor wagons on our busiest streets, and says that their young men have been cautioned to be careful, and that any recklessness will lead to their discharge. The company has been unable to find the men who were driving the motor wagon when the farmer's team was frightened, in spite of their best efforts. There is no question but that the motor wagons add an element of danger to our streets, but with careful management, the danger will be reduced to a minimum. The motors move so easily, that their drivers are hardly conscious of their exceeding the legal limit of speed, so that unusual care is necessary. Bicycles had to be carefully looked after by the police, until their riders got used to their new method of travelling, and found out that it was not necessary to "scorch" on crowded streets, and when the novelty wears off, drivers of motor wagons will also develop moderation. Meanwhile the Locomobile Company has the gratitude of citizens for having given such strict instructions to their young men, as to the necessity of exercising a due amount of caution.

In spite of all the fine spun theories as to the impossibility of regulating the trusts, and the need of a constitutional amendment before anything can be done, there is very little doubt that the trusts could be prevented from being harmful if the national authorities desired. But what can be expected from an Attorney General who hails from New Jersey? Enforce the laws against rebates by railroads, repeal the tariff provisions that enable the trusts to fleece the people, and those trusts not included in these two classes would be regulated by the ordinary course of business. But no constitutional amendment would reach the real seat of the evil, which is the favors granted to great corporations in return for their campaign contributions. But the politicians from Hanna down will never approve of any legislation which will take the trusts out of politics, and so make it useless for them to contribute to campaign funds.

The "No School" signals are to be managed this year in accordance with a regular system. Superintendent Fife has made arrangements with the Weather Signal office in Boston, to send him the forecasts of the weather every morning, and if he says that the morning will be very stormy the no school signal will be sounded. On the other hand, if he says the storm will be light and fair weather is probable, the schools will be kept as usual. Mr. Fife says that this system has been followed in New Haven for several years, and it has worked satisfactorily, the weather man being correct most of the time. Of course, he makes mistakes, and it will happen that it will storm severely when he predicts fair weather, or the reverse, but he is the most reliable weather prophet we have, and the adoption of the system will be generally commended.

The Republican Club has its annual dinner at Music Hall, Tuesday evening, Oct. 31. The price of tickets for the dinner is two dollars, and though this may be considered high, the diners have the privilege of inviting two friends to sit in the balconies and see them feed. Besides this great attraction, there will be after dinner speeches by Roosevelt, Lodge, Wolcott, Crane and Bates. It is a Boston custom to expect men to make eloquent speeches after a heavy dinner, without other inspiration than may be found in Roman punch or frozen pudding, which is rather hard on the orators, as well as on the balcony people.

CIRCUMSTANCES alter facts, it seems, and when the power of a monopoly is threatened, it finds it possible to make reductions, which it has always declared to be impossible. The English National Telephone company, which is now to have competition, has cut down its rates in provincial towns from $60 to $16 a year, with a charge of a penny a call, although only a short time since it declared that no reduction was possible, owing to the great cost of maintaining lines and exchanges, and so on. Competition brings out wonderful results sometimes.

The great ratification meeting at Worcester attracted but little attention, owing to the superior interest attached to Admiral Dewey's visit to New England and the great yacht race. It seems to have been mainly a local affair, judging from the meagre reports in the papers.

The severest thing we have seen about Senator Lodge's rather "yellow" History of the American-Spanish War is that our Junior Senator seems to regard history as "a stump speech to attain eminence in politics."

The absurd Manila censorship has been abolished, and that in a way that shows that it was put in force by direct orders from Washington. Now we may possibly get some truth about the doings there.

GEN. FUNSTON says that the majority of the Filipinos are poor shots and unfit for self government. Perhaps practice will improve their shooting.

Albert H. Ray for Senator.

The democrats of the 1st Middlesex senatorial district at South Framingham last evening nominated Albert H. Ray of Ashland for senator by a rising vote of the convention. William H. Holbrook of Framingham was re-elected member of the state committee. William H. Bu was chairman and Martin D. Farrell of the same city secretary.

Miss Linder Wins a Tournament.

The woman's nine-hole handicap tournament which was finished Wednesday, at the grounds of the Newton Golf Club, was won by Miss E. B. Linder. The best gross score was made by Mrs. A. B. Cobb.

Player.	Gross.	Handicap.	Net.
Miss E. B. Linder	76	14	62
Mrs. Margaret Cobb	81	14	67
Miss A. T. Clark	81	14	67
Miss A. W. Shawwood	82	18	64
Mrs. A. B. Cobb	87	0	87
Mrs. A. C. Rawson	78	20	58
Miss A. E. Stoughton	71	9	62
Miss Grace Weston	83	27	56
Miss G. N. Mann	80	30	50
No cards—Miss Alice Brooks, Miss Helen Brooks, Miss C. W. Maub.

NEWTON.

—R. J. Morrissey's first auction sale of furniture last Saturday night was a great success, and another will be held tomorrow night.

—Mr. R. J. Morrissey has leased the house 32 Elliot street, Newton, to Mr. Sparks of Ohio, and 36 Elliot street to C. C. Ballou.

—Mrs. E. H. Cutler and children have returned from Winthrop, where they have been spending the summer. Mrs. Cutler resumes teaching at her residence on Franklin street, Newton, afterwards. She will receive pupils mornings at her studio, 48 Pierce building, Copley square, Boston.

—Aban, Trowbridge & Co., have rented the Lawrence house, 19 Maple avenue, to Mr. David Foster of Tremont street, and the Fawkes house, 25 Maple street, to Edward F. Field of Newton; also the Elms house, 21 Washington street, to Mr. B. F. Stone of Boston.

—At the parochial residence of the Church of Our Lady on Washington street, Wednesday evening, took place the marriage of David Metherway and Nora O'Brien. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Fr. Gilfeather and witnessed by a number of the young couple's friends. Miss Lizzie Pomperett attended the bride and William Coleman was best man. A reception followed at the home of Mr. Daniel Kiley on North School street. Mr. and Mrs. Metherway will reside in Somerville.

—Marshall & Kelley have a beautiful green carbon marine view enlarged from a photograph taken by the firm, which has attracted much attention, on account of the remarkable cloud effects, and the reflection of the declining sun upon the water. A prominent Boston photographer has purchased one hundred copies, for his store, and many have been already sold. Copies are now on exhibition at Marshall & Kelley's studio, and all who are interested in the wonderful results of modern photography should be sure and see it. The dark green gives a moonlight effect, and it is as remarkable an exhibition of work done with a camera as has ever been shown. The enlargement has been very skillfully done, to bring out the artistic qualities of the scene, and it is worthy of careful study.

Braeburn 14, Newton Centre 11.

Yesterday on the links of the Braeburn golf club at West Newton the second team of the Braeburn club defeated the second team of the Newton Centre golf club, 14 to 11. The score:

BRAEBURN.	NEWTON CENTRE.
J. D. Thomas	3 Percy Gilbert
H. L. Ayres	0 Henry Bailey
E. C. Fletcher	11 D. T. Kidder
G. T. Lincoln	0 C. Hunter
H. S. Fletcher	0 D. A. Harrington
Total	14 Total

Wheaton Seminary.

The first meeting of the New England Wheaton Seminary Club, for the season, will be held at the Vendome, Boston, Saturday, Oct. 28, beginning at 1.30 p. m.

The new president, Mrs. Carrie A. Moore Briggs, will be welcomed at the business meeting, and there will be reports from delegates to Federation Councils.

The topic for the literary exercises of the afternoon will be "Social Service," a consideration of the circular sent out by the State Federation. Some of the more feasible and interesting among modern forms of social service will be described and explained, special attention being given to The Consumer's League, Stamp Saving Societies, recent Educational Movements, etc. Mrs. Estelle M. H. Merrill will have charge of the day.

Co C. Notes.

The company will hold its annual dinner at the U. S. Hotel, Boston, Saturday evening after the parade.

Cholly: "I never shall marry a strong-minded woman, never." Minerva: "No, of course you won't. The woman you marry will be weak-minded, I'm sure."—Philadelphia Bulletin.

MARRIED.

HOLMES—CUTLER—At Grace church, Oct. 9, by Rev. Geo. W. Shinn, D. D., Miss Emily, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward H. Cutler, to Welles E. Holmes, both of Newton.

ARNOLD—POTTER—At Newton, Oct. 11, by Rev. W. H. Davis, Harry Lincoln Arnold of Bangor, Me., and Mabel Howe Potter, both of Newton.

EVERETT—KENDALL—At Newton, Sept. 23, by Rev. H. J. Patrick, George William Everett and Maria Kendall.

MOLLESON—COLE—At Newton, Oct. 4, by Rev. G. W. Shinn, Duncan A. McLendon and Edith A. Taylor.

LOVE—BUCKLEY—At Newton Upper Falls, Oct. 4, by Rev. C. L. Jordan, Michael Love and Ida Jane Buckley.

HINKLEY—BARNARD—At West Newton, Oct. 4, by Rev. Julian C. Jaynes, Edward Crocker Hinkley and Ethel from his late residence, and Mabel Barnard.

CAPRON—HASSLER—At Newton Centre, Oct. 9, by Rev. E. M. Noyes, John T. Capron and Edith D. Hassler.

EDDY—DELMING—At Boston, Sept. 27, by Rev. B. F. Hamilton, Frank Stetson Eddy and Martha Poole Denning.

ESTES—EATON—At West Newton, Oct. 10, by Rev. E. F. Burr, Francis Thomas Estes and Ethel Anne Eaton.

MCNISH—SULLIVAN—At Newton, Oct. 11, by Rev. J. F. Gilfeather, Hugh McNish and Helen Sullivan.

ELDER—MORSE—At Foxboro, Oct. 19, by Rev. J. W. Flagg, Albert Henry Elder of Newton, and Mabel Ernestine Morse of Foxboro.

BENNETT—BUCKLESS—At West Newton, Oct. 11, by Rev. H. J. O'Toole, George Austin Bennett and Maria Elizabeth Buckless.

SHINNICK—CORCORAN—At West Newton, Oct. 11, by Rev. L. J. O'Toole, John Shinnick and Margaret Corcoran.

ESTY—NEWCOMB—At Newton Highlands, Oct. 11, by Rev. C. E. Havens, Frederick S. Esty and Susan A. Newcomb.

CLARK—ROBINSON—At Trinity church, New York City, Oct. 11, by Rev. Alfred William Griffin, Frederick William Clark and Eva Marie Robinson, both of Newton.

MOTHERWAY—O'BRIEN—At Newton, Oct. 11, by Rev. J. F. Gilfeather, David Metherway and Nora O'Brien.

NICHOLSON—HILLES—At Everett, Oct. 11, by Rev. A. D. MacKinnon, Malcolm Angus Nicholson and Annie Hilles, both of Newton.

MARTIN—DAWES—At St. Stephen's church, New York, Oct. 8th, George J. Martin and Gertrude Bigelow Dawes.

DIED.

WIER—At Newton, Oct. 11, Mary Eliza Wier, 87 yrs. 5 mos.

LAYVOLE—At Newton, Oct. 10, Arthur Layvole, 11 mos.

DODGE—At Auburndale, Oct. 7, Gardner Dodge, 70 yrs. 8 mos.

BOWKER—At Newton, Oct. 8, John Bowker, 8 mos. 7 ds.

JACKSON—At West Newton, Oct. 8th, Mary Elizabeth Jackson, 29 yrs.

CARRBY—At Newton, Oct. 8, Philip Carby, 65 yrs.

CHALLOHAN—At Newton, Oct. 8th, Joseph O'Halloran, 6 mos. 22 ds.

DUNHAM—At Newton Highlands, Oct. 6th, Nathaniel Dunham, 83 yrs. 1 mo. 19 ds.

HAZITT—At Newtonville, Oct. 6th, Edward Hazitt, 8 mos. 5 ds.

SMITH—Of Typhoid fever, Oct. 7, Henry, son of Obed F. and Emily M. Smith of Newton Centre, 27 yrs. 6 mos. 17 ds.

DONOVAN—In Newton Centre, Oct. 12, Dennis J., son of Margaret and the late Timothy Donovan, 26 yrs. 2 mos. 14 ds. He had been residing, Homer street, Saturday, Oct. 14, at a. m. Services at church of Sacred Heart at 9 o'clock. Relatives and friends are invited to attend.

Furs.

If you are about purchasing furs, of any description, you will find that you have made no mistake if you examine the fine assortment carried by S. Aronson, 12 West street, Boston. His prices are not only low, but he has bargains in furs not to be overlooked. See adv. in another column.

Appreciated as Soon as Seen.

The odorless, instantaneous blue flame Oil Radiator sold by Prescott Bros., 54-56 Cornhill, Boston, is giving general satisfaction and has only to be seen, to be at once appreciated. Every family needs one of these Radiators, as they are easily handled, compact and simple in construction and do not easily get out of order. See advertisement with cut of Radiator in another column.

Old Bank Building May Be Utilized.

At the request of the school board the board of health has made an inspection of the old brick building on Washington street. The report was favorable. It is thought the school board has in mind the utilizing of this building for kindergarten scholars. There is need for larger quarters and if the city deems it advisable probably the old bank building will be converted into a kindergarten.

House Lots at Auction.

Twenty-three centrally located house lots, with three attractive houses, will be sold at auction, Saturday, Oct. 21. The lots are on Watertown street, near Pearl, on high and dry land. See adv.

Established 1878.

Samuel Appleton

Shoes

are SUPERIOR to all others. They are made to PROPERLY fit your wife, children, or yourself.

48 WINTER ST.

No other Office in Boston.

WAY MATS. WED. & SAT.
LAST DOWN EVERY EVE'G.
TWO WEEKS EAST
TREMONT THEATRE BOSTON.
MONDAY EVE'G, OCT. 23.
5TH AVE. THEATRE MUSICAL CO.
In a Magnificent Professional Production of
the
Best Cadets' Latest Success,
13 LITTLE LAMBS.
(See Queen of the Ballet)

BY S. S. GLEASON, Auctioneer.
Office, 56 Main St., Watertown.

SATURDAY, OCTOBER 21, 1899.
At 3 o'clock, P. M.

23 CENTRALLY LOCATED
HOUSE LOTS

—AND—
THREE CONVENIENT ATTRACTIVE DESIRABLE HOUSES.

All in the beautiful City of Newton, on Watertown St., near Pearl.

The land is well graded; high and dry. The lots each contain from 4000 to 5000 square feet of land.

Houses are of seven rooms each, of good design, substantially built, conveniently arranged, modern in every way.

This sale is to be positive to the highest bidder, and offers a great chance to secure a desirable House Lot or a convenient Home in this locality.

A deposit of Twenty-five Dollars will be required of the purchaser of each lot of land, and a deposit of One Hundred Dollars of the purchaser of each house.

For further terms and particulars inquire of the Auctioneer.

Be sure to be present and do not miss an unusual opportunity to secure a Home upon favorable terms.

Dissolution of Partnership.

The co-partnership heretofore existing under the name of McCaughey & Hayden, Proprietors of the Newton Corner Market, has been dissolved by mutual consent, and W. S. Hayden will continue the business and receive all bills due the firm, and assume all indebtedness.

T. J. MCCAUGHEY,
W. S. HAYDEN.

Thanking our many patrons for past favors, I shall try to merit a continuance of the same by prompt attention to orders, and keeping the best of goods at low prices.

W. S. HAYDEN.
Newton to be Merit.

Newton, Oct. 5, 1899.

C. H. TRAFTON,

Practical Glider and Picture Frame Maker,

269 Washington Street - Newton.
Save money and trouble. Give me a trial. Office with J. B. Hamblin, Optician and Watchmaker.

The Webfoot La-Cache Consolidated Mining Co.

Own four full mining claims of gold copper ore in one block within 600 feet of the Big Iron Mine in the Lake Mining District, Colville Res., Washington, near Northport smelter, staked for 750,000 shares, par value $1.00, full paid and non-assessable, 250,000 shares treasury stock. We offer 25,000 shares of the treasury stock at TEN CENTS PER SHARE. Orders will be received for $10.00 and upwards. Subscription closes October 27th. This property is the making of a big mine. A GOOD BUY. Yours truly,

LAWSON & CO., BROKERS,
81 Milk Street, Room 34, Boston, Mass.
Telephone 3004 Boston.

Real Estate
Newton
Newtonville
West Newton
Auburndale

—IN—
Mortgages Insurance
Special Attention paid to Sale and Leasing of Estates in the above villages.

Representatives of All the Leading Insurance Companies.
—OFFICES—
J. C. FULLER, Newtonville.
J. FRENCH & SON, Tremont Building, 73 Tremont St. Boston. Rooms 650 & 651.

PAINTING, DECORATING, PAPER-HANGING AND GLAZING.

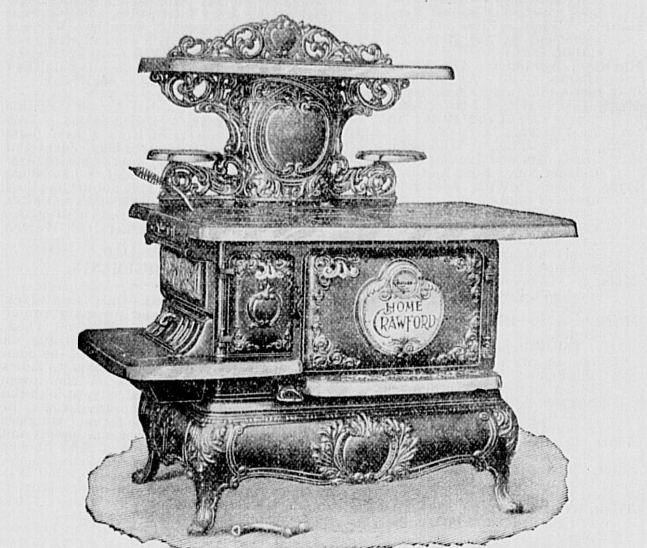

Window Shades, good ones with fixtures all complete, for 30 cents each. Much better ones for 75 cents.

Wall Paper, Picture Moulding, Picture Frames, Metal Ceilings, and Parquet Flooring.
Prompt attention, Reasonable Prices and Superior Workmanship.

We shall be pleased to call on you at any time with sample books of Wall Paper and make estimates without expense to you.

HOUGH & JONES, Nonantum Building,
245 Washington St., Newton.

Home Crawford!

The Finest Range in the World.

WALKER & PRATT MFG. CO.

24 MAIN ST., WATERTOWN.
TELEPHONE 30, NEWTON.

Blue Flame Oil Radiator

BURNS COMMON KEROSENE OIL.
NO ODOR - - - INTENSE HEATER
CHEAP TO OPERATE.

Prescott Bros., N. E. AGENTS,
54 Cornhill, Boston.

'99 FOOD FAIR

Mechanics' Building, Boston,
Oct. 2 to Oct. 28, 10 A. M. TO 10 P. M.

SOUSA, GODFREY, REEVES, MISSUD.

And other Famous Bandmasters and their Celebrated Musicians.

72,000 DEWEY Souvenir Spoons
GIVEN AWAY FREE.

3000 each morning to the First 1000 Ladies purchasing tickets of admission at EXHIBITION HALL, TICKET OFFICE, No. 20 Huntington Ave. (No other entrance).

Popular Price—A Quarter

Miss S. A. Smith,

OPENING OF
FALL MILLINERY,
Wednesday, Thursday, Friday,
OCTOBER 4th, 5th, 6th.

Pattern Hats and Bonnets, representing the most advanced designs in trimmings and the latest novelties in materials.

309 Centre St., Newton.

BUSINESS NOTICES.

All notices of three lines and under, 25 cents each time; over three lines, ten cents a line.

To Let.

TO LET IN W. NEWTON—Two well-furnished sunny rooms, pleasant locality, near electric cars. Rent reasonable. Call or address, C. E. Stone, 20 Webster Place.

TO LET—A furnished front room. Inquire at 283 Tremont Street, Newton.

TO LET—Newtonville, in pleasant home and convenient location two rooms with board. References exchanged. Address C. M., Newton Graphic.

TO LET—Large airy furnished room, in Nonantum Bk., near electric and steam cars, with gas, steam and bath. Address H. L. Graphic Office.

TENEMENTS TO LET—In Newtonville, from $8 to $12 per month. Apply to D. P. O'Sullivan, 286 Cabot Street. Telephone 38-3, Newton.

TO LET—Room with gas and furnace heat. Use of bath. Apply, 279 Cabot St., Newtonville.

FOR RENT—Private family, two furnished connecting rooms, steam heat, bath, convenient to electric and steam cars. Address, "F" Graphic Office.

TO LET—Two rooms, furnished or unfurnished, one minute from Newtonville Station. Inquire of H. A. Bombard, opposite depot.

TO RENT—Part of a house, 5 or 6 rooms, near the schools, Newton Centre. Furnace and bathroom, fruit and shade trees. Apply to W. Thorpe, 35 Pelham street, Newton Centre.

APARTMENTS TO LET in West Newton; all modern improvements; five rooms and bath. Address Caroline J. Barker, Washington St., West

NEWTONVILLE.

—Mr. Lewis E. Binney is quite ill at his residence on Walnut street.

—Miss Thayer of Maine is the guest of Miss Nellie Turner, Court street.

—Mr. Edward Nolan has accepted a position at H. P. Dearborn's market.

—The Newton Lodge Knights of Columbus, will hold its regular meeting Tuesday evening.

—Miss L. E. Thompson of Foster street has returned after a few weeks' stay in New York.

—Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Howe of Crafts street are at home after a summer's absence in New York.

—Miss Kittle Atwood of Austin street has returned after a month's stay at Winchendon.

—Mr. David Sweet of the N. & B. street railway has returned after a two weeks' vacation.

—Newton Royal Arch Chapter will hold its regular meeting in Temple hall, Tuesday evening.

—Mrs. W. P. Soule of Walker street has returned after a two weeks' stay with friends in New York.

—Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Fessenden of Portland, Me., are the guests of friends here for the month of October.

—Mrs. J. G. Thompson and daughters of Lowell avenue have returned after a season's stay at the mountains.

—Mr. Atwood has recently moved to this place from Faulkner, having taken the house No. 14 Bowers street.

—There are letters remaining in the post-office for Mr. Arthur M. Sumner, Mrs. F. A. Newton, and Mrs. J. West.

—Mr. W. B. Bosson and family of Mt. Vernon street have returned from their summer home at Bear Island, N. H.

—The regular meeting of Dalhousie Lodge was held Wednesday. The second degree was worked on one candidate.

—The Lend-a-Hand Club will hold a meeting Thursday afternoon, at the home of the Misses Bartlett, Madison avenue.

—Mr. J. C. Atkinson and family have recently moved to this place from Nashua, N. H., having hired the tenement at 231 Crafts street.

—Miss Abbott was the leader at the Y. P. S. C. E. meeting at the M. E. church, Sunday afternoon. The subject was "Work Where Christ Tells You."

—A. E. Hooper, Austin street, reported to the police Sunday that some time last week thieves had stolen two overcoats from the front hall of his house.

—Rev. George R. W. Scott of Newton will preach in the Central Congregational church, next Sunday morning at 10 A. M. Cordial greeting is extended to everyone.

—The annual meeting of the Little Gleamers was held Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Cook, Crafts street. The various reports were submitted and the officers for the coming year were elected.

—The Ladies Sewing Circle held a business meeting in the parlors of the Universalist church, Thursday afternoon. Supper was served, followed by a social. A pleasing program was presented and enjoyed by a good audience.

—Rev. E. L. M. Barnes, a member of the New Hampshire Conference of the Methodist Episcopal church, will reside on Claffin place during the winter. Mr. Barnes is taking a course of study at the Boston University School of Theology.

—The Sunday evening service at the M. E. church was in the interest of the Sunday school. Addresses were made by Mr. Fred A. Clapp, on "The Resurrection," and Rev. William Thompson, pastor of the church, on "Subsidiary Requisites."

—Sunday school day was observed at the Methodist church on Sunday last. In the morning a sermon was preached before the school by the pastor, and in the evening addresses were delivered by the pastor and by Frederick A. Clapp, Esq., of Newton, the latter, for many years, a prominent worker in the Sunday school in Worcester and vicinity.

—At 5 last Friday afternoon the fire department was called out by an alarm from box 23 for a fire in the house on Washington terrace owned by L. B. Scobfield, and occupied by K. J. Galupio. The blaze was caused by the boiling over of a kettle of fat which had been left on the kitchen stove. The damage to the woodwork of the house is estimated at $25.

—The residence of Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Coleman, Court street, was the scene of a pleasant gathering Saturday evening. The occasion was the twentieth wedding anniversary of the host and hostess. A large number of guests were present from Milton, Dorchester, Boston, and the Newtons. Mr. and Mrs. Coleman were the recipients of numerous gifts from the guests. Refreshments were served in the dining room. The house was tastefully decorated with potted plants and cut flowers.

—Turner & Williams have rented the Brigham home, No. 381 Newtonville avenue, to Edwin S. George; Lodge house, No. 151 Mt. Vernon street, to John C. McIntyre; Temple house, No. 39 Lowell street, to J. O. Partridge; Carter house, No. 26 Park place, to Chas. J. Buttram of Waban; Estes flat, Omar terrace, to H. J. Chase of the High school; Rose house, No. 20 Clyde street, to G. B. Homer of Malden; upper story of P. C. Brigham's block, Bowers street, to P. M. Blake of Hyde Park; store No. 88 Bowers street, to Gately Plumbing Co.

—Francis Estes and Miss Ethel A. Eaton, both of Newtonville, were married Tuesday evening in the First Baptist church, West Newton. The ceremony took place in the church parlors. There were many friends of the young people present, and the First Baptist church, of which the bride is a member, was well represented. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. E. P. Burdett, assisted by the Rev. E. F. Snell. Miss M. Isabel Hyde was maid of honor. The best man was Mr. Harry Hyde. The ushers were Ernest B. Heuston, A. S. N. Estes, George Gammon and Harry Hyde. Mr. and Mrs. Estes will enjoy a wedding tour and will later reside at Providence, R. I.

—The many friends of Miss Amelia Smead will be much pleased to learn of the honors recently conferred upon her at her new home in Los Angeles, California. She was one of the prime movers in organizing the Woman's Club of that place, and was elected to fill two of the principal offices of the society. She was also a member of the building committee, and the club house is pronounced one of the handsomest edifices in the city. Miss Smead is warmly remembered here by all classes. She was always deeply interested in educational matters and for many years was a member of the Newton school board. Her interest in these matters she carried to her California home, where she is recognized as one of the leading women of the time.

—Rev. A. Eugene Bartlett, pastor of the First Universalist church in Manchester, N. H., was united in marriage at noon, Thursday, at the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. Edward Giles, in Beverly, to Miss Josie S. Newman. Owing to the recent death of the bride's father, the ceremony was performed in the presence of only the nearest relatives of the contracting couple, yet it was one of the prettiest weddings Beverly has seen for a long time. The parlors were handsomely decorated with white asters and green ferns, and the hall decorations were equally elaborate in a garb of autumn leaves and blossoming flowers. About the balustrade were entwined ribbons of smilax and carnations, which lent a most picturesque effect. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Edward Bartlett, pastor of the First church of Beverly, and following the ceremony a wedding breakfast was served. Among the nuptial gifts were souvenirs of esteem from the Autumn Club and Young People's Christian Union of Beverly, of which organization the bride is a member, and from the Universalist Club of Boston, and the Boston Ministers' Association and from the groom's former parishioners at Hyde Park. The couple will spend their honeymoon in the Berkshires, and later will return to their home in Manchester.

—The wedding of Mr. George William Mills, and Miss Ida May Martell, which occurred Tuesday evening, Sept. 26th, was one of the prettiest home weddings that have occurred in this place. The ceremony was performed at the residence of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Theodore H. Martell, 731 Washington street. The Rev. George A. Martell, cousin of the bride, was the officiating clergyman. At 8 o'clock, while Miss Park played the wedding march from Lohengrin, the bride and groom entered the parlor, and stood beneath a bower of autumn ferns and white asters. The marriage service was solemnized. The bride was given away by her father. After the ceremony, while the organist rendered Mendelssohn's wedding march, the guests presented their congratulations. The bride was gowned in white organdy, en train, trimmed with lace and satin ribbon, and wore a tulle veil. She carried bride roses. The maid of honor, Miss Florence Mills, sister of the groom, wore a costume of white muslin trimmed with lace, and carried pink and roses. The little flower girl, Susie Martell, cousin of the bride, in pink and white, scattered roses in their pathway. Mr. Albert W. Hatch was best man. The lower rooms of the house were artistically decorated with ferns and golden rods. The final display of wedding presents showed that the happy couple were well remembered by their friends. Mr. and Mrs. Mills departed on their wedding tour mid a shower of rice and shoes, and many good wishes. They will reside at 19 Royal street, Watertown.

—Previous to this time I had supposed these were fair-minded and honorable men who would conscientiously use their best judgment on all public matters, and while their conclusions might sometimes be wrong their purposes would be right, but this evidence shows there must have been an understanding, if not a definite promise, on the part of the members of the school committee, and those persons recommended as faithful citizens who were willing to give their time and experience for the public good, and therefore no reason was known why others should be preferred to them. Had it been suspected that they would barter the City's honor and the interests of our schools to revenge themselves for a real or fancied personal grievance, it is probable that not one of these candidates would have been elected. It seems to make no difference to them that they have brought lasting disgrace upon our good name and business honor. They have done what they could to make the office of Superintendent of Schools depend, not upon the fitness and faithfulness of the incumbent, but upon his subservience to the members of the committee who elected him. They have done what they could to make the management of our school political bazaar.

—It makes no particular difference with whom the movement originated or what the incentive; whether the reward was personal, partisan or political; whether the price paid was in the form of plunder, patronage or pelf; the malicious fact remains that these persons bartered the honor and good name of our city for their own private ends. They were put forward as the champions of the public good, and with singleness of heart, when all the while the purpose of their election was that they should give their votes and influence against Mr. Aldrich. This shows the relation of the school committee to the force of public sentiment, and why the petition addressed to the school committee, signed by an overwhelming majority of our most intelligent citizens, asking the reasons for the dismissal of Mr. Aldrich, was unheeded. We also see a reason why no report of the subcommittee appointed to hold hearings in the different schools, on the subject of the conduct of Mr. Aldrich, has been made. The motive and purpose of these hearings is believed by many to have been to create a public sentiment against the removal of Mr. Aldrich, in order to secure popular approval of their contemplated action.

—It was hoped that so much fault would be found with the management of the schools, that there would be a strong demand for the removal of the superintendent, on whose shoulders was to be laid the blame for the failure to adjust the curriculum in the schools to the needs of our people, but the evidence was so abundant and so unequivocal that the conduct of the schools was exceptionally satisfactory, that the report if honestly made would have reflected credit on the superintendent. Mr. Aldrich instead of the impression it was hoped to make; the only thing that could be done therefore was to suppress the report, and leave the public as far as possible in ignorance of the true state of affairs.

—It looks as though having made a bargain with their backers and received the benefits, they intended to honor the goods. For the breach of good faith towards the voters who elected them, and whose wishes they were supposed to represent, they have no need to feel. The efficiency of the schools would be seriously impaired; that the zealous and enthusiastic co-operation of the superintendent and teachers in the work of education would be interrupted; that a large number of money would be wasted, while the teachers were learning the ideas and methods of a new man, however good it might be; that years must elapse before the schools would be in as favorable a condition for the best work as they then were, made no difference so long as these men were able to satisfy a personal grudge or to pay a political debt, and believe that they had any higher motive or gave any more faithful consideration to the election of the new Superintendent than to the dismissal of the old? Have we reason to think that the school committee are governed by factors in their choice? Another unfortunate truth is that we have no remedy. The action of the school committee appears perfectly legal, and can be upheld by a new vote. No law can compel a school committee to act with justice and reason, nor to vote in accordance with the facts or for the public good. One thing however can be done; it can be done, and this is the object of the present article, it should be made as certain as death and taxes that none of these persons should ever again fill any office of trust in our city, and it should be made forever impossible that such action can be repeated. The registration of voters closes on the 18th of October. But little time remains; enough however to wish and urge to place the list the names of all qualified citizens. Let every man and woman who has a right to vote, register, attend the caucuses, and vote at the polls. Let no man be chosen for the school committee who can not give unequivocal assurance that he is unpledged to any person, clique or party, and that he will faithfully serve the interests of the city according to his ability and best judgment. If in spite of all this unsuitable candidates are forced upon us, let there be independent nomination papers for the choice of better material, and a full vote. We shall then have some chance to redeem our past delinquencies.

—GEO. W. BLODGETT, Abundant, Oct. 12th, 1899.

—Grander Than Niagara.

—A correspondent, writing in the London Spectator, says the Gersoppa falls, on the Sharavatti river, in South India, are larger and more magnificent than Niagara. He says: "The river is 250 yards wide. The clear fall is 820 feet. The Gersoppa falls in the rainy season are incomparably finer than Niagara in every respect. The roar of the falling waters is simply terrific. The whole earth shakes, and the thunder is so great that it completely drowns the human voice. When I visited Niagara and told my American friends about Gersoppa, they replied with polite incredulity. 'We never heard of Gersoppa,' I replied: 'Make your mind easy. The people at Gersoppa have never heard of Niagara.' If Niagara could see Gersoppa, she would wrap her head in a mist."

SCHOOL HISTORY RECALLED.

To the Editor of the GRAPHIC:—

The complete history of the movement for the displacement of our former school superintendent, Mr. Aldrich, from his position, has never been written, but enough is known to show that this was the consummation of plans laid long before, whereby the management of our schools is to be part of the perquisites of the political party in power.

While serving as a member of the committee of 16, on school matters, chosen at the Woodland Park hotel, I discovered by a mere accident evidence which showed beyond a reasonable doubt that the discharge of Mr. Aldrich was the result of an understanding between some of the recently elected members of the school committee and the politicians who placed them in nomination. Persons available for service on the school board were not nominated unless known to be opposed to Mr. Aldrich. In one instance, at least, an especially able and efficient member of the school committee was required to declare his opinion of the administration of the Superintendent, and when it was found to be favorable, was distinctly told he was not wanted on the board, and he was not nominated.

Previous to this time I had supposed these were fair-minded and honorable men who would conscientiously use their best judgment on all public matters, and while their conclusions might sometimes be wrong their purposes would be right, but this evidence shows there must have been an understanding, if not a definite promise, on the part of the members of the school committee, and those persons recommended as faithful citizens who were willing to give their time and experience for the public good, and therefore no reason was known why others should be preferred to them. Had it been suspected that they would barter the City's honor and the interests of our schools to revenge themselves for a real or fancied personal grievance, it is probable that not one of these candidates would have been elected. It seems to make no difference to them that they have brought lasting disgrace upon our good name and business honor. They have done what they could to make the office of Superintendent of Schools depend, not upon the fitness and faithfulness of the incumbent, but upon his subservience to the members of the committee who elected him. They have done what they could to make the management of our school political bazaar.

—It makes no particular difference with whom the movement originated or what the incentive; whether the reward was personal, partisan or political; whether the price paid was in the form of plunder, patronage or pelf; the malicious fact remains that these persons bartered the honor and good name of our city for their own private ends. They were put forward as the champions of the public good, and with singleness of heart, when all the while the purpose of their election was that they should give their votes and influence against Mr. Aldrich. This shows the relation of the school committee to the force of public sentiment, and why the petition addressed to the school committee, signed by an overwhelming majority of our most intelligent citizens, asking the reasons for the dismissal of Mr. Aldrich, was unheeded. We also see a reason why no report of the subcommittee appointed to hold hearings in the different schools, on the subject of the conduct of Mr. Aldrich, has been made. The motive and purpose of these hearings is believed by many to have been to create a public sentiment against the removal of Mr. Aldrich, in order to secure popular approval of their contemplated action.

—It was hoped that so much fault would be found with the management of the schools, that there would be a strong demand for the removal of the superintendent, on whose shoulders was to be laid the blame for the failure to adjust the curriculum in the schools to the needs of our people, but the evidence was so abundant and so unequivocal that the conduct of the schools was exceptionally satisfactory, that the report if honestly made would have reflected credit on the superintendent. Mr. Aldrich instead of the impression it was hoped to make; the only thing that could be done therefore was to suppress the report, and leave the public as far as possible in ignorance of the true state of affairs.

—It looks as though having made a bargain with their backers and received the benefits, they intended to honor the goods. For the breach of good faith towards the voters who elected them, and whose wishes they were supposed to represent, they have no need to feel. The efficiency of the schools would be seriously impaired; that the zealous and enthusiastic co-operation of the superintendent and teachers in the work of education would be interrupted; that a large number of money would be wasted, while the teachers were learning the ideas and methods of a new man, however good it might be; that years must elapse before the schools would be in as favorable a condition for the best work as they then were, made no difference so long as these men were able to satisfy a personal grudge or to pay a political debt, and believe that they had any higher motive or gave any more faithful consideration to the election of the new Superintendent than to the dismissal of the old? Have we reason to think that the school committee are governed by factors in their choice? Another unfortunate truth is that we have no remedy. The action of the school committee appears perfectly legal, and can be upheld by a new vote. No law can compel a school committee to act with justice and reason, nor to vote in accordance with the facts or for the public good. One thing however can be done; it can be done, and this is the object of the present article, it should be made as certain as death and taxes that none of these persons should ever again fill any office of trust in our city, and it should be made forever impossible that such action can be repeated. The registration of voters closes on the 18th of October. But little time remains; enough however to wish and urge to place the list the names of all qualified citizens. Let every man and woman who has a right to vote, register, attend the caucuses, and vote at the polls. Let no man be chosen for the school committee who can not give unequivocal assurance that he is unpledged to any person, clique or party, and that he will faithfully serve the interests of the city according to his ability and best judgment. If in spite of all this unsuitable candidates are forced upon us, let there be independent nomination papers for the choice of better material, and a full vote. We shall then have some chance to redeem our past delinquencies.

—GEO. W. BLODGETT, Abundant, Oct. 12th, 1899.

—Grander Than Niagara.

—A correspondent, writing in the London Spectator, says the Gersoppa falls, on the Sharavatti river, in South India, are larger and more magnificent than Niagara. He says: "The river is 250 yards wide. The clear fall is 820 feet. The Gersoppa falls in the rainy season are incomparably finer than Niagara in every respect. The roar of the falling waters is simply terrific. The whole earth shakes, and the thunder is so great that it completely drowns the human voice. When I visited Niagara and told my American friends about Gersoppa, they replied with polite incredulity. 'We never heard of Gersoppa,' I replied: 'Make your mind easy. The people at Gersoppa have never heard of Niagara.' If Niagara could see Gersoppa, she would wrap her head in a mist."

TWO FOUND DEAD

IN THE BARN OF THE CASEY ESTATE ON PARK STREET—MAN AND WOMAN DIED FROM POISON.

Officer McAleer made a ghastly discovery yesterday morning about 11 o'clock. On passing the stable attached to Mr. T. B. Casey's residence on Park street, he noticed a card on the barn, signed by Mrs. Casey, telling the coachman to call for her in town. He had noticed the same card the day before, and thinking that the coachman, whose name was William McCauley, had overslept, he pushed open the door of the barn and entered. He called but received no reply, and ascending the stairs to the room occupied by the coachman, he opened the door and was startled to find a man and woman lying dead in the room.

Everything in the room was in perfect order, and there were no marks of violence upon the bodies.

The medical examiner was summoned and made an inspection. He said that they had probably been dead since Tuesday, but was unable to state what was the cause of death. The general belief is that the two had taken poison.

McCauley was about 30 years old, and is said to have been born in Scotland. He had been employed by Mr. Casey for some time, and bore a good character. The dead woman was recognized as Josephine Peterson, who had been employed by Mr. Casey as a domestic. She was about 25 years old, and it is reported that she was engaged to be married to McCauley.

Mr. Casey and his family removed to Boston temporarily about two months ago, and the coachman was left in charge of the estate.

The horses in the stable had evidently been without food and water since Tuesday night, and passed by had noticed Wednesday that they seemed very uneasy. One of them had broken loose, but they had suffered no serious harm.

The bodies were removed to the Newton hospital morgue.

The investigation on the part of the police has been suspended, awaiting the result of the autopsy which Medical Examiner Meade is to perform today.

As to the cause of death Medical Examiner Meade would express no opinion, saying he preferred to wait until he had completed the autopsy. He scouted the theory that the couple might have been murdered.

Up to this morning the relatives of neither the man nor the woman had been heard from. McCauley is not known to have relations here, but the woman, it is thought, has some relatives in Marblehead or Quincy. The police say she has a brother in New York.

It is the general belief that the woman was responsible for the man's death as well as her own.

The positions of the bodies on the bed indicate, in the minds of some, that death was anticipated by the woman. Her arms were folded across her breast, but her face showed no marked signs of suffering. McCauley was lying on his side.

A pitcher of water was found on a chair near the bedside. This, it is claimed by some, may have contained poison. The pitcher and its contents have been taken in charge by the police and the water will probably be analyzed.

LATER DEVELOPMENTS.

Today the police seem satisfied that the case, though somewhat of a mystery, was clearly that of murder and suicide.

Last evening the theory of asphyxiation was exploded by an experiment made by Sergeant Purcell and Patrolman McAleer at the residence of Mr. T. B. Casey.

A fire was built in the stove of the coachman's room, but it was found that it created no gas, although the officers waited for some time.

Among the Peterson woman's effects was found a card bearing the name of Miss Peterson, a masseur in Boston. The Boston police were asked to look her up, but as yet have not made any reply.

THE AUTOPSY.

The autopsy was held this morning at the Newton Hospital morgue by Medical Examiner Meade of Watertown, and Dr. Harrington of Cambridge. At the close of the examination both man and woman were taken in charge by Dr. Harrington for analysis. Nothing further can be learned until Dr. Harrington makes his official report.

LANDSCAPE GARDENING.

The Newton cemetery furnishes some very interesting studies of good effects in landscape gardening, and the use of shrubs to mask unattractive views. Rough banks are made beautiful by skillful arrangement of shrubs, and rough buildings outside the cemetery are hidden from sight by shrubs, graded in height. A good deal of this work has been done this year, and the resources of the cemetery nurseries are being drawn upon.

If any one wishes to study the autumn foliage effects of the various kinds of shrubs, a visit to the cemetery will prove of great interest, at this time, as they are now in full glory.

The ravages of the grubs on the grass of the lawns have been repaired in great measure, the grass plots having been reseeded. It was found necessary to sow over again some four acres, but the new grass is now in fine condition, and the great number of trees and shrubs in the cemetery grounds, in their brilliant fall foliage, make it an unusually attractive place at this season.

"In the Philippines the Bible will follow the sword," said the pious imperialist. "I suppose so," assented the thoughtful citizen; "but do you think it will ever catch up?"—Puck.

WEARY WILLIE: "These horseless carriages is great, isn't it, dear?" Anxious Arthur: "Yes; but what day ever enters in a bite less dog?"—Baltimore American.

The Real Estate
Owner, Buyer, Agent,
All Refer to The

BOSTON HERALD

AS THE CREATEST
REAL ESTATE
MEDIUM

—IN—
NEW ENGLAND.

All Real Estate news, accurate and reliable, will be found in The Boston Herald.

Miner Robinson,

Electrical Engineer,

Room 302, Equitable Building, Boston. Residence, West Newton.

The fitting of private residences for the Electric Light specialty.
Boston, 3311. TELEPHONES—W. Newton, *141.

For Carbon and Platinum Photos
and Frames

Call on Newtonville Studio opp. Depot.
Tel. No. 234-4 Newton.

PHOTOGRAPHER Boston and vicinity.

ESTABLISHED 1869.
SIMPSON BROTHERS,
(CORPORATION) CONTRACTORS FOR
Concrete Walks and Driveways, Asphalt Floors, Artificial Stone Walks and Steel-Bound Curbs.
We are ready to receive orders or give estimates for work in private grounds.
P. O. Address, Newton, or Boston Office, Room 58, 166 Devonshire St.
Telephone 1155, Boston. Refer to 20 Years' Work in Newton.

FLANNEL

Petticoats

Nightrobes

AND

Dressing

Sacques.

29c
29c
39c
39c
50c
59c
75c
89c
$1.00
$1.25
25c
50c
75c
59c
69c
89c
25c
25c

Children's fancy stripe
Outing Flannel Night-
dresses, ages 2 to 6.

Children's fancy stripe
Outing Flannel Night-
robes, ages 2 to 6.

Children's fancy stripe
Outing Flannel Night-
robes, ages 8 to 12.

Children's fancy stripe
Outing Flannel Night-
robes, ages 2 to 6.

Children's fancy stripe
Outing Flannel Night-
robes, ages 2 to 6.

Children's fancy stripe
Outing Flannel Night-
robes, ages 2 to 6.

Children's fancy stripe
Outing Flannel Night-
robes, ages 2 to 6.

Children's fancy stripe
Outing Flannel Night-
robes, ages 2 to 6.

Children's fancy stripe
Outing Flannel Night-
robes, ages 2 to 6.

Children's fancy stripe
Outing Flannel Night-
robes, ages 2 to 6.

Children's fancy stripe
Outing Flannel Night-
robes, ages 2 to 6.

Children's fancy stripe
Outing Flannel Night-
robes, ages 2 to 6.

Children's fancy stripe
Outing Flannel Night-
robes, ages 2 to 6.

Children's fancy stripe
Outing Flannel Night-
robes, ages 2 to 6.

Children's fancy stripe
Outing Flannel Night-
robes, ages 2 to 6.

Children's fancy stripe
Outing Flannel Night-
robes, ages 2 to 6.

Children's fancy stripe
Outing Flannel Night-
robes, ages 2 to 6.

Children's fancy stripe
Outing Flannel Night-
robes, ages 2 to 6.

Children's fancy stripe
Outing Flannel Night-
robes, ages 2 to 6.

Children's fancy stripe
Outing Flannel Night-
robes, ages 2 to 6.

Children's fancy stripe
Outing Flannel Night-
robes, ages 2 to 6.

Children's fancy stripe
Outing Flannel Night-
robes, ages 2 to 6.

Children's fancy stripe
Outing Flannel Night-
robes, ages 2 to 6.

Children's fancy stripe
Outing Flannel Night-
robes, ages 2 to 6.

Children's fancy stripe
Outing Flannel Night-
robes, ages 2 to 6.

Children's fancy stripe
Outing Flannel Night-
robes, ages 2 to 6.

Children's fancy stripe
Outing Flannel Night-
robes, ages 2 to 6.

Children's fancy stripe
Outing Flannel Night-
robes, ages 2 to 6.

Children's fancy stripe
Outing Flannel Night-
robes, ages 2 to 6.

Children's fancy stripe
Outing Flannel Night-
robes, ages 2 to 6.

Children's fancy stripe
Outing Flannel Night-
robes, ages 2 to 6.

Children's fancy stripe
Outing Flannel Night-
robes, ages 2 to 6.

Children's fancy stripe
Outing Flannel Night-
robes, ages 2 to 6.

Children's fancy stripe
Outing Flannel Night-
robes, ages 2 to 6.

Children's fancy stripe
Outing Flannel Night-
robes, ages 2 to 6.

Children's fancy stripe
Outing Flannel Night-
robes, ages 2 to 6.

Children's fancy stripe
Outing Flannel Night-
robes, ages 2 to 6.

Children's fancy stripe
Outing Flannel Night-
robes, ages 2 to 6.

Children's fancy stripe
Outing Flannel Night-
robes, ages 2 to 6.

Children's fancy stripe
Outing Flannel Night-
robes, ages 2 to 6.

Children's fancy stripe
Outing Flannel Night-
robes, ages 2 to 6.

Children's fancy stripe
Outing Flannel Night-
robes, ages 2 to 6.

Children's fancy stripe
Outing Flannel Night-
robes, ages 2 to 6.

Children's fancy stripe
Outing Flannel Night-
robes, ages 2 to 6.

Children's fancy stripe
Outing Flannel Night-
robes, ages 2 to 6.

Children's fancy stripe
Outing Flannel Night-
robes, ages 2 to 6.

Children's fancy stripe
Outing Flannel Night-
robes, ages 2 to 6.

Children's fancy stripe
Outing Flannel Night-
robes, ages 2 to 6.

Children's fancy stripe
Outing Flannel Night-
robes, ages 2 to 6.

Children's fancy stripe
Outing Flannel Night-
robes, ages 2 to 6.

Children's fancy stripe
Outing Flannel Night-
robes, ages 2 to 6.

Children's fancy stripe
Outing Flannel Night-
robes, ages 2 to 6.

Children's fancy stripe
Outing Flannel Night-
robes, ages 2 to 6.

Turner & Williams,

Successors to G. H. Loomis,

Real Estate, Insurance

and Mortgagees.

Personal attention given to care of Estates
Collecting, rents, etc.

Newtonville, - Mass

JOHN B. TURNER. GEO. F. WILLIAMS

T. J. MALONE & CO.,

Slate, Metal and Gravel Roofing.

Gutters, and Conductors Put up and Repaired

Galvanized Iron Workers.

21 SOLEY ST., CHARLESTOWN.

Telephone 434-2.

Box 2, Barrett St. and 36 Brattle St., Boston.

JOHN J. REGO,

Merchant Tailor,

West Newton, Mass.

Customers can always rely on getting the best material and workmanship, and perfect fitting garments at moderate prices.

Special attention given to Ladies' Suits, riding habits, etc. Servants' livery to order.

Caroline Cook, Washington Street.

FUR GARMENTS

Redyed and Remodeled, all kinds of Fur work done in the most satisfactory manner. 10 years experience, references given.

Miss ANNIE M. FOOTE, 40 Union Park, BOSTON.

Your

Seal

AUBURNDALE.

—Dennis O'Donnell has recovered from a recent slight illness.

—Mr. F. E. Whiting has purchased a fine black driving horse.

—Mrs. Joseph Earle of Ash street is reported ill.

—Mrs. F. E. Whiting and children returned this week.

—Mr. Joseph Dearborn of Central street has returned from his New York trip.

—Mr. Gustave Nenefeld, the baker, has closed his Commonwealth avenue cafe.

—Mr. Frank W. Holt has resumed business duties after an enjoyable vacation.

—Mr. J. H. Houghton and family are occupying a new house on Bourne street.

—Mr. J. Whitman and family are occupying the P. A. Butler estate on Vista avenue.

—Mr. J. Archer and family, formerly of Melrose street, have removed to Mattapan.

—Mr. Charles Willcomb of Everett was here this week, the guest of Mrs. Patterson.

—Mrs. Hiram Perkins of Central street is the guest of her sister in Monson, this week.

—The highway department is macadamizing Auburn street in front of Plummer's block.

—Mr. C. G. Milham has disposed of his well known trotting horse to Boston parties.

—Mrs. Louise J. Moore of Commonwealth avenue is visiting her daughter in Chicago.

—Mr. W. P. Thorn has been entertaining friends this week at his residence on Melrose street.

—Mrs. Hiram Purcell of Central street has returned from visiting relatives in Westfield.

—Mr. and Mrs. George Brown returned this week from Allerton to their home on Wolcott street.

—Mr. Frank S. Harris of Charles street has entered the employ of the Harborside company of Boston.

—Mr. and Mrs. Kirk Corey were in Jefferson, N. H., recently, where they were guests at the "Waumbek."

—Mrs. Moore and family have removed from Commonwealth avenue to the Miller estate on Melrose street.

—Mr. and Mrs. George E. Keyes have returned from Quincy, N. H. Mr. Keyes' mother accompanies them.

—Mrs. E. M. Delano has returned from Northampton and is staying with Mrs. C. A. Miner of Lexington street.

—Mr. H. W. Robinson has closed his Lexington street residence this week and removed to Boston for the winter.

—Miss Agnes Magee is having a stable, which is at present about completed, added to her estate on Auburndale avenue.

—The Auburndale Review Club will meet with Miss Ella B. Smith, 15 Vista avenue, Tuesday morning, Oct. 17th.

—Miss Mamie E. Stiles was the leader of the young people's meeting at the Congregational church last Sunday evening.

—At the Congregational church last Sunday the annual offering for the American Board of Foreign Missions was taken up.

—The Ladies' Benevolent society of the Congregational church held its annual meeting in the vestry Wednesday morning.

—Mr. L. E. Bow, the former manager and proprietor of the Boston Food Fair, is in the same capacity at the Boston Food Fair.

—Mr. and Mrs. Herman Wischloski were in town last Saturday and Sunday, the guests of Mr. and Mrs. C. G. Milham of Newell road.

—Next Monday evening, members of Riverdale Lodge, N. E. O. P., will be entertained by Mrs. W. E. Thayer at her home on Ash street.

—Rev. E. E. Strong, D. D., was elected editorial secretary of the American Board of Foreign Missions at the annual convention held in Providence last week.

—Mr. William H. Bosworth of Rowe street is expected home to-morrow from East Pittsford, Maine, where he has been enjoying a two weeks' sunning trip.

—Mr. Walter L. Colby was in charge of the business men's dinner at the Congregational church last Sunday. "Politics and Religion" was the topic considered.

—Rev. Charles M. Southgate was the moderator at the meeting of the Suffolk West Association held at the United States Hotel, Boston, Monday morning.

—Dr. S. W. Dike read a paper on "How shall the church secure better laws and better citizenship," at the meeting of the Suffolk West Association, held in Boston, Monday.

—Mr. Elliott W. Keyes will open his new store in the Lay of block next Wednesday. He will make the occasion one to be remembered by his many customers and friends.

—Mr. Benj. L. Jones of Central street met with great success with his Boston terriers at the dog show at Danbury, Conn. Princess taking two first prizes and a silver cup, special Laurette first prize, and Tess, first prize.

—Auburndale Lodge 111, A. O. U. W., may occupy quarters in the new Taylor block on Auburn street. A committee of the lodge has the matter under consideration, and will probably report at the next meeting.

—The New England Peabody Home for Crippled Children has moved from Weston to Glen road, Woburn, Mass. The new home is said to be pleasantly located, and better adapted to the rapidly growing demands of this charity.

—There are letters in the postoffice for Miss Maud B. Binet, Mrs. E. W. Bowditch, Miss Kate Boyle, Mrs. F. Brown, William Butler, Miss Cornett, Mrs. Garves, Mrs. Le. Welton, Mrs. Morse, R. F. Stearns, Miss Walker, John Hayes, H. W. Lacey and W. J. Yapp.

—A large company of Norumbega Club members and their guests enjoyed a wist party and dance in the club rooms on Commonwealth avenue last Monday evening. An informal entertainment program was furnished, adding much to the pleasure of the evening. The committee in charge were Messrs. Sutherland, Coleman and O'Donnell.

—There seems to be a number of young boys, who apparently disregard the wishes of their parents and persist in climbing climbing chestnut trees. There has been no little complaint of late, and if some large property owner could be induced to prosecute the case in court, it would be an encouragement to the police, who are now striving to keep the boys in order.

—On the 14th of September "Horo Novissima" was given in Worcester cathedral, Eng., by a select chorus of 350 voices, with orchestra conducted by the composer, and two fine organs. The cathedral was crowded by an audience of more than 3000. There were many Americans.

—The proceeds of the annual "Three Choirs Festival" are issued for the support of the widows and orphans of clergymen. This year the amount was upwards of $20,000. The festival was opened by the Mayor in his civic robes, and the Lord Bishop officiated at the opening service in the cathedral.

—Prof. Parker has a pleasant story to tell of the hospitality and kindness he received during the festival week, averaging three invitations to lunch and dinner each day. The Mayor and the Bishop's functions were of especial elegance. On the day following the performance of his oratorio the chorus assembled, during the intermission, on the terraced slope at the west of the cathedral, which leads to the river Severn. The superintendent made a very cordial address to Prof. Parker in behalf of the chorus and presented him with an exquisite rose-jar of Worcester porcelain. The recipient, standing on the base of one of the buttresses, expressed his thanks and was loudly applauded when he referred to music as being the strongest bond to bind two nations together. Newspapers of London, Liverpool, Glasgow and many other cities, as well as the local papers, had long and favorable notices. The Musical Lines for September said: "The festival will be invested with unusual interest. It will be the occasion of the first appearance of an American composer at an English festival. We have much pleasure in supplying his portrait and in repeating the substance of his biography, which appeared in a recent issue: 'Much has been said on the entente cordiale between the two great English-speaking nations of the world. The theme is one which should never cease to vibrate in the hearts of all true sons and daughters of both countries. Therefore, as the oldest English musical journal, and representing the musicians of the old country, we extend a cordial welcome to an apostle of harmony from the other side of the Atlantic, the distinguished composer, who is to honor us with a visit at Worcester, in the person of Horatio William Parker.'"

To Cure Nervousness in One Week
To Cure Constipation in One Week
To Cure Indigestion in One Week
To Purify the Blood in One Week

Take Cleveland's Celery Compound Tea, 25c. If it fails to cure, we will cheerfully refund your money. (Trial size free.)

Arthur Hudson, Druggist, Newton.

NEWTON UPPER FALLS.

—Alderman Chesley has returned from New Hampshire.

—Mrs. Cooper and Mrs. Charles Mills returned this week from England.

—Mr. Charles Johnston has in his possession a native Porto Rican Lily of which he is very proud and which has been much admired by his friends.

—The Sewing Circle of the Methodist Episcopal church will hold a meeting next Wednesday in the church parlors, which will take the form of a supper and social.

—For greater convenience to my patrons I desire to announce that all calls for my services may be left with Mr. John W. Howe, High street, who will forward them to me with the greatest possible dispatch. Respectfully, HENRY F. CATE.

16tf

You assume no risk when you buy Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. A. Hudson, Newton; E. F. Partridge, Newtonville; B. Billings, Newton Upper Falls; J. H. Greer, Newton Highlands will refund your money if you are not satisfied after using it. It is everywhere admitted to be the most successful remedy in use for bowel complaints and the only one that never fails. It is pleasant, safe and reliable.

Esty-Newcomb.

The Congregational church at Newton Highlands was the scene of a pretty wedding last Wednesday evening, which was attended by many prominent young people from the south side of the city.

The bride was Miss S. Augusta Newcomb, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Newcomb of Centre street, and the groom Mr. Frederick S. Esty of Oak Hill.

The conventional decorations of palms, potted plants and flowers greatly beautified the interior of the church which was well filled with guests.

The ceremony took place at 8, Rev. C. E. Havens, pastor of the church officiating. The bride was given away by her brother, who was handsomely gowned in lonsdale silk with trimmings of chiffon and India silk, and carried a bouquet of lilies-of-the-valley.

Miss Abbie E. Newcomb, a sister, was the bride's principal attendant. She was dressed in pink organdie and carried roses. There were three little flower girls, Elsie M. Stronach of Newton Highlands, Herberta Clement of Cambridge and Florence Newcomb of Brookline.

Mr. James P. Esty, a brother of the groom, was best man, and the ushers were Herman C. Esty, Robert C. McCullough of Brookline, Fred A. Meyer of Dorchester and Edwin F. Gowell of Berwick, Me.

A reception at the home of the bride's parents followed the ceremony. Nearly 100 guests were present, and the young couple received congratulations standing in a bower of autumnal foliage.

After a wedding trip Mr. and Mrs. Esty will reside on Dedham street, Newton Highlands, and will be at home after Jan. 1.

NEWTON GOLF TOURNAMENT.

SCORES IN THE SECOND ROUND OF THE PLAY FOR THE CHAMPIONSHIP.

There has been much activity among Newton golfers since the preliminary round in the championship of the Newton tournament was completed last Saturday. The drawings for the separate matches of those who qualified for the championship and the consolation prize were made on that date.

According to the accepted rules of the tourney, all players were permitted to play on any links in the city, yet with but one exception all have chosen the links of the Newton golf club on Centre street.

As announced Wednesday evening some of the scores in the second round are as follows:

CHAMPIONSHIP ROUND.

G. A. Frost beat H. B. Day 4 up, 3 to play.

F. H. Hovey beat E. H. Kidder 4 up, 3 to play.

E. M. Noyes beat W. B. Merrill 2 up, 1 to play.

E. E. Warren beat C. W. Royce 5 up, 4 to play.

P. Dewey beat Dr. H. C. Perkins 3 up, 2 to play.

M. Stimson beat J. J. Walworth by default.

CONSOLATION ROUND.

G. H. Phelps beat H. L. Ayer 6 up, 5 to play.

George Linder beat Henry Haynie 1 up, none to play.

All the matches in the championship and consolation rounds have now been played, and it is expected that the remaining matches will not be announced until next Saturday.

REAL ESTATE.

Several parcels in Newton have been purchased by David C. Seager, as follows: On Kenrick street, 234 feet from Mary W. Taylor; on Kenrick terrace, 14,736 feet from Annie C. Kenrick; on Kenrick street, 12,407 feet, and on Waverley avenue, 12,262 feet, both from Mary M. Taylor and others.

Franklin W. Andrews has bought 1683 feet on Abbott street from Edward A. Wheeler, and 1703 feet on the same street from Louis F. Abbott.

Isaac F. Kingsbury, trustee, has sold two lots on Suffolk road, Chestnut Hill, Jessie D. Hollowell buying one of 7175 feet and Margaret C. Allen the other, containing 8574 feet.

A GOOD SERMON.

But the Reporter Made a Natural Mistake About a Tune.

A well known Milwaukee newspaper man, the hero of the tale, was confronted one Sunday evening many years ago with a problem which the reporter frequently encounters—namely, how to get three half hour assignments into one hour's time. To dispose of two within that period was not difficult, but when at 9 o'clock the task of covering a sermon delivered some 15 minutes before presented itself the problem became more involved. The minister could not be reached, nor could any of the congregation be located; consequently he chose the one alternative open, which was to take the subject announced in the morning paper and build up a notice from that. Whether or not this was wise is immaterial; the fact remains that he examined the files on his return to the office, found that the Rev. Mr. Smith would speak on "Gambling," and set about to "fake" his story.

Now, ordinarily—that is, perhaps—a brief notice might be made with some degree of safety with the material at hand, but in this instance the stock theme of gambling proved too great a temptation to resist. With a laudable ambition to display his versatility, the reporter started to construct a sermon of his own, picturing the evils of the vice under discussion in a fearless fashion and even employing direct quotations to lend vividness to his account. The story when completed was a gem, and the newspaper man turned his copy in with an "I consider that a pretty creditable job" air.

And now comes the pathos which this tale involves. The Rev. Mr. Smith called at the office on the following afternoon and inquired for the man who had reported his sermon of the evening before. Accordingly the reporter was summoned, and this is the conversation that ensued:

"So you are the young man who wrote up my sermon, are you?"

"Yes, sir," not without a slight misgiving. "Was anything the matter with it?"

"No, young man, it was an excellent sermon, excellent, and it expressed my sentiments exactly. But," and he laid a disagreeable emphasis on the word, "but there was one objection. My last evening's subject was 'Gambling,' not 'Gambling.'"

The remainder of the conversation and the sequel to the incident are too painful to detail. But to this day that newspaper man never hears the word gambling without an uncomfortable start. And, as has been suggested, even reporters sometimes make mistakes.—Milwaukee Sentinel.

A Dismal View of Life.

What a dismal old world this is, anyway. In January and February we are in danger of freezing; in March we shiver and chill and are liable to contract pneumonia; in May and June there is liable at any moment to be a deficiency of cyclone caves; before the danger of destruction by the elements is over gnats, flies and mosquitoes arrive in unnumbered millions, and each one seems anxious to do business. With July, August and September come miasma and microbes and green corn, any one of which, if absorbed or taken in allopathic doses, will produce a fatal feeling with complications.

October is a bad month for chills and fever. It is also about the season of the year when the bedbugs assemble in all the vigor derived from a season of feasting and make a final and desperate assault preparatory to retiring into a state of innocuous desuetude for the winter. Following this month comes the putting up of stores and connection of pipe, payment of coal bills, winter clothes, etc. Innumerable things, such as house cleaning and political campaigns, are not included in the list of tribulations.

How so many people manage to run the gamut and reach old age is simply marvelous.—Glidden (La.) Graphic.

Spirit Photographs.

"It isn't such a difficult thing to make photographs of the spirits if you know one or two little secrets," said a photographer. "Prepared plates are kept in stock by many dealers in photographic supplies and are sold to all who send a special order for them. A certain symbol in an order for plates means that 'doctored' plates are wanted."

"A trick of some mediums is to tell persons who consult them that they can prove the authenticity of spirit photography for themselves. The medium mentions one or two dealers in photographic supplies and says that plates of a high sensitive power can be obtained from them. These credulous persons then take photographs of themselves by means of a mechanical device, and upon developing the plates are impressed deeply at finding other faces beside their own on the plates."

"Sometimes prepared plates find their way into boxes ordered by persons who are not spiritualists, in which case the dealer who sold them is accused of selling bad plates, and the spirits are not held responsible."—New York Press.

A Queer Payment.

A Yorkshire clergyman married a couple in his church recently, and after he had pronounced them man and wife the groom took him to one side and asked what the damage was.

The person told him that there was no fixed amount. He might give whatever he chose.

"Parson," said he, "I've got five grayhound pups at home, for which I am asking a sovereign apiece, and I'll let you have one for half a sovereign."

Of course the clergyman declined so ridiculous a fee, as he had no use for a grayhound pup.

When he got home he must have found his wife better than expected, for he sent the parson one of the pups, accompanied with a letter saying that he was so happy with Maria that he would give him a dog for nothing.—London Spare Moments.

To Cure Warts.

The remedy for warts is to take epsom salts. Why sulphate of magnesium should cure warts I cannot tell, but it is enough for me to know that it does so. I believe the discovery was made by a French doctor and whoever made it deserves the thanks of thousands. The dose of salts varies according to age, etc. One physician promptly cured several children of warts by giving them three grain doses of salts morning and evening. Another medical man cured a woman whose face was disfigured with warts in a month. She took a grain and a half of salts every day. In another case a person suffering from large warts was cured by taking ten grains of the salts daily for a fortnight.—Home Notes.

SUNDAY READING.

THREE GATES.

If you are tempted to reveal
A tale some one to you has told
About another, make it pass,
Before you speak, three gates of gold.

These narrow gates—First, "Is it true?"
Then, "Is it useful?" In your mind
Give truthful answer. And the next
Is last and narrowest—"Is it kind?"

And if to reach your lips at last
It passes through these gateways three,
Then you may tell the tale, nor fear
What the result of speech may be.

"BE-CAUSE I LIVE, YE SHALL LIVE ALSO."

For all the wealth that this our world can claim,
Yea, all the honors which this life can give,
Its influence, pleasures, and its glory, fame—
Earth's most seductive praise, from all who live,
For these, and more, I would not, could not part
With this, the sacred promise of our Lord:
The deep abiding solace of my heart
Thy ever precious truth—Incorrupt Word.

"Because I live, ye too O man, shall live.
Were it not so, I would surely tell,
My human life for you I freely give.
And where I am, there ye my friends shall dwell."
This deeply fills my soul, this keeps me still,
And help me bow before God's holy will.

A. M. S.

THE GOLDEN POCKET PIECE.

A very interesting story is told by a clergyman of how a poor English woman's gift of a half sovereign cheered him when he was discouraged, and how it was the beginning of his success in collecting quite a sum of money for the new church he was building out in the far West.

He had come East hoping to raise a large amount, but he found people so busy with so many kinds of work here that he began to think he would have to go back home without any of the aid his struggling parish so much needed.

One rainy night he was invited to speak in a large church. There were but few people present, but among them was a poor English woman, who had been but a short time in this country, and was employed as a servant.

She was a stranger to nearly every one present, but, as she said, felt at home in the church for it reminded her of the dear old parish church at home, and the comfort she had found there. Well, when the service was over, she came up to the missionary and said: "Will you please take this to help on your work out in the West? It is not much, but you're welcome to it, sir."

She handed him a gold piece. Perhaps she had been carrying it for years and she looked so poor he hesitated about taking it, but she insisted upon giving it to him, and says he, "My heart was cheered from that moment. I showed it to the wealthy men in the city and told them of this poor woman's eagerness to help, and the result was that they all gave me six or eight shillings all crying together, as was the case once in a city church. Why it was so distracting that you could scarcely hear the voice of the minister."

A pretty incident happened once at a baptism. As the clergyman raised his hand over the head of the baby to pour the water, the baby raised its little hands caught the minister's hand, gripped it, and tried to raise itself up from his arm. Looking down at it the old clergyman said, "Dear little child, may you always seize the hand that is stretched out to bring you nearest to the blessed Christ."

It was very touching once to see a poor fatherless little girl follow her mother up to the chancel railing as she went to receive the Communion. The mother bowed down with the sorrow of her recent bereavement, forgot to tell the little one to remain seated in the pew, and was unconscious of her presence at the chancel railing, until she found her kneeling by her side. And although the little one was too young to receive the Communion, the kneeling figure suggested to many who looked on, that the dear Christ would not turn her away that day unblessed from the altar.

"I wish to express my thanks to the manufacturers of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, for having put on the market such a wonderful medicine," says W. W. Musking of Beaumont, Texas. "There are many thousands of mothers whose children have been saved from attacks of dysentery and cholera infantum who must also feel thankful. It is for sale by A. Hudson, Newton; E. F. Partridge, Newtonville; B. Billings, Newton Upper Falls; J. H. Greer, Newton Highlands."

DR. PIERCE'S FAVORITE PRESCRIPTION

"I had been a sufferer for many years from nervousness with all its symptoms and complications," writes Mr. O. N. Fisher, 1861 Lexington Ave., New York, N. Y. "I was constantly going to see a physician or purchasing medicine. In the spring of 1897 my husband induced me to try Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. After taking one bottle and following your advice I was so encouraged that I took five more bottles, and then stopped for several weeks as I felt so much better, but still I was not completely cured. I commenced taking it again and felt that I was improving faster than at first. I am not now cross and irritable, and I have a good color in my face; have also gained about ten pounds in weight and one thousand pounds of comfort, for I am a new woman once more and your advice and your 'Favorite Prescription' is the cause of it, coupled with the 'Pleasant Pellets' which are not to be dispensed with. I took eight bottles of the 'Prescription' the last time, making fourteen in all, and will not take any more unless you so advise, for I do not see as I need it."

DR. PIERCE'S FAVORITE PRESCRIPTION

DR. PIERCE'S FAVORITE PRESCRIPTION

DR. PIERCE'S FAVORITE PRESCRIPTION

DR. PIERCE'S FAVORITE PRESCRIPTION

DR. PIERCE'S FAVORITE PRESCRIPTION

DR. PIERCE'S FAVORITE PRESCRIPTION

DR. PIERCE'S FAVORITE PRESCRIPTION

DR. PIERCE'S FAVORITE PRESCRIPTION

DR. PIERCE'S FAVORITE PRESCRIPTION

DR. PIERCE'S FAVORITE PRESCRIPTION

DR. PIERCE'S FAVORITE PRESCRIPTION

DR. PIERCE'S FAVORITE PRESCRIPTION

DR. PIERCE'S FAVORITE PRESCRIPTION

DR. PIERCE'S FAVORITE PRESCRIPTION

DR. PIERCE'S FAVORITE PRESCRIPTION

DR. PIERCE'S FAVORITE PRESCRIPTION

DR. PIERCE'S FAVORITE PRESCRIPTION

DR. PIERCE'S FAVORITE PRESCRIPTION

DR. PIERCE'S FAVORITE PRESCRIPTION

DR. PIERCE'S FAVORITE PRESCRIPTION

DR. PIERCE'S FAVORITE PRESCRIPTION

DR. PIERCE'S FAVORITE PRESCRIPTION

DR. PIERCE'S FAVORITE PRESCRIPTION

DR. PIERCE'S FAVORITE PRESCRIPTION

DR. PIERCE'S FAVORITE PRESCRIPTION

DR. PIERCE'S FAVORITE PRESCRIPTION

DR. PIERCE'S FAVORITE PRESCRIPTION

DR. PIERCE'S FAVORITE PRESCRIPTION

DR. PIERCE'S FAVORITE PRESCRIPTION

DR. PIERCE'S FAVORITE PRESCRIPTION

DR. PIERCE'S FAVORITE PRESCRIPTION

DR. PIERCE'S FAVORITE PRESCRIPTION

DR. PIERCE'S FAVORITE PRESCRIPTION

DR. PIERCE'S FAVORITE PRESCRIPTION

DR. PIERCE'S FAVORITE PRESCRIPTION

DR. PIERCE'S FAVORITE PRESCRIPTION

DR. PIERCE'S FAVORITE PRESCRIPTION

DR. PIERCE'S FAVORITE PRESCRIPTION

DR. PIERCE'S FAVORITE PRESCRIPTION

DR. PIERCE'S FAVORITE PRESCRIPTION

DR. PIERCE'S FAVORITE PRESCRIPTION

DR. PIERCE'S FAVORITE PRESCRIPTION

DR. PIERCE'S FAVORITE PRESCRIPTION

The Coming Man

THE SILENT SEAMAN.

HE WAS AN OLD BO'SUN'S MATE, AND HE HATED TALKERS.

His Aversion to Words, However, Did Not Prevent Him From Talking Himself on One Occasion, and After He Got Through Talking He Acted.

"We had an old bo'sun's mate on the Marion a few years ago whose taciturnity was known among all the old timers in the service," said a naval officer now on departmental duty. "He was a fine sailorman, and he had been in the American naval service for more than 30 years. In the course of that whole period it was stated by his oldest shipmates that he had probably not spoken more than 1,000 superfluous words. His aversion to speech he applied to all hands.

"The old man hated talkers, and sea lawyers only excited grunts of disgust from his shaggy throat. He had a massive contempt for modern ships of war. He didn't express his preference for the old windjammers like the Marion in words, but every time we happened upon one of the new steel cruisers he would regard the modern vessel suspiciously out of the tail of his eye and jerk his thumb toward her in speechless contempt. He never talked so much as when he was assigned to the gangway to give out the ship's calls—pass the word, that is—he begged off on the ground that he was a 'workin' man-o'-warman' and not a 'man-o'-war chaw'."

"Nobody knew anything about his antecedents, where he came from or anything of that sort. The most that was known of him was that he had a wife somewhere in the state of California, to whom he sent each month one-half of his pay through the paymaster. There was no record of his ever having seen his wife during a period of about 15 years. He always shipped right over directly one enlistment was served, never took any shore leave and never, to any one's knowledge, went on a visit to his wife.

"One day while we were tied up at Mare Island the old bo'sun's mate stood at the gangway watching the boatswain aboard of a big batch of recruits from the receiving ship Independence. They were all newly shipped landmen, and pretty raw looking at that. The old man did considerable grunting as he watched them clumsily come over the side with their bags and hammocks. He was one of the kind of old tars who can't realize that sailormen have to start salorizing at some time or the other, and he had been in the service so long that he had probably quite forgotten that he had even been a raw 'un himself, unfamiliar with the difference between the cathead and the mizzen staff.

"One of the young chaps who came aboard seemed to catch the old man's eye, and he sized him up narrowly. He kept his eye on this particular landman for some time, but he said nothing. The object of his scrutiny was a raw boned, clumsy looking lad of 20 or so. The whole bunch of them were given liberty on the morning after they came aboard. They returned to the ship in fairly good shape on the same evening, except that about a dozen of them were pretty stoggy.

"One of the groggy ones was the young chap who had caught the eye of the old bo'sun's mate. The young fellow had apparently been having a pretty wild time during his liberty, and he had about all he could do to get up the gangway ladder. The old bo'sun's mate watched the crowd come aboard, and when this particular landman stumbled up the ladder and drunkenly made as if to salute the officer of the deck and go forward the old man jumped to the mast like a flash and had the young fellow by the scruff of the neck. He led his captive up to the officer of the deck, made the scrape employed by the old timers, cleared his throat and said:

"'Instead o' puttin this 'un in th' brig, sir, I'd like to have you hand him over to me.'"

"This sounded pretty odd to the officer of the deck. He didn't know what the old man meant.

"'What do you want with him?' inquired the officer of the deck.

"The old man knuckled his forehead for a minute, wiped his mouth with the back of his hand and said:

"'I want to have an idea or two into his carcass about the evils o' this here shore drinking.'"

"But what have you got to do with his drunkenness?" asked the deck officer.

"'Why, th' swab's my son,' said the old man.

"The officer of the deck couldn't help but break into a laugh, the spectacle was so ridiculous. The youth, whose collar was still gripped by the old man's horny paw, had the funniest conceivable expression of surprise on his drunken face. It afterward came out that while he knew in a general way that his father was in the A. S. navy, he had no idea what ship he was serving on, and it is no wonder that this peculiar way of meeting with his dad rather surprised him.

"Go forward, the both of you," said the officer of the deck, smiling, and the old man hauled his brawny, raw boned son up forward under the gallant foot'sie, where he deliberately laid him over his knee and spanked him good and hard with the blunt end of a marlinpike, while all the rest of the crew stood about giving the drunken lad the laugh. The boy staid aboard that ship and developed into a good sailorman under the old man's tutelage, but he never returned from liberty again in a drunken condition while I was attached to the Marion."—Washington Star.

A Mean Critic.

An amusing story is told of a well known whist player who imagined himself an authority on the game. After boring his friends with verbal comments, suggestions and advice upon the methods of play he at last wrote and published a book. One copy was sent to a famous player for his opinion about it. In about a week the book was returned to him, with the following letter:

"My Dear Sir—Your favor of the inst., accompanied by your book, was duly received. I have read it very carefully. It seems to be a very good game, but I don't think it is as good a game as whist. Sincerely yours, ———"

All of the society news which is printed in London papers is paid for, the same as other advertisements, and much of that which is printed in American papers ought to be.—Milwaukee Sentinel.

What this world thinks of a man depends mostly upon his self esteem and good looks.—Cleveland Leader.

Obsolete Words in 1760 in Use Today.

"As I was passing a secondhand bookshop one day recently," said the man who buys books, "I saw three old volumes of Thomson's plays—yours know, the man who wrote 'The Seasons'—lying with a pile of 10-cent books. They were published in 1760, and the plays were played by Mrs. Wollington, Mr. Garrick, Mr. Sheridan and Mr. and Mrs. Cibber.

"What interested me really more than the plays was a list of obsolete words used in a long poem in one volume—a list of words with their definitions—and I was struck by the fact that a great many of the words that were obsolete in 1760 and had to be defined to Thomson's readers are in common use today. Appall, deftly, fays, glue, carol, scar and unkempt are only a few that I recall.

"There was one word, however, in the list that is still obsolete and ought to be revived. It is the word 'swink,' and it means to labor. I think it's a beautiful word. Doesn't it convey the impression of earning one's living in the sweat of one's brow, though? It's a word the language needs, and I mean to do all I can to make the word popular again. It sounds like a word invented by Lewis Carroll, but it isn't. It's a well descended, well connected word, and it ought to be revived. 'Swink!' Could anything be more full of meaning?"—Washington Post.

Summer Homes.

The rich who build country houses at great expense may be sure of one of two things—either the summer palace will be burned down some time or when the owner dies it will be sold for less than a quarter of what it cost. Our modern architecture is fashionable architecture, and like all other fashions, it soon becomes out of date, old style and distasteful to the exalted ideas of newer wealth.

The shores of New England are starred with unique and costly summer residences, and, with few exceptions, in 20 or 30 years they will look dowdy, if that term can be applied to houses, and when they are put on the market, unless the location has appreciated in value beyond calculation, they go for a relative song. Is it not a pity this should be the mushroom fate of so many American homes?—Boston Herald.

A Polite Monkey.

"Yes, monkey shooting in Borneo is great sport," said old traveler as he settled himself comfortably in the big guest chair in the hotel lobby. "Monkeys are such human acting things. I shall never forget a pair that I saw one day. They were in the range, and I was just about to shoot, but decided to watch them for a few minutes before doing so. Well, it was amusing. There they were, walking side by side, like a pair of lovers.

"Finally they came to a log, sat down and talked awhile and then decided to move on. Well, Mr. Monkey, who was the larger of the two, got up first. Then he turned to Mrs. Monkey, and you never saw anything more gallant than the way he extended his arm and helped her up. It was too much for me. I didn't have the heart to shoot after that."—Detroit Free Press.

Woodland Park Hotel.

Mr. M. M. Smith, of the firm of Smith & Paine, 222 Church Street in Boston, jewelers, has taken rooms for the season.

Mrs. A. M. Hutchinson, No. Woodstock St., Mrs. C. C. Poor, Newton, Mrs. O. P. Howe, Boston, arrived last week for the month of October.

Mr. M. F. Skinner returned on Sunday for the winter.

Dr. J. W. Ball, a prominent Back Bay dentist, and wife have taken apartments for the winter.

The Yale and Dartmouth foot ball teams are expected at the hotel on Friday evening, and will remain here until after the game on Saturday at the Newton A. A. grounds.

Mr. Butler has had a number of lockers put up in the casino for the use of the members of the Woodland Park Club.

Plans have been submitted for the addition of four new bath rooms, which, when completed, will make four new suites with bath connection.

Dr. F. M. Johnson and wife, John A. Hayes, J. D. Sprague, H. H. Whittemore, A. W. Harden, Boston, S. D. Inslee, Cambridge, were among those registered at the hotel last week.

Legal Notices.

By J. ALFRED ANDERSON, Auctioneer.
Office 209 Washington St., Boston.

Mortgagee's Sale.

By virtue of the power of sale contained in a mortgage deed given by Charles F. Bowker to Philip Gardner, dated December 5, A. D. 1898 and recorded with Middlesex So. Dist. Deeds, book 2319, page 129, which mortgage has since been assigned to George W. Taylor, by deed of assignment, dated December 4, A. D. 1897, and recorded with Middlesex So. Dist. Deeds, book 20, page 104 and assigned by said Taylor to Ethel Beers by assignment dated September 26, A. D. 1899 to be recorded, for default in the performance of the condition of said mortgage and for the purpose of foreclosing the same, will be sold at public auction upon the premises hereinafter described, on Monday, the 23rd day of October A. D. 1899, at 3:30 o'clock in the afternoon, all and singular the premises situated in that part of Newton called Newton Highlands, and bounded as follows, viz:—

Beginning at a point on the northwesterly side of Saxon Road at land of Moses G. Crane said Saxon Road being a new street leading North easterly from Griffin Avenue, and distant one hundred and seventy and 68-100 feet northwesterly from land of Eastbrook; thence running Northwesterly by said land of Crane, one hundred and thirteen feet; thence running Southeast by said land of Crane, ninety-five feet; thence running Southeast by land of Richards, one hundred thirty and 50-100 feet; thence running Northwesterly by Saxon Road eighty feet to the point of beginning. Containing 9178 square feet of land. And being the same premises conveyed to me by Nathan D. Parker by deed dated September 16, 1896 and duly recorded with Middlesex So. Dist. Deeds, book 2494, page 556. Subject to the restrictions referred to therein and to a mortgage of Forty two Hundred Dollars to the Newton Savings Bank Recorded Book 2293, Page 136.

Together with a right of way in said Saxon Road being a new street leading North easterly from Griffin Avenue.

Sold subject to a mortgage of $4200 to the Newton Savings Bank and accrued interest, and all unpaid taxes and assessments, if any.

Terms $500 cash at sale; other terms made known at time and place of sale.

ETHEL BEERS, Assignee and owner of mortgage.

Sept. 28, 1899.

Commonwealth of Massachusetts.

MIDDLESEX SS.

PROBATE COURT.

To the heirs-at-law, next of kin, creditors and all other persons interested in the estate of Elizabeth T. Ryder late of Newton, in said County deceased, intestate, do hereby give notice that WHEREAS, a petition has been presented to said Court to grant a letter of administration on the estate of said deceased, George E. Ryder, late of Newton in the County of Middlesex, without giving a surety on his bond.

And the petitioner is hereby directed to give public notice thereof, publishing this citation once in each week, for three successive weeks, in the Newton Graphic, a newspaper published in the County of Middlesex, to be one day, at least, before said Court.

Witness, Charles J. McIntire, Esquire, First Judge of said Court, this 10th day of October, in the year one thousand eight hundred and ninety-nine.

S. H. FOLSOM, Register.

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN, that the subscriber has been duly appointed executrix of the will of Martha Ann Hanson late of Newton in the County of Middlesex, deceased, testate, and taken upon herself to administer by giving bond, as the law directs. All persons having demands upon the estate of said deceased are hereby notified to present the same, and all persons indebted to said estate are called upon to make payment to MARY ISABEL WATERHOUSE, Executrix.

Address Lowell Ave., Newtonville, October 6, 1899.

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN, that the subscriber has been duly appointed executor of the will of Frederick R. Smith, late of Newton in the County of Middlesex, deceased, testate, and has taken upon himself to administer by giving bond, as the law directs. All persons having demands upon the estate of said deceased are hereby notified to present the same, and all persons indebted to said estate are called upon to make payment to

CHARLES B. MOORE, Executor.

155 Summer Street, Newton Centre, Oct. 3, 1899.

Mortgagee's Sale.

By virtue of the power of sale contained in a certain mortgage deed given by Daniel Manning to George G. Brewer, dated November 16th, A. D. 1898, and recorded with Middlesex South District Deeds, book 2766, page 307, for breach of the condition of said mortgage, and for the purpose of foreclosing the same, will be sold at public auction upon the premises hereinafter described, on Monday the twenty-third day of October A. D. 1899, at twenty minutes past four o'clock in the afternoon, all and singular the premises conveyed by said mortgage, and therein described substantially as follows: A certain parcel of land situated in Newton in the County of Middlesex, and bounded as follows: Beginning at a point on the northwesterly side of Saxon Road at land of Moses G. Crane said Saxon Road being a new street leading North easterly from Griffin Avenue, and distant one hundred and seventy and 68-100 feet northwesterly from land of Eastbrook; thence running Northwesterly by said land of Crane, one hundred and thirteen feet; thence running Southeast by said land of Crane, ninety-five feet; thence running Southeast by land of Richards, one hundred thirty and 50-100 feet; thence running Northwesterly by Saxon Road eighty feet to the point of beginning. Containing 9178 square feet of land. And being the same premises conveyed to me by Nathan D. Parker by deed dated September 16, 1896 and duly recorded with Middlesex So. Dist. Deeds, book 2494, page 556. Subject to the restrictions referred to therein and to a mortgage of Forty two Hundred Dollars to the Newton Savings Bank Recorded Book 2293, Page 136.

Together with a right of way in said Saxon Road being a new street leading North easterly from Griffin Avenue.

Sold subject to a mortgage of $4200 to the Newton Savings Bank and accrued interest, and all unpaid taxes and assessments, if any.

Terms $500 cash at sale; other terms made known at time and place of sale.

ETHEL BEERS, Assignee and owner of mortgage.

Sept. 28, 1899.

Sheriff's Sale.

Commonwealth of Massachusetts.

MIDDLESEX SS. September 16th, 1899.

Seized and taken on execution and will be sold at public auction at my office in my dwelling No. 222 Church Street in Boston, in said County of Middlesex, on Wednesday the 1st day of November, 1899, at nine o'clock A. M. all the right title and interest in and to the following described real estate, to wit:—

1st. A certain parcel of land with the buildings thereon situated in Everett, in said County of Middlesex, and being lots numbered 6 and 7 and a part of lot numbered 8 on a plan of land in Everett, belonging to Henderson Brothers, A. F. and N. S. Sargent, Surveyors, dated December 15, 1885, recorded with Middlesex South District Deeds, Book of Plans 47, plan number 29, bounded Southerly on Hawthorn street 116 feet; Easterly on Main street 50.16 feet; Northerly on said Plan 106.66 feet; Westerly by the remaining part of lot No. 5, 50 feet.

2nd. Also a certain lot of land with the buildings thereon, situated in said Everett, being lot No. 5 on a plan of land in Everett, belonging to James and John D. Henderson, drawn by J. F. Nichols, C. E., May 1, 1891, recorded with Middlesex South District Deeds, Book of Plans No. 68, Plan 9; and bounded and described as follows:—Northwesterly by Cottage street 100 feet; Southerly by said Plan 100 feet; Easterly by said Plan 100 feet; Westerly by lot No. 4 on said plan, 95.83 feet. Containing 422 1/2 square feet or less.

Also will be sold at the same time and place all the right title and interest in and to the following described real estate, to wit:—

Henderson on said September 16th, 1899, at 11 o'clock A. M. (that being the time when the same was seized and taken on execution) in and to the estate of Elizabeth T. Ryder late of Newton in the County of Middlesex, deceased, intestate, and has taken upon himself that trust by giving bond, as the law directs. All persons having demands upon the estate of said deceased are hereby notified to present the same, and all persons indebted to said estate are called upon to make payment to CLIFFORD L. BREMER, Administrator.

(Address: 536 Tremont Bldg., Boston, Sept. 28th, 1899.)

Member of the Master Builders' Association, 166 Devonshire Street.

(Established 1836, (Incorporated 1891.) Connected by Telephone.

JOHN FARQUHAR'S SONS, INCORPORATED.

Roofers, Metal Workers, Slate, Copper, Tin, Tile and Compositors.

Roofing, Galvanized Iron Work, Dealers in Roofing Materials.

20 and 22 East Street, Boston.

Special attention given to Repairs of all kinds of Roofing.

Samuel Farquhar, Pres't; David Farquhar Sec'y and Treas.; Joseph Farquhar, Supt.; Rol in Farquhar, Frank C. Farquhar, Directors.

C. A. Harrington, LUMBER,

Lime, Cement, Plaster, Etc.

CRAV'S STREET, NEWTONVILLE.

Telephone 2247-Newton.

TYPEWRITERS

SOLD AND RENTED.

All Standard Machines. Moderate Prices. Repairing. Supplies.

THORP & MARTIN CO.

12 Milk St., Boston, Mass.

Boston, Sept. 27, 1899.

Mortgagee's Sale.

By virtue of the power of sale contained in a certain mortgage deed given by Daniel Manning to George G. Brewer, dated Aug. 24th, A. D. 1898 and recorded with Middlesex South District Deeds, book 2094, page 204, for breach of the condition of said mortgage, and for the purpose of foreclosing the same, will be sold at public auction upon the premises hereinafter described, on Monday the twenty-third day of October A. D. 1899, at ten minutes past four o'clock in the afternoon, all and singular the premises conveyed by said mortgage deed and therein described substantially as follows: A certain parcel of land with the buildings thereon situated in Newton in the County of Middlesex, and bounded as follows: Beginning at a point on the northwesterly side of Saxon Road at land of Moses G. Crane said Saxon Road being a new street leading North easterly from Griffin Avenue, and distant one hundred and seventy and 68-100 feet northwesterly from land of Eastbrook; thence running Northwesterly by said land of Crane, one hundred and thirteen feet; thence running Southeast by said land of Crane, ninety-five feet; thence running Southeast by land of Richards, one hundred thirty and 50-100 feet; thence running Northwesterly by Saxon Road eighty feet to the point of beginning. Containing 9178 square feet of land. And being the same premises conveyed to me by Nathan D. Parker by deed dated September 16, 1896 and duly recorded with Middlesex So. Dist. Deeds, book 2494, page 556. Subject to the restrictions referred to therein and to a mortgage of Forty two Hundred Dollars to the Newton Savings Bank Recorded Book 2293, Page 136.

Together with a right of way in said Saxon Road being a new street leading North easterly from Griffin Avenue.

Sold subject to a mortgage of $4200 to the Newton Savings Bank and accrued interest, and all unpaid taxes and assessments, if any.

Terms $500 cash at sale; other terms made known at time and place of sale.

ETHEL BEERS, Assignee and owner of mortgage.

Sept. 28, 1899.

JOHN FARQUHAR'S SONS, INCORPORATED.

Roofers, Metal Workers, Slate, Copper, Tin, Tile and Compositors.

Roofing, Galvanized Iron Work, Dealers in Roofing Materials.

20 and 22 East Street, Boston.

Special attention given to Repairs of all kinds of Roofing.

Samuel Farquhar, Pres't; David Farquhar Sec'y and Treas.; Joseph Farquhar, Supt.; Rol in Farquhar, Frank C. Farquhar, Directors.

C. A. Harrington, LUMBER,

Lime, Cement, Plaster, Etc.

CRAV'S STREET, NEWTONVILLE.

Telephone 2247-Newton.

TYPEWRITERS

SOLD AND RENTED.

All Standard Machines. Moderate Prices. Repairing. Supplies.

THORP & MARTIN CO.

12 Milk St., Boston, Mass.

Boston, Sept. 27, 1899.

Veterinary Surgeon.

MADISON BUNKER, D. V. S.

Veterinary Surgeon.

Residence, 4 Baldwin St., corner Elmwood, NEWTON, MASS.

Telephone Connection.

M. C. HIGGINS,

PRACTICAL PLUMBER

SANITARY ENGINEER.

Plumbing Work in all its Branches.

Having had twenty-two years' experience in the business in this city, perfect satisfaction is guaranteed.

Summer's Block, Newton.

Telephone No. 100-3.

WANTED—Case of bad health that R-T-P-A-N-S will not benefit. Send 5 cents to Ripans Chemical Co., New York, for 10 samples and 1,000 testimonials.

T. F. GLENNAN.

CARRIAGE TRIMMING

and Harness Making.

BLANKETS, ROBES, WHIPS, ETC.

Washington St., Newton.

REGISTRATION

OF

VOTERS

For Elections of 1899.

Chapter 548, Acts 1898.

Notice is hereby given that the Registrars of Voters, commencing Monday, October 2, 1899, will hold sessions for the registration of Voters, and to correct and revise the Ward Lists at the City Clerk's office, City Hall, daily as follows, viz: 8:30 A. M. to 12 o'clock M.; 2 to 5 P. M. except on Wednesday, October eighteenth, as hereinafter stated and except Saturdays, when the hours are from 8:30 o'clock A. M. to 12 o'clock M.; also from 7:30 o'clock to 9 o'clock in the evening upon the following dates and at the places herein named.

Newton Lower Falls—Freeman Hall, Monday, October 2.

Nonantum—Nonantum Club House, Tuesday, October 3.

Newton—Armory Hall, Wednesday, October 4.

Newton Upper Falls—Voting Booth, Tuesday, Friday, October 6.

City Hall—Saturday, October 7.

Abundant—McVicar Block, Monday, October 9.

Newtonville—Room 8, Central Block, Tuesday, October 10.

City Hall—Wednesday, October 11.

Waban—Waban Hall, Friday, October 13.

Newton Highlands—Stevens' Hall, Saturday, October 14.

Newton Centre—Associates' Hall, Pleasant street, Tuesday, October 17, from 7:30 to 9:30 o'clock P. M.

Also at City Hall, Wednesday, October eighteenth, from 12 o'clock M. to 10 o'clock P. M., which is the last session preceding the Election, November seventh, and thereafter the Registrars will not, before the election, add any names to the Register, except the names of voters examined as to their qualifications since the preceding thirtieth day of April.

Every male person whose name is not on the Voting List as posted must, in order to be registered as a voter, appear in person before the Registrars of Voters, at either of the sessions above mentioned, presenting a certificate from the assessors or tax bill or notice from the collector of taxes showing that he has been assessed for a poll tax as a resident of the city on the preceding first day of May.

All women whose names are not on the Lists and who wish to register must appear in person before the Registrars of Voters, to be qualified as required by law.

All naturalized citizens must present their final papers when they register.

If the father of an applicant was naturalized before he (the son) became 21 years of age the son is naturalized thereby, and must present the father's naturalization papers.

Every male citizen of 21 years of age and upwards, who has resided in the State one year, and in the City of Newton six calendar months next preceding the State Election, November 7, 1899, and who shall be able to read and write, shall have the right to vote at said State Election

GEORGE BRIDGES, GEORGE H. BOURNE, HENRY H. FANNING, ISAAC F. KINGSBURY, Registrars of Voters.

City Hall, Newton, August 24, 1899.

City Hall, Newton, August 24, 1899.

City Hall, Newton, August 24, 1899.

WALTER THORPE, Newton Centre.

Agent for THE GRAPHIC, and receives descriptions and makes collections of real estate, makes terms for advertising, hand bills, and all other kinds of printing. Also, Real Estate to sell and to rent, and insurance against fire in the English and American companies.

NEWTON CENTRE.

—Mr. Oliver J. Hall is ill this week at the Newton Hospital.

—Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Partridge are visiting in Troy, N. Y.

—Repairs are being made on the tower of the First Baptist church.

—Mr. and Mrs. Fred Rising are enjoying an outing in Maine.

—Miss Ella Hood of Braintree avenue returned home on Saturday.

—Mrs. Mansfield of Connecticut is stopping at the Pelham house.

—Sergeant Bartlett of West Newton has been transferred to division 3.

—Mr. Philip Smith of Braintree avenue has returned from the Cape.

—Mr. J. E. Harlow of Cypress street lost a valuable horse Wednesday.

—Mr. Charles N. Fitz of Homer street has returned from a trip to New York.

—Mr. Martin Green has joined the Marines at the Charlestown Navy Yard.

—Mr. J. W. Hill of Pelham street is able to be out again after his recent illness.

—At the meeting in the Methodist church this evening the subject will be, "When Jesus Prayed."

—Mr. Philip Smith has returned from Wareham where he has been spending several months.

—Dr. Hartshorn has taken the Bray house on Beacon street next to the First Baptist church.

—Mr. James B. Blackwell of Boston has purchased the house No. 10 Oxford road for his own occupancy.

—Mrs. Curtis and Mrs. Pope have been the guests of their sister, Mrs. E. M. Hills of Norwood avenue.

—The Newton Centre Wheelmen will hold their first dance on Friday evening, Oct. 20, in Circuit hall.

—A meeting of Newton Centre lodge A. O. U. W. will be held in Circuit hall on Wednesday evening.

—Mr. A. L. Whitmore of Cypress street, who has been quite ill with rheumatic fever, is improving.

—Mr. Carl B. Knapp of Warren street has accepted a position as baggage master at the Chestnut Hill depot.

—Services at the Unitarian church next Sunday at 10:30 conducted by Rev. C. W. Wendt. Sunday school at 12.

—Cards are out for the wedding of Miss Margaret P. Armstrong and Mr. Warren E. Cornum to take place Oct. 25th.

—A missionary meeting will be held by the Young People's Union at the First Baptist church next Sunday evening.

—Rev. J. A. Chambliss D. D., of the Pelham house, who is supplying the pulpit of the First Baptist church, has moved to Boston.

—Rev. B. F. McDaniel of Paul street moved this week to Edison street, Dorchester, where he is now superintendent of the Barnard Memorial in Boston.

—The football game between Yale and Dartmouth on the Cedar street grounds on Saturday afternoon will begin at 4 o'clock instead of three o'clock as advertised.

—Mr. L. A. Vachon received recently a collection of photographs from his brother Peter, who is now living in Dawson City, Klondike, showing some of the principal buildings in that northern city.

—Cards are out for the wedding of Miss Frances Winifred Ewing, daughter of Mr. Harriet B. Ewing, to Edward McLeod Armstrong which will take place Wednesday evening, Oct. 19th, at 41 Shawmut avenue. Mr. and Mrs. Armstrong will hold a reception Nov. 1 at 19 Maple park, Newton Centre.

—There are letters remaining in the post-office for Miss Boutelle, Mrs. E. Coolidge, James Cousins, James W. Decker, W. S. Hamilton, T. O. Hennessy, Mrs. Sophie Kahn, Amanda L. Martin, G. E. Mackintosh, Pleasant street, Frank McFarland, Mary A. McQuarrie, Mrs. G. M. J. Murray, Olive A. Phillips, Mrs. J. J. Smith, Elizabeth Spier, Walnut street.

—At the Congregational church last evening took place the wedding of Miss Mary Louise Gilette, daughter of Mrs. C. E. Gilette, to Mr. William J. Anderson, both of this place. Rev. G. E. Havens, officiated, assisted by Rev. C. E. Havens, pastor of the church. A pretty innovation was the singing by a quartet, composed of Misses Ada Aldrich, Edith Peck, Iuz King and Ethel Wheeler of East Somerville. The bride was given away by her brother, Allison H. Gilette, and she was attended by her cousin, Lillian Gilette, who acted as maid of honor. The best man was Arthur Anderson, brother of the groom. The ushers were H. B. Williams, A. L. Hanson, G. H. Crafts and C. F. Johnson.

—At high noon Wednesday, at the home of the bride's parents in Sherborn, Miss Florence L. Blanchard, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Albert H. Blanchard, was married to Mr. Warren C. B. Robbins of this village. The ceremony was performed by the family pastor, Rev. Dr. Edmund Dowse of Pilgrim Congregational church, assisted by Rev. Henry O. Thayer of Portland, Me. The bride, who was gowned in ivory satin, with tulle of nun's veiling, looked very pretty. She carried bride roses. A niece of the bride, Miss Hilda C. Williams, acted as maid of honor. Following the ceremony a wedding breakfast was served. Mr. and Mrs. Robbins left on an early afternoon train for the White mountains, where the honeymoon will be spent. On their return the couple will live on Carver road, Eliot, where a reception will be given Thursday evening, Oct. 19.

—At the Christian Endeavor social and business meeting held at the Congregational chapel on Monday evening last the following officers were elected: Pres., Lewis Sanford; vice-pres., Henry Hitchcock; rec. sec., Nellie Butler; cor. sec., Elva Sanford; treas., Clarence E. Hanson. Lookout committee—Chairman, Elva Sanford, Harvey, Arthur Nash. Prayer meeting committee—Chairman, Stella Converse, Abby Newcomb, Harriet R. Pennell, Willie Watson, Mrs. Titus. Mission and Temperance committee—Chairman, Sanford E. Thompson, Nettie Eagles, Mary Ellis, Howard Eagles, Seward W. Jones. Songsters—Chairman, Annie Bragdon, Millie Bragdon, Mrs. McCallum, Freda Sanford, Ralph Havens. Flower and Visiting committee—Marion E. Weld, Nellie Butler, Marion Morse, Arthur Logan, Charles Logan.

NEWTON LOWER FALLS.

—Next Thursday evening, court garden City Foresters of America will tender a reception to M. A. Roy, D.T.C., who has just received his commission from Grand Chief Ranger Fitzgerald of Worcester. On that evening 25 candidates will be initiated.

NONANTUM.

—The evening school in Jackson school building, held its first session last Monday evening. The attendance exceeded expectation. Before the close of the week it is probable that more pupils will be added to the rolls.

—The West End Literary Club will meet next Monday at 2:30 with Miss Ripley, Hillside road.

—Mason Stone, who has been suffering with a broken ankle, is able to be about the house again.

—There will be a Harvest Festival in the Methodist Episcopal church next Monday evening.

—Mrs. J. E. Peckham of Rockledge road is confined to her home on account of being poisoned by dog food.

—Mrs. G. E. French of Eliot has gone to Nashville, Tennessee, to be present at the second marriage of her mother, Mrs. Veda Thompson.

—Miss Frost, who has her home at Mr. E. Thompson's, has so far recovered as to be able to go to her former home at St. Johnsbury.

—Mrs. M. S. Bennett, who spends her summers at Mr. E. Thompson's, returned this week to Boston to her winter home at the Victoria.

—Mr. C. F. Libbey of Hyde street, who has been confined to the hospital, is now getting about.

—Mr. and Mrs. McCallum have returned from their wedding trip to New York and are making their home with her parents on Clark street.

—Mr. W. C. B. Robbins has purchased a new house on Carver road, Eliot terrace, and is now having it made ready for his own occupancy.

—Advertised letters in the post office for John Brennan, F. C. Crosby, Robert Cahill, Frank B. Casey, Alice Jones, Mrs. S. R. Urbino, Sarah MacDonald.

—Lewis Sanford, who has been station agent at Longwood for several months, has been transferred to the Woodland station of the B. & A. Railroad.

—The Home Missionary Society of the Congregational church at a meeting held on Wednesday at the chapel, packed two barrels of clothing etc. for a home missionary in Michigan.

—The Suffolk West Conference will hold its fifty second semi-annual meeting at the Highlands Congregational church on Wednesday afternoon at 2:30, and the evening session at 7 o'clock.

—The Neighborhood Club met last Monday evening at Mr. W. H. Keating's and elected Mr. Keating as president and Mr. John Pausler as secretary. The next meeting will be at the home of Mr. Ball.

—Lewis Sanford, Elva Sanford and Ralph Havens, the delegates to the Christian Endeavor Convention to be held at Springfield on Tuesday and Wednesday next from the society of Christian Endeavor of the Congregational church.

—The Hillside Whist Club met last Monday evening at the residence of Mr. E. Everett Bird and elected officers for the season. President R. Levi, Vice Pres., J. T. Waterhouse; Sec'y, and Treas., F. W. Maason. The next meeting of the club will be at the home of Mr. David Bates.

—Mr. Ephraim C. Adams from Iowa gave an address at the Congregational church last Sunday evening, and gave an account of the Iowa Band of which he was one of the members, who emigrated there 56 years ago, and were active in religious, educational, and pioneer work in that state.

—At the Methodist church next Sunday morning the pastor, Rev. F. W. Bishop, will preach at 10:45. In the evening at 7:30 there will be a harvest Sunday school concert with songs and recitations by the children and a short address by the pastor. Parents and friends cordially welcome.

—Mr. Nathaniel Danham, whose death occurred on Friday, Oct. 13th, at his home on Allerton road of paralysis, was in the eighty fourth year of his age and had suffered from partial paralysis for many years. He was a member of the 19th Regiment during a portion of the Civil War, and had been receiving a pension for many years. His funeral services and burial were at the former home in Milford on Tuesday last.

—Miss S. Augusta Newcomb, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Newcomb of Centre street, was married Wednesday evening to Mr. Frederick S. Esty in the Congregational church. The church was handsomely decorated with palms, potted plants and cut flowers. About 400 guests were present for the ceremony, which was performed by the Rev. C. E. Havens, pastor of the church. The bride was given away by her father. Her maid of honor was her sister, Miss Abbie E. Newcomb. The best man was Mr. James P. Esty, a brother of the groom. A reception at the home of the bride followed the ceremony.

—At the Congregational church last evening took place the wedding of Miss Mary Louise Gilette, daughter of Mrs. C. E. Gilette, to Mr. William J. Anderson, both of this place. Rev. G. E. Havens, officiated, assisted by Rev. C. E. Havens, pastor of the church. A pretty innovation was the singing by a quartet, composed of Misses Ada Aldrich, Edith Peck, Iuz King and Ethel Wheeler of East Somerville. The bride was given away by her brother, Allison H. Gilette, and she was attended by her cousin, Lillian Gilette, who acted as maid of honor. The best man was Arthur Anderson, brother of the groom. The ushers were H. B. Williams, A. L. Hanson, G. H. Crafts and C. F. Johnson.

—At high noon Wednesday, at the home of the bride's parents in Sherborn, Miss Florence L. Blanchard, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Albert H. Blanchard, was married to Mr. Warren C. B. Robbins of this village. The ceremony was performed by the family pastor, Rev. Dr. Edmund Dowse of Pilgrim Congregational church, assisted by Rev. Henry O. Thayer of Portland, Me. The bride, who was gowned in ivory satin, with tulle of nun's veiling, looked very pretty. She carried bride roses. A niece of the bride, Miss Hilda C. Williams, acted as maid of honor. Following the ceremony a wedding breakfast was served. Mr. and Mrs. Robbins left on an early afternoon train for the White mountains, where the honeymoon will be spent. On their return the couple will live on Carver road, Eliot, where a reception will be given Thursday evening, Oct. 19.

—At the Christian Endeavor social and business meeting held at the Congregational chapel on Monday evening last the following officers were elected: Pres., Lewis Sanford; vice-pres., Henry Hitchcock; rec. sec., Nellie Butler; cor. sec., Elva Sanford; treas., Clarence E. Hanson. Lookout committee—Chairman, Elva Sanford, Harvey, Arthur Nash. Prayer meeting committee—Chairman, Stella Converse, Abby Newcomb, Harriet R. Pennell, Willie Watson, Mrs. Titus. Mission and Temperance committee—Chairman, Sanford E. Thompson, Nettie Eagles, Mary Ellis, Howard Eagles, Seward W. Jones. Songsters—Chairman, Annie Bragdon, Millie Bragdon, Mrs. McCallum, Freda Sanford, Ralph Havens. Flower and Visiting committee—Marion E. Weld, Nellie Butler, Marion Morse, Arthur Logan, Charles Logan.

—Next Thursday evening, court garden City Foresters of America will tender a reception to M. A. Roy, D.T.C., who has just received his commission from Grand Chief Ranger Fitzgerald of Worcester. On that evening 25 candidates will be initiated.

—The evening school in Jackson school building, held its first session last Monday evening. The attendance exceeded expectation. Before the close of the week it is probable that more pupils will be added to the rolls.

—The West End Literary Club will meet next Monday at 2:30 with Miss Ripley, Hillside road.

—Mason Stone, who has been suffering

AN INTRICATE TASK.

THE JOB OF CONSTRUCTING A RAILROAD TIME TABLE.

Problems Which the Trainmaster Has to Solve and Which Call For a Clear Head, Hard Work and a Generous Fund of Patience.

Very few people have ever seen a railroad time table in course of construction. As a matter of fact, comparatively few have seen a time table after it has been completed. About the only piece of literature of this kind that the average citizen has need of is the little book handed out to him by the ticket agent. But that is very far from being a complete time table. Only a small percentage of the trains that run on the road every day are to be found there. The table prepared by every railroad division for the use of its engineers and trainmen and other employees in need of knowledge of the movements of trains is printed on a sheet of paper about four feet long and two feet wide. This contains information about every train, passenger or other, that has a regular daily, weekly or bi-weekly run or which is otherwise entitled to a place on the sheet.

The time table is in reality begun in the general passenger agent's office. This official is responsible for the through trains and for those passenger trains which will travel over more than one division under the control of a single division. He decides upon the time that these trains shall begin and finish their runs. Then he divides the proposed running time according to the divisions which they will traverse and merely notifies each division superintendent that after a certain date these trains will arrive at his division and tells him what will be expected of him in the way of running time. Then the passenger agent waits to be advised of necessary corrections. Formerly all the details of time table making were done in the central office, the division superintendents being called in for a week's conference. Of late years each division has come to be more and more a separate concern, the general offices exercising only the broadest supervision.

This passenger train schedule from the general office is the basis of the division time table. It is turned over to the trainmaster, who locks himself in his office for two or three days and sweats over it. He is disturbed. For the purpose of plotting his time table, the trainmaster has a wooden board covered with stiff paper. It is about 6 or 7 feet long and 4 feet wide. It is ruled vertically in 288 spaces, each space being made to represent five minutes of the 24 hours of the day. The hours are printed in large figures at the top and are separated by vertical rulings. On the sides are printed all the stations at which trains stop, and these are arranged upon a scale according to the distance which separates them.

The trainmaster proceeds to tack threads upon the board in such a way that the leaving time at each station becomes apparent. Train No. 1, for example, is scheduled to leave A at 12 and to arrive at B at 4. The thread is tacked on the board under the figure XII, at the top and opposite the station A on the side; the other end is tacked opposite the station B and directly under the figure IV. Tracks are also inserted opposite all intermediate stations at which the train will stop, the vertical lines indicating the time. The result is not always a perfect straight line, for the trainmaster knows that a train will make slower time on one stretch of track than on another of equal length. Grades and other physical characteristics of the roadbed are to be taken into consideration. This is an important detail in the case of trains of which the utmost speed is required. After his passenger trains are all in place, the trainmaster notes where the east-bound and west-bound trains cross. These must be in the vicinity of a station at which any of them makes a stop, for the obvious reason that it would occasion more or less delay and for the further danger of missing things up. The leaving time of passenger trains at intermediate stations, when it is finally worked out satisfactorily, is forwarded to the general passenger agent.

When he has reached this point, the trainmaster is amiable for a brief period. Then he locks his door again and wades into the much more distressing task of arranging other trains that must have a regular place on the time table. These are fast freights, milk trains and other distinctively division trains. They are strung over the board the same as before, but the result is sometimes startling. They use much more string than the first lot, and they are continually being interfered with by some line belonging to a faster train. Now, it is one of the first things taught on the railroad that two trains should not be allowed to pass on the same track. When the arrangement of strings indicates that this is liable to be the result, some switch or siding must be provided as a refuge for the less important train. Very often the trainmaster must stand by and watch as he brings the slower train up to a point where these facilities exist before it shall be overtaken by the faster. In making a time table for a single track road the difficulties of the situation are increased in proportion to the number of crossing places. There is no short cut to the completion of a time table. It must be worked out exactly as one would untangle a ball of yarn. The trainmaster cannot figure it out on paper.

There are still a great many trains, particularly on a big freight carrying road, that bustle back and forth every day without appearing on the time table. The number of these trains depends upon the varying amount of business, but these are things that, for the time at least, do not interest the trainmaster. The situation must in each case be studied out by the conductor of the train. There are two ways of running these extras and specials. One is by making them successive sections of a first class train and endowing them with all the rights and privileges of their godfather. For the time being the orders under which they run are a supplement to the time table then in operation. The second way, and the one in common use, is to let them wander. The conductor moves at his own discretion sandwiching in as many miles here, there and everywhere as he can without interfering with a train of equal or superior right.—New York Sun.

A man is never fully conquered until he has succeeded in conquering himself. Before company that he likes to push the baby wagon.—New York Press.

SALTING BABIES.

A Practice, Still Followed, That Goes Back to Bible Times.

"Salting" newly born infants, a practice that dates far back to Biblical times, still obtains in many parts of the old world. The Armenians in the Russian government of Erivan cover the whole surface of the babe's body with fine salt, special care being taken with the interstices between the fingers and all depressions, such as the armpit and the bend of the knee, so that no point shall remain unsalted.

The unhappy infant is left in the salt for three hours or longer and is then bathed in warm water.

The Armenians of some districts, having abandoned the practice, are called "unsalted" and are despised by the others.

The modern Greeks also sprinkle their babies with salt. If an enlightened mother protests, the midwife is ready with the objection, "But if it isn't salted it will be puny and will never amount to anything."

If this salting process is carried to excess, the poor babes don't stand it at all. The skin becomes as red as fire, the irritation is intolerable, and the child dies in convulsions. Yet there is a mountain tribe in Asia Minor that mercilessly salts its newborn babes for 24 hours, which shows that the limits of human endurance are wide in some cases. This ancient custom is still in vogue in many parts of Germany, but the rites are merely symbolic. In one district a little salt is rubbed behind the child's ears, in others a pinch of salt is put on the tongue or a little paper of salt is inserted under the garment. It gives understanding, the people say, and wards off evil spirits.

The action of salt in keeping meat sound, no doubt, is the reason that this strengthening and sustaining power was ascribed to it. The usage became common in eastern countries, and it was not entirely confined to them. The prophet Ezekiel, referring to the degeneracy of Jerusalem, says:

"Neither was thou washed in water to supple the; thou wast not salted at all, nor swaddled at all."

To many oriental tribes this means a grave omission of parental duty.—St. Louis Post-Dispatch.

MOANING OF THIRSTY CAMELS.

One of the Painful Sounds of Night in the Desert.

There are many fables told about the camel. Riding him is supposed to make people seasick. He has the reputation of being very vicious. He is supposed to have several stomachs and to go for several weeks without water as a matter of choice. I can only say that in nearly four years of experience I have never met with a case of seasickness or heard of it; neither have I known a really vicious camel, except when they are in a state called by the Arabs "saim," which means "fasting," and corresponds to the "rutting" period in stags. As regards the camel's stomach, I believe it is identical with that of any other ruminant, but at any rate, there is no formation of stomachs which would enable him to do without water.

His abstinence is merely the result of training, and it is a fallacy to suppose that he is better without water or can work as well. In the camel corps we watered our camels every second day in the summer, even when the desert was so dry that they were unable to find any water. They then filled their fill of water morning and evening on those days, but if in the summer we expected a long desert march without water we trained them beforehand by only watering every third day. But I never found that this improved their condition. The Arabs keep their camels longer without water, it is true, but they travel slower, and their animals are grazed on soft food, containing a certain amount of moisture. This lowers their condition and makes them inferior to a corn fed camel when hard work and long, fast journeys have to be done.

We always found that if we put a grass fed Arab camel alongside of ours he failed in work and endurance. If corn fed, it cried out for water as soon as and sooner than ours did. I say "cried out," because a camel when it wants water moans continually, and there is no more painful sound at night in the desert than the ceaseless moaning of thirsty camels.—Cornhill Magazine.

Something They Wouldn't Tell.

Three men of the Fifth Gurkhas were trained by experienced Swiss guides—one with Lieutenant Bruce in the early nineties and the others with Sir Martin Conway in 1894. Good tempered, cheerful, keen and full of fun, they became general favorites wherever they went. They, on their part, thoroughly appreciated the kindness with which they were treated, and their wonderful and delightful experiences in Europe still afford an endless topic of conversation.

The little Himalayans were intensely interested in everything they saw, the sea and the ships proving a source of great delight. Flying fish, however, they could not at all understand. To such great wielders of the rod this mode of piscine locomotion seemed most improper. One of these fish, having fallen on board the ship, was immediately pounced upon by Karl and Amar Singh.

Being asked what their friends in the regiment would think when told that fish could fly, the Gurkhas naively replied that they hadn't the slightest intention of mentioning the fact, as their reputations for veracity were at present good, and, should they try their comrades' credulity with this traveler's tale, no one would believe a word they might say for the rest of their service.—Blackwood's.

All the World Speaks English.

Stepping on board one of the neat little steam launches that ply about the city, I was addressed in fluent English by the Swede in charge.

"Wherever you go you learn such excellent English," said I.

"I've forgotten the biggest part of it, sir," said he, "but I served under the English flag for 17 years."

"Did you ever meet an English sailor who could speak Swedish?" I queried.

The idea seemed to tickle him immensely, and he burst out laughing, adding, "I never met an English sailor who could speak another tongue than his own, but he's no need to, for the first language a native shopkeeper learns in any foreign port is English."—Spectator.

A Matter of Precaution.

"If I have any trouble with the Indians," said the tenderfoot who was going to build his shanty, "I'll shoot him, and then I'll bury the hatchet and live in peace."

"Better bury your Injun first, stranger," cautioned Amber Pete. "Better bury your Injun first."—Chicago Record.

WABAN.

—The Windsor Hall school has opened with a good attendance.

—Mrs. J. H. Pillsbury is in Portland, Me., with her mother, who is quite ill.

—Prof. Pease is about to leave us to engage in school work in Providence, R. I.

—Mr. and Mrs. R. H. White, Jr., move to Boston this week and will reside on Beacon street.

—Mr. H. R. Chadbourne of Eliot has bought the Corliss house on Neholden road and moved in.

—Mr. and Mrs. C. B. McGee and Dr. Fannie, are spending a few weeks in Franklin County, Mass.

—The stores will be closed Saturday from 10 a. m. until 4 p. m., on account of the Dewey celebration in Boston.

—Mrs. A. E. Phelps and Miss Gertrude Smith, attended the Quincy-Brown wedding in Roxbury, Wednesday evening.

—Mr. Walter D. Noyes and family have reopened their house on Chestnut street. They have been away since early in the summer.

—Miss Bowen is building a valuable addition to her green house on Chestnut street. It can be reached now from her residence without exposure.

—Mr. E. L. Zeis starts for the West again, Saturday. He has made a lengthy visit since his last trip, but we regret to lose him even for three months.

—For greater convenience to my patrons I desire to announce that all calls for my lectures may be transmitted to me by public telephone from Waban drug store at my expense. Respectfully, Henry F. Cate, Jr.

—Mr. H. S. Wiley and family will be occupying their beautiful new home on Irvington street next week. It is one of the pleasantest spots in the village, and they cannot but enjoy it.

—The approaches to the railroad station and grounds, have been remodeled and much improved this week by landscape gardener, E. A. Richardson of the B. & A. They have excited many favorable comments, and the people are pleased with the prospect of a dry access to the station in wet weather.

—Mr. C. J. Buffum has sold his house here, and with his family, has removed to Newtonville. He was one of the early residents here, having a fine residence on Beacon street. The family will be missed much, for they were always actively engaged in anything that was for the betterment of the village.

—The Waban school will listen to a lecture on "Egypt" by Mr. F. E. Baker, Friday evening, Oct. 20, at 8 o'clock. The lecture is illustrated by 100 fine pictures, most of them secured by Mr. Baker, himself, during his travels in Egypt. The lecture was greatly appreciated by the Framingham, Laurel Park and other assemblies. The public are invited. Tickets, 25 cents.

Col. Olin's New Story.

Col. Olin has a new campaign story which takes better than anything of the sort that I have heard this year. He leads up to it by referring to the platform of the democracy, and, having reached the "This reminds me" he continues: "George Fred, you know, was riding recently between Harrisburg and Philadelphia and was standing out on the platform of the coach. The Pullman porter tapped him on the shoulder and said: 'I beg your pardon, boss, but de rules ob dis company say dat you can't stand on de platform.' 'I'd like to know, sir, what platform are made for if not to stand upon?' 'Well, I don't know nuffin' 'bout dat, sah, but dis yere platform is made to get in on.'"

The Power of Precedent.

(From the Detroit Journal.)

Constance, the beautiful maiden, struggled desperately in the water.

"Save me!" she shrieked.

Harold, the brave youth, standing upon the shore, throws aside his coat.

"Are you sinking for the third time?" he asks anxiously.

"Oh, dear! I forgot to count! How stupid of me!" cries Constance, in much confusion.

"I'm as brave as a lion, truly, but he will scarcely risk violating what is perhaps the most cherished convention of romance."

Values.

(From the Washington Star.)

"How much will you rent this place for?" "Eleven hundred dollars," was the prompt answer.

"I didn't expect to pay more than about $900 a year."

"Oh, you want it by the year? You can have it for $750. I thought you wanted to rent a window to see the parade."

Mitigating Circumstance.

(From the Chicago Tribune.)

"I beg your pardon," exclaimed the man in the automobile.

"Well, that's an improvement, anyhow," said the man who had been run over, picking himself up and looking around for his hat. "When a fellow with a delivery wagon runs over me he never stops his horse to beg my pardon."

Chinese Precocity.

(From the New York Review.)

The fat Chinaman brought a large picture of Admiral Dewey into the Chinese restaurant. A Chinaman, his American wife and a half-breed boy went over to look at it.

"Who is it?" asked the mother.

"Admiral Dewey," replied the precocious ool-oriental.

"I thought you said, Grumpy, that you would never allow your wife to ride a bicycle," said the father. "So I did, but she happened to hear of it."—Tid-Bits.

Hix: "Say, you want something for that cough, old man?" Dix: "No, I don't. I'll give it to any one for the asking."—Chicago News.

Mrs. Keyboard: "Why do you always sit at the hotel piano? You can't play a note." Old Sticks: "Neither can I any else while I'm here."—Harlem Life.

"What's that iron socket Billy has got strapped on his back?" "That's an umbrella holder, so he can play golf in the rain."—Chicago Record.

"You referred to your friend as a dead game sportsman?" "Yes, he always buys his bait in the market. Dead game is his specialty."—Washington Star.

The Missionary: "My erring brother, have you been Christianized?" The Native: "Not completely. They have gobbled all my land, but I still have my few clothes."—Indianapolis Journal.

A Successful Entertainment is helped in no small degree by a programme handsomely printed on good paper by an artistic printer. By distributing such a programme among the people who may be expected to buy tickets, sales may be increased, and profits correspondingly. Good printing always pays for itself wherever it is used. You can get the programmes and cards of admission printed so attractively that they will be irresistible, at the Newton Graphic Office.

Noticeable
VALUES IN SEASONABLE
Waists.

THE LATEST STYLES.

3 doz. All Wool Flannel Waists made in very pretty cord effects; we would call your attention to the remarkable fitting qualities of this waist. It's a gem. Our regular price $1.69; sale price, for a short time, only

$1.39

4 doz. All Wool Flannel Waists; colors—navy, cardinal, black, made up in excellent shape, diagonal tuck style, perfect fitting. This has been our regular $1.98 waist for a month back. Special price for this sale

$1.69 each.

It isn't the price so much as it is the color, the figure, the style, the workmanship that appeals to you when you examine our

French Flannel
Waists.

We have a complete line direct from the factory. Prices

3.25, 3.50 & 3.98.

But then the price don't make any difference. They're what you want,—you'll have to have one anyway. But bear this in mind; what they get for $4.98 in Boston, on Washington street, is $3.98 at our store; but the price don't make any difference anyway, you've got money to burn.

Silk Waists.

New, bright from the maker, bought right, made right, of the right shades, in the right styles and at the lowest prices that like values are sold anywhere in the state. Attractively priced at

2.49, 2.98, 3.98

5.00, 6.00

& 7.49.

Our Fancy Waists in evening shades grace many

THE NEWTON GRAPHIC.

VOL. XXVIII.—NO. 4.

NEWTON, MASS., FRIDAY, OCTOBER 20, 1899.

TERMS, $2.00 A YEAR.

WALTER C. BROOKS & CO.,

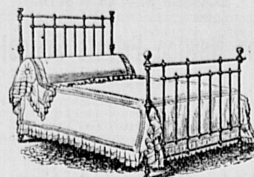

Importing = Tailors,

15 MILK STREET, - BOSTON.

Birthplace of Franklin, Opp. Old South Church.

The Largest Assortment of Foreign Woollens Shown in Boston.

POPULAR.

Our Brass and Iron Beds are popular. The finish, construction and enduring qualities, combined with our low prices, make them so. It is worth your while to call on us before purchasing.

MORRIS, MURCH & BUTLER,

42 Summer St., Boston.

Mattresses and Chamber Furniture.

Sole proprietors of the "Noiseless" Spring.

SHIRTS MADE TO ORDER.

Best material, first-class work, perfect fit. Only one quality, the very best, $1.50 each. (Plain shirt without collar or cuffs.) Samples made for trial.

Repairing is done neatly, correctly and promptly. New neck-bands, 12c. each. Wrist-bands, 15c. pair. Fall cuffs, 30c. pair. Collars, 25c. Bosoms, 50c. Centre pleats, 15c. Shirts to repair left Tuesdays or Thursdays with parties named below will be ready for delivery at same places in one week.

Newton, 48 Thornton St. or with J. H. Bacon; Newtonville, J. V. Sullivan; N. U. Falls, J. P. Thompson; West Newton, F. D. Tarleton; N. Highlands, C. E. Stewart; Auburndale, H. M. Childs; N. Centre, H. S. Williams; N. L. Falls, Kenney Bros.

E. B. BLACKWELL 43 Thornton Street Newton.

WALTER R. FORBUSH,

ARCHITECT.

Stevens Building,

Nonantum Square, NEWTON

High class Domestic Work a specialty.

REUBEN FORD,

Accountant.

John Hancock Building, Room 208,

BOSTON.

Established 1874.

BUNTING'S FISH MARKET.

Closed to settle estate,

Has been Re-Opened

BY

THOMAS & BURNS,

who will endeavor to please the public by carrying on a strictly first class Fish Market. This is the only store in the city that makes fish of all kinds a specialty.

Orders called for and delivered. Please favor us with your patronage.

SATISFACTION GUARANTEED.

Telephone Connection 198-4.

12 Centre Place,

NEWTON, - - - MASS.

DENTISTRY

Save your teeth; don't have them extracted; you know not their value until they are gone; crown and bridge-work a specialty; whenever teeth or roots remain in the mouth this system can be used; all dental operations known to the profession are performed in this office in a thorough and skillful manner. It is no longer necessary to pay exorbitant fees for dentistry. We charge about one half the regular rates and guarantee entire satisfaction in every case. Examination made free; seventeen years' experience. 194 Boylston street, Boston, room 3. Take Elevator.

DR. W. H. DUDDY.

Juvene

Will show exclusive Styles in

Millinery

Commencing Wednesday, Oct. 11, 1899.

E. JUVENE ROBBINS,

Eliot Block, Newton, Mass.

NO CARDS.

JOHN IRVING,

FLORIST

Cut Flowers, House Plants, Funeral Designs

Flowers for Weddings and Parties.

Pearl St. - - - Newton

Telephone Connection.

The Secret Discovered

How to make the

Mrs. Henry Vincent Pinkham of Newton in-visits the attention of all housekeepers to this new production (manufactured by herself under the name of the E. F. F. Co. of Boston and

JAPANESE BLUEING,

which is pronounced by experts to be the best

blueing known to science.

For sale by the S. S. Pierce Co. of Boston and the leading grocers of Newton.

EBEN SMITH.

1872.

MRS. EBEN SMITH,

1897.

REMOVAL.

PICTURE FRAMING, REGILDING,
147 Summer Street., Cor. South, Boston.

(FORMERLY LINCOLN STREET.)

Thanking the many friends and patrons for their loyal support and encouragement in the past and earnestly requesting a continuance of their patronage, will have much pleasure in showing new and correct selection of designs in

GOLD, SILVER, BRONZE AND NATURAL WOODS.

MRS. EBEN SMITH, 147 Summer St., Cor. South. Over Jaynes Drug Store.

Furniture and Household

Good Sold on Commission. | Auction Sale Every Saturday

PRIVATE SALE DURING THE WEEK.

R. J. MORRISSEY,

REAL ESTATE. HOUSES FOR SALE AND TO LET.

291 Washington Street, - Newton.

Telephone 183-6.

PORTRAITS

In Carbon and Platinum.

MARSHALL & KELLEY, - 263 Washington Street, Newton.

Don't wait too long before attending to your

FURS

For the Coming Season.

New Styles

Are Especially Becoming

By ordering garments now you can save money.

Lamson & Hubbard,

Manufacturers and Retailers

HATS AND FURS

For Men and Women

Cor. Bedford and Kingston

and 229 Washington St.

Dancing

Prof. G. PERCIVAL CHICK will resume his class in dancing in connection with the West

Newton English and Classical School, Allen

Brothers, on Friday, October 27th, Hall over Post Office.

Hours 4 to 6 P. M.

MONEY TO LOAN

By the Merchants

Co-operative Bank

Why not begin now to pay for your home?

The easiest and best way is through the Co-operative Bank system of regular monthly payments, which has been in successful operation in this State over 22 years. Do you want to buy a house?

A loan of $2000 requires a monthly payment of $18.33, of which $10 applies on the loan, the balance being 8 per cent. interest. If your mortgage is about due, or over due, or you want a low rate of interest why not call and look into the system? Money also advanced to build in partial payments. Deal direct with the Bank, and pay no commissions. Further information of

A. E. DUFFELL, Secretary,

19 MILK STREET, BOSTON.

W. E. McLELLAN,

Photographic Studio,

14 Cabinets and 16x20 hand

finished Crayon for $2.00.

COPYING AND FRAMING.

771 Washington St., BOSTON

BARGAINS IN FURS.

Real Marten Collarettes

$3.50 to $15.00.

All other Furs at proportional Low Prices.

FURS ALTERED AND REPAIRED

In the best manner possible. Satisfaction Guaranteed. S. ARONSON, Furrier.

(Up one flight) 12 West St., Boston.

Broiled Live Lobsters,

English Mutton Chops,

AND OYSTERS IN EVERY STYLE

Are specialties at the

CRAWFORD HOUSE, BOSTON.

Table d'hôte Dinners served daily from 2 to 5

P. M., at No. 17 Brattle Street.

ASSOCIATED CHARITIES.—The office of the Secretary of the Associated Charities are from 9 to 10 every week day and from 7.30 to 8.30 Saturday evenings. The Provident Committee will be at the office to distribute clothing Tuesday forenoons and Saturday evenings. M. R. Martin, Secretary. Office, Newton-ville Square.

Springer Bros., Cloak, Suit and Fur House,

Now Located at 155 TREMONT ST., Near West St.

NEW FALL STYLES.

Ladies' Tailor Suits, Coats, Capes, Furs, Golf
Capes and Skirts, Bicycle and Walking
Skirts, Waists, Travelling Rugs, etc., etc.

Superior Grade Furs a Specialty.

NEWTON.

—Pianos, Farley, 433 Washington St. If

—Shirt repairing, see Blackwell's adv. if —Cape cranberries, 3 quarts for 25c.

Newton Corner market.

—Mrs. Charlotte French of Centre street has returned after a long absence.

—Mrs. Elizabeth R. McKenzie returns

this week from her trip to New York.

—Newton Corner market, W. S. Hayden, proprietor. Right goods and low prices.

—Prof. C. W. Kishell of Newtonville avenue entertained friends last Sunday.

—Mr. F. A. Brooks is making alterations and repairs to his house on Centre street.

—Mrs. Albert Brackett of Sargent street has returned from her visit in New York.

—Mr. and Mrs. Charles S. Ellis of Bennington street have returned from Plainfield, N. J.

—Fore-quarters spring lamb, 8c per pound. Newton Corner market.

—Hon. H. E. Cobb was in charge of the business men's class held last Sunday at Eliot church.

—Mr. Whipple and family have moved here from Cambridge and are residing on Richardson street.

—Mr. Horton S. Allen of Park street returns this week from a trip to New York and Philadelphia.

—Mrs. George C. Lord and Miss Mary

Lord are visiting Mr. Charles E. Lord of Claremont street.

—The opening meeting of the season of the Eliot Guild was held in the Eliot church parlor this afternoon.

—Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Wood of Park street spent a part of last week in Connecticut, visiting relatives.

—Mr. Herbert M. Bacon of Fairview street was in Littleton the last of the week, visiting friends.

—At Grace church, Wednesday morning,

a special service was held appropriate to the festival of St. Luke.

—Prof. George K. Morris of Maple avenue has returned from a tour of the western Methodist conferences.

—Mr. A. J. Wellington, who has been confining to his home on Hilling street, the result of an accident, is able to be out.

—The church society will meet in the Y.

M. C. A. rooms, Monday evenings, under the direction of Mr. Henry T. Wade.

—The Freedman's Aid Society met

Thursday afternoon at the residence of Miss Jackson on Washington street.

—The Eliot Guild held a meeting in the chapel of Eliot church, Tuesday afternoon.

The study of "India" was taken up.

A THOUSAND STYLES TO SELECT FROM.

—Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Briggs have returned to Haverhill after visiting Mr.

Briggs' parents on Washington street.

—Wm. E. Pike, electrician and licensed gas-fitter. The only electrician having a license in the city. Telephone 215, Newton. If —Saturday, Oct. 21.—Legs, hindquarters or loins of lamb, 12-15c per pound.

—Mr. Robert Davis of Park street, who has been spending a few days at his home, returned Monday to Dartmouth College.

—Mr. Sidney Harwood is among the prominent stock holders in the United Zinc

Companies, the mines being located in the west.

—Mrs. R. A. Reid and Miss Hattie Reid are enjoying these beautiful October days at their summer home at North Scituate beach.

—The owner of the Stevenson house on Church street is making extensive alterations and repairs to both the interior and exterior.

—At the residence of Rev. Dr. Shinn on Linder terrace next Tuesday, Oct. 24th, the Grace church choir will enjoy a social evening.

—Mr. Charles Fredericks was in town from Lowell, this week, the guest of his brother, Mr. A. F. Fredericks of Richardson street.

—Last Sunday afternoon at the Y. M. C.

A. Rev. Scott F. Hershey of Boston gave an interesting address on "Perils of Mormonism."

—At Channing church next Sunday morning the preacher will be Rev. C. W.

Heizer of Wayland, who exchanges with the pastor.

—Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Davis of Centre

street have returned from New York state, where they attended the Indian conference at Mohonk.

—At the business men's class at Eliot church next Sunday, the class will consider the topic, "Can living be both simplified and enriched?"

—President George E. Merrill of Colgate

University was one of the delegates to the inauguration of President Faunce of Brown University held in Providence last Tuesday.

—President George Harris of Amherst

College will preach at Eliot church next Sunday. Rev. Dr. Davis, the pastor, will be the college preacher at Dartmouth College, Hanover.

—The Woman's Auxiliary to the Y. M.

C. A. will meet in the association rooms,

Wednesday, Oct. 25th. At that time plans will be considered for the reception to be held Nov. 2nd.

—The Woman's Association held a meeting in the parlor of Eliot church, Tuesday afternoon. At the mothers' meeting the topic considered was "Suggestions from the Summer-time."

—At the Methodist church, Wednesday

367 Boylston Street, BOSTON.

From Boston to Worcester in Street Cars Without Change.

Co C. Notes.

The company held its annual dinner at the United States hotel, Boston, last Saturday evening. Those who attended were Ex-Mayor Cobb, Mr. M. P. Springer, Mr. E. M. Springer, Lieut. A. C. Warren, Paymaster 5th Infantry, Lieut. Col. G. H. Benyon, A. A. G., 2nd Brigade, Major H. P. Ballard, 5th Infantry, Lieut. H. P. Whitcomb, Co. M., 5th Infantry, Major Chas. Collins, 1st Maine Infantry, Major W. E. Morrison, 5th Infantry, Sergt. C. H. Wascott, Chas. Benyon, Henry J. McCammon, M. V. M., formerly of Co. C., Col. I. F. Kingsbury, Lieut. E. P. Coleman, Adjutant 2nd battalion, 5th Infantry, Mr. Chas. W. Ross, Commander John Flood, post 62, G. A. R., and members of the city government. Others were invited to be present but were unable to do so.

After the dinner, Capt. Springer made a few remarks and introduced Alderman Niles, who spoke for a few minutes of the interest felt by the citizens and city government in the company while they were in the volunteer service and at present.

Lieut. Col. Benyon, A. A. G., representing the brigade, was received with cheers. The colonel gave an excellent address, and in speaking of the parade he thanked them for the brigade commander for their good conduct and appearance.

Capt. Springer spoke of the welcome by the citizens when the company returned home last spring and thanked the G. A. R. in behalf of the company for the services they rendered in caring for the three comrades who died at Greenville.

Commander John Flood represented the G. A. R. After accepting the company's thanks he gave a short address.

Major H. P. Ballard for the regiment gave a lengthy address on the excellent service done by the 5th in the past and in the volunteer service, and hoped that in the future its high standard of efficiency would still be maintained.

Major Morrison, the next speaker, was perhaps received with the loudest applause of any, the company having been in his battalion for a time in the Volunteers, and he was liked by every member. He said that he knew the company very well and guessed the company knew him, which caused a great deal of laughter. His wit and interesting remarks were enjoyed by all. In concluding his address he spoke with much feeling of young Barrett, one of the company who died in the south.

Among the other speakers were Col. Kingsbury, Ex-Mayor Cobb and Major Collins of the 1st Maine Infantry.

Memorial Service for Mrs. Mary T. Goddard and Others.

There will be a memorial service at the Universalist church, Newtonville, Sunday, Oct. 22, at 10:45 a. m., in memory of Mrs. Mary T. Goddard and other members of the society who have died since April 1st, 1899. Addresses will be delivered by Rev. John Colman Adams, D. D., of Brooklyn, N. Y., Mrs. Jane L. Patterson of Roxbury, Mass., Rev. Geo. L. Perrin, D. D., pastor of "The Every Day" church, Boston, Mass., and Rev. F. A. Bisbee, editor of the Universalist Leader. A cordial invitation is extended to all relatives and friends to attend this service.

AUBURNDALE.

—Hugh Halewood has taken a position in Weston.

—Mr. C. H. Sprague is moving to Coolidge Corner.

—Mr. R. W. Dennison is enjoying an outing in Maine.

—Mr. L. C. Paul has returned from a vacation trip.

—Mr. Myron Hoyt of Auburn street removes this week to Boston.

—Mr. E. King has removed from Newtonville to a house on Rowe street.

—Rev. James H. Pettie of Hancock street will soon leave for Japan.

—Mr. James Hanney of Melrose street has returned from his trip in Maine.

—Mr. Bernard L. Crane of Charles street is in New York on a business trip.

—Mr. Henry A. Clark of Grove street has returned from his pleasure trip.

—A pool room has been opened in Plummer's block by Mr. Hackett the barber.

—Miss Hall of Stoughton has opened a fancy dry goods store in Plummer's block.

—Mr. and Mrs. E. Hutchinson are receiving congratulations on the birth of a child.

—Mr. John Clark and family, formerly of Worcester, have moved into a house on Winona street.

—Mr. William H. Bosworth of Rowe street has returned from his gunning trip in the woods of Maine.

—Rev. F. M. Price addressed a large gathering at the Congregational church in South Medford last Sunday.

—Rev. Thomas Bishop and Mr. John Bishop of Woodland road have returned from a short visit in Vermont.

—The Yale and Dartmouth football teams were guests at the Woodland Park Hotel during their stay in this city.

—The Auburndale Review Club held a meeting at the residence of Miss Ella Smith on Vista avenue last Tuesday morning.

—Hose 5 house is undergoing extensive repairs. The ceiling of the interior is to be reconstructed and other improvements made.

—The annual meeting of the Woman's Board of Missions Auxiliary was held at the Congregational church last Wednesday afternoon.

—The regular meeting of Auburndale lodge, 111, A. O. U. W., was held Wednesday evening in McVieker's hall and well attended by members.

—Mrs. H. R. Turner entertained Mr. and Mrs. George B. French of Nashua, N. H., on the occasion of the Dewey celebration Friday and Saturday.

—Mr. Cordingley caught a fine specimen of the skunk family on the corner of his piazza Tuesday morning. It had been doing much damage to the lawns in the neighborhood.

—Last Monday evening Riverdale lodge, N. E. O. P., held a meeting at the residence of Mrs. W. E. Thayer on Melrose street. After the transaction of considerable business whist was enjoyed.

—There are letters in the post office for Mrs. K. Clark, Mrs. James Diviny, Miss Mary Ellen Gallagher, Mrs. Mary B. Metcalf, John Buckley, C. J. Conklin, Bal-detti Luigi, John McCarthy and J. Tyler.

—The first vesper service of the season will be held at the Congregational church Sunday evening at 7:30. The choir will have the assistance of Miss Eleanor Nelson, lately returned from Paris, where she has been under the care of the best masters.

—For some time it has been the chief ambition of public spirited men and women and children as well, to have a public hall in this place. To the owners of the new Taylor block these people therefore owe a debt of gratitude as the new building is to contain one of the best appointed halls of its size in the city. Already it has been much admired.

—Rev. L. T. Townsend, D. D., now of Baltimore, Md., who is a strong and brilliant preacher, and whose presence is always greeted with special pleasure, is to preach at the Methodist church next Sunday morning at 10:30 o'clock. All interested are most cordially invited. The male quartet, in better form than ever, and assisted by a number of young ladies from the Seminary sing stately at these services.

NONANTUM.

—The highway department has been repairing California street.

—Mr. Jeffery Perry has entered the employ of Vachon, the barber.

—Mr. John Hughes of Watertown street has moved to Boyce's block, Middle street.

—Officers O'Halloran, Desmond and Dalton attended the grand jury at Lowell Tuesday.

—Private West Burnell of the regular army has returned from the Philippines on account of wounds.

—Last Sunday Rev. E. T. Everett of Waltham preached at the Benish Baptist Mission. Next Sunday Mr. E. A. Haskell of Cambridgeport will preach.

NEWTON LOWER FALLS.

—Mr. Frederick Curtis is able to be about after an illness of three weeks.

—Division 25, A. O. U. W., will hold a dance in Freeman Hall this evening.

—Creshore's Mills will resume running next week after being closed four weeks.

—All manufacturing concerns closed last Saturday giving their help an opportunity to see Dewey.

—Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Creshore have closed their residence here until spring, and will reside in Boston.

—The Wellesley Nursery Co. have a number of men and horses at work for the park commission here.

—The Twilight A. A. were victorious at two games of football played on Creshore's field last Saturday afternoon.

—Officer Allen has returned from a vacation spent in Maine, the trip being made to and from with his horse and road cart.

—Mrs. and Miss Eleanor Whitney of Wellesley Farms returned from their European trip Saturday after an absence of three months.

—Repairs on Sullivan's mills are being made during the past two weeks. The works are soon expected to start after quite a long shut down.

—Mr. C. H. Spring has a large contract with the Lexington & Waltham Street Railway now in process of construction furnishing ties and poles.

—All tenants of houses owned by the park commission have been given 10 days removal notices when houses will be sold and in some instances probably destroyed.

NEWTON CLUB.

Wednesday evening a large audience heard the concert at the Newton Club given by the Boston festival orchestra under the direction of Emil Mollenhauer. The event was the first of the club's winter entertainments and brought out many club members and their guests. Decorations of palms and potted plants greatly beautified the interior of the clubhouse. The program furnished by the orchestra met with great favor, as did the singing of Mrs. Marion Titus, soprano.

See Onelta under garment adv. in another column. Central Dry Goods Co.

Letter Carrier Examinations.

Persons taking the forthcoming examinations for the grades of clerk and carrier at the post office in this city are reminded that Monday, October 23rd, is the last day when applications will be received for this examination.

The commission has decided to allow persons who may have taken an examination for this post office within the past year and failed to pass to be re-examined at this examination upon filing new application forms therefor, on or before the date above mentioned. Such forms may be obtained of Herbert F. Butler at the Newton Centre post office.

GOLF HAPPENINGS.

FRAMINGHAM 14, NEWTON CENTRE 2D 10.

The Framingham golf club defeated the second team of the Newton Centre golf club Wednesday afternoon at Framingham, 14 to 10. The summary:

FRAMINGHAM	NEWTON CENTRE
Howe.....	Greene.....
Smalley.....	Boyer.....
Kingsbury.....	Bally.....
Estey.....	Shannon.....
Brown.....	Harrington.....
Total.....	Total.....

NEWTON CENTRE G. C. CHAMPIONSHIP.

Two matches in the golf championship of the Newton Centre golf club were played Wednesday afternoon on the Langley road links. Though the weather was somewhat unfavorable a number of enthusiasts saw the play. In the only consolation round played Messrs. Haynie and Shannon played 19 holes, the former winning. First championship round, W. Wadsworth beat Percy Gilbert, 6 up, 5 to play. First consolation round, Henry Haynie beat S. A. Shannon one up.

NEWTON WOMEN FAIL TO PLAY.

Owing to bad weather and lack of entries, the three women's tournaments scheduled for Wednesday afternoon on Newton links, did not take place. The tournaments arranged by the Newton golf club and the Newton Centre golf club will probably not be played at all.

BRAE BURN FALL FIXTURES.

Messrs. Harry L. Ayer, Edward F. Woods and George A. Frost, tournament committee of the Brae Burn golf club at West Newton, have announced these autumn fixtures:

Oct. 21—Founders' cup, representing Brae Burn championship; open only to members; qualifying round 18 holes, medal play; best eight to qualify; finals, 36 holes, match play, must be played by Nov. 15. The trophy was presented by the founders of the club, to be competed for annually until won by the same person three times (not necessarily consecutive), when it shall become his personal property. In 1888 it was won by Mr. Charles I. Travell.

Oct. 21—Handicap, 18 holes, medal play.

Oct. 28—Handicap, 18 holes vs. bogey.

Nov. 4—Mixed foursome, 18 holes, medal play.

Nov. 11—Handicap, 18 holes, medal play.

Nov. 18—Handicap foursome, 18 holes, medal play.

Nov. 25—Thanksgiving tournament; conditions to be announced later.

Golfers who play over the Brae Burn links will be interested to know that by a special rule of the club, which has been in force since the first of the present month, stymies are not allowed, and the ball nearer the hole must be lifted in all cases.

THE ALL-NEWTON TOURNAMENT.

On the Centre street links of the Newton golf club, Wednesday, a number of contestants in the city championship tournament played off second and consolation round matches. The results follow:

Second round—E. A. Wilkie, Newton, beat George A. Frost, Brae Burn, 3 up, 2 to play.

Consolation round—George H. Phelps, Brae Burn, beat George Linhart, Newton, 4 up, 3 to play; P. Gilbert, Newton Centre, beat Allan Hubbard, Brae Burn, 7 up, 6 to play.

To Cure Nervousness in One Week

To Cure Constipation in One Week

To Cure Indigestion in One Week

To Purify the Blood in One Week

Take Cleveland's Celery Compound Tea, 25c. If it fails to cure, we will cheerfully refund your money. (Trial size free.)

Arthur Hudson, Druggist, Newton.

THE LIBERTY CONVENTION.

CARL SCHURZ PRESENTS THE ISSUES.

I am pleading for the cause of American honor and self-respect, American interests, American democracy—aye, for the cause of the American people against an administration of our public affairs which has wantonly plunged this country into an iniquitous war; which has disgraced the republic by a scandalous breach of faith to a people struggling for their freedom whom we had used as allies; which has been systematically seeking to deceive and mislead the public mind by the manufacture of false news; which has struck at the very foundation of our constitutional government by an executive usurpation of the war power; which makes sport of the great principles and high ideals that have been and should ever remain the guiding stars of our course; and which, unless stopped in time, will transform this government of the people, for the people, and by the people into an imperial government cynically calling itself republican—a government in which the noisy worship of arrogant might will drown the voice of right; which will impose upon the people a burdensome and demoralizing militarism, and which will be driven into a policy of wild and rapacious adventure by the unscrupulous greed of the exploiter—a policy always fatal to democracy.

I plead the cause of the American people against all this, and I here declare my profound conviction that if this administration of our affairs were submitted for judgment to a popular vote on a clear issue, it would be condemned by an overwhelming majority.

The Maynard Chapter.

At the twelfth regular meeting of the chapter held Friday, Oct. 13th, Mr. Walter Gerritson gave an interesting talk upon some Indian implements, which he, himself, had found, illustrated by specimens. Mr. Gerritson began by an account of what he thought might have been the home life of the Indians as is indicated by their implements, and by thus putting himself in the place of the red men told an exceedingly entertaining story of their lives. For example, the speaker thought that the arrow heads which have been found, or blunted points, were made for the use of boys when they were learning to shoot. We find the chips which are broken off during the manufacture of arrow heads scattered all about the country in which the Indians lived. This Mr. Gerritson thought was also done by boys, just as he himself, remembered when he was a boy, scattering the bits of tin obtained in tin snips.

Mr. Maynard continued his talks upon systematic biology. Specimens of a peculiar species of plant louse, which encrusts alders and other shrubs and trees, were exhibited by Miss Helen E. Warren of Weston, and remarks were made upon them.

Fleetwood Mosher presented the chapter with specimens of gypsum and other minerals obtained by him near Winsor, N. S.

THOMAS FITZPATRICK, Sec'y.

Millions in Motor Wagons.

(Springfield Republican.)

It has been figured up that no less than 81 corporations are in the field for the manufacture of automobile vehicles, with a nominal capital of more than $400,000,000. Most of these concerns have been organized within the present calendar year. The list does not include a large number of firms and individuals engaged in the same business. There seems to be a pretty nearly equal division, so far as measured by capital, in preferences as to motive power, between electricity, air power and steam.

Cleaning House

Once or twice a year the good housewife has a thorough house cleaning. The house has been swept and dusted every day in the year, but the housewife knows that in spite of vigilance dust accumulates in cracks and corners, and is only to be removed by special effort.

It's the same way with the body. You look after it every day. You take all the ordinary precautions of cleanliness and health. Yet the body needs its special cleaning to rid it of the accumulations of waste and poisonous matter which invite disease. Doctor Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, taken regularly once or twice a year, would save many a sickness. It purifies the blood, strengthens the stomach, and cleanses the body of poisonous accumulations.

"Last spring I had a severe attack of pneumonia, which left me with a bad cough, and also left my lungs in a very bad condition," writes John M. Russell, Esq., of Brent, Cherokee Nat. Ind. Ter. "I had no appetite and was so weak I could scarcely walk. My breast was all sore with running sores. I got two bottles of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, which I believe saved my life. I cannot express my gratitude to you. I am able now to do very good work."

Dr. Pierce's Medical Adviser, in paper covers, sent free on receipt of 21 one-cent stamps to pay cost of mailing only. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

Going to Boston, Are You?

To get your job of printing done? What's the use, when you can have it done just as well, just as quickly and just as cheaply no matter what it is, from an envelope to a History of Newton at the

Newton Graphic Office.

The Coming Man

will unquestionably continue to wear clothing of our make, just as the man of the present now does.

In quality of materials, in "style," and in excellence of fit and finish our

..Clothing

certainly is not surpassed anywhere. PRICES are always moderate.

MACULLAR PARKER COMPANY,
400 Washington Street, BOSTON.

DOLLARS IN EGGS

Not if you have a dilapidated hen-house, full of cracks, with sheathing away, roofing half off, broken window-panes, etc.

To keep your henhouse warm and dry cover it with

NEPONSET RED ROPE WATER-PROOF FABRIC

which is water, wind, frost, and vermin proof, is very inexpensive and durable. It costs only one cent a square foot, with nails and tin caps to put it on.

Between boards, or under floors, Neponset Black Building Paper is water, air, and vermin proof, odorless, clean, and inexpensive.

For full information and samples apply to

BARBER BROS.
415 Center St., Newton, Mass.
Hardware, Cutlery, etc.

GURCHILL AND BEAN Tailors

GOOD QUALITY AT Moderate Prices

41 Temple Place BOSTON.

Elevator at 37.

FINE DRESS SUITS A SPECIALTY.

C. B. Somers Tailor

149 A TREMONT ST BOSTON MASS.

WILL ADD TEN YEARS TO YOUR LIFE.

RUBBER TIRES.

Applied to any carriage, new or old.

Moderate Prices.

P. A. MURRAY.

CARRIAGE BUILDER,

200 to 210 Washington Street, - - - Newton.

WATER BUGS AND ROACHES.

Clear them out with our Exterminator.

No dust. No trouble to use. Price, 50c. Satisfaction guaranteed or money refunded. If your druggist or grocer does not keep it, we will mail package on receipt of price.

BARNARD & CO.,
7 TEMPLE PLACE, BOSTON.

For Sale by BARBER BROS., Newton.

Newton and Watertown

Gas Light Company.

All orders for Gas or Electric Lighting left at their office, 421 Centre street, will receive prompt attention.

RANGES, FURNACES, WATER HEATERS, STEAM BOILERS.

AT THE FACTORY STORE OF

Walker & Pratt Mfg. Co.

24 Main St., Watertown, Mass.

Telephone No. 30, Newton.

Furnaces, Ranges Cleaned and Repaired

ROBERT F. CRANITCH,
(Successor to L. H. Cranitch)

House, Sign, and Ornamental Painter.

Paper Hangings in Great Variety. Work promptly done.

Walnut St., - Newtonville.
Second door from Central Block.

Howard B. Coffin,
DEALER IN

Fine Teas, Best Coffees,

AND NEWTON AGENT FOR

Deerfoot Farm Products.

363-361 Centre St., 4-6 Hall St.,
Cole's Block, Newton.

FOR SALE.—Ten R-I-P-A-N'S for 5 cents at uggists. One gives relief.

DVERTISE IN THE GRAPHIC.

WALTER THORPE, Newton Centre.
Agent for THE GRAPHIC, and receives subscriptions and makes collections for it. He also makes terms for advertising, hand bills, and all other kinds of printing. Also, Real Estate to sell and to rent, and insurance against fire in the English and American companies.

NEWTON CENTRE.

—Mrs. E. McLellan of Centre street is reported ill.
—Hon. A. L. Harwood of Beacon street is in Quebec this week.
—Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Bishop have taken the house 20 Crystal street.
—Mr. Frank A. Edmunds has rented the house at 16 Institution avenue.
—Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Armstrong have taken a house on Knowles street.
—Mr. Herbert Cladin of Chase street left Monday for a visit at Dayton, Ohio.
—This evening the Newton Centre wheelmen will give an informal dance in Circuit hall.
—Mr. B. B. Buck of Ridge avenue left Monday for a week's hunting trip in Chatham.
—The family of Mr. Charles Peck of Willow street have returned after an extended outing.
—Mr. Oliver J. Hall, who has been ill at the Newton Hospital, is much improved in health.
—The highway department workmen are improving Gibbs street with a new coat of macadam.
—Mr. Vachon has a few high grade bicycles slightly used to offer at a great sacrifice.
—Mr. L. F. Jones and family of Ripley street have returned from Deepbrook, Nova Scotia.
—Mr. John H. Pray and family have removed here from Boston and taken a house on Hammond street.
—Mr. and Mrs. Charles Willard Young are settled in their new home on Beacon street, Chestnut Hill.
—Miss Annie Coveney of Thompsonville, who has been ill at the Newton Hospital, is reported as recovering.
—Miss Florence Dingley of the Grafton, who has been quite ill with typhoid, is reported as improving in health.
—At the First Baptist church Tuesday afternoon a meeting of the Woman's Home Missionary Society was held.
—Three new vestibule cars will soon be placed on the tracks of the Newton & Boston Street Railway Company.
—Mr. F. M. Furbush and family have moved into a new house corner of Commonwealth avenue and Sumner street.
—If your sewing machine is not running right telephone or write L. A. Vachon, Newton Centre. Satisfaction guaranteed.
—Now is the time to have your sewing machine cleaned and put in good running order by L. A. Vachon, Associates Block.
—Lieutenant Brooks Upham of the "Olympia" spent part of the week as the guest of Mr. B. E. Taylor of Grant avenue.
—Driver Ellis of fire station 3 has moved into his new house on Willow street which he recently erected for his own occupancy.
—Tomorrow afternoon from 4 to 6 Miss Florence Leatherbee of Beacon street will give an at home in honor of her friend Miss Holmes.
—Rev. George H. Spencer of Pelham street spent last week in Montpelier, Vermont, where he attended the Dewey celebration.
—The foot ball game on the Cedar street grounds Saturday afternoon between Yale and Dartmouth eleven was won by Yale, score 12 to 0.
—The Young People's Union will meet at the First Baptist church next Sunday evening. The topic will be "The Laborers in the Vineyard."
—Rev. G. H. Spencer will give the fourth sermon in the series at the Methodist church Sunday evening. Topic, "Eating and Drinking with sinners."
—Mrs. N. H. George of Gray Cliff road will give a reception at her home this afternoon from 4 to 6 in honor of Mrs. I. T. Crowell, who is soon to remove to New York.

—Rev. Dr. Furbush passed his 70th birthday on Saturday last. The day was one of comparative comfort and restfulness, being remembered by loving friends with gifts of beautiful flowers.
—Mr. W. O. Knapp the grocer gave his employees a ride to Boston in one of his largest wagons last Saturday, from which they viewed the Dewey celebration and had a good look at the great admiral.
—The regular monthly sociable was held in the parlors of the Methodist church last Wednesday evening. Supper was served in the dining room and home made candies were for sale. There was a large attendance.
—At the Unitarian church next Sunday services will be conducted by Rev. C. W. Wendt. Services at 10.30 a. m. Sunday school at 12. Hale Union at 7.30 p. m. Subject, "Wheat and Tares." Speaker, Miss Helen Wilson. All are welcome.
—Miss Francis W. Ewing of Boston and Mr. Edward M. Armstrong of Maple park were married Wednesday evening at the home of the bride's parents, 448 Shawmut avenue, Boston. On their return from a trip to the Rangley Lakes they will reside on Shawmut avenue, Boston.
—An additional letter-carrier will be attached to the central postoffice and commence his duties Nov. 1. A change in the lines of the district has been made and the Oak Hill and Waban Hill sections will enjoy the free delivery service. Richard Murphy will be attached to the central office as regular carrier.
—There will be special music at the First Congregational church next Sunday morning the choir being assisted by Miss Edith Perry, violin, and Miss Grace Bullock violin cello.
Prelude, Larghetto. Gounod
Organ, Violin, 'Cello. Bullard
"Awake my soul." Schnecker
"My faith looks up to Thee." Schnecker
"Crossing the Bar." Schnecker
Postlude, Triumphal March from Eli. Costa
Wm. I. Howell, organist and director.
—Mrs. Dr. Hopkins and Mrs. Charles Hopkins of Lynn were here yesterday.
—Mrs. Doane has returned to her home in Duxbury.
—Advertised letters in the post office for B. D. Bartows, C. E. Beales, Andrew F. Colepaul, Michael J. Dowling, Maggie Foley, Oak Hill, G. E. Graham, Mrs. N. Hines, 22 Hines street, Earnest J. March, Owen Merrill, Mrs. M. C. Ruddick, Mrs. Shaw, Maple park, Russell Shaw, Edwin L. Sprague, Mrs. Fred D. Sutton, Emma Thompson, Beacon street.
NEWTON HIGHLANDS.
—The Neighborhood Club will hold its next meeting with the Misses Ball.
—The Monday Club will hold its next meeting with Mrs. Bosson, Hillside road.
—Money to loan on mortgage of real estate by Greenwood's Real Estate Agency.
—There will be a vesper service at the Congregational church next Sunday evening at 7.30.
—Mrs. Chick, the mother of Mrs. E. Moulton, has returned from her summer stay at Kennebunkport.
—Mrs. Stevens has removed from Floral avenue to the house on Forest street, belonging to Mr. F. F. Dudley.
—The West End Literary Club will meet next Monday with Mrs. Blanchard, on Dickerman road, at Eliot.
—Mr. Frank Graham, while cutting down a tree, on Wednesday, was struck by a limb, and had a rib broken.
—Mrs. Lovering, whose home was at the corner of Walnut street and Floral avenue, has gone to Roxbury for the winter.
—The house at the corner of Lake avenue and Highland street, belonging to the King family, has been let to a Mr. Loring.
—Rev. T. W. Bishop was one of the guests of Rev. Dr. Furbush at his recent inauguration as president of Brown University.
—The C. L. S. C. will meet on Monday with Mrs. Howard Morse, Allerton road.
—Mrs. Melton, Mrs. Miller and Mrs. Rogers have been admitted as members.

—Mrs. J. F. C. Hyde was at Lowell on Friday last, the occasion being the seventieth birthday of her brother, Mr. Wm. Ward, who was formerly a resident of Newton.
—Mr. James Clarkson of Cook street, who was injured by the fall of a staging, while painting the Fannie Fogg house, and taken to the hospital, was not seriously injured, and will return to his home in a day or two.
—The marriage of Mr. Albert Henry Elder of Newton, and Miss Mabel Ernestine Morse of Foxboro, took place on Tuesday, Oct. 10th, at Foxboro. The married couple have taken the house No. 36 Erie avenue, and now occupy.
—Mr. Frederick A. Foster and family, who have been boarding with the Wetherbee family on Erie avenue, for the summer, have come to Newton for the winter season and Mr. George W. Wylie and family from Chicago, are at the Wetherbees for the winter.
—Mr. G. Frederick Crosby, the architect, who has occupied the house built for him on Woodward street, for the past year or more, has removed to Waltham, and the same has been purchased by Mr. Frederick L. Porter, who has had his residences on Lincoln street, near Eliot station.
—At the meeting of the Newton Congregational Club, held at the Central church chapel, on Monday evening, resolutions in memory of Mr. A. F. Hayward, who had served for one term as its president, were offered by Rev. C. H. Daniels, and appreciative remarks were made by Deacon W. C. Strong of the Highlands church.
—The West Suffolk Conference of churches was held at the Highlands Congregational church, on Wednesday afternoon and evening. Very interesting addresses were made by prominent members of the conference, which were listened to with much interest. A beautiful supper was served in the chapel to the large number who were in attendance.
—Samuel Hano, trustee of the Phoenix Land Company, has just sold to Catherine M. Smith and John J. Smith a parcel of 300,000 square feet on Boylston, Eliot and Circuit avenues, Margaret road and Francis and Charles streets, near Eliot station, this place. This property, originally containing 500,000 square feet, was opened on May 1, and the last sale closes it out.
—The Methodist church was filled last Sunday evening, with the children and their parents and friends. The occasion was the annual harvest Sunday school concert. The church was prettily decorated with autumn leaves, fruits and vegetables. The children did their part well. Frank Heel, one of the school, who has a promising tenor voice, sang very effectively a solo to an organ accompaniment. The pastor made a brief address. A harvest supper was served by the ladies, Monday evening, in the vestry. The pastor will preach next Sunday morning and evening.
—While James D. Brady and James Clarkson, painters, employed by J. T. Britton, were at work about 8 o'clock Tuesday morning at the residence of F. W. Fogg, corner of Woodward and Lincoln streets, they fell from a staging and were both badly hurt. Brady was on a step-ladder and Clarkson was seated beneath him, when the rigging, which supports the staging gave way and threw both men to the ground. Brady struck a window-sill in his fall though he was hurled at least 40 feet. Clarkson fell 30 feet. Both men were considerably injured about the back and Clarkson complained of bruises on both legs. The men were attended by a physician and later taken to the Newton Hospital in the police ambulance.
NEWTON UPPER FALLS.
—The Fanning Printing Company are erecting a large wooden addition to their plant on High street near the corner of Summer street.
—The upper portion of Echo Bridge is undergoing repairs and in place of the large concrete walks, a new kind of artificial stone walk is being laid.
—Mr. Bernard Billings, the well known druggist, has been quite ill at his home on High street, but now his friends are pleased to learn that he is slowly recovering.
—Already the bowlers of the Quinobek Association are active. Up to date six teams have been organized and it is expected that the winter's tournament will soon begin.

—For greater convenience to my patrons I desire to announce that all calls for my services may be transmitted to me by public telephone from Waban drug store, at my expense. Respectfully, HENRY F. CATE, 1617
—For greater convenience to my patrons I desire to announce that all calls for my services may be left with Mr. John W. Howe, High street, who will forward them to me with the greatest possible dispatch. Respectfully, HENRY F. CATE, 1617
—It has been decided by the postoffice officials to change the method by which the U. S. mails are received at this place. Formerly the mail pouches were brought from Newton Highlands by electric. It is said that this plan was unsatisfactory and occasioned no little complaint. Beginning last Wednesday the old plan of carrying the pouches from Eliot station by teams was put in operation. George Chambers, who held this position in former years and faithfully performed his duties, has again been given the contract.
A CLEAN CUP.
Showing How Easy It Is to Twist the Meaning of Things.
Time, honeymoon.
He—May I come in?
She—No; keep out of the kitchen. I am getting dinner for you. I wouldn't trust the servant to do it.
He—Can't I help you?
(Enter servant, who never thought much of him anyway.)
She—No; I don't want to be bothered with you.
He—Don't be a goose. I'm coming in (Forces his way past the servant.)
She—Now, go away. If you don't, I'll put flour on your face!
He—I won't let you. (Catches both her hands.)
She—Struggling violently—Now, let me alone, or something will be said!
He—Playfully twitching a lock of hair which has straggled over her forehead—You mustn't pass your hours over that hot stove trying to please me. I'll lock the place up and board if you don't quit it. Come, give me a kiss.
She—(Breaking from him)—There! I'll teach you to be sure!
He—(Puts her hand, which is covered with flour, on his face.) Now, will you go away? (Laughs at his contumacious.)
He—(Perceiving some stone polish and rubbing his finger in it)—I'll pay you for that! (Puts a little of the polish on her cheek.)
She—Oh, you awkward thing! You will be the death of me! You almost put my eye out! And the dinner is burning!
He—(Trying to kiss her)—Never mind the dinner. Don't bother with the kitchen. We'll go down town and get dinner.
She—Oh, that will be fine! You are the dearest, best, kindest husband in the world! (Kisses him.)
II.
Time, after the deluge of tears and reproaches.
Her Lawyer—Did you ever hear your mistress express fears of personal violence at this man's hands?
Servant—Yes, sir.
(A buzz of indignation.)
Her Lawyer—Did you ever see him shake her and pull her hair?
Servant—Yes, sir.
(Murmurs of "Who would have thought it!")
Her Lawyer—Has he threatened to lock her out of the house?
Servant—Yes, sir.
(Exclamations of "The brute!")
Her Lawyer—Did he ever give her a black eye?
Servant—Yes, sir.
Her Lawyer—That will do. Gossips (in chorus)—There, I told you so!
Moral—Don't be silly before the servant.—Washington Star.

Parnell Wouldn't Read It.
An error in spelling was as offensive to Parnell, Mr. McCarthy tells us in his "Reminiscences," as the sight of a black beetle is to many a man.
I once handed him a letter which I had received from a constituent of mine asking me to call Parnell's attention to some improvement which he thought might be made in a bill then before the house dealing with the subject of agricultural occupation in Ireland. Unhappily the poor man who wrote the letter had spelled agricultural with two "g's." Parnell looked at the letter, smiled sadly and handed it back to me.
"Do forgive me," he said, "and tell me all about it. I couldn't read through a man's letter who spells agricultural with two 'g's.'"
It was indeed a curious stroke of fate which led the unhappy author of the Parnell forgery to ornament his letters with flagrant examples of bad spelling.

Carpets.
Our business has been the selling of Carpets and Rugs for considerably more than three-quarters of a century—since 1817, to be exact.
Our stock is at all times by far the largest in New England—including many choice private patterns which we control exclusively.
Our prices are invariably at the lowest point.
JOHN H. PRAY, SONS & CO.,
CARPETS AND UPHOLSTERY,
658 Washington St. (opp. Boylston St.), Boston.

By S. R. KNIGHTS & CO., Auctioneers, 650 Tremont Building, Boston.

Mortgagee's Sale of Real Estate.
By virtue of a power of sale contained in a certain mortgage deed given by Hugh F. Drew to the Newton Co-operative Bank dated December 16, 1898, and recorded in the Registry of Deeds for the County of Middlesex (South District) libro 229, folio 504, will be sold at public auction, on the premises, on Tuesday, the fourteenth day of November, 1899, at 3.30 o'clock in the afternoon, for a breach of the conditions of said mortgage and for the purpose of foreclosing the same, all and singular the premises conveyed by said mortgage deed, namely:—
A certain parcel of land, situated in that part of Newton in said County of Middlesex, called Conantum, and bounded Northerly on land now or late of McGonigle one hundred (100) feet, Easterly on land of French by a line parallel with and one hundred feet distant from the westerly line of Bridge Street forty (40) feet more or less, Southerly on land now or late of Girdle one hundred (100) feet, and Westerly on land now or late of Fimley forty (40) feet; together with a right of way to said Bridge Street over the parcel of land adjoining and bounded Northerly on land of said Girdle by a straight line one hundred (100) feet, Easterly on Bridge Street ten and 2-100 (10.02) feet, Southerly on land now or late of said Girdle by a straight line one hundred (100) feet, and Westerly on land conveyed by said mortgage deed and above described ten and 2-100 (10.02) feet, the premises conveyed by said mortgage deed and the parcel of land over which a right of way is therein granted are shown on a plan of land in and by E. S. Smith, Surveyor, dated November 19, 1898, and recorded with Middlesex South District Deeds at the office of the Registrar of Deeds, said premises will be sold subject to all unpaid taxes and other municipal assessments, $50.00 will be required to be paid in cash by the purchaser at the time and place of sale.
THE NEWTON CO-OPERATIVE BANK, Mortgagee.

October 19, 1899.
WELLS & WELLS, Attorneys,
115 Devonshire St., Boston.

Mortgagee's Sale.
Pursuant to a power of sale contained in a certain mortgage given by Patrick Flaherty and Mary Flaherty, his wife, in her own right, to the West Newton Savings Bank, dated June 12th, 1899, and for breach of the conditions thereof, will be sold at public auction on Saturday the 18th day of November next at four o'clock in the afternoon, on the premises, a certain lot of land with the buildings thereon, situated in that part of Newton called Newton Centre, and being lot numbered one on a plan of land in Newton Centre belonging to D. S. Farnham, drawn by E. A. W. Hammett, dated June 19th, 1898, and bounded and described as follows: Beginning at a point on the Southerly side of Beacon Street by land now or late of Sullivan, thence running Westerly by said Beacon Street forty-five and seven tenths feet to land of Wingarsky being lot numbered two on said plan; thence turning and running Southerly by land of Wingarsky sixty-four feet to land of Curtin; thence turning and running Easterly by said land of Curtin forty-five and eighty-seven hundredths feet, to a corner, by land of the City of Boston; thence turning and running Southerly by lot numbered four on said plan sixty-five and seventy-five one hundredths feet to point of beginning. Containing 2,235-19 square feet.
THE WEST NEWTON SAVINGS BANK, by JAMES H. NICKERSON, Treas.

October 20, 1899.
MAURICE MORTON, Auctioneer.

T. J. MALONE & CO.,
Slate, Metal and Gravel Roofing,
Gutters, and Conductors Put Up and Repaired
Galvanized Iron Workers.
21 SOLEY ST., CHARLESTOWN.
TELEPHONE 434-2.
Order Boxes, 2 Barrett St. and 36 Brattle St., Boston.

STOVES
and every variety of

Household Goods
—AT—
BENT'S FURNITURE ROOMS,
64 Main St., Watertown.

French and Hall Clock
REPAIRING A SPECIALTY.
WILLIAM PRATT & SON,
(Established 1835.)
195 Tremont Street, Boston, Mass.
UNDER HOTEL PELHAM.
Clocks called for and delivered.

FOR BUTTER
of the highest grade and a First-class line of all Groceries go to
W. O. KNAPP & CO.,
LANGLEY ROAD.

Wedding Decorations, (ARTISTIC DESIGNS)
Cut Flowers and Plants.
E. T. MOREY,
WASHINGTON AND TREMONT STREETS, NEAR NEWTON LINE.

What is Cream of Tartar?

When the juice which is pressed from grapes for wine-making ferments, the acid of the fruit is crystallized and precipitated. This is collected, refined to absolute purity, and ground to a powder. This is cream of tartar.

Fruit acids are among the most wholesome and important constituents of the food of man. They are absolutely requisite to maintain health. In grape cream of tartar there are combined the most useful of leavening agencies and a most healthful food article.

This highly refined acid of the grape, or cream of tartar, is the material from which Royal Baking Powder is made. It is many times more expensive than ingredients used in many baking powders, but being healthful in itself, it adds healthfulness to the food instead of degrading it.

In imitation baking powders poisonous alum is used instead of healthful cream of tartar. Such powders seriously affect the health.

ABOUT Sorosis Shoes
Import ant
Facts

They come in 35 styles
They hold their shape
They are perfection of fit
They look well and wear well
They are the height of style
They give perfect comfort
They have hand-sewed welts
They have hygienic cork soles
They have many imitators

What more could be said of any shoe? Try them and be convinced that they possess all the merits attributed to a shoe. Price the world over,

$3.50
Pair

Shepard, Norwell & Co.,
Winter Street, Boston.

Misses' Sizes
Fleeced Jersey Pants and Vests
12 1-2c
a garment.

Bear in Mind that we make skirts to measure when the materials are purchased of us, for $1 each. Five and Seven Gore Styles ONLY.

The CENTRAL DRY GOODS CO.,
107 to 115 MOODY ST.,
Waltham, Mass.

THE NEWTON GRAPHIC.

VOL. XXVIII.—NO. 5.

NEWTON, MASS., FRIDAY, OCTOBER 27, 1899.

TERMS, $2.00 A YEAR.

WALTER C. BROOKS & CO.,

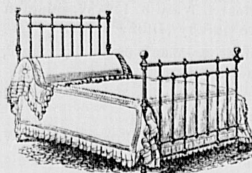

Importing - - Tailors,

15 MILK STREET, - BOSTON.

Birthplace of Franklin, Opp. Old South Church.

The Largest Assortment of Foreign Woollens Shown in Boston.

POPULAR.

Our Brass and Iron Beds are popular. The finish, construction and enduring qualities, combined with our low prices, make them so. It is worth your while to call on us before purchasing.

MORRIS, MURCH & BUTLER,
42 Summer St., Boston.
Mattresses and Chamber Furniture.
Sole proprietors of the "Noiseless" Spring.

SHIRTS MADE TO ORDER.

Best material, first-class work, perfect fit. Only one quality, the very best, $1.50 each. Plain shirt without collar or cuffs. Samples made for trial.
Repairing is done neatly, correctly and promptly. New neck-bands, 10c. each. Wrist-bands, 15c. pair. Full cuffs, 20c. pair. Collars, 25c. Bosoms, 50c. Centre pleats, 15c.
Shirts to repair left Tuesday or Thursday with parties named below will be ready for delivery at same places in one week.
Newton, 42 Thornton St., H. H. Bacon; Newburyport, J. V. Sullivan; N. U. Falls, J. T. Thomson; West Newton, E. D. Tarleton; N. Highlands, C. E. Stewart; Andover, H. M. Childs; N. Centre, H. S. Williams; N. L. Falls, Kenney Bros.

E. B. BLACKWELL 43 Thornton Street Newton.

WALTER R. FORBUSH, ARCHITECT.

Stevens Building,
Nonantum Square, NEWTON
High class Domestic Work a specialty.

REUBEN FORD, Accountant.

John Hancock Building, Room 208,
BOSTON.

Established 1874.

BUNTING'S FISH MARKET.

Closed to settle estate,
Has been Re-Opened

THOMAS & BURNS,

who will endeavor to please the public by carrying on a strictly first class Fish Market. This is the only store in this part of the city that makes fish of all kinds a specialty.
Orders called for and delivered. Please favor us with your patronage.

SATISFACTION GUARANTEED.

Telephone Connection 188-4.

12 Centre Place,
NEWTON, - - MASS.

DENTISTRY

Save your teeth; don't have them extracted; you know their value until they are gone; crown and bridge-work a specialty; whenever teeth or roots remain in the mouth this system can be used; all dental operations known to the profession are performed in this office in a thorough and skillful manner. It is no longer necessary to pay exorbitant fees for dentistry. We charge about one-half the regular rates and guarantee entire satisfaction in each case. Examination made free; seventeen years' experience. 104 Boylston street, Boston, room 3. Take Elevator.

DR. W. H. DUDDY.

Juvene

Will show exclusive Styles in

Millinery

Commencing Wednesday, Oct. 11, 1899.

E. JUVENE ROBBINS,
Eliot Block, Newton, Mass.
NO CARDS.

JOHN IRVING, FLORIST

Cut Flowers, House Plants, Funeral Designs. Flowers for Weddings and Parties.
Pearl St. - - - - - Newton
Telephone Connection.

The Secret Discovered How to make the perfect Baking Powder. Mrs. Henry Vincent Pinkham of Newton invites the attention of all housekeepers to this new production (manufactured by herself under the name of the S. S. Pierce Co. of Boston) and the leading grocers of Newton.

JAPANESE BLUEING, which is pronounced by experts to be the best blueing known to science.
For sale by the S. S. Pierce Co. of Boston and the leading grocers of Newton.

EBEN SMITH.
1872.

MRS. EBEN SMITH.
1897.

REMOVAL.

PICTURE FRAMING, REGILDING,
147 Summer Street., Cor. South, Boston.
(FORMERLY LINCOLN STREET.)

Thanking the many friends and patrons for their loyal support and encouragement in the past and earnestly requesting a continuance of their patronage, will have much pleasure in showing new and correct selection of designs in

GOLD, SILVER, BRONZE AND NATURAL WOODS.

MRS. EBEN SMITH, 147 Summer St., Cor. South. Over Jaynes Drug Store ELEVATOR.

R. J. MORRISSEY, AUCTIONEER.

Choice line of Houses in Newton and vicinity For Sale and To Rent.

Public Sale of Household Furniture etc., every Saturday eve'g at 7.30
All classes of personal property sold on Commission. Consignments of goods solicited. Store open during the week. Call and examine stock. Goods sold at private sale during the week, except Saturday.

PORTTRAITS

Telephone 183-6.

In Carbon and Platinum.

MARSHALL & KELLEY, 263 Washington Street, Newton.

MONEY TO LOAN D. TOY & COMPANY

By the Merchants Co-operative Bank
71 BEACON STREET, BOSTON, MASS.

MANAGEMENT, W. J. EDGERTON

UNIVERSITY TAILORS.

Representatives for WILKINSON & CO. and HILL BROTHERS, London, W.

Telephone, Haymarket 1387-5.

We have, this season, added a new feature to our large and increasing business. Owing to the frequent expressed requests of our patrons to obtain a foreign fabric at a moderate figure in styles not represented by Merchant Tailors in general, we decided on a new departure which, by designing our own patterns and having them made by the best mills, will enable us to present a large and varied assortment of confined styles that we are prepared to make into suits at THIRTY FIVE DOLLARS.

A THOUSAND STYLES TO SELECT FROM.

COPYING AND FRAMING.

771 Washington St., BOSTON

BARGAINS IN FURS.

Real Marten Collarettes

$3.50 to $15.00.

All other Furs at proportional Low Prices.

FURS ALTERED AND REPAIRED

In the best manner possible. Satisfaction Guaranteed. S. ARONSON, Furrier.

(Up one flight) 12 West St., Boston.

Boiled Live Lobsters,

English Mutton Chops,
AND OYSTERS IN EVERY STYLE

Are Specialties at the

CRAWFORD HOUSE, BOSTON.

Table d'hôte Dinners served daily from 2 to 8 P. M., at No. 17 Brattle Street.

BRADSHAW'S HOME CANDIES.

C. H. TRAFTON,

Practical Gilder and Picture Frame

Maker,
269 Washington Street - Newton.

Save money and trouble. Give me a trial. Office with J. B. Hamblin, Optician and Watchmaker.

T. J. MALONE & CO.,

Slate, Metal and Gravel Roofing.

Gutters, and Conductors Put Up and Repaired

Galvanized Iron Workers.

21 SOLEY ST., CHARLESTOWN.

TELEPHONE 434-2.

Order Boxes, 2 Barrett St. and 36 Brattle St., Boston.

STOVES

and every variety of

Household Goods

- AT -

BENT'S FURNITURE ROOMS,

64 Main St., Watertown.

Springer Bros., Cloak, Suit and Fur House,

Now Located at 155 TREMONT ST., Near West St.

NEW FALL STYLES.

Ladies' Tailor Suits, Coats, Capes, Furs, Golf Capes and Skirts, Bicycle and Walking Skirts, Waists, Travelling Rugs, etc., etc.

Superior Grade Furs a Specialty.

NEWTON.

—Pianos, Farley, 433 Washington St. tf

—Shirt repairing, see Blackwell's adv. tf

—Mrs. Wood of Maple terrace is improving from her recent illness.

—Mr. Jesse Ivy of Fairmont avenue returned Saturday from a short shooting trip.

—Mr. Stockbridge and family have moved into one of the Otis houses on Capitol street.

—The only electrician having a license

—Miss Ina Hackett of Dover, N. H., has been visiting relatives on Centre street, the past week.

—The Channing Sewing Circle held a sewing meeting in the Unitarian church parlors, Thursday morning.

—Mr. Sterling Elliott of Maple street is prominently mentioned as a candidate for president of the national league.

—Rev. Cyrus W. Heizer of Wayland was the preacher at the Unitarian church, Sunday, exchanging with the pastor.

—The meeting of the Eliot Young People's Society last Sunday evening, was in charge of Mr. A. W. Binkmore.

—Dr. and Mrs. Edward B. Hitchcock of Hollis street returned last week after a several months' stay in New Jersey.

—Wm. E. Pike, electrician and licensed gas-fitter, has moved to Thorndike street, in the city. Telephone 215, Newton. tf

—Mrs. C. M. Warner of Park street and her sister, Mrs. E. R. Brown of Boston are spending a few weeks at Clifton Springs, N. Y.

—Mr. C. E. Currier, the builder, is putting up the government buildings at the United States fort, located at Winthrop Highlands.

—A special service to commemorate the festival of Saint Simon and Saint Jude will be held in Grace church chapel, Saturday, at 10.45 a. m.

—Miss A. P. Simpson and Miss E. I. Simpson have returned to their home on Hovey street after a trip through New Hampshire.

—The Woman's Association held a meeting in the parlor of Eliot church, Tuesday afternoon. At 3.30 a foreign missionary meeting was held.

—Prof. George K. Morris has moved from Maple avenue to Thorndike street, Brookline. Mrs. Morris will spend the winter in New York state.

—At a recent meeting of the class of '00, Wellesley College, Miss Edith H. Moore was elected a member of the executive board of the athletic association.

—Hon. Samuel L. Powers of Arlington street has been elected a member of the recently formed Republican State Committee for the coming presidential campaign.

—Mrs. Adelaide N. Blodgett of Centre street attended the quarterly meeting of the Massachusetts Federation of Women's Clubs, held last Friday in Winchendon.

—In the eligible list for the senior and junior interscholastic foot ball league, Geo. H. Daniels and Fred S. Marshman are candidates for the Newton High school team.

—Lieut. Col. George H. Benyon and Major R. B. Edies, with other military men, were in charge of the annual ride contest of the state militia held Tuesday, at the Walnut Hill range.

—Rev. Frank B. Matthews will give four Bible talks to be called the "Law Series," at the Immanuel Baptist church, Friday evenings. This evening the subject will be "The Law of Faith."

—Rev. G. R. W. Scott, D. D., of Park street was in Needham, last week, where he was one of the speakers at the annual convention of the Norfolk Central district of the Massachusetts Sunday School Association.

—Prof. William Z. Ripley of the Massachusetts Institute of Technology, gave an interesting and instructive address on "The Problem of the Philippines," before the Twentieth Century Club, last Wednesday evening.

—The lives and work of missionaries are being considered by the members of the Helpless Mission Circle at Eliot church. This afternoon they will consider "The Medical Work of Dr. Julia Bissell at Ahmednagar in India."

—At the Unitarian church next Sunday morning, the collection will be for the benefit of the Newton District Nursing Association. A generous response to the appeal of this association for aid in its beneficent work is earnestly requested.

—The announcement was made on the 18th, of the engagement of Miss Mabel Frances Gaffield, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank W. Gaffield of Beacon street, Brookline, and formerly of Newton, to Mr. Raymond Tucker of Boston.

—The ladies of Fairmont avenue, Bellevue and Centre streets, who in the past have been at home to their friends on Mondays, are announcing that for the coming season, at least, they will be at home only on the first Monday of every month.

—Rev. Samuel L. Loomis, pastor of the Union Congregational church, Boston, has taken Mr. Dunn's house on Breemore road for the winter, and Mr. and Mrs. Dunn will sail to-morrow for Europe to spend the winter.

—The bowling tournament at the Hunnewell Club will begin about Nov. 1st, and the committee are now receiving entries. So much interest was taken last year in the contests, and they furnished so much amusement, that a large number of entries are anticipated this year.

—The first choir social of the season took place in the parish house of Grace church last Tuesday. There were fifty present. The program consisted of music and recitations. Some fine solos were rendered by members of the choir, and the readings by Mr. R. L. Stone of the School of Expression, Boston, were greatly enjoyed. The entertainment closed with interesting proceedings in the refectory, over which Mrs.

church has appointed Messrs. George S. Bullens, George Flint and Marcus Morton a committee to complete arrangements for the observance of Dr. Shinn's anniversary.

—The professional and business men endorse Burns as an artistic hair cutter, Cole's block.

—Mr. Al Rees can be found with W. S. Hayden at the Newton Corner Market. Tel. 224-2.

—The annual ball of Division 35, A. O. H., will be held in Armory hall, Friday evening, Nov. 3.

—Ex-Mayor Bothfield is expected home today from his two weeks' business trip to St. Louis and other western cities.

—We wish to call your attention to the low prices of first class provisions at the Newton Corner Market, for Saturday, Oct. 27.

—Fresh killed chickens, 16 2-3 cts. per pound. Fresh killed fowl 15 cts. per pound. See our goods before you buy your Sunday dinner. Newton Corner Market.

—Celery raised in Newton 10 cts. per bunch. Fresh picked spinach, 10 cts. per peck. Cranberries 3 qts. for 25 cts. Fancy green and Baldwin apples, 30 cts. per peck. Newton Corner Market.

—Quality the best, prices the lowest. Fancy legs lamb, 14 cts. per pound. Hind quarters fancy lamb, 12 1-2 cts. per pound. Fore quarters 8 cts. per pound. Newton Corner Market, under new management, W. S. Hayden, Prop.

—Mr. and Mrs. I. B. Harrington of Church street have as their guests this week Mrs. C. E. Owen of Houlton, Me., Mrs. L. H. Kendall of Biddeford, Me., Mrs. W. H. Nevin and Miss Gertrude Gammon of Joliet, Ill.

—It is reported that the site of the old Brackett homestead, on Waverley avenue, opposite Ivanhoe street, has been sold to a wealthy gentleman, who intends to erect a handsome residence upon it. It is one of the finest building sites in the city.

—A candy and doll sale will be held under the auspices of the Young Women's Mission Club and the Farther Lights Society in the vestry of the Immanuel Baptist church, Monday, Nov. 6th. In the evening an entertainment will be given.

—The Women's Auxiliary to the Y. M. C. A. will tender a reception to the members and their friends, Thursday evening, Nov. 2nd, from 7.45 to 10 o'clock. There will be an informal reception, address by the president, and a musical and literary entertainment.

—Mrs. Bridge McMahon, wife of Martin McMahon, died Wednesday at her home on Cook street, Newton. She was 60 years old and had been a resident of this place for over quarter of a century. The funeral was held this morning at the Church of Our Lady, and the interment was in Holyhood cemetery.

—Messrs. Oscar and Devere Simmons will give a slight of the theatricals in the parish house of Grace church, Tuesday evening, Nov. 14th. They have a number of original tricks, besides the more familiar ones, which completely mystify the on-lookers, and the whole affair will be well worth seeing. Tickets are 25 cts.

—Mr. and Mrs. Arthur H. Terrell of Newtonville, Mr. and Mrs. Warner R. Holt of Newton Centre and Mr. Frank H. Burt of Newton attended the reunion of the alumni of the Springfield High school, last Friday, when the fifth anniversary of the school was observed.

—At the business men's class at Eliot church next Sunday, the topic will be: "What are the employers' personal obligations towards their employees, both as to hours of labor and wages, and how far can the former exert their influence on the social condition of the latter?" Opened by Col. D. W. Farquhar.

—In the gymnasium of the Y. M. C. A., last Wednesday evening, about 75 people enjoyed a gymnastic exhibition, which was given under the direction of General Secretary Parker, who is at present acting physical director. A number of interesting features were creditably given, among them being the feats of Harry McNutt, Fred Greenough and A. E. Dane.

—Music in Grace church Sunday evening; Processional 519, "Savior blessed Savior." Oakley

Magnificat. [C. K. in F. Marks

Anthem, "The day is just and even." Hutton

Hymn 241, "Jesus shall reign." Hutton

Anthem, "From Thy love as a Father." Ground

Recessional 522, "On our way rejoicing." Haverhill

Seats free:

—The young men's club of Eliot church held its annual meeting Tuesday evening in the church parlors. A large number of the members were present and the annual reports were of a satisfactory nature. The officers for the coming year are: E. O. Childs, Jr., president; W. F. Copping, vice president; J. N. Eaton, secretary; W. F. Porter, treasurer; C. H. Stone, W. F. Garcelon, F. S. Marshman, John Farquhar, Rev. W. H. Davis, ex-officio, directors.

Why Women Are Nervous.

[British Medical News.]

The frequent cases of nervous prostration or utter collapse of the nervous system under which women "go all to pieces," as the saying is, have caused much thought and investigation on the part of physicians.

Certain inorganic substances are well known to cause various forms of nervous diseases which are readily traced to the poisons producing them. Further research leads to the belief that a prevailing cause of so-called nervous prostration, for the symptoms it produces on the nervous system after its absorption into the blood are very remarkable indeed. Experiments physiologically made upon animals by Orfila, Professors Hans Mayer, Paul Seim and others, show that alum frequently produces no visible symptoms for many days after its introduction into the body. Then follow loss of appetite and other alimentary disturbances, and finally a serious prostration of the whole nervous system. The most prominent physicians now believe that "nervous prostration" and many affections of the nerves from which both men and women suffer are caused by the continued absorption of alum into the system.

It is probable that many medical men are unaware of the extent to which salts of alumina may be introduced into the body, being under the impression that the use of alum in bread is prohibited. Alum, however, is still used surreptitiously to some extent in white bread, and very largely in making cheap kinds of baking powder. In families where baking powder is generally used great care should be exercised to procure only those brands made from cream of tartar. The alum powders may generally be distinguished by the lower price at which they are sold.

Framingham 10, Braeburn 3.

On Pinecushion links at Framingham Thursday the Framingham golf club defeated the Braeburn golf team of West Newton, 10 to 3. The scores:

FRAMINGHAM BRAEBURN

S. Bent.....5 Geo. Wright.....8

H. W. Sweeney.....0 J. D. Thomas.....0

S. Howe.....0 J. C. Jones.....0

E. W. Kingsbury.....0 W. H. Merrick.....1

C. Estey.....0 S. H. C. Perkins.....0

H. R. Brown.....0 F. H. Hovey.....2

Total.....10 Total.....3

NEWTON FREE LIBRARY.

LIST OF NEW BOOKS.

- Blok, Petrus Johannes. History of the People of the Netherlands. Vol. 2. 76.285
- Cox, Palmer. The Brownies. 57.521
- Dennis, James S. Christian Missions and Social Progress: A Sociological Study of Foreign Missions. Vol. 2. 85.251
- Forbes, John Murray. Letters and Recollections, ed. by his daughter, Sarah Forbes Hughes. 95.632
- Ford, Paul Leicester. The Many-Sided Franklin. 94.677
- Haldane, E. S. James Frederick Haldane. (Famous Scots series). 92.841
- Hamblen, Herbert Elliott. We Win the Race. A History of a Young Railroader. 66.809
- Humphrey, Frances A. Phoebe Tilton. 65.1079
- King, Bolton. A History of Italian Unity; being a Pictorial History of Italy, from 1814 to 1871. 2 vols. 75.323
- Kipling, Rudyard. Kipling & Co. 66.806
- Krout, Mary H. A Looker on in London. 33.523
- Magner, D. A B C Guide to Sensible Horseshoeing. 107.479
- Markham, Edwin. The Man with the Hoe, and other Poems. 54.1278
- Moore, Edward. Studies in Dante. 2 vols. 56.462
- Rhodes, James Ford. History of the United States from the Compromise of 1850. Vol. 4, 1852-64. 76.228
- Shoemaker, Michael Meyer. Quaint Corners of Ancient Empires; Southern India, Burma, and Manilla. 34.477
- Stout, G. F. Manual of Psychology. An introductory study of psychology made from the genetic standpoint. The order followed is that of the successive stages of mental development. 101.971
- Tomlinson, Everett T. Ward Hill at College. 62.1019
- Wakeman, Antoinette Van Hoesen, and Heller, Louise M. Scientific Sewing and Garment Cutting; for use in Schools and in the Home. 103.767
- E. P. THURSTON, Librarian, Oct. 25, 1899.

$100 Reward, $100.

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers, that they offer $100,000 Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials. Address, F. J. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, O. Sold by druggists, 75c.

BOOKS AND MAGAZINES.

The London Academy has been publishing an elaborate "enquiry" into "David Harum," and the reviewer's verdict is that "David Harum remains—David Harum will remain the same year after year, a convincing and delightful creation, and, in the sense that it sticks in the memory, a memorable one."

Congressman-elect Roberts, of Utah, has read Miss Lily Dougall's novel, "The Mormon Prophet," and says that "it is apparent on every page that she writes from intimate acquaintance with the early history of the Mormons." Very naturally, Mr. Roberts objects to her characterization of Joseph Smith as a largely self-deluded enthusiast, but the careful attention which he gives to Miss Dougall's remarkable novel is of itself an exceptional tribute to the power and interest of the book.

The old adage about truth and fiction was justified again in the recent football game between Harvard and Wesleyan, when Ellis, the Harvard right half back, made a run of thirty-five yards and jumped over a Wesleyan tackler's head, scoring a touchdown. The same feat is described in Mr. E. H. Barlow's new football story, "The Half-Back," and the exciting incident is illustrated in the frontispiece of the book, which has just been published by D. Appleton and Company.

Mr. Frank T. Bullen's forthcoming book will be entitled "The Log of a Sea-Wolf." The brilliant author of "The Cruise of the Cachet" and "Idylls of the Sea" presents in this new work the continuous story of the actual experiences of his first four years at sea. In graphic and picturesque phrases he has sketched the events of voyages to the West Indies, to Bombay and the Coromandel coast, to Melbourne and Rangoon. Nothing could be of more absorbing interest than this wonderfully vivid account of fabled humanity, and the adventures and strange sights and experiences attendant upon deep sea voyages. It is said by those who have read the advance sheets that the book is likely to prove a companion volume to our own "Two Years before the Mast." The publishers, D. Appleton and Company, announce that the book will be ready almost immediately.

Mr. Frank Vincent's important and instructive book, "Actual Africa," has a peculiar interest for readers at this time. The author presents vivid accounts of his visits to Delagoa Bay, and to Durban in Natal, whence he travelled to Newcastle, Charlestown, Johannesburg, and Pretoria. Mr. Vincent gives most graphic accounts of the life of the Boers and the mining and other interests of the Transvaal. His visit to the Transvaal was followed by a journey through the Orange Free State, where he visited the capital, Bloemfontein, and afterward he made a careful study of the Kimberley diamond mines. His journey southward and his stay in Cape Town furnished additional material for a comprehensive view of the present theatre of action in Africa. The results of this personal study of the territory now attracting so much attention include many characteristic illustrations of "Actual Africa" is published by D. Appleton and Company, who have also issued "Oom Paul's People," by H. C. Hillegas, which has been called "the true story of the Boers."

AVERAGES.

Miss Eleanor Stuart made warm friends by her novel of "Stone Pastures," a very striking story of life in a mining town and the peaceful conditions that prevail in the places. Her characters were real men and women, and the readers of that book will turn with interest to her second novel, under the above title. It aims to present the average life in New York, not the richest, nor the poorest, the best or the worst, but just ordinary people. It is rather a curious crowd she has got together. Very few of them have redeeming qualities, and the story only just escapes being dull. The heroine is supposed to be a very beautiful woman, at least we are assured of that fact often enough, with a taste for the magnificence in dress and a gilded youth for a husband, who is represented as being without any brains to speak of, but who really is one of the few likable characters in the book. His wife is utterly selfish, has no sense of truth, and wishes to pose as the usener vice puller who makes every one around her dance. Blessed with a good digestion, she has no conscience, wants all the men around to make love to her, and is therefore much surprised at the centre of the stage. She had written a very successful book about the wrongs of English working women, of which she knew nothing, and is therefore much surprised at the centre of the stage. She had written a very successful book about the wrongs of English working women, of which she knew nothing, and is therefore much surprised at the centre of the stage. She had written a very successful book about the wrongs of English working women, of which she knew nothing, and is therefore much surprised at the centre of the stage.

A POPULAR BOOK.

MARY CAMERON, A Romance of Fisherman's Island. "One of the most delightful stories of the year."—The New York Times. "A charming story—one that warms the heart and gladdens the eye."—Boston Transcript. "Will fascinate the many lovers of that region."—Philadelphia Telegraph. "The story is sweet, strong and fine."—Boston Transcript. "An entertaining romance—part of the story takes place in New York."—The Newton Graphic. For sale by all Boston Booksellers.

A Thousand Tongues

Could not express the rapture of Annie E. Springer of Philadelphia, when Dr. King's New Discovery cured her of a long-lingering cough that for many years had made life a burden. She says: "After all other remedies and doctors failed I soon recovered the pain in my chest and I can now sleep soundly, something I can scarcely remember doing before. I feel like sounding its praises throughout the Universe." Dr. King's New Discovery is guaranteed to cure all troubles of the Throat, Chest or Lungs. Price 50c and $1. Trial bottles free at all drug stores.

CITY WATER TASTED QUEER.

RESIDENTS OF THE DIFFERENT PARTS OF THE CITY REMARKED ON THIS LAST FRIDAY NIGHT—CONDITION WAS UNAVOIDABLE.

"Doesn't the water taste fishy, have you noticed it?" "Horrible, what can have gotten into the pipes?"

The above is a sample of the conversation which occurred in many a Newton home last Friday evening. Every one with reasonably sensitive nostrils who drank city water on that evening could not help remarking upon the peculiar smell and taste of the water.

Now it happened as it often happens that many thirsty people in the city. Happily, however, there was a thirst that water could readily quench.

In many a family it was very apparent that water must be provided, and if the city water was below the usual standard, drug-stores would have to supply the demand made by parched lips and throats.

Mineral waters were therefore much in demand and drug stores throughout the city did a lively trade in the sale of "soft" bottled goods.

As the customers for these particular articles lined-up before the counters and waited for their quarts or pints, they began to compare notes. Soon it was found that nearly every one had noticed "something queer" about the water.

And true enough there was something unusual, which however could not be looked upon as the least injurious, much less dangerous.

The explanation made by Water Commissioner J. Clifton Whitney was plausible and satisfactory. It appears that the engine in the pumping station had broken down and the water department had found it necessary to draw upon the city water supply. These unusual conditions existed but a short time and were unavoidable.

NEWTON CLUB.

A meeting of the members of the Newton Club was held last Saturday evening for the purpose of choosing a nominating committee to bring in a list of officers for the ensuing year. By vote it was decided that the chairman should appoint the committee. Following the club meeting, the nominating committee met in the assembly hall. There were 25 tables and prizes were won as follows: Potter and Shirley, Taber and Hollings, Delano and Copeland, Sprague and Messer.

Lasell Notes.

Gymnasium practice began last week.

The symphony concert last week was a fair contingent of patrons among Lasell girls. A party of eight or ten attended last Saturday evening, Miss Le Royer accompanying.

Miss Ransom and a number of the students visited the Food Fair on Saturday, combining the pleasure of viewing the fine display of food products, kitchen appliances and the like, with that of hearing Sousa's famous band.

The Sunday morning service of the Methodist Episcopal church, Auburndale, included a fine sermon by the Rev. L. T. Townsend of Baltimore, Md., which drew thither an unusual number of the seminary students. Another pleasant walk on Sunday afternoon, this time to Prospect Hill, with Mr. Bragdon, and a fair attendance upon the vesper service at the Congregational church, filled up the day.

Dr. Mara L. Pratt begins this week a Lasell series of lectures upon Psychobiological Physiology, primarily intended for the seniors, although other properly qualified students have the privilege of hearing them. They are of special value, and are rightly counted among the best things of the senior year at Lasell.

AUBURNDALE.

—Fred Clapp is enjoying a two weeks' vacation.

—Mrs. Wright of McVickar's court is seriously ill.

—L. Paul has returned from a trip to Shrewsbury.

—C. H. Sprague of Central street is soon to move to Lynn.

—Mrs. Eva Estes of Somerville has been visiting friends here.

—Mrs. William Cook of Auburn street is visiting in Worcester.

—William Edwards has entered the employ of Johnson & Keyes.

—J. A. Mellor has opened a grocery store in the new Taylor block.

—Mrs. Wyman has opened dressmaking parlors in the new Taylor block.

—Mr. White of Augusta, Me., is here the guest of Mr. Asa Robertson.

—Mr. W. P. Snow of Lexington street is in Bangor, Me., on a business trip.

—Mr. R. Dennison has returned from an enjoyable shooting trip in Maine.

—Miss Cook of Dorchester is the guest of Mrs. M. Messer of Central street.

—Mrs. Chandler of Andover, but formerly of this place, is visiting friends here.

—Miss Agnes Magee of Auburndale avenue is in New York on a business trip.

—Mrs. Herman of Raymond, N. H., is visiting Mrs. R. Knight of Newell road.

—William Moore of Melrose street has gone to work at the Watertown Arsenal.

—J. Brigham of Boston was the guest this week of A. L. Cole of Auburn street.

—William Hackett of Auburn street is entertaining his cousin from Kansas City.

—Miss Marion Morgan will return Saturday from her vacation at Ellsworth, Me.

—Mr. John Randall of Barnet, Vt., is visiting Mr. William Gillfill of Central street.

—Mr. Frank Hoyt has removed from Freeman street to St. Germaine street, Boston.

—Miss Lucia Skinner of Boylston, Vt., is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. F. X. DeLorey of Newell road.

—Thomas Tucker of Charles street has secured a position with the Boston & Albany railroad.

—Mr. Charles H. Sprague and family of Central street have taken up their residence in Brookline.

—Mrs. W. H. Thorne and children of Melrose street have returned from a visit to J. Frank Dubois of Lynn.

—The Review Club will meet at Mr. Joseph S. Hunt's, 44 Woodbine street on Tuesday evening, Oct. 31st.

—Mrs. F. N. DeLorey gave a reception to a number of friends at the Hotel Nottingham, Boston, Monday afternoon.

—Miss Edith Kimball of 261 Melrose street is enjoying a visit in New York city where she is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Sils.

—Mr. Fred Young returned Tuesday from a hunting trip in Maine. With him he brought two deer of which he is justly proud.

—The highway department is at work at the intersection of Lexington street and Commonwealth avenue putting a new surface on the road.

—The next regular meeting of Riverdale lodge, N. E. O. P., will be held at the residence of Mrs. V. A. Pluta on Howe street next Monday evening.

—There are letters in the postoffice for Mrs. D. H. Allen, Miss A. Helen Cronin, Miss Hollis, Annie M. Nolan, A. M. Winter, Herbert Stillins and T. Tobin.

—At the Methodist church Sunday morning will be a sermon by the pastor, Rev. J. W. Allen, on "Jesus and the Workingman." Sunday school at 12. Evening sermon at 7.30 in charge of Rev. Dr. C. W. Gallagher.

—The committee of ladies of this village, who are actively planning for the Ladies Home Circle fair, Nov. 16, include: Mrs. G. M. Fisher, Mrs. W. F. Hadlock and Mrs. C. A. Miner.

—Rev. L. T. Townsend was the preacher at the Methodist church last Sunday morning. A male quartet assisted by several Lasell students rendered a fine musical program.

—Mr. Claude G. Milham, agent for the new Taylor building, is active in the interest of the owners of the building, who have already secured a number of desirable tenants.

—Miss Doris Milham, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. G. Milham of Newell road, is recovering from her recent illness caused by a fall which resulted in a painful injury to her collar-bone.

—At the afternoon session of the Woman's Home Missionary Society held in Berkeley Temple, Boston, during the annual meeting Wednesday, Mrs. F. E. Clark was among the speakers.

—While Mr. John Potter of West Newton was driving on Auburn street Tuesday afternoon, about 4.30, his horse became frightened and started to run away. In his efforts to free himself from the vehicle the horse considerably damaged the carriage.

—As provision has been made in the city's annual appropriation budget for 1900 for a free reading room in this place, to be connected under the charge of the trustees of the Newton free library, the residents of Ward 4, who have been active for over six months securing subscriptions, feel that the new reading room will be opened with the coming of the new century. Quarters will undoubtedly be provided in the new Taylor block.

Job Couldn't Have Stood It

If he'd had itching Piles, They're terrible annoying; but Bucklen's Arnica Salve will cure the worst case of Piles on earth. It has cured thousands. For Injuries, Pains or Itchy Eruptions it's the best salve in the world. Price 25c a box. Cure guaranteed. Sold by all druggists.

MRS. PINKHAM says that irritability indicates disease. Women who are nervous and snappish are to be pitied. Their homes are uncomfortable; their dispositions grow constantly worse. Such women need the counsel and treatment of a woman who understands the peculiar troubles of her sex.

EVERY-DAY TALKS WITH WOMEN

your Vegetable Compound has done for me. It has helped me more than anything else. I suffered for a long time with nervousness, pains in back and limbs and falling of the womb; also had neuralgia in my head and could not sleep. I told my husband that something must be done, for I was nearly frantic with pain. Having read of the wonderful cures Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound had performed, I determined to try it. I have taken it and am happy to say I am cured. I recommend it to all my friends and never tire of telling the benefit I have derived from its use. I have you alone to thank for my recovery."

MRS. ELLEN FLANAGAN, 1810 Mountain St., Philadelphia, Pa., writes: "DEAR MRS. PINKHAM—Three years ago I was a sufferer from chronic dyspepsia, was irritable and cross, and can say that after taking seven bottles of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound was entirely cured. I take great pleasure in writing this to you and would be pleased to be interviewed by any one who is afflicted with that distressing complaint. I am very grateful to you."

NONANTUM.

—Mr. Frank Bogan and party enjoyed a successful shooting trip around Lexington last week.

—The electric cars now continue to Waltham across the Bemis bridge, which has just been completed.

—Mr. and Mrs. John Healey of Watertown street are receiving congratulations on the birth of twin boys.

—The voting booth has been erected on the Stearns estate, Watertown street, and is now ready for the fall elections.

—The Otis and Sprague property on Watertown street was put up at auction last Saturday. There were no bidders.

—Mr. Wm. Terry has returned from the yacht races, where he was aboard the Grand Duchess, the steamer that had the wireless telegraph.

—Wednesday evening the Nonantum Club entertained Priv. Aiken of the 15th U. S. Infantry, who has served a number of months in the Philippines.

—An organization called the Social Club has been formed with rooms at Chapel street. The officers are Ernest Gibson, president; Chas. Donas, vice-president; P. Porgars, secretary and A. Meyer, treasurer.

—Miss Florence Cameron of Boston, state visitor of the Mass. Sunday School Association, will speak at the Benham Mission, next Sunday at 3 o'clock. It will be very interesting to hear the story of her work in the city slums.

—Monday morning in the police court, Joseph F. Flaherty aged 18, Thomas B. White aged 18, and Richard E. Neville aged 17, were complained of for assault upon Alex. Chisen a 14-year-old Nonantum boy. According to the testimony of young Chisen he was playing football last Thursday afternoon, when Flaherty, White and Neville assaulted him. His testimony was substantiated by another witness. Judge Kennedy found the three defendants guilty and fined Flaherty and Neville $4 each and White $6.

—Joseph Marzocca, 35 years old, an Italian laborer residing at 40 Allen place, Watertown, was seriously injured Saturday afternoon, while at work in a trench at the corner of Chapel and Middle streets. The handle of a heavy hammer, wielded by another laborer, Jerry Monahan, broke and the head of the hammer struck Marzocca on the head, crushing his skull and causing a severe scalp wound. The injured man was treated by a physician and taken to the Newton Hospital in the police ambulance.

—At the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Mayell, 1 Bridge street, a Benam occurred on Wednesday evening, Oct. 25, the marriage of their younger daughter, Miss Agnes Jessie to Mr. Joshua Winthrop Stone of Watertown. Miss Emma Gertrude Stone, a sister of the groom, was maid of honor, and Mr. Myron Everett Pierce of Boston was best man. Messrs. Louis, John Mayell and Walter Coolidge acted as ushers. Mr. Alfred H. Ricketts, master of 702 M. I. T., rendered the wedding march from Lohengrin. The marriage ceremony was performed by Rev. E. C. Porter of Phillips Congregational church, Watertown. Mr. and Mrs. Stone will make their home in Arkansas, where Mr. Stone goes to fill the position of principal of the Mt. Ida normal school. The young couple carry with them many tokens of the esteem in which they are held by friends and numerous good wishes for their future.

BOSTON AMUSEMENTS.

THEMONT THEATRE—"Three Little Lambs." R. A. Barnett's latest and brightest musical comedy, has made the biggest kind of a hit at the Tremont Theatre, where, under the title of "Queen of the Ballet," it was first made known to playgoers by the Boston Cadets. In the present instance it is presented by the Fifth Avenue Theatre musical company, an organization formed by Manager Edwin Knowles, which has taken the place in the estimation of the New York public formerly held by the famous company that was disbanded after the death of Augustin Daly. Many of the most popular members of the Daly company, in fact, are now with Mr. Knowles' forces, and the organization is remarkably strong in comedians as well as singers, including, as it does, Miss Marguerite Lemon, Miss Nellie Braggs, Miss Marie Cahill, Mr. William E. Philp, Mr. W. T. Carleton, Mr. Raymond Hitchcock, Mr. Edmund Lawrence, Mr. Harold Vizard, Mr. Thomas Whiffen, Mr. Tom Hadaway and Mr. Richard Ridgley, together with an assemblage of sixty five people. The piece is magnificently staged and costumed, and with its highly diverting story, its wealth of rollicking fun, its delightful music and its lively dancing, it is attracting and entertaining audiences that test the capacity of the Tremont. Matinees are given on Wednesdays as well as Saturdays.

Uncle Amos: "They say the young minister is going in for the higher criticism." Uncle Reuben: "I don't wonder at it. They're only payin' him six hundred a year for the other kind."—Puck.

Real Estate and Insurance.

FOR CHOICE BUILDING LOTS

FARLOW HILL

THE NEWTONS.

W. S. & F. EDMANDS,

429 Centre St., Newton. Bray's Bk., Newton Cen. 178 Devonshire Street Boston.

ESTABLISHED 1840. TELEPHONE 2399.

HYDE'S

Real Estate Agency

32 MILK STREET.

Room 205, BOSTON, MASS.

Auctioneer, Mortgages Negotiated.

Newton Office: JOHN A. EVANS, Agt., 67 Elmwood Street Newton Property a Specialty.

Newton Highlands Office: NEWHALL'S BLOCK, Lincoln Street. Newton Highlands property a Specialty.

ELLIOTT J. HYDE

ABAN, TROWBRIDGE & CO.,

AUCTIONEERS, APPRAISERS.

REAL ESTATE

Money to loan

on mortgage.

Brackett's Block, 407 Centre St., Newton. 930 Exchange Building, 35 State Street, Boston. Telephone.

FRANCIS MURDOCK,

Insurance Agent

Gas Office, Brackett's Block Newton, Mass.

INSURANCE TO ANY AMOUNT placed in first-class Stock and Mutual Companies Sole Agent for Newton of the Middlesex Mutual of Concord, Mass.

WARM HOUSES

ARE BEST SECURED BY USING THE

WINCHESTER

HEATER

FOR STEAM OR WATER

SMITH & THAYER CO. BOSTON, 208 CONGRESS ST.

Established 1857. Telephone 2957.

EDWARD F. BARNES,

Real Estate Agent and Broker.

Expert Appraiser.

MONEY TO LOAN ON MORTGAGES

Insurance Agent and Auctioneer Member of the Real Estate Exchange.

31 State St., Boston. Brackett's Block, Newton.

Use the Telephone and Save

TIME, TRAVEL, TROUBLE, and

You can telephone 100 words in one minute easily.

TRY IT

A message by telephone brings immediate answer.

NIGHT RATE one half the day rate, except when the day rate is 15 cents or less. Very convenient for social conversation.

NEW ENGLAND

Telephone and Telegraph Company.

R-T-P-A-N-S. 10 for 5 cents at druggists. They banish pain and prolong life. One gives relief. No matter what the matter one will do you good.

THE CLEANSING AND HEALING CURE FOR CATARRH

CATARRH

Ely's Cream Balm

Easy and pleasant to use. Contains no injurious drug. It is quickly absorbed. Gives relief at once. It opens and cleanses the Nasal Passages. Always Inflammation. Heals and Protects the Membrane. Restores the Senses of Taste and Smell. Large size, 10 cents at Druggist or by mail. Trial size, 5 cents by mail. ELY BROTHERS, 50 Warren St., New York.

E. H. GREENWOOD,

REAL ESTATE.

Stevens Building,

Newton Highlands.

A large variety of Newton Highlands property for sale and to let. Some bargains in house lots.

Bismarck's Iron Nerve

Was the result of his splendid health. Indomitable will and tremendous energy are not found where Stomach, Liver, Kidneys and Bowels are out of order. If you want these qualities and the success they bring, use Dr. King's New Life Pills. Only 25 cents at all drug stores.

PIANOS TO RENT.

If you are not prepared to buy, we will rent you a fine piano at moderate rental. We have pianos especially adapted to vocalists as well as instrumentalists and guarantee entire satisfaction. We will apply all money paid as rent within a reasonable time on the purchase if you desire. If inconvenient to call, write us about it.

Ivers & Pond Piano Co.,

114 & 116 Boylston St., Boston.

KING'S MALT,

A sure cure for that tired feeling. Also some specialties in Canned Goods.

G. P. ATKINS, 396 Centre Street, NEWTON.

WANTED—A case of bad health that R-T-P-A-N-S will not benefit. They banish pain and prolong life. One gives relief. Note our slight R-T-P-A-N-S on the package and accept no substitute. R-T-P-A-N-S. 10 for 5 cents at any drug store. Ten samples and one thousand testimonials will be mailed to any address for 5 cents. S. HANSEN, the Ripans Chemical Co., 11 Spruce

THE NEWTON GRAPHIC

PUBLISHED EVERY FRIDAY AT

26 CENTRE PLACE, NEWTON, MASS.

Entered as second-class matter.

Subscription, per year $2.00
Single copies 5 cents

By mail free of Postage.

All money sent at sender's risk. All checks,
drafts, and money orders should be made payable toEDWARD D. BALDWIN,
Editor and Publisher.

TELEPHONE NO.

THE GRAPHIC is printed and mailed Friday afternoons, and is for sale at all News
Stands in the Newtons, and at the Boston &
Albany News Room, Boston Depot.All communications must be accompanied with the name of the writer, and unpublished
communications cannot be returned by mail
unless stamps are enclosed.

NOTICES

of all local entertainments to which admission fee is charged must be paid for at regular rates, 25 cents per line in the reading
matter, or $1 per inch in advertising columns.

TIMOTHY W. COAKLEY, who has some prominence as a Democratic politician of Boston, is very enthusiastic in the Boston Globe, over Manila, where he has been for some time on legal business, as he is a lawyer by profession. He has acquired
"business connections" in the Philippines, and the company of which he is the United States representative has "large timber concessions," and the islands have the "most valuable timber in the world." Under these circumstances one is naturally prepared to find that Mr. Coakley considered the Philippines a "godsend," and that he believes in keeping the islands, which he says are very valuable and have very rich gold mines. Of course if they are so valuable that puts a new light on the case and the moral aspect of the whole affair changes. If they are worth stealing, there is no doubt that Divine Providence sent us there to take them, and that neither we nor their Creator need consider that the Filipinos have any rights in the case. Admiral Dewey, who has spoken several times of his "friend Aguinaldo," will be interested to learn from Mr. Coakley that he is an illiterate Chinese halfbreed, and his followers are of the same class. It is curious what different views of the people of the islands we get from different men who go there, but of course a good deal depends on whether the observer is there for "business" or simply to discover the truth.

At a meeting of the Republican Ward and City Committee held Wednesday evening, Oct. 25, a petition was presented asking the committee to call caucuses to determine by ballot whether the provisions of the caucus laws, commonly called the "Boston or the Australian Caucus Act," shall be adopted by the Republicans of Newton to govern their caucuses. The Republicans will thus have an early opportunity to vote upon and determine this important question. This so-called Australian Caucus Act is obligatory upon all political parties in Boston, but is permissive in the other cities and towns of the Commonwealth.
Many cities and towns have adopted its provisions and others are submitting the question to its voters. The time is ripe for Newton to consider this advance method of making nominations and conducting campaigns, and undoubtedly the voters, especially those who complain of the present system, and those who would be glad to avail themselves of the privacy of the Australian ballot in caucuses the same as in election, and have the opportunity of marking their ballot in the afternoon or evening as best serves their condition, will welcome the opportunity to vote for this change in our caucus system. While those who are satisfied with the present system, if there are any, or those who object to any changes, will manifest their choice by their votes.
It is an interesting question and one that concerns every voter, and ought to bring out a very large vote.

The speakership fight seems to be the only election contest in Massachusetts of any importance, judging from what appears in the papers, and candidates are springing up from all sides. The leading man so far seems to be Representative Myers of Cambridge, whose long legislative experience has given him great strength with the members, and his ability and honesty are unquestioned. The last qualification is of considerable importance in our general court as much depends upon the appointment of committees, and this is appreciated by those corporations who want favors from the state. Possibly this will explain the hot fight being made against Mr. Myers by certain organs under the specious plea that he has dared to have opinions of his own on certain party questions. It would be much more comfortable for those asking favors to have a man who never has any opinions save those he is ordered to have, and experience has shown how easy it is to get undesirable measures through the legislature under the plea that they were party measures. An honest man with experience and strength of character was never more needed in the speaker's chair than in the coming session.

With all the difference of opinion in regard to the war in the Philippines, many people question whether it was in good taste for the president to make of his Thanksgiving proclamation a sort of stump speech in favor of the war. Such proclamations are for the whole people, and it would be just as improper to inject into them a speech in favor of high tariff or free silver or any other political measure. As the proclamation is read in churches quite generally on Thanksgiving day it is to be feared that the attendance at the services will be smaller than usual, as people will make it an excuse for staying away. As a general thing people are not proud of our doings in those islands whatever views they may hold as to the necessity of our being there and they would like to forget about it, especially on this particular holiday with all its associations.

THE Ohio campaign and Mr. Hanna continue to furnish amusement for the country, one day an inspired dispatch gravely tells the country that the opposition to Mr.
Hanna vanishes with his mere appearance on the platform, his face inspiring confidence. The next day an uncensored dispatch tells of his being hooted off a platform at Cleveland, where he had begun a speech asserting that there were no such things as trusts, and going on to ridicule free silver and Bryan. The great Ohio boss lost his temper under the storm of yells and cheers for Jones and Bryan and free silver and shouted out to the delighted audience that they were a lot of hoodlums.
A political speaker who loses his temper can hardly expect to make many votes, but Mr. Hanna never did depend on arguments for success in his political victories.

REV. DR. FAUNCE, the new president of Brown University, seems to be a very muscular Christian in regard to carrying one's religion into daily life. At the meeting of the Boston Baptist Social Union, he made this statement among others: "I would rather be an agnostic, and live a life of truly unselfish and Christlike endeavor, than sign all the creeds and attend a fashionable church twice every Sunday, and yet live a selfish and grasping life, isolated from my fellowmen." This expression was followed by hearty applause.
Rev. Dr. Wood, the new president of the Newton Theological Seminary, also made a practical speech and warned the company against "foozling" in life's struggle,
a very expressive way of stating the case.
Evidently also no one at Newton Centre escapes the golf fever.

MACFARLAND, the Washington correspondent of the Boston Herald, writes that President McKinley has, through our representatives at the courts of the great powers on the continent, notified those countries that the United States will not take part in any movement to interfere with Great Britain in her efforts to grab more territory in South Africa. This the continental powers take to mean, says Mr.
McFarland, that Great Britain has the moral support of the United States in this war, and hence they are afraid to intervene. There is no alliance, Mr. McFarland says, but what a boon such statements as these will be to the Democratic orators, who have asserted that our Philippine operations were the result of a secret understanding with Great Britain.

GENS. Brooks and Ludlow assert that many of the census enumerators appointed from Washington for the work in Havana, are criminals, perjurers, blackmailers, and swindlers. They assert that a census taken by such men will not be a reliable one, and this may easily be believed.
There seems to be a fatality about the attempts from Washington to establish our rule in our new possessions. Still even if these enumerators are as bad as they are reported, we can match them with appoints for consuls and even in many of the home offices. Disregarding civil service rules does not always bring about a happy result, and this incident only adds to the doubts of many good men as to our fitness to govern alien peoples.

THE national convention of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union, which has been held this week at Seattle, Washington, passed resolutions denouncing the war in the Philippines, which gave rise to a good deal of discussion. The opposition was led by Mrs. Mary H. Hunt of Massachusetts, of temperance text book fame, who has lost a son in the war, and the resolutions were favored by Mrs. K. L. Stevenson of Newton, and Mrs. Clara Hoffman of Missouri. As might have been expected the resolutions were passed by a good majority. Resolutions censuring the President, Atty. Gen. Griggs and ex-Secretary of war Alger for their action on the anti caneen law, were also passed.

AN advertisement in another column announces that election comes two weeks from next Tuesday, which is about the only apparent evidence in Newton that a campaign is in progress. Still there are good men nominated, and the election of the Republican ticket is about as certain as anything can be in this world. The argument that annual elections were necessary to educate the people might have been sound but the people seem likely to be obliged to do without much education in this campaign, except such as a few can get out of the Republican dinner in Boston.

It is said that the bicycle trust will make it interesting for those who want new wheels next season as prices will be held up to a comparatively high figure and there will be no such bargains as have been offered this year. Chain wheels will be held at $50 and the chainless variety at $75, without any discounts, and it is even reported that the retail dealers will be allowed only a small percentage. Still there may be makers enough outside of the trust to make it interesting, and to interfere with the profits that the promoters have been predicting.

NEWTON is to have the honor of a visit from the Lord Mayor of Dublin, Mr.
Tallon, who is on a visit to this country.
He and Hon. John E. Redmond, M. P., have accepted an invitation to attend a reception to be given them by the John Boyle
O'Reilly Literary Association at Armory
Hall, next Monday evening, and the affair promises to be quite an event. Mayor Wilson and ex-Mayor Cobb have accepted invitations to be present and meet the distinguished visitors, and other prominent men of Newton will attend.

THE Grand Army has voted not to lease their hall for political purposes, and the members generally approve of this decision.
There are numerous other halls that can be used for this purpose, and there have been scenes at some of the political meetings held there which were rather incongruous with the sentiment that belongs to the Grand Army, to put it mildly.

THE number of British officers killed in the battles with the Boers is said to indicate their ignorance of the latest theory of campaigning. If this thing keeps on they should send for Gen. Shafter to tell them how to conduct a successful campaign from a hammock.

AMBASSADOR CHOATE has been "ordered" by the President to make no more speeches in public, during his stay in England. This must take away from all the fun of his office from Mr. Choate, but it shows how rapidly we are progressing towards imperialism.

Rev. Fr. Michael Dolan III.

Rev. Fr. Michael Dolan, rector of the Church of Our Lady on Washington street,
Newton, is reported ill with typhoid fever.
He is reported as resting more comfortably this morning.

NONANTUM.

—For other Nonantum news see page 3.
—A Sunday school concert will take place in the North Evangelical church next Sunday at 6:30 o'clock p. m. All welcome.

"I have come," said Civilization, "to be a father to you." "Which the same is to say," retorted Barbarism, "sullen and uncouth, 'I shall have to eat at the second table and wear your old clothes.'"—Indianapolis Journal.

Mr. Podsnapper: "Why, I thought that Miss Boggs was a blonde!" "Mrs. Pod-snapper, she was, but she reformed."—
Harper's Bazar.

Dr. Glade: "Do you know anybody who has a horse for sale?" "Drover: 'I reekon Hank Bitters has. I sold him one yesterday.'"—Tit-Bits.

"She is such an atrocious child."
"Don't you mean precocious?" "I guess I do; but it amounts to the same thing, anyway."—Indianapolis Journal.

Superintendent: "Yes, and where did John the Baptist live?" Scholar: "In the desert." Superintendent: "Quite right! And what do we call people who live in the desert?" Scholar: "Deserters."
—Brooklyn Life.

"Shan't we take a little walk and enjoy some of the beautiful, clear moonshine?"
inquired the romantic young woman. Col.
Stillwell looked a little surprised, but he felt in his vest pocket for a minute and then answered: "Thanks, miss; I don't care if I do. I was just feeling a little thirsty when you spoke, and I'm glad to find that Kentucky is not monopolizing American hospitality."—Washington Star.

NOT IN HIS LINE.

Henry Ward Beecher Could Not Drive a Four-in-hand.

"Henry Ward Beecher once told me this good one on himself," continued the doctor. "He was going up among the White mountains on a stagecoach drawn by four horses. After awhile it stopped before an inn. The driver, a stalwart fellow, threw the reins to Mr. Beecher and asked him to hold the horses while he went into the inn for a few moments.
Mr. Beecher felt very proud when he held the four-in-hand. It is a dangerous thing, you know, for a minister to take the reins in his hands. He is liable then to want to have everything his own way.
Mr. Beecher was no exception to the rule.
"He drew the reins very tight."
"What a bright idea," he thought, "to take a spin around the inn in the absence of the driver and show his friends on the piazza what he could do with a four-in-hand!" He popped the whip, and the horses started. He pulled on the reins wrong, of course, and the horses went zigzag, the leaders trying to turn around and come back, while the wheel horses forced forward. In some unaccountable way the horses managed to fall over against each other and wiggled around the building. The wheels of the coach barked a big tree. The horses whirled right on, turning in all the time, the hind wheel cut off the side of the back yard fence, the coach went right on, on the side wheels, but fortunately settled back as the horses pranced gayly in mixed up fashion to the front of the inn, and the front wheel tore away the post of the veranda, and at last the team drew up in the front yard with the heads of the wheel horses facing the south and that of the leaders poking into the parlor window."

"The reins in the tail of the off horse"
shouted the driver from the attic window, but Mr. Beecher sat in that box as ignorant of what to do next as an Egyptian mummy.

"Things were not straightened out until the driver rushed down, mounted the seat and took hold of the reins."
"That driver was the king. He did in a trice what Mr. Beecher could not do with all his learning and wisdom."
The driver had "noticed" how to manage horses, but Mr. Beecher knew no more about them than an unborn babe.
It was not his line, you see."—Atlanta Journal.

BEETLES AS UNDERTAKERS.

When They Find a Dead Animal, It Is Buried For Future Use.

People often wonder what becomes of the dead mice and dead birds, for though birds and mice are constantly dying in large numbers, hardly one is ever to be seen. The fact is that they are buried by beetles. Buchner gives a brief account of them as follows:
"Several of them unite together to bury under the ground, as food and shelter for their young, some dead animal,
such as a mouse, a toad, a mole, a bat, etc. The burial is performed because the corpse, if left above ground, would either dry up or grow rotten or be eaten by other animals. In all these cases the young would perish, whereas the dead body lying in the earth and withdrawn from the outer air lasts very well."

"The burying beetle goes to work in a very well considered fashion, for they scrape away the earth lying under the body so that it sinks of itself deeper and deeper. When it is deep enough, it is covered over from above. If the situation is stony, the beetles, with united forces and great efforts, drag the corpse to some place more suitable for burying.
They work so diligently that a mouse, for instance, is buried within three hours.
But they often work on for days, so as to bury the body as deeply as possible.
From large carcasses, such as those of horses, sheep, etc., they only bury pieces as large as they can manage."

There can be no doubt of the intelligence of these strange insects, as a gentleman discovered in a rather curious way. He desired to dry a dead toad, and for that purpose he fastened it upon the top of an upright stick. The burying beetles, however, were soon attracted by the smell, and finding that they could not reach the toad, they undermined the stick, causing it to fall with the toad, which was then duly buried.—Our Animal Friends.

No New Light on Alleged Poisoning
Mystery.

Emil Peterson, brother of Alma Josephine Peterson, came to police headquarters,
West Newton, yesterday afternoon, to obtain the effects of his dead sister, who was with William McCauley, found dead in a barn on the Casey estate, Park street, Oct.
12.

The young man resides in Yonkers, N.
Y. He was much affected when the officers passed him the bundle containing his sister's effects.

A few days ago, Patrolman M. Neagle found a letter which had been sent to the West Newton postoffice and addressed to Miss Peterson. It proved to be a communication from the Newton Savings bank and by it the officer learned that the woman had deposited some money in that bank on Oct. 7. The officer also learned that Miss Peterson had formerly been in the employ of City Engineer Woods' family, and had left her position there about five months ago.

No report has yet been received from the Harvard Medical College, where an analysis of the stomachs of both Miss Peterson and McCauley is being made.

MARRIED.

LYON-ANDERSON-At Boston, Oct. 18, by J. E. Duxbury, J. P., Russell A. Lyon and Christina E. Anderson.

DIGNIM-HARPER-At Auburndale, Oct. 18th, by Rev. John Matteson, Frank E. Dignim and Annie Harper.

WILSON-CASE-At Boston, Oct. 18, by Rev.
W. J. Cozens, John Edgar Wilson and Jessie Louisa Case.

ARMSTRONG-ERWING-At Boston, Oct. 18th,
by Rev. E. L. Atkinson, Edward McLeod Armstrong and Frances Winifred Erwing.

COOK-JOHNSTON-At Newton, Oct. 19, by Rev.
W. E. Huntington, George J. Cook and Sarah Ann Johnston.

KEIRSTEAD-WYETH-At Waltham, Oct. 19,
by Rev. F. E. Webster, Frederick Ernest Keirstead and Edith May Wyeth.

YEATON-HINKLEY-At Newton, Oct. 3, by Rev. G. W. Mansfield, Alfred D. Yeaton of Manchester, N. H. and Evelyn May Hinkley of
Newton.

GUILLET-LORENSEN-At Boston, Oct. 25,
by Rev. B. E. Ferguson, Charles Guillet of Watertown, and Welga Emilie Lorenson of
Newton.

LAMPREY-MACDONALD-At Newtonville,
Oct. 25, by Rev. H. J. Patrick, Alfred Edwin Lamprey and May Anna MacDonald.

GRIFFIN-McGILL-At Newton Centre, Oct.
25, by Rev. G. H. McDermott, Patrick Joseph
Griffin and Bridget A. McHugh.

TORREY-BROCKWAY-At Lynn, Oct. 26, by Rev. J. M. Pullman, George Washington Tor-rey of Newton and Julia Brockway of Lynn.

FISKE-RICE-At Watertown, Maine, Oct. 25th,
by Rev. Daniel Green of Newton, Arthur R.
Fiske of Quincy, Mass., and Bertha F. Rice, niece of the officiating clergyman.

DIED.

McISAAC-At Newton, Oct. 22, Leo McIsaac, son of Hugh and Jane McIsaac, 1 yr. 5 mos.

ADAMS-At Newton, Oct. 20, Mary A. Adams,
71 yrs. 10 mos. 20 ds.

CASHMAN-At Newton Hospital, Oct. 20, Wil-ham, son of Charles and Cora Cashman, 7 yrs.
5 mos.

McENANEY-At Newton, Oct. 19, Sarah E., daughter of James F. and Sarah McEnaney,
11 yrs. 7 mos. 27 ds.

BUTLER-At his parents' residence, 267 Prospect street, Cambridgeport, the Rev. Edmund Thomas Butler, 33 yrs. Funeral high mass at St. Mary's Church of the Annunciation, Saturday, at 10 o'clock. Burial at Holyhood cemetery.

BALDWIN-At Newtonville, Oct. 26, Martha, widow of Thomas C. Baldwin, 78 yrs. 5 mos.
Funeral from her late residence, 741 Washington street, Newtonville, Sunday at 2 p. m.

McMAHAN-At Newton, Oct. 25, Bridget Mc-
Mahan, 60 yrs.

PAINE-At West Newton, Oct. 22, Wilbur S.
Paine, son of Alfred and Minnie Paine, 8 yrs.
12 mos. 28 ds.

HUNTING-At Newtonville, Oct. 20, Ellen H.
Hunting, wife of F. H. Hunting, 60 yrs. 5 mos.
13 ds.

TREAT-At Newtonville, Oct. 20, George A.
Treat, 69 yrs. 7 mos. 19 ds.

HICKEY-At Newton, Oct. 21, James Hickey, son of Thomas and Mary Hickey, 1 yr. 7 mos.

Established 1878.

Samuel Appleton

Shoes

are SUPERIOR to all others. They are made to PROPERLY fit
your wife, children, or yourself.

48 WINTER ST.

No other Office in Boston.

T. Merrells & Co.,
Have FOR SALE HOUSES
in the NEWTONS

From $2,500 to $25,000.

MORTGAGES SECURED
For Real Estate, and Real Estate for MORTGAGE INVESTORS.
307 Tremont Building
BOSTON.

TREMONT THEATRE
BOSTON.

EVERY EVENING. MATS. WED. & SAT.

5TH AVE. THEATRE MUSICAL CO.

In a Magnificent Professional Production of
the
Boston Cadets' Latest Success,
13 LITTLE LAMBS.

LADIES'
SPECIAL INDUCEMENTS.
Costumes and Jackets

made to order of Imported and Domestic Materials at very reasonable prices.
Guaranteed perfect fit and finish.

L. M. KONTOFF;
367 Boylston Street, BOSTON.

Real Estate
Newton
Newtonville
West Newton
Auburndale

Special Attention paid to Sale and Leasing of Estates in the above villages.
Representatives of All the Leading Insurance Companies.

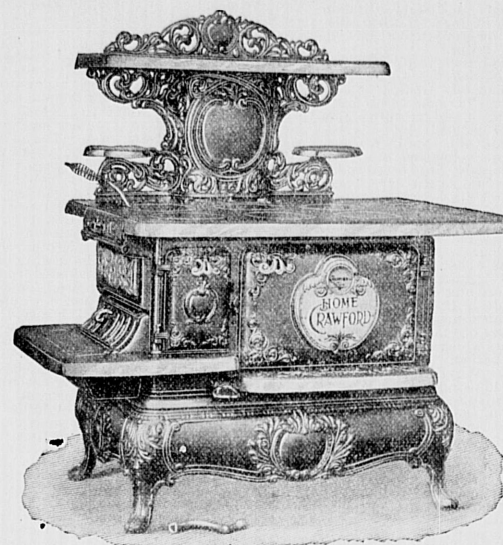

J. C. FULLER, Newtonville.
J. FRENCH & SON, Tremont Building, 73 Tremont St. Boston. Rooms 650 & 651.

PAINTING, DECORATING, PAPER-HANGING AND GLAZING.
Window Shades, good ones with fixtures all complete, for 30 cents each.
Much better ones for 75 cents.

Wall Paper, Picture Moulding, Picture Frames, Metal Ceilings, and Parquet Flooring.
Prompt attention, Reasonable Prices and Superior Workmanship.
We shall be pleased to call on you at any time with sample books of Wall Paper and make estimates without expense to you.

HOUGH & JONES, Nonantum Building,
245 Washington St., Newton.

Home Crawford!

The Finest Range in the World.
WALKER & PRATT MFG. CO.
24 MAIN ST., WATERTOWN.
TELEPHONE 30, NEWTON.

STERLING RANGE

WITH
COAL and GAS Combination
IF YOU WISH.
For COAL Only If You Prefer.
You can add the gas attachments at any time.

Cyrcs Carpenter & Co.,
B. P. LOVEJOY, Sole Proprietor.
44 HANOVER ST., BOSTON.

BUSINESS NOTICES.
All notices of three lines and under, 25
cents each time; over three lines, ten cents a line.

Wants.

WANTED—A good general housework girl.
Apply to Mrs. Franklin Batchor, 22
Austin Street, Newtonville.

A LADY desires to find places for two capable girls—a cook and waitress or laundress.
Apply at 23 Walnut Park, Newton.

WANTED—Young girl to assist in the care of children and do light housework; one understood who will go home nights. Apply, 228
Lincoln street, Newton Highlands.

WANTED—Furnaces to take care of for the winter, will go to chimneys at very reasonable terms. Carpets cleaned and put down.
Address, Bernard Connolly, 229 Lowell Avenue,
Newtonville, Mass.

To Let.

TO LET—In West Newton, a new and desirable flat of 4 rooms in rear of 54 Chestnut street, a minute's walk from station. Rent $10 per month. Apply to F. J. Fiske, 98 Watertown street.

TO LET—In Newtonville, large, pleasant, furnished room, three windows, on bath room floor, three minutes from station; one minute from electric, 25 Harvard street.

TENEMENT TO LET on Pearl street near Beacon street. Inquire at 261 Centre street.

TO LET—Newtonville, in pleasant home and convenient location, two rooms with board.
References exchanged. Address, C. M., Newton Graphic.

TO LET—Three or four rooms, bathroom floor, with excellent board, for three or four persons. Family preferred. Apply to 972 Beacon street, Newton Centre.

TO LET—A furnished room within two minutes walk of City Hall and Post Office. Address H. P. Barber, 424 Cherry street, cor. Webster, West Newton.

TO LET—Newly furnished, sunny, square rooms, on bath-room floor, furnace heat and electric lights, within two minutes of steam and electric cars, terms reasonable. Address
M., Graphic Office.

TO LET—In Watertown—Furnished room with board to a gentleman and wife; new house, pleasant location, private family, references exchanged. Address B., Graphic Office.

TO LET CHEAP—Two pleasant, sunny tenements of four and six rooms in new house, Los Angeles St. Special inducements to satisfactory tenants. Inquire third house on right
Los Angeles st., off California, or J. Loring & Co., opp. U. S. Arsenal, Watertown.

TO LET—Part of Stable, box stall, for one horse. Four minutes to Newton depot.
Enquire of Wellington Howes.

STORE TO RENT—At Newton Centre, at the junction of 5 streets, 200 ft. from B. & A.
R. R. Depot, has been used for the plumbing, tin and heating business for the last 15 years, the best stand in Ward 6. Inquire of E. C. Dudley, 68 Parker street, Newton Centre, Mass.

TO LET—First class tenements, 5 rooms and bath. Desirable location. $15 to $18 per month. Apply to E. P. Hatch, West Newton.

TENEMENTS TO LET—In Newtonville, from
$8 to $12 per month. Apply to D. P. O'Sullivan, 286 Cabot Street. Telephone 98-3, Newton.

TO LET—Two rooms, furnished or unfurnished, one minute from Newtonville Station,
Inquire of H. A. Bombard, opposite depot.

TO RENT—Part of a house, 5 or 6 rooms, near the school, Newton Centre. Furnace and bathroom, fruit and shade trees. Apply to W.
Thorpe, 35 Pelham street, Newton Centre.

A PARTMENTS TO LET in West Newton; all
modern improvements; five rooms and bath. Address Caroline J. Barker, Washington St., West Newton.

For Sale.

FOR SALE—End Spring Cornish Buggy, in good repair. $15.00 cash if taken quick

NEWTONVILLE.

—Mr. John F. Harrington of Court street is reported as quite ill.

—Mrs. A. W. Tirrell is visiting with friends in Springfield.

—Mr. George Oatis and family of Central avenue have removed to Boston.

—A business meeting of the King's Daughters was held Monday afternoon.

—Mr. W. H. Baker has begun the erection of a new residence on Mill street.

—Mr. H. R. Dennison and family of Clifton place are removing to New York.

—Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Smith of New York are the guests of friends here for a few weeks.

—Mr. C. F. Whitney and family have moved from Clyde street to the Pope house on Cabot street.

—Gethsemane Commandery held its regular meeting, Tuesday evening. A collation followed the degree work.

—The meeting of the Young People's Christian Union has been postponed until Saturday evening, Nov. 4th.

—A Halloween party will be held in Temple hall Monday evening. Music will be furnished by Atwood's orchestra.

—The Lend a Hand Club will meet Wednesday afternoon, with Mrs. E. P. Burnham, at her home on California street.

—Miss Bertha Morrill and mother of Warner, N. H., are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. V. Sullivan, Washington terrace.

—Mr. J. A. Patch of Boston addressed the Christian Endeavor meeting at the Methodist church on Sunday evening last.

—"The Duty of Self Control" will be the subject at the prayer and social meeting at the Congregational church this evening.

—The Charity Square held the first meeting of the season Wednesday afternoon in the parlors of the Central Congregational church.

—The Universalist society will tender a reception to Rev. and Mrs. Samuel G. Dunham, Monday evening, in the parlors of the church.

—The regular meeting of General Hall Lodge A. O. U. W., will be held this evening in Denison hall. A smoke talk will be enjoyed.

—"The Ladies' Missionary society of the Methodist church held its regular monthly meeting in the vestry of the church on Thursday last.

—Mrs. George Dewey of Portland and Mrs. W. D. Seabury of Yarmouth, who were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Soule, have returned home.

—Rev. George R. W. Scott of Newton will preach in the Central Congregational church next Sunday morning at 10.15. All are cordially invited.

—The engagement is recently announced of Miss Katharine Maud Davis of Providence, R. I., to Dr. William Louis Chapman, formerly of this place.

—Miss Alice Hall was the leader at the Y. P. S. C. E. meeting at the Congregational church Sunday evening. The subject was "Remember Jesus Christ."

—There are letters remaining in the post-office for A. L. Clifton, William Knox, L. A. Roberts, Miss Emma Dais, Miss Marjorie Kimball and Susan Montgomery.

—A delegation from the Newton Lodge, Knights of Columbus, visited the Waltham lodge Thursday evening. A banquet was served followed by music and speeches.

—The many friends of Major J. B. Housh, paymaster of U. S. A., are much grieved at his removal to Matanzas, Cuba. Major and Mrs. Housh sail Tuesday for their future home.

—Mr. Percy M. Blake of Hyde Park, who recently purchased the Trowbridge estate on Walnut street, has made a large number of improvements, and is now occupying it with his family.

—The many friends of Mr. and Mrs. Wells, formerly of this place, deeply sympathize with them on the death of their home in Buffalo, of their only child, Genevieve, a little girl of rare promise.

—Bishop Lawrence will preach at St. John's church on Sunday, Nov. 5th. The confirmation service will be held on that day and it is expected that a large number will be confirmed. The service begins at 10.45.

—The federated clubs of Newton will attend a lecture on "Vacation Schools" to be given at Newtonville on Monday, Nov. 27, at 8 o'clock, in the parlors of the Newton Centre Women's Club.

—A fair will be held in the parlors of the Central Congregational church, Nov. 7th, 8th and 9th, where fancy and domestic articles, preserves, jellies, flowers, candy, etc. will be on sale, also a gentleman's table and a new cook book.

—Rev. L. A. Priest, formerly pastor of the Universalist church, and now of Akron, Ohio, is in Boston this week, with his family, attending the Universalist convention. Miss Ruth Priest was the guest of friends here for a few days.

—The first sabbath of the season was held Tuesday evening in the parlors of the Central Congregational church. A pleasing musical program was rendered. Refreshments were served and a pleasant evening was passed.

—The regular monthly meeting of the directors of the Newton Associated charities was held Thursday afternoon in the parlors of the society. Among other business transactions it was voted to appoint a collector to solicit contributions from citizens for the association.

—Among the recent land sales made through the agency of Willis, Burt & Co., was a tract of seven acres in the charming village of Waban, which was bought by Mr. George Walters of Waltham, who will cut it up into house lots. The purchase price was $7500, assessed for $7000.

—A fair will be held in the Central Congregational church parlors Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday, Nov. 7, 8, 9. Fancy and domestic articles, preserves, jellies, candy and flowers will be on sale. A gentleman's table will be an attraction of the affair. Wednesday afternoon an entertainment will be presented for the children.

—George A. Treat, a resident of this city for a number of years, died last Friday afternoon at his home on Austin street. He was 69 years old and a native of Waltham. He had followed the painting business since a young man and was well known among men of his profession in the city. He is survived by a wife. The funeral was held Monday afternoon at the home of his sister, Mrs. Dustin Lacey of Lowell avenue. Rev. Mr. Thompson officiated and the interment was in the Grove hill cemetery, Waltham.

—The members of the Newtonville Universalist church paid a tribute Sunday morning to the memory of Mrs. Mary T. Goddard and other members of the society who have died since April. The service was attended by more than 400 persons. The exercises were conducted by the pastor, the Rev. Samuel Dunham. Among those who spoke were the Rev. John C. Adams, D. D., of Brooklyn, N. Y.; Mrs. Jane L. Patterson of Roxbury, the Rev. George L. Perin, D. D., pastor of the Every-Day church, Boston, and the Rev. F. A. Bisbee, editor of the Universalist Leader.

—The residence of Mr. and Mrs. D. B. Shaw, Madison avenue, was the scene of a pleasant gathering Friday evening. The occasion was the celebration of the silver wedding of the host and hostess. A large number of guests were present, including people from Boston, Brookline and the Newtons. Mr. and Mrs. Shaw were the recipients of numerous gifts appropriate to the occasion. The house was tastefully decorated with potted plants and cut flowers. Refreshments were served in the dining room. The company separated at a late hour extending many wishes for long life prosperity.

—Mrs. Ellen F. wife of Mr. Francis H. Hunting died Friday evening at her home on Washington street after an illness of about two weeks. Deceased was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Adams of West Newton. She received her education in the Newton schools and formed many sincere friendships which were to continue during her life. She married Mr. Hunting about 36 years ago. Mr. and Mrs. Hunting had one son of great promise who died about four years ago. His death was a severe blow to his parents. Mrs. Hunting was a member of the Methodist church and was an earnest and conscientious worker in that society. She was also a member of the Newtonville Woman's Guild, Newton Ladies Home Circle and several charitable organizations. The funeral was held Monday afternoon from her late residence. Rev. H. J. Patrick officiated at the services assisted by Rev. W. T. Thompson, pastor of the church of which she was a member. The floral tributes were numerous and very beautiful, many friends paying this loving tribute to her memory. Appropriate services were rendered by the choir of the M. E. church. The interment was at Newton Cemetery.

WEST NEWTON.

—Mr. Wood has returned after a short absence.

—Mr. Stuart Leonard of Putnam street has returned from New York.

—Mrs. John L. Stoddard of Highland street is out of town for a few weeks.

—Mr. N. W. Matheson of Rockland was the guest of friends here last Sunday.

—Mr. Paul Waters was recently elected captain of the gymnasiast at Amherst.

—Mr. T. A. Fine of Winthrop street was at Germantown, Penn., for a few days.

—Mr. Chandler Seaver of Hyannisport is the guest of friends here for a few days.

—Miss Milner of New York is the guest of Miss Agnes Merchant for a short time.

—Mr. Fritz Warren of Hillsdale avenue has returned from a trip through the West.

—Mr. and Mrs. Jeffries Wyman of Eden avenue have returned from Woodstock, Vt.

—Mrs. Charles Sheppard, formerly of this place, is the guest of friends here for a few days.

—Miss Wheeler of Springfield was the guest of Mrs. Seth Davis, Watertown street.

—Miss Ida Stacy of Henshaw street has returned from a two months' stay in Nova Scotia.

—Mr. Ralph Chase of Hillsdale avenue is the guest of friends in Cuba for a few weeks.

—Mr. E. F. Woods and family of Berkeley street have returned from their summer home on the Cape.

—Mr. and Mrs. Charles I. Travelli of Chelsea made a short stay in New York, this week.

—Mr. and Mrs. George W. Eddy of Chestnut street have returned after several weeks absence.

—The Ladies Guild will meet Wednesday afternoon in the parlors of the Congregational church.

—Rev. J. C. Jaynes exchanged pulpits with Rev. Mr. Pulsifer of the Waltham Universalist Society.

—Mr. William Hatch has been appointed assistant manager of the Amherst foot ball team for the coming year.

—"Christian Enthusiasm" was the subject at the vesper service at the Congregational church, Sunday evening.

—Mrs. Henry F. King and daughter, Miss Marjorie King, leave tomorrow for several weeks stay at Sioux City.

—Officer of the Day S. A. Langley of Post 62, G. A. R., will inspect John A. Andrew Post 15 of Boston, this evening.

—Dr. and Mrs. Edwin A. Knight announce the engagement of their daughter, Barbara, to Mr. Horace G. Cobb of Prince street.

—An alarm from box 31 about 7.30 o'clock Saturday evening, was for a small blaze on the Sanderson estate, off Watertown street. No damage.

—A delegation of ladies from the Baptist church attended the Home Missionary meeting of the First Baptist church, Boston, on Wednesday.

—A large delegation of ladies attended the annual meeting of the Women's Home Missionary Association at Berkeley Temple, Boston, Wednesday.

—The Congregational Sunday school gave an enjoyable entertainment, Wednesday evening, in the chapel. A large and appreciative audience was present.

—Mrs. Rand and Mrs. Waters were delegates from the Baptist church to the mothers' rally at the Congregational church, Roxbury, Wednesday.

—The regular monthly meeting of the Newton Veterans Firemen's Association will be held Wednesday evening at the engine house, Watertown street.

—About thirty members of the Newton Veterans Firemen's Association visited the Waltham Association, Thursday evening. A banquet was followed by music and speech making.

—Benjamin Kimball, a junk dealer, reported to the police, Wednesday, that about 11 o'clock, that morning, he had been bitten in the hand by a dog owned by S. W. Manning, 83 Lenox street.

—Mr. Harry Crafts of River street attended the Dewey Ethnoid wedding at the Reading, Wednesday evening. The bride is the daughter of Mr. Frank O. Dewey, cousin of Admiral Dewey.

—The Home Circle meeting on Wednesday, Nov. 1, at the usual place will be of special interest to all members. Arrangements for the sale and supper are to be made, and it is hoped every member will be there.

—The Newton Centre Women's Club have issued invitations to the federated clubs of Newton to attend a lecture on "Vacation Schools" by John Graham Brooks, in Associates hall, Thursday evening, Nov. 23d.

—The Baptist society tendered a reception to Rev. and Mrs. E. F. Snell, Thursday evening, in the church parlors. The parlors were prettily decorated with potted plants and cut flowers. Refreshments were served by the young ladies.

—Mr. and Mrs. Edward F. Woods and Master Edward Woods of this place, and Mr. and Mrs. Francis E. Young and Master Roland Young of California are at Elisha Beare's camp, on the borders of Wequalet Lake, for a week's shooting.

—Mr. Edward O. Burdon, formerly of this city, was recently admitted to practice before the supreme court of the state of Washington. The motion for his admission was made by the Hon. Fred Rice Jewell, one of the leading lawyers of the Washington bar.

—The Newton Ladies' Home Circle held an afternoon whist at the home of Mrs. Albert Plummer, Lexington street, Auburndale. Prizes were awarded to Mrs. H. H. Hunt of this place, and Mrs. E. E. Morgan of Auburndale. Refreshments were served. The next whist will be held at the home of Mrs. G. T. Davis, Auburndale.

—The annual Fellowship meeting, commemorating the 15th anniversary of the society, was held Friday evening in the Congregational church. A social hour was followed by services of which the roll call was the leading feature. The members responded with Scripture reading or other appropriate quotations.

—The first fall meeting of the West Newton Women's Educational Club will be held this afternoon in the parlors of the Unitarian church. The report of the annual meeting of the student clubs at Natick will be presented by Mrs. Lowell. Papers on "Summer Outings" will be read by various members of the club.

—Cards are out for the wedding of Miss Elizabeth Caroline Cheney, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James T. Tolman, and Mr. Albert Paine Carter, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Carter of Newtonville. The ceremony will be held Tuesday evening, Nov. 7th, at the Unitarian church.

—Mr. Wilbur Paine of Webster Park has the sincere sympathy of a large circle of friends over the loss of his son, Master Stuart died Sunday after an illness of only two days. He was a remarkably bright child and his lovable disposition endeared him to his playmates. The funeral was held from the home Tuesday afternoon. The interment was in Newton cemetery.

—Among the recent weddings is announced that of Miss Annie Harper and Mr. Frank Dignin. The ceremony was performed Wednesday evening at the residence of Rev. John Matteson. The ceremony was followed by a reception at the new home on Auburndale avenue. A large number of guests were present. Mr. and Mrs. Dignin were the recipients of numerous gifts.

—Mr. Henry Whitmore, for many years in charge of the real estate column of the Boston Herald, has resigned his position on that paper for the purpose of taking a position of confidence with the firm of Meredith & Grey, real estate agents and brokers. Mr. Whitmore's extensive acquaintance and long experience in real estate matters will be of great advantage to him in his new connection.

—"The Ladies' Aid Society opened the fall season yesterday afternoon with a reception at the home of the president, Mrs. J. C. Jaynes, Prince street. The guests were received in the parlors by the hostess, assisted by Mrs. Alley. The house was tastefully decorated with potted plants and flowers. Refreshments were served. The house was decorated with chrysanthemums. Mrs. A. M. Langley and Mrs. Arthur Hosmer presided at the coffee and chocolate urns.

—Whoever chooses to smoke at police headquarters these days violates in a direct manner a recent ruling made by Chief Tarbox, and which is that of the Boston police department. Officers, however, are allowed to smoke in the guard-room, but people doing business in the general and other offices of the police department will be expected to part with their cigars, cigarettes or pipes before entering the building. It is expected that spittoons will continue in use, however.

—"The Home Circle are to hold a very attractive sale of useful articles, cake and candy, and a grand good time, for the benefit of their charity fund, on Thursday afternoon and evening, Nov. 16, at the Unitarian church parlors. The society being well and favorably known, and their good work so extended, will be sure to induce to our friends to pass with us a delightful evening. More particulars next week. Tickets of the members and at the door, and a cordial welcome within the doors.

—An entertainment and social talk was held Wednesday evening in Odd Fellows' hall under the auspices of John Eliot Lodge, A. O. U. W. The Master Workman called the meeting to order at eight with a few appropriate remarks. He was followed by Deputy Blanchard and Brother Kilpatrick of Braintree, with short witty remarks. Musical selections were rendered by Mrs. Beardsley and were warmly enjoyed. Judge Andrews of Maine was then introduced and delivered an eloquent address, telling of the work accomplished by the order. Five applications were received. The evening closed with a song. About two hundred guests were present and each received a souvenir on leaving the hall, the ladies enjoying a box of bonbons and the gentlemen an cigar.

—"Odd Fellows' hall was last Friday evening the scene of a successful concert and dance given under the auspices of the Women's Auxiliary of the Newton Veterans Firemen's Association. Dancing was enjoyed from 9 to 12 by nearly 200, the guests including many from the different Newtons, Watertown and Waltham. The program was furnished by Miss May Purcell, pianist; Mr. James Smith, reader; Miss Kittie Ducey, vocalist; Mrs. Clark, reader; John J. Harris, vocal soloist; Capt. John Exley was floor director, and his assistants were Thomas Green, P. Y. Housen, B. D. Farrell, A. O'Hearn, A. F. Nutting, P. T. Keely, M. J. Mahoney and T. L. Dolan. The committee of arrangements included Mrs. A. F. Nutting, Mrs. B. D. Farrell, Mrs. P. Y. Housen, Mrs. T. L. Dolan, Miss Kate Maglinee, Mrs. Margaret Killey and Miss Annie Keely.

AUBURNDALE.

—For other Auburndale news see page 3.

—Mr. William G. Bosworth attended the 34th anniversary and reunion of the 1st Mass. Cavalry Association held in Boston, Wednesday.

High School Notes.

During the past week, under the able coaching of Ed. Crane and Captain Nash of the old N. A. A., the High School team has been well fitted for the Junior Interscholastic league games. The first of the series, which was played at Newton Centre on Wednesday, resulted in a well earned victory for N. H. S. The score was 12 to 0, the touchdowns being made by Daniels and all of them on the N. H. S. played well, and the ball stood in Malden-High's territory most of the time. The Newton line-up was Daniels, E. Marshman, I. Henderson, I. G. Andrews, T. G. Kenway, T. B. Bley, C. E. Andrews, Capt. G. B. Cheney, H. B. Johnson, F. B. Skelton, F. B.

Miss Shapleigh was elected vice-president of '00 at the last meeting.

The Sophomore team is made up as follows: Kendall, E. Shaw, L. Mellen, T. G. Kirkpatrick, E. Henderson, T. G. Hines, T. G. Leonard, T. G. Richards, G. B. Cheney, T. B. Capt. Hambley, F. B. Skelton, F. B. Subs. P. Leonard, Merchant, Towne.

Don't forget the lecture by Mr. George to-morrow evening.

Oak Hill Chapel.

An Evangelical Association has lately been incorporated at Oak Hill, its purpose to erect a chapel for the worship of God and the maintenance of a Sunday school.

Through the generosity of Mrs. L. C. Wade and Mrs. Estes, the land has been assured and petitions are in preparation to further the good work.

The ladies of the Oak Hill Sunday school will hold a sale of fancy articles on Sat. Oct. 28th, afternoon and evening, commencing at 3 p. m. The proceeds to go to the Chapel Building Fund.

A Card.

We, the undersigned, do hereby agree to refund the money on a 50 cent bottle of Greene's Warranted Syrup of Tar if it fails to cure your cough or cold. We also guarantee a 25-cent bottle to prove satisfactory. If not, return it to the factory or money refunded. J. G. Kilbride, W. F. Hahn.

Sarah Hull Chapter.

The Sarah Hull Chapter, D. R., will hold its opening meeting for the season at the Newton clubhouse, next Tuesday, from 3 to 6 p. m. Papers will be read by Mrs. A. M. Ferris, on "My Civil War Experiences," and Mrs. E. W. Ireland on "My Acquaintance with Lincoln, Grant, and Farragut in 1864-5." Music and a social hour will follow. The hostesses will be Mrs. C. A. Clark, Mrs. J. B. Sanborn, Mrs. G. B. King, Mrs. S. D. Whittemore, Miss E. J. Wheelock and Mrs. F. W. Webster.

The Memorial Service at Newtonville.

A memorial service was held Sunday morning at the Universalist church, Newtonville, in memory of Mrs. Goddard, Deacon Ross, Miss Bradshaw and Master Edwin W. Corey. A large audience was present. Addresses were delivered by Rev. John Coleman Adams, D. D., of Brooklyn, N. Y.; Mrs. Jane L. Patterson of Roxbury, Rev. G. L. Perin of Boston and Rev. F. A. Bisbee, D. D., Editor of the Universalist Leader. Dr. Adams paid a beautiful tribute to the memory of Mrs. Goddard. He spoke with deep feeling of her life long devotion to, and interest in, the Universalist church. He said that although she was a woman in affluent circumstances, and other doors would gladly have swung open, she sought out and worshipped with the little company of Universalists then meeting in a hall over a dry store. Her life which was filled with benevolent deeds was reviewed. The speaker said that she was a splendid representation of the gospel, which she loved. He said that when as a young man, he came as pastor to this society, Mrs. Goddard was the first to greet him and that she always spoke words of encouragement and hope.

He also spoke of Mr. Ross as a man of the highest devotion to the church. A man who during his entire life was faithful to every trust as officer and member. Dr. Adams was followed by Mrs. Jane L. Patterson, a very near personal friend of Mrs. Goddard. She told how as a young woman, Mrs. Goddard, with the money allowed her from her husband's small salary of twelve hundred dollars, hired rooms and began to help poor but worthy families. Mrs. Patterson reviewed Mrs. Goddard's life in detail, showing its expansion and its usefulness which until her death covered so many fields. Mrs. Patterson's remarks were intense with suppressed emotion which spoke even more than her beautiful tribute to the deep love she had for the departed friend.

Dr. Perin as financial secretary of the Universalist church, spoke of the many beautiful contributions to the church by Mrs. Goddard's liberality. Among the prominent institutions he spoke of Tufts College, Goddard Seminary, Dean Academy, Westbrook Seminary, the Every Day church, the general and state conventions, and the Japan mission. He then spoke of the wide-spread influence of this beautiful life and said it would ever be held in loving remembrance by our entire church.

Dr. Bisbee said he would speak for those who had never known Mrs. Goddard personally. He said she had influenced his life without knowing it. He then pointed out the fact that every one who attended any of the institutions of learning, mentioned before, had been helped by Mrs. Goddard. That every Universalist was indebted to her for her splendid services in behalf of our church. The pastor, Rev. L. G. Dunham, spoke in closing of Miss Bradshaw and Master Corey. He said that Miss Bradshaw had given to her church the most precious of gifts, the gift of herself in loving service. That she had with the others whose memory we honor today served her church faithfully and well, and in serving it, had served God. He said of Master Corey that he was always in his place in the Sunday school that he was always ready to do his part, and that he was a boy who would inspire in his parents noble hopes for his future, and though The Heavenly Father had called him to another world he would lead him forward into nobler life, building in the future a noble and useful character upon the foundation of stalwart and manly traits which as a boy, he had manifested in his life on earth. The service while it was yet inspiring and uplifting, and all doubts felt that it had been a sacred privilege to have been intimately associated with these beautiful characters in the work of the church.

A Card.

Mr. F. H. Hunting wishes to express his grateful appreciation of the kindness of his neighbors, friends, business associates and the organizations of which he and Mrs. Hunting were members, for their cordial attentions during Mrs. Hunting's illness, and for their gifts of flowers and other expressions of sympathy at the time of her death.

Newtonville, Oct. 25, 1899.

Want a House?

You Will Find the

BEST HOUSES

TO LET

FOR SALE

IN THE

BOSTON HERALD

DAILY AND SUNDAY.

Real Estate in all locations is advertised more extensively in The Herald than in any other paper in New England, the Women's Pages are more attractive, the Editorials, Financial and Real Estate News the best.

On Wednesday Afternoon an Entertainment for the Children.

ADMISSION, 10 CENTS.

SUPPER 35c. ICE CREAM 15c.

Nov. 7th, 8th and 9th.

where will be on sale Fancy and Domestic Articles, Preserves and Jellies, Candy, Flowers, etc.

There will be a Gentleman's Table, also a New Cook Book compiled by the ladies of the Refreshment Department.

On Wednesday Afternoon an Entertainment for the Children.

ADMISSION, 10 CENTS.

SUPPER 35c. ICE CREAM 15c.

Miner Robinson,
Electrical Engineer,
Room 302, Equitable Building, Boston. Residence, West Newton.
ELECTRIC LIGHT
The fitting of private residences for the Electric Light is a specialty.
Boston, 3311. —TELEPHONES— W. Newton, *141.

ESTABLISHED 1869,
SIMPSON BROTHERS,
(CORPORATION) CONTRACTORS FOR
Concrete Walks and Driveways, Asphalt Floors,
Artificial Stone Walks and Steel-Bound Curbs.
We are ready to receive orders or give estimates for work in private grounds.
P. O. Address, Newton, or Boston Office, Room 58, 166 Devonshire St.
Telephone 1155, Boston. Refer to 20 Years' Work in Newton.

Some Stores
Buy quantities of goods and then have to sell them cheap to get rid of them.

OUR STOCK OF Wool and Silk Waists is carefully selected on Fit, Quality, Style, and Workmanship. It contains such Waists as you want. All our Wool Waists come in several colorings.

Turner & Williams,
Successors to G. H. Loomis,
Real Estate, Insurance and Mortgagees.
Personal attention given to care of Estates Collecting, rents, etc.
Newtonville, - Mass
JOHN B. TURNER. GEO. F. WILLIAMS

JOHN J. REGO,
Merchant Tailor,
West Newton, Mass.
Customers can always rely on getting the best material and workmanship, and perfect fitting garments at moderate prices. Special attention given to Ladies' Suits, riding habits, etc. Servants' livery to order.
Caroline Block, Washington Street.

FUR GARMENTS
Revised and Remodeled, all kinds of Fur work done in the most satisfactory manner. 10 years experience, references given.
Miss ANNIE M. FOOTE, 40 Union Park, BOSTON.

Your Seal Coat
Or other Furs may need renovating or put in order for the cold weather, which will soon be here. If you cannot come in send me a postal and I will call and give estimates. Best of work at fair prices.
E. B. SEARS
29 Temple Place, Boston.

LIQUOR HABIT A DISEASE.
You can be treated without interruption to business. No publicity. References unequalled.
Pleasant to take. Perfectly safe
DR. H. P. BAILEY,
50 Bromfield St., Boston.

PROF. WALTERS'
Class in Dancing will re-open on Friday evening, October 28th, at 7.45.
TEMPLE HALL, NEWTONVILLE.
The latest popular society dances will be taught. Terms for 10 lessons including reception: Ladies $4.00, Gentlemen $6.00. Send for circular.
PROF. WALTERS, 85 ORANGE ST., WALTHAM.

FRED MULDOON,
PIANO TUNER AND REPAIRER,
266 Langley Road, Newton Centre.
Prompt and Satisfactory Work Guaranteed.
Prices for squares and uprights respectively, $2 and $2.50 single tuning. By the year $5 and $6

The Webfoot La-Cache Consolidated Mining Co.
Own four full mining claims of gold copper ore in one block within 600 feet of the Big Iron Mine in Pierre's Lake Mining District, Colville Res., Washington, near Northport smelter, stocked for 750,000 shares, par value $1.00, full paid and non-assessable, 250,000 shares treasury stock. We offer 25,000 shares of the treasury stock at TEN CENTS PER SHARE. Orders will be accepted for $10.00 and upwards. Subscriptions close October 27th. This property is the making of a big mine. A GOOD BUY. Yours truly,
LAWSON & CO., BROKERS,
81 Milk Street, Room 34, Boston, Mass.
Telephone 3664-Boston.

A Few Specials
which we wish to close out to make room for later arrivals.

50 All Wool Tucked Waists, . . . $1.25
Reduced from $1.69.

39 All Wool Corded Waists, . . . $1.50
Reduced from $1.98.

3 Dozen Fancy Plaids at half Price or less . . . 49c and 98c

French Flannel Waists
Made from All Wool French Flannel of the finest texture in Warranted Colorings.

3 Dozen Plain colors, Corded front, Shirt Waist Back . . .

Price $3.25 each

2 1-2 Doz. Fancy Stripes, Corded front, plain back below yoke . . .

NO PEACE FOR WHITE MEN.

PROF. RIPLEY SAYS THEY CANNOT COLONIZE THE PHILIPPINES—ANGLO SAXONS WILL NOT GIVE UP ALCOHOL, HEAVY FOOD AND EXERCISE IN THE TROPICS—HUMIDITY AND GREAT HEAT WILL KILL AMERICAN WOMEN AND CHILDREN.

In the lecture hall of the Boston University Law school, Wednesday night, Prof. William Z. Ripley of the Institute of Technology, and a resident of Newton, lectured to the 20th Century Club upon "The Problem of the Philippines," and, treating the matter entirely from a scientific standpoint, considered whether or not white men could successfully live and labor in the islands. The lecture was illustrated with casts of the racial types of the East Indies, maps of the region showing the ethnological distribution, and drawings of typical Malay and Melanesian faces.

President Edwin D. Mead introduced the speaker, who first explained that he had been studying the ethnology of the East Indies since long before the present popular interest in them arose in consequence of American conquest and purchase, and had especially profited by the personal experiences of his friend, Prof. Worcester, a thorough student of and traveler in the Philippines.

There are three or four different races in these islands, said the speaker, ranging from the Mongols of the Melanesians, the latter being practically negroes, and dwelling in the wilder and most remote parts of the islands. But nine-tenths of the Philippines are a mixed race of Malays, marked as all Malays are by absence of beard, sloping eyes, straight hair and brown skin. The island of Negros was so named by the Spaniards because it is inhabited by a black race, different from the Tagals, Visayas and Bicol with whom the Spaniards, as well as the Americans, have principally to deal, since they occupy all the central part of the islands.

The special problem of the Philippines now engaging the American people is, can white men live and prosper, generation after generation, on these islands? It seems to have been demonstrated that they cannot. Climate is not the only barrier to colonization. Anglo-Saxons seem always to have an inordinate thirst for alcohol when they live in the tropics; they cling to their meat and other heavy foods; they sit upon exercising too much, and they, therefore, endure the hot climate less easily than the Spaniards and Italians, who adapt themselves more readily to a new environment. Germans in the Congo themselves labor in the fields, and die like flies in consequence, while the Spaniards merely oversee the work of their native laborers, and so have only a moderate death rate.

Again, the Latin races are ready to intermarry with the tropical natives, and in that way secure a population that can stand the climate. This the Anglo-Saxon is unwilling to do, and he is, therefore, at a disadvantage in tropical colonization as compared with the Latin races.

Humidity is a worse climatic element to deal with than temperature. The French in Algeria have learned, by strict attention to diet and other hygienic matters, to live and thrive. But Algeria has a dry climate. In the Philippines to excessive heat is added a rainfall two or three times as great as in New England. In Hawaii, Mexico, South Africa and some parts of South America the nearness to the equator is neutralized by a high altitude, on which the white man can live and multiply. But in these islands the mountains are of volcanic origin, of small areas in comparison with their height, and afford little relief.

In spite of these difficulties some hearty men may be able to spend their lives in the Philippines and escape death by climatic diseases. But it is otherwise with women and children. In India 95 per cent of the white children die before they are 4 years old. Spanish women have never succeeded in rearing families in Manila. So, if we colonize the islands, it must be by men alone, who go there to engage in business, not hoping to establish homes. Labor must be done by the natives, who seem inclined always to stop work, as soon as they get their wages, until the money is gone. The only reliable laborers are the Chinese and Japanese, with the Indian coolies, imported for the purpose. This question of coolie labor opens at once a multitude of social and economic questions, with which, however, the present speaker has nothing to do.

Ladies' Night at Newton Club.

The first "ladies' night" of the season at the Newton Club was celebrated Wednesday evening. It was largely attended, and highly successful. While formed the feature of the evening, 26 tables being in play. Vocal selections by Mrs. A. F. Atwood added to the enjoyment of the occasion. Prizes were won by Mrs. W. H. Rogers, Mrs. Frank W. Pray, Mrs. E. C. Fletcher, Mrs. A. C. Dinsmore, Mrs. M. O. Rice and Mrs. J. L. Johnson.

Congressman Sprague.

Congressman Sprague writes that for report that he is no longer a candidate for reelection to Congress is a mistaken one. As we said yesterday, in speaking of the 11th congressional district, Congressman Sprague is a man who possesses qualities that can be made highly useful to both his constituents and to the state. A member of the House to have influence at Washington, does not necessarily need to be a great orator. Congressman Hooper, who for a number of years represented Boston in the House of Representatives, was one of the most influential members of that body, and yet he rarely, if ever, made a speech. Almost the same can be said of the late Congressman Leopold Morse and John F. Andrew. These men had a close acquaintance among the senators and representatives; their judgment was known to be sound and to be unbiased by personal interest; they were, therefore, attentively listened to and had their advice heeded. This is a congressional role which Mr. Sprague is well fitted to play. He has both the intellectual and material elements needed for success in it, and would doubtless, after a few years of official life in Washington, be able to exert a greater influence than possibly any of his colleagues.

WABAN.

—Mrs. J. E. Morse is in New York this week.
—Miss Bessie Pratt is attending school in New Jersey.
—Mrs. S. R. Reading is visiting in Philadelphia.
—Principal J. H. Tillsbury has three new pupils, and more are expected.
—Miss Gertrude Smith has returned from a visit with friends at Braintree.
—Mr. C. B. McGee and family have returned from a visit in Franklin county.
—Mrs. W. B. Locke has just returned from a week's visit with her son at Lowell.
—Mr. C. M. Culow starts in a few days on a gunning trip through northern New York.
—Carl Comer is in charge of his father's farm at Wileet, Mass. He will remain there for the winter.

—Mr. A. B. Horton spent last week hunting in Maine. He shot one deer, which he later had on exhibition at Heinlein's meat store here.

—For greater convenience to all patrons I desire to announce that all calls for my services may be transmitted to me by public telephone from Waban drug store at my expense. Respectfully, Henry F. Cate, Jr.

—The Ladies' Aid society (branch of the Lend-a-Hand club) is establishing a "Woman's Exchange," for the sale of bread, cake, pastry, jellies, etc. These sales will be held on Saturday afternoons beginning the first week in November at the home of Mrs. F. H. Wood, Pine Ridge road. All ladies of the village are cordially invited to lend their aid in making this undertaking a success, both by their contributions and their patronage.

—Mr. T. B. Wales made an enjoyable trip to New York last week. On Friday he witnessed the yacht race from the deck of the "Manning," the U. S. revenue cutter, which was captained by "Fighting" Bob Evans. He says Capt. Evans is a very interesting person, and he was shown many courtesies by him. One of the officers of the "cutter" is a distant relative of Mr. Wales. He made a trip to the warships later in the famous "Wilson," which threw the line to the "Winslow" when it was under a terrific fire of shell in one of the harbors of Cuba during the late war.

To Cure Nervousness in One Week
To Cure Constipation in One Week
To Cure Indigestion in One Week
To Purify the Blood in One Week

Take Cleveland's Celery Compound Tea, 25c. If it fails to cure, we will cheerfully refund your money. (Trial size free.)
Arthur Hudson, Druggist, Newton.

Mr. Cithmann: "To save my neck I can't understand why the crowds at the academy have such a happy look." Mr. Snubbin: "It's simple enough. After the day's work in the city we're always glad to get out of it; and after eight or ten hours in the country we're always glad to get back."—New York Weekly.

A CLEVER PIECE OF ACTING.

The Girl Who Was Being Hazed Turned the Tables on the Hazers.

The girl of my heart goes to college. It wouldn't be fair to tell the name of her school, but it's a very excellent one, where the fashions of the men's colleges are followed, even to the possession of a college yell and the practicing of hazing.

The girl of my heart was hazed last fall. She did not faint when the girls touched her arms with a bit of ice and said they were branding her with an iron. She endured the ordeal so smilingly that the girls at last determined to do something dreadful.

They marched her through dark halls, blindfolded as she was, opened a closet door in a physical laboratory, snatched the bandage from her eyes, pushed her in, locked the door and left her in the arms of a skeleton.

Now, a skeleton is to her no more terrifying than a hoop skirt, but she saw an opportunity to amuse herself. She is one of the cleverest amateur actresses Washington possesses. She let down her hair and tangled it about her face. Her gown was an old one, so she sacrificed it and tore it to tatters. Then she waited. Presently she heard the girls returning. She began to croon softly to herself a weird song. The girls opened the door. She took no notice of them, but went on lavishing kisses on the grinning skull, laughing idiotically to herself the while. Finally one of them whispered:

"Girls, she's raving mad!"
That was the cue for the girl of my heart. She raved, she tore her hair, she shrieked when they tried to draw her away from the skeleton, she laughed, she flung herself about and finally danced out into the room, moaning in a blood curdling wail. The girls dared not go to her. They were chastely. They clung to each other and shuddered. The girl of my heart danced to the door, caught up a knife from a table, waved it with a hideous scream and sprang at them. Then, as they huddled together in a perfect agony of fright, she dropped the knife and opened the door.

"Well, girls," she said drawlingly, "I hope you've enjoyed the fun. I'm sure I have."

Then she disappeared, and a dozen crestfallen girls, too frightened to dare go into hysterics, too much relieved to be angry, stole quietly away. They are clever girls, the girls at that college, but the girl of my heart is the bellwether of the flock.—Washington Post

A CITY FEW PEOPLE VISIT.

No Bus or Wagon Has Ever Traversed Its Winding Streets.

Eight miles distant over the mountains from Catore station, on the Mexican National railroad, is the city of that name, a city along whose steep, winding streets neither wagon nor cart, neither stage nor bus, nor any other wheeled vehicle was ever known to pass, although it has often boasted of a population of 40,000 souls. The city takes its name from once being the stronghold and the property of a band of 14 of the most daring, desperate, dangerous and successful robbers that ever laid tribute on roads in Mexico. They discovered, and for many years worked, the rich deposits of silver that abound in this entire section of the country—deposits the value of which, if current report be true, for hundreds of years outweighed the mythical riches related of Ophir. Strange to relate, every piece of machinery, every pound of freight and every passenger, and from Catore is transported today, as for centuries past, either on the backs of men or mules.

Catore is one of the most interesting places in Mexico. Here are found the customs of Mexico in their purity, unaffected by the influence of the stranger. Difficult of access, the town can only be reached by horseback or on foot. Catore has seldom been visited by any except those making business trips. The ride up the mountains into the town is something, once accomplished, always to be remembered, partly from its element of personal peril, but more because of the beauty of the landscape encountered at every turn. Glancing down as you near your journey's end, you catch a glimpse of the white walls of Los Catore outlined against the green of the mountain side.

The real Catore is built on the side of a ravine near the top of the range, and has a varying population of from 8,000 to 40,000, as the mines are paying well or poorly. Here are found all varieties of silver ore, from carbonates to the refractory ore, assaying $15,000 to the ton. Catore has a fine cathedral, richly decorated, and a pretty plaza, the only level spot in the place. To use a railroad phrase, it is a combination of cut and fill, so that to tumble into it on one side and out on the other would be extremely disastrous. The streets are neatly paved, and run up and down hill, many of them at an angle of 45 degrees.—San Francisco Examiner.

The War Taxes.

[From the Boston Post.]

The war taxes imposed for the liberation of Cuba were said to be temporary. They were to be removed when that end was reached. But to-day, more than a year after Cuba was freed from the Spanish yoke, these taxes are in full force. They take from the earnings of industry in the United States $1,000,000 for every working day. How long can we stand this? And even with such a strain upon the producing and earning capacity of the people, the treasury does not receive enough to meet the demands of McKinley's militarism. The new Congress will have to devise new methods of taxation, higher taxes, heavier burdens upon industry and labor. Do the cheers of the crowds about his car platform lead the president to imagine that the American people sustain a policy which promises this?

An Unrecorded Incident.

One of the Chicago papers records an incident of the president's stop in Minneapolis which was not sent out to the country in the press reports. When Mr. McKinley had finished his speech Gov. Lind turned to him and remarked: "Mr. President, the era of the volunteer soldier will come again with you. For if the ideas you have just promulgated were carried out by Congress no volunteer soldier could be had to hold up your hands, for to do so would simply mean the degradation and oppression of a people fighting for liberty. The volunteer soldier as we know him, thank God, carries a conscience as well as a gun."

Grain-O Brings Relief

to the coffee drinker. Coffee drinking is a habit that is universally indulged in and almost as universally injurious. Have you tried Grain-O? It is almost like coffee but the effects are just the opposite. Coffee upsets the stomach, ruins the digestion, effects the heart and disturbs the whole nervous system. Grain-O tones up the stomach, aids digestion and strengthens the nerves. There is nothing but nourishment in Grain-O. It can't be otherwise. 15 and 25c. per package.

Beer in Pennsylvania Politics.

[Dispatch from Reading, Pa., in the New York Tribune.]

The beer question is playing an important part in the contest for Congress in this district. Congressman Daniel Emmett, several weeks ago, and his successor will be chosen at the November election. There are four candidates—Senator W. Oscar Miller, ex Senator H. D. Green, Dr. E. M. Herbst and Walter B. Bieber. Last Saturday these four signed an agreement not to give out any orders for beer or other liquor during their canvass. This caused a great howl among the faithful, and the candidates, thoroughly scared, modified their decision by stating that they would put up one keg at each meeting during the campaign. Now the county landlors are up in arms. They accuse the candidates of working against their interests, and they have held a meeting at which they gave full vent to their feelings. By the passage of resolutions of indignation. They agreed at the same time not to put up a keg of beer if meetings are to be held at their hotels, in case it is to be paid for by the candidates jointly. They are opposed to any candidate who would be expected to supply beer, as in time past. The beer bill of a candidate for Congress in this district is a close contest in other years. This year it was from $200 to $300. Free silver, Bryanism and state issues have been lost sight of in the beer question.

Those Noble Patriots of Hawaii.

[Springfield Republican.]

The Hawaiian patriots who got their islands annexed to the United States, for the money there was in it, are now being badly exposed. They are the most infamous scoundrels in America. The "Dole government," since annexation was settled, has been busy selling the public lands of the islands, which belong to the United States government. The sales attracted attention in Washington, and last July, Attorney General Griggs decided that the lands could not be disposed of except by public sale. Mr. Dole, as follows: "Here is a case where the words and action of the Hawaiian executive indicate clearly the spirit in which he is working at the end of the line; and we are bound to say, the revelation of personal attitude is most extraordinary." "Working at the end of the line" is very good. But it comes late, since that end of the line has been worked for all it was worth these many, many months.

The Washington Star, a fervent annexation organ and bitter critic of the Cleveland administration's attitude toward the "Dole government," now says in an article on the public lands business: "Many officials of the administration here (in Washington) have been led to believe that there is a close compact among Hawaiian officials, and that they have been extending favors to friends wherever possible." This is dreadful to have said of the "sons of missionaries." There is work ahead for Congress.

Are These Our Missionaries?

[From the Hartford Times.]

We have no wish to disparage the character of the new military organizations the government is sending to stand guard over the homes of the poor Filipinos, but the Massachusetts, beamed on a sea of alcohol in southern Ohio, is calculated to make decent Americans do a little thinking. Are these recruits, whom the federal administration has hired to carry the flag to new possessions on the other side of the earth—are these the kind of men that the men of Hartford would like to have placed in despotic authority over the lives and liberties of our daughters? Are these soldiers going to prove valuable missionaries of civilization in Asia? We have been told a good many times that there are hundreds more run-ups in Manila than there were before our army went there. The natives are said to be a temperate people. Is it a part of our great, God-given mission to send out drunken men to lord it over the aboriginal Filipinos?

During the winter of 1897 Mr. James Reed, one of the leading citizens and merchants of Clay, Clay Co., W. Va., struck his leg against a cake of ice in such a manner as to bruise it severely. It became very much swollen and pained him so badly that he could not walk without the aid of crutches. He was treated by physicians, also used several kinds of liniment and two and a half gallons of whiskey in bathing it, but nothing gave him any relief until he began using Chamberlain's Pain Balm. This brought almost a complete cure in a week's time and he believes that had he not used this remedy his leg would have had to be amputated. Pain Balm is unequalled for sprains, bruises and rheumatism. For sale by A. Hudson, Newton; E. F. Partridge, Newtonville; B. Billings, Newton Upper Falls; J. H. Green, Newton Highlands.

SUNDAY READING.

"A Galesburg man tells of a little boy who went to church on a recent Sunday and was greatly interested in the collection. He watched the ushers for a time, then whispered to his father: 'Papa, more'n half the folks has got in free.'"

The above story, taken from a local paper, is a sample of a great many others that illustrate the meanness of many who attend church services. It is meanness. There is no other term for it. We might prefix some adjective, as some do, to the word, but really it ought to be sufficient to condemn a thing in the estimation of all right thinking people, merely to show that a thing is mean. No gentleman and no lady wants to be accused of conduct that can be called mean, and yet how many people fail to bear their share of supporting religious institutions. If they are poor no one expects much financial help from them, but think of the large number of comfortable people who attend public services, and give only a few cents per week. Their religion costs them but little. How much religion do they have anyhow? A man, at a prayer meeting some time ago, was telling how much he had gained by becoming pious. Said he: "Before I got religion I used to spend a great deal of money, but now I save up everything I get except three dollars a year that I give to the church." There was an unexpected comment by a man in the corner, who exclaimed, "The Lord have mercy on your stingy soul."

HOME TRAINING.

The first and most difficult lesson a child has to learn is control of self, and that can only be taught by impressing the conviction that he is under authority and subject to laws to which he must subordinate his own passions and will. If this lesson is not learned in childhood, the youth enters the race of life heavily handicapped, and until he learns it by bitter experience, he is in imminent danger of falling into evil ways. It is a notorious fact that the majority of criminals become such in youth or early manhood, and the reason is that they do not begin life with an ingrained realization that they are subject to any authority which they must obey.

It is possible that we, as a nation, are not sinners above all others in the laxity of parental discipline. But there is surely no other feature of our family life which strikes foreigners, visiting this country, with so much amazement, or which excites so much wondering comment. We are apt to regard the wayward and unruly child, the obnoxious infant, terrible, with indulgent amusement; but in reality such a child is the embodiment of most dangerous possibilities. Perhaps it is too much to say that he is a criminal in embryo, or in miniature, but it is certain that the lack of exactly that power of self-control and that submission to superior authority, the want of which leads men into crime. And it is certain that unless the child shall happen to acquire, by some other means, the essential elements of law-abiding character, which parental discipline ought to have developed and strengthened in him from his cradle up, one is justified in regarding his future career with the gravest solicitude.—Eugene Smith.

KEEP ON KNOCKING.

In the heart of the vile outcast, away up a great many pairs of stairs, in a very remote corner, easily passed by, there is a door on which is written "Man." Here is our business—to find that door. It may take time, but begin and knock. Don't get tired, but remember God's long suffering for us, and keep on knocking, a long time, if need be. Don't get weary if there is no answer. Remember Him whose locks were wet with the dew. Knock, and just try it; you try it, and just as sure as you do, by and by will the quivering lip and the starting tear tell you that you have knocked at the heart of a man, and not at the heart of a brute.—John H. Gough.

THE LIFE OF OUR LORD ON EARTH.

The earthly life of Christ was the making known, in one part of God's universe, of that Divine life, which has no beginning or ending. It was the translation of God's character into earthly forms, so that men could know God by seeing Him in man's own nature. He has transformed the nature of men, and has made possible a new character, in which gentleness, humility and self-sacrifice take the place of the selfishness, arrogance and wilfulness so natural to man.

He has shown men how God feels toward them, and has revealed the attitude and the duties which henceforth become theirs, who are the objects of the Divine affection.

What might results have followed His coming! Changes in the world's history, changes in human thought, and changes in human hopes!

THOU SHALT NOT STEAL.

How the 8th commandment is violated. Stealing money or anything else, however trifling. Receiving stolen goods. Giving away what you have no right to give. Not restoring what you have taken or borrowed or found. Cheating shopkeepers or others in buying or selling. Using false weights and measures, adulterating goods, cheating railroad companies by dodging fares, passing doubtful money, not paying debts, running into debt when there is but little prospect of paying, obtaining money on false representations, gambling whether for large amounts or for small, injuring the property of other people. Living beyond your means. Being stingy, that is, keeping back what you should give or use for yourself and for others. Hoarding money unduly is equivalent to stealing. Giving insufficient pay to those who work for you, and keeping back their wages beyond the time they are due.

Give the Children a Drink called Grain-O. It is a delicious, appetizing, nourishing food drink to take the place of coffee. Sold by all grocers and liked by all who have used it because when properly prepared it tastes like the finest coffee had in its most delicious properties. Grain-O aids digestion and strengthens the nerves. It is not a stimulant but a health builder, and children, as well as adults, can drink it with great benefit. Costs about 1-4 as much as coffee. 15 and 25c.

Announcement.

To accommodate those who are partial to the use of atomizers in applying liquids into the nasal passages for catarrhal troubles, the proprietors prepare Cream Balm in Liquid form, which will be known as Ely's Liquid Cream Balm. Price including the spraying tube is 75 cts. Druggists or by mail. The liquid form embodies the medicinal properties of the solid preparation. Cream Balm is quickly absorbed by the membrane and does not dry up the secretions but changes them to a natural and healthy character. Ely Brothers, 56 Warren St., New York.

Mason & Hamlin

stand for the highest in all relating to pianos and organs, and it is an undoubted fact that their

PIANOS

are sure to prove an excellent investment. They are of fine tone, and have remarkable lasting qualities, and they unquestionably

ARE THE BEST

Mason & Hamlin Co.
146 Boylston St., Boston.

The Coming Man

will unquestionably continue to wear clothing of our make, just as the man of the present now does.

In quality of materials, in "style," and in excellence of fit and finish our

..Clothing

certainly is not surpassed anywhere. PRICES are always moderate.

MACULLAR PARKER COMPANY,
400 Washington Street, BOSTON.

A common tarred paper was all right for your grandfathers to use as inside lining and outside covering of their buildings, — but a fabric has been produced which, while thinner, has greater strength, toughness, and wearing qualities.

Red Rope Fabric. It is a splendid roof and side covering for outbuildings, and takes the place of back plaster in dwellings. It is proof against wind, water, frost, and insures warm, dry buildings, and is much cheaper than shingles or clapboards.

For inside lining Neponset Black Building Paper is very inexpensive. It is also waterproof, odorless, and clean. Hundreds of farmers are using this paper to-day, and repairing buildings at slight cost.

For full information and samples apply to
BARBER BROS.
415 CENTER ST., NEWTON, MASS.
Hardware, Cutlery, etc.

HURCHILL AND BEAN
Tailors
GOOD QUALITY
AT Moderate Prices
41 Temple Place
BOSTON.
Elevator at 37.
FINE DRESS SUITS A SPECIALTY.

C. B. Somers
Tailor
149 A TREMONT ST
BOSTON MASS.

WILL ADD TEN YEARS TO YOUR LIFE.
RUBBER TIRES.
Applied to any carriage, new or old.
Moderate Prices.
P. A. MURRAY.
CARRIAGE BUILDER,
200 to 210 Washington Street, - - - Newton.

WATER BUGS AND ROACHES.
CLEAR THEM OUT WITH OUR Exterminator.
No dust. No trouble to use.
Price, 50c. Satisfaction guaranteed. If your druggist or grocer does not keep it, we will mail package on receipt of price.
BARNARD & CO.,
7 TEMPLE PLACE, BOSTON.
For Sale by BARBER BROS., Newton.

Newton and Watertown Gas Light Company.
All orders for Gas or Electric Lighting left at their office, 421 Centre St., will receive prompt attention.
ROBERT F. CRANITCH,
(Successor to L. H. Cranitch)
House, Sign, and Ornamental Painter.
Paper Hangings in Great Variety.
Work promptly done.
Walnut St., - Newtonville.
Second door from Central Block.

RANGES, FURNACES, WATER HEATERS, STEAM BOILERS.
AT THE FACTORY STORE OF
Walker & Pratt Mfg. Co.
24 Main St., Watertown, Mass.
Telephone No. 30, Newton.
Furnaces, Ranges Cleaned and Repaired
Howard B. Coffin,
DEALER IN
Fine Teas, Best Coffees,
AND NEWTON AGENT FOR
Deerfoot Farm Products.
363-361 Centre St., 4-6 Hall St.,
Cole's Block, Newton.

A CAPRICIOUS BELLE.

THE ROMANTIC LIFE STORY OF SUE PILLOW-MARTIN.

Pretty and Witty, This Tennessee Coquette Flung Money Away With the Same Reckless Abandon That She Lacerated Masculine Hearts.

She was not merely a belle and beauty back before the war, this fascinating and capricious Sue Pillow-Martin. She appears to have been a new woman, born ahead of time, into an epoch and environment that liked her even more than she shocked them. When the Mexican war was fought, a Pillow was a general. Naturally, that added to his social prestige. Renowned was not needed, though, to make his eldest daughter easily first among equals in the land of her birth.

She was pretty, she was witty, she danced like a willow and was coquette to her finger tips. She had lovers and love affairs by the time she was 15. Not very serious ones, yet serious enough to show her quality of imperious caprice.

By and by young McNairy of Kentucky came courting her. At first she tossed her head. In a week they were engaged and the wedding day set. Friends and fortune smiled approval. It was most fit in every way. McNairy was an only child and his father a rich man, with an eminent judge. His son's choice so pleased him that he resolved to make the infatuation, his bride's home coming, the very notable social event in south Kentucky history. He sent all the way to New York for a family carriage, the first closed carriage ever brought to that region. Much of the supper was likewise ordered from New York, also liveries for the black coachman, the footman and young McNairy's own man.

Four fine black horses, perfectly matched and broken down the carriage. Everything was spick and span when the bridegroom set out to claim his bride. Elkhon, his home town, lies in a border county, some 60 miles from Nashville. The Pillow homestead was just outside Columbia, which lies about 50 miles due south of the state capital. So it was a two days' drive, but the horses minded it no more than their master.

It was very well they did not, since they were going to the very next day. Miss Pillow had changed her mind, not about marrying, but as to who should be the man. A certain Hugh Martin, newer and richer than McNairy, had come upon the scene—she was fond of novelties and dearly loved to give her world a sensation. She wrote McNairy a curt dismissal and married Martin with all the pomp and circumstance prepared for the man she had supposed to marry. McNairy faced the changed conditions with a sort of grim humor. He bought all the traps in Columbia, put horses and servants in deep mourning and drove home. There he insisted that the infatuation should go on just the same, although the bride was conspicuously absent. He said of her only that she had exercised her undoubted privilege of changing her mind. He might have married a hundred times over, but, though gallant toward all women, he said he would die a bachelor.

Sue Pillow-Martin meantime was leading her new husband the merriest sort of dance. When he came to understand that his money had tempted her he gave it to her to spend like water. She flung it away with both hands. Every week almost she drove to Nashville and went about its nest shops, with her black maid carrying a roll of gold to pay for her purchases. The gold was but one of her innumerable whims. She would not touch silver or paper.

Hugh Martin has married her for better or for worse. He bore and forbore until she came actually to despise him. She set her mind on divorce, then and there regarded as almost indelible disgrace. But divorced she would be, and divorced she was, in spite of her father, her family, all her friends. Her freedom proved after a sort a crown of thorns. If men still crowded about her, there was that in the eyes and voices of the women that poisoned life came to Sue Pillow-Martin. By way of changing all that she whistled back her old lover, McNairy, and married him out of hand.

That would have made a seven years' sensation, only the civil war came on, and not so long after McNairy fell from a high window and broke his neck. The shock almost killed his wife. She came as near loving him as her supreme selfishness allowed. Troubles did not come singly—her father died about the same time. Both left estates much involved. When, a little later, the fall of the confederacy annihilated slave property, the widow found herself with straitened prospects.

Poverty was not imminent, but the old lavish, luxurious life was forever gone. The brother reigning in her father's stead was brotherly kind, but she was no more supreme. Besides, her world was wondering what she could or would do next. What she did do was to write, in her brother's name, to her divorced husband, Hugh Martin, asking for information in regard to some part of her father's estate.

Martin recognized the handwriting. He had gone back to his old home—east Tennessee—and prospered there throughout McNairy's lifetime. When news came that his ex-wife was again free, he took to his bed, declaring he would never leave it alive. To the friends who rallied at her and begged him not to think of her he said humbly that he still loved the earth she trod. She might not deserve it, but he would rather die than live to know that he had married still another man, as she was sure to do. So her letter came to him as manna in the desert. He answered it at once; she threw aside disguise and wrote again. The second letter set him on his feet, although but a ghost of his old self.

A third came quickly. He packed his grip, put money in both pockets and went away. In a month or less he had remarried—there was again legally a Sue Pillow-Martin. He found her just the same, full of capricious luring, of swift anger and sudden remorseful tenderness. But now she was content to sun herself in the eyes of an adoring husband. There was the child—her little daughter by McNairy. Martin loved it as tenderly as though it were his own. That helped him with the mother and consoled him for many of the wounds her indifference gave. On the whole, his last marriage brought him years of stormy and moonlit happiness. Not so very many years. His wife died, and his heart was buried with her. He outlived her only a little while. All his fortune went to her daughter, who grew up a gracious and beautiful young woman, wholly lacking her mother's lawless charm.—Chicago Record.

CHINESE JUSTICE.

A Story of Li Hung Chang and Men Who Tried to Poison Him.

Of Li Hung Chang numerous stories are told in Chinese society. On one occasion, says The Literary Digest, when the premier was having a bitter fight with some of the more conservative members of the tsung-li-yamen he received as a present a magnificent cake which he had reason to suspect contained poison. He put the cake aside and set all his powerful machinery to work to find out who was at the bottom of the plot. The investigation was partly successful, the crime being traced to three men, of whom one at least was absolutely guilty. Li had the trio arrested and brought to his yamen. When they arrived, they were ushered into his presence and were received in his courtliest manner. The cake was produced with the remark that "politeness forbade his tasting it until the three generous donors had had an opportunity to enjoy its excellence." Li cut the cake, and one of his servants handed it to the unwilling guests. Each took a piece and ate or pretended to eat it. One crumbled the pieces and let them fall upon the floor, but the other two ate calmly, without manifesting any emotion. Ten minutes and the two men began to show symptoms of suffering. Li smiled benignly and said to the man who had not eaten, "Your wisdom is so great that I am compelled to preserve your head as a souvenir to transcendent genius."

The man was removed and promptly decapitated. To the other two the premier remarked: "The cake that you are eating is not the one you sent, but one which I had my cook imitate. The poison from which you are suffering exists only in your imagination. I know of no way to cure your present pain except by letting you share the same fate as your friend who has just left the room."

As they were led away the statesman said to his retinue, "It is a pity that a man who can eat a deadly corrosive poison with an unmoved countenance should so misapply the talent wherewith heaven has endowed him."

A CLEAR RIGHT OF WAY.

There Was Nothing to Interfere If He Chose.

When I first came into the mountains of West Virginia to look after the coal interests of an eastern company, I boarded at a little tavern in the county town presided over by a good looking woman of 40 who, as I had understood, was a widow. She was keener witted and more entertaining than the average mountain woman and I rather enjoyed talking to her. One evening, after I had been her guest about three weeks, I found myself alone with her on the porch of the house, and we chatted along very pleasantly about men and women and life generally.

"Ain't you married?" she asked in response to something I had said leading up to such a question.

"Oh, no," I laughed. "I'm an unhappy old bachelor."

"Well, you oughter be ashamed to say that," she said with a hearty laugh.

"I am," I asserted. "But how is a man to be otherwise when the women won't do their share?"

"But they will of they ever git the chance," she contended.

"It's easy enough for you to say that," I said, "because you felt that way toward your husband when he asked you."

"My husband?" she almost shouted. "I ain't got no husband, nor never did have."

"Why—why?" I stammered. "I understood you were a widow."

"Well, I ain't."

"Do you mean to tell me that an good looking woman as you are is an old maid yet?"

She hesitated a moment before answering.

"In course I am," she said, and her voice softened, "but I ain't no objection to bein a married woman."

Goodness knows how I got out of it and still remained a "star boarder," but I did, and I didn't sit out on that porch in the evening any more, either.—Washington Star.

They Suffer In Silence.

One of the most pathetic things is the manner in which the animal kingdom endures suffering. Take horses, for instance, in battle. After the first shock of a wound they make no sound. They bear the pain with a mute, wonderful endurance, and if at night you hear a wild groan from the battlefield it comes from their loneliness, their loss of that human companionship which seems absolutely indispensable to the comfort of domesticated animals.

The dog will carry a broken leg for days without, but uncomplainingly.

The cat, stricken with stick or stone or caught in some trap from which it gnaws its way to freedom, crawls in some secret place and bears in silence pain which we could not endure. Sheep and cattle often meet the thrust of the butcher's knife without a sound, and even common poultry endure intense agony without complaint.

The dove shot to death flies to some faroff bough, and as it dies the silence is unbroken save by the patter on the leaves of its own blood. The wounded deer speeds to some thick brake and in pitiful submission waits for death.

The eagle, shot in midair, fights to the last against the fatal summons. There is no moan or sound of pain, and the defiant look never fades from its eyes until the lids close over them never to uncover again.—St. Louis Globe-Democrat.

He Was Not Impressed.

There were eight of us going to stop at the same town and the same hotel in a Kansas hamlet, and we talked things over before we left the train. Each one registered himself as a professor, judge or general, and when the last name was down we stood waiting to hear any observation from the landlord. He was a quiet spoken, humble looking man, and he should have been duly impressed with the array of names. He wasn't, though. He read them over in a careless way and then looked up to say:

"All right, professors, judges and generals, I'll do the best I can for you, and I guess most of the folks will turn out to your circus tomorrow if the weather is pleasant."—Brooklyn Citizen.

His Absentmindedness.

A little girl, who was trying to tell a friend how absentminded her grandpa was, said, "He walks around, thinking about nothing, and when he remembers it he then forgets that what he thought of was something entirely different from what he wanted to remember."—Boston Christian Register.

MOSQUITOES.

What They Have Learned About Raising Large Families.

Mosquitoes believe in the good old fashion of large families. Well they may. They don't have to raise them. There is no walking the floor nights with the youngest or sitting up to mend stockings, nor worrying about the second summer—you know if you bring them through the second summer all right; there is no scheming to put Tom through Harvard or Dorothy through Vassar. It is very simple. Mamma lays from 20 to 40 dozen eggs in some quiet pool along about 3 o'clock in the morning and considers her duty amply done.

The inherited experience of ages has taught her that it is best to mass them together in a pointed ellipse slightly concave on the top, the eggs being little end up. The air so sticks to the mass that it is impossible to wet it. In 10 hours the larvae come out on the under side and begin a most active existence. They are the wigglers that used to infest the rainwater barrel at the corner of the house "in the early days."

The wiggler has two stages of existence, larva and pupa. For seven days it has hard work to get up to the surface to breathe, but when it changes it has hard work to get down to the bottom. Two days later its clothes begin to feel tight, and when all the back buttons burst off it crawls out, using its old frock as a kind of boat, while it gets its wings straightened out. This is a very ticklish job, and many a young life has been lost by drowning at the very beginning of its promising career. The fact that so many eggs are laid would indicate, if nothing else did, that many mischances await the mosquito at all stages of its existence.—Ainslee's Magazine.

Two Professionals.

Scene: Railway carriage on the Midland railway. Enter a colonel with game bag and case of guns. Colonel to passengers, enthusiastically:—Beautiful sport; 60 birds in two hours and only missed two shots!

A quiet gentleman sitting in the corner put down his paper, rushed across the compartment, and grasping him warmly by the hand: "Allow me to congratulate you, sir! I am a professional myself."

"Professional sportsman?"

"No. Professional liar."—London Tit-Bits.

A Simple Imitation.

Imitation Japanese work is the simplest thing in the world. Take any box with a smooth, wooden surface, and on it paste leaves that have been pressed out flat, arranging them in pretty designs. Then varnish and polish, and the effect is exquisite Japanese art.

Probably every bride directs one or more of her wedding invitations, feeding those to whom they are addressed will find that she is now revenged.—Archion Globe.

Springtime

Is the sweetest season in human life, as it is in Nature generally. It is the time of promise. As the young girl draws near to that mysterious line "Where womanhood and girlhood meet," her destiny is in a measure being determined.

How often the sweet young girl, under the influence of the change, withers and droops like some blighted bud. Nature generally needs some little help at this critical period, and this help is contained in Doctor Pierce's Favorite Prescription. It establishes regularity, and gives the vigor of perfect health to the womanly organs. It contains no alcohol, neither opium, cocaine, nor other narcotic.

Miss Emma Lee, of Willford, Sharp Co., Ark., writes: "I was suffering severely and tried several doctors' remedies, but received only very little relief. Therefore, I feel it my duty to write and let other sufferers know what your 'Favorite Prescription' and 'Golden Medical Discovery' and 'Pleasant Pellets' have done for me. I took each bottle of 'Favorite Prescription' and 'Golden Medical Discovery' six vials of the 'Pellets,' also one bottle of your 'Compound Syrup of Sarsaparilla.' As soon as I had taken the first bottle I could see that the medicine was helping me. I had disease of internal organs, and all persons inclined to said estate are called upon to make payment to:

THE WEST NEWTON SAVINGS BANK, by JAMES H. NICKERSON, Treas.

October 20, 1899. MARCUS MORTON, Auctioneer.

Commonwealth of Massachusetts. MIDDLESEX SS.

WHEREAS, at a meeting of the County of Middlesex, Commissioners for said County, at Lowell on Tuesday, the 20th day of September, 1899, On the petition of the Selectmen of the Town of Weston for the laying out and establishing of a public highway from Riverside Road in the City of Boston to Charles Street in the City of Newton it was adjudged that said laying out of said highway be and the same be laid out accordingly.

Oct. 17, 1899. A true Copy Attest: WALTER C. WARDWELL, Deputy Sheriff.

Commonwealth of Massachusetts. MIDDLESEX SS.

TO all persons interested in the estate of William H. Mallett late of Newton in said County, deceased:

WHEREAS, James H. Nickerson, the administrator of the estate of said deceased, has presented for allowance, the account of his administration upon the estate of said deceased. You are hereby cited to appear at a Probate Court, to be held at Cambridge in said County, on the fourteenth day of November, A. D. 1899, at nine o'clock in the forenoon, to show cause, if any you have, why the same should not be allowed.

And the administrator is hereby ordered to serve this citation by delivering a copy thereof to all persons interested in the estate fourteen days at least before said Court, or by publishing the same once in each week, for three successive weeks, in the Newton Graphic, a newspaper published in Newton, the last publication to be one day at least before said Court, and by mailing, post-paid, a copy of this citation to all known persons interested in the estate seven days at least before said Court.

Witness, CHARLES J. McINTIRE, Esquire, Judge of said Court, the twenty-fourth day of October, in the year one thousand eight hundred and ninety-nine.

S. H. FOLSON, Register.

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN, that the subscriber has been duly appointed executor of the will of Joseph E. Whitman late of Newton in the County of Middlesex, deceased, and has taken upon himself that trust by giving bond, as the law directs. All persons having demands upon the estate of said deceased are hereby required to exhibit the same; and all persons indebted to said estate are called upon to make payment to:

EMMA L. WHITMAN Executrix. (Address) 125 Vernon St., Newton. October 19th 1899.

ASSOCIATED CHARITIES—The office of the Secretary of the Associated Charities is from 9 to 10 every week day and from 12 to 2 on Saturday evening. The Provident Committee will be at the office to distribute clothing Tuesday forenoons and Saturday evenings. M. R. Martin, Secretary, Office, Newtonville Square.

Legal Notices

Commonwealth of Massachusetts.

MIDDLESEX SS. PROBATE COURT.

To the heirs-at-law, next of kin, creditors and all other persons interested in the estate of Elizabeth T. Ryder late of Newton, in said County, deceased, interested:

WHEREAS, a petition has been presented to said Court to grant letters of administration on the estate of said deceased to George E. Ryder of Newton in the County of Middlesex, without giving bonds upon the estate of said deceased. You are hereby cited to appear at a Probate Court to be held at Cambridge in said County of Middlesex, on the seventh day of November, A. D. 1899, at nine o'clock in the forenoon, to show cause, if any you have, why the same should not be granted.

And the petitioner is hereby directed to give public notice thereof, by publishing this citation once in each week, for three successive weeks, in the Newton Graphic, a newspaper published in Newton, the last publication to be one day at least, before said Court.

Witness, CHARLES J. McINTIRE, Esquire, First Judge of said Court, the twentieth day of October, in the year one thousand eight hundred and ninety-nine.

S. H. FOLSON, Register.

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN, that the subscriber has been duly appointed executrix of the will of Martha Ann Hanson late of Newton in the County of Middlesex, deceased, and has taken upon herself that trust by giving bond, as the law directs. All persons having demands upon the estate of said deceased are hereby required to exhibit the same; and all persons indebted to said estate are called upon to make payment to:

MARY ISABEL WATERHOUSE Executrix. Address Lowell Ave., Newtonville. October 6, 1899.

By S. R. KNIGHTS & CO., Auctioneers, 650 Tremont Building, Boston.

Mortgagee's Sale of Real Estate.

By virtue of a power of sale contained in a certain mortgage given by Hugh F. Dyer to the Newton Co-operative Bank dated December 16, 1896, and recorded in the Registry of Deeds for the County of Middlesex (South District) book 2221, folio 500, will be sold at public auction, on the premises, on Tuesday the fourth day of November, 1899, at 10 o'clock in the afternoon, for a breach of the conditions of said mortgage and for the purpose of foreclosing the same, all and singular the premises conveyed by said mortgage deed, namely:

A certain parcel of land, situated in that part of Newton in said County of Middlesex, called the "Parcel of land adjoining and bounded Northerly on land of McGonigle one hundred (100) feet, Easterly on land of French by a line parallel with and one hundred feet distant from the westerly line of Bridge Street forty (40) feet more or less, Southerly on land now or late of Glida one hundred (100) feet, and Westerly on land of French by a line parallel with and one hundred feet distant from the westerly line of Bridge Street forty (40) feet; together with a right of way to said Bridge Street from the parcel of land adjoining and bounded Northerly on land of said French by a straight line one hundred (100) feet, Easterly on Bridge Street and 2-1/2 feet, Southerly on land now or late of Glida by a straight line one hundred (100) feet, and Westerly on land conveyed by said mortgage deed and above described 2 and 1/2 (2.50) feet; the premises conveyed by said mortgage deed and the parcel of land over which a right of way is therein granted are shown on a plan of land in Newton by E. S. Smith, Surveyor, dated November 19, 1898, and recorded with Middlesex South District Deeds at the end of book 1983.

Said premises will be sold subject to all unpaid taxes and other municipal assessments, $20.00 will be required to be paid in cash by the purchaser at the time and place of sale.

THE NEWTON CO-OPERATIVE BANK, Mortgagee. October 19, 1899. WELLS & WELLS, Attorneys, 115 Devonshire St., Boston.

Mortgagee's Sale.

Pursuant to a power of sale contained in a certain mortgage given by Patrick Flaherty and Mary Flaherty, his wife, in her own right, to the Newton Savings Bank, dated November 12th, 1898, and for breach of the conditions thereof, will be sold at public auction on Saturday the 25th day of November, 1899, at 10 o'clock in the afternoon, on the premises, a certain lot of land with the buildings thereon, situated in that part of Newton in said County of Middlesex, being lot numbered one on a plan of land in Newton County belonging to D. S. Farham, drawn by E. A. W. Hamann, dated June 1st, 1898, and described as follows:

Beginning at a point on the Southerly side of Beacon Street by land now or late of J. J. Flaherty, thence running Easterly by said Beacon Street forty-five and seven tenths feet to land of Wingarsky being lot numbered two on said plan, thence turning and running Southerly by land of Wingarsky sixty-four feet to land of Curtin; thence turning and running Easterly by said land of Curtin forty-five and eighty seven one hundredths feet, to a corner, by land of the City of Boston; thence turning and running Southerly by lot numbered ten on said plan sixty-five and seventy-five one hundredths feet to point of beginning. Containing 2,235.10 square feet.

THE WEST NEWTON SAVINGS BANK, by JAMES H. NICKERSON, Treas.

October 20, 1899. MARCUS MORTON, Auctioneer.

Commonwealth of Massachusetts. MIDDLESEX SS.

WHEREAS, at a meeting of the County of Lowell on Tuesday, the 20th day of September, 1899, On the petition of the Selectmen of the Town of Weston for the laying out and establishing of a public highway from Riverside Road in the City of Boston to Charles Street in the City of Newton it was adjudged that said laying out of said highway be and the same be laid out accordingly.

Oct. 17, 1899. A true Copy Attest: WALTER C. WARDWELL, Deputy Sheriff.

Commonwealth of Massachusetts. MIDDLESEX SS.

TO all persons interested in the estate of William H. Mallett late of Newton in said County, deceased:

WHEREAS, James H. Nickerson, the administrator of the estate of said deceased, has presented for allowance, the account of his administration upon the estate of said deceased. You are hereby cited to appear at a Probate Court, to be held at Cambridge in said County, on the fourteenth day of November, A. D. 1899, at nine o'clock in the forenoon, to show cause, if any you have, why the same should not be allowed.

And the administrator is hereby ordered to serve this citation by delivering a copy thereof to all persons interested in the estate fourteen days at least before said Court, or by publishing the same once in each week, for three successive weeks, in the Newton Graphic, a newspaper published in Newton, the last publication to be one day at least before said Court, and by mailing, post-paid, a copy of this citation to all known persons interested in the estate seven days at least before said Court.

Witness, CHARLES J. McINTIRE, Esquire, Judge of said Court, the twenty-fourth day of October, in the year one thousand eight hundred and ninety-nine.

S. H. FOLSON, Register.

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN, that the subscriber has been duly appointed executrix of the will of Joseph E. Whitman late of Newton in the County of Middlesex, deceased, and has taken upon herself that trust by giving bond, as the law directs. All persons having demands upon the estate of said deceased are hereby required to exhibit the same; and all persons indebted to said estate are called upon to make payment to:

EMMA L. WHITMAN Executrix. (Address) 125 Vernon St., Newton. October 19th 1899.

ASSOCIATED CHARITIES—The office of the Secretary of the Associated Charities is from 9 to 10 every week day and from 12 to 2 on Saturday evening. The Provident Committee will be at the office to distribute clothing Tuesday forenoons and Saturday evenings. M. R. Martin, Secretary, Office, Newtonville Square.

Veterinary Surgeon

MADISON BUNKER, D. V. S.

Veterinary Surgeon.

Residence, 4 Baldwin St., corner Elmwood, NEWTON, MASS. Telephone Connection.

M. C. HIGGINS,

PRACTICAL PLUMBER

—AND—

SANITARY ENGINEER.

Plumbing Work in all its Branches.

Having had twenty-two years' experience in the business in this city, perfect satisfaction is guaranteed.

Summer's Block, Newton.

Telephone No. 106-3.

WANTED—Case of bad health that R-I-P-A-N-S will not benefit. Send 5 cents to Ripans Chemical Co., New York, for 10 samples and 1,000 testimonials.

Member of the Master Builders' Association, 169 Devonshire Street. (Established 1838. (Incorporated 1891.) Connected by Telephone.

JOHN FARQUHAR'S SONS,

INCORPORATED.

Roofers, Metal Workers,

Slate, Copper, Tin, Tile and Composition Roofing. Galvanized Iron Work. Dealers in all Roofing Materials. 20 and 22 East Street, Boston.

Special attention given to Repairs of all kinds of Roofing.

Samuel Farquhar, Pres't; David Farquhar Sec'y and Treas.; Joseph Farquhar, Supt.; Rol in Farquhar, Frank C. Farquhar, Directors.

C. A. Harrington,

LUMBER,

Lime, Cement, Plaster, Etc.

CRA. TS STREET, NEWTONVILLE

Telephone 5249-7 Newton.

TYPEWRITERS

SOLD AND RENTED.

All Standard Machines. Moderate Prices.

Repairing. Supplies.

THORP & MARTIN CO.

12 Milk St., Boston, Mass.

Expressmen.

NEWCOMB & SNYDER,

Newton and Boston Express.

Leave Newton 7.30 and 9.30 a.m. Leave Boston 12 m. and 3 p.m. Newton Office: 334 Centre St. Order Box: G. P. Atkins' Store. Boston Office: 15 Devonshire St., 174 Washington St., 34 Court Sq., 105 State St., 67 Franklin St., 11 Harrison Ave. Extension. Personal attention given all orders. Telephone 238-4. Furniture and Piano moving.

HOLMES'

BAGGAGE EXPRESS.

You can always find one of Holmes' Expressmen at their stand, NEWTON BAGGAGE ROOM, from 6.30 A. M. to 8.30 P. M., where a call may be left, or leave orders at G. P. Atkins' Store, or Newton Business Exchange, 402 Centre St. Telephone connection.

Furniture and Piano Moving. Also Crockery and Pictures carefully packed for transportation.

General Jobbing of every description promptly attended to. Residence 152 Adams St., Newton, Mass.

Undertakers.

CARD.

THE UNDERTAKING BUSINESS

long and ably conducted by the late S. F. Cate is continued with the aid of the same experienced corps of assistants. All calls answered, day or night. Satisfaction guaranteed.

HENRY F. GATE, Manager.

Tel. 19-5, West Newton.

GEO. H. GREGG,

UNDERTAKER.

Newton Centre, Newton Highlands, and Newtonville.

Tel. No. 64-2 and 64-3, Newton.

WALTER THORPE, Newton Centre.
Agent for THE GRAPHIC, and receives all subscriptions and makes collections for it. He also makes terms for advertising, hand bills, and all other kinds of printing. Also, Real Estate to sell and to rent, and insurance against fire in the English and American companies.

NEWTON CENTRE.

—Look into J. W. Beverly's window.
—The steam roller is at work on Centre street.
—Mr. F. W. Matthews has rented a house on Herwick road.
—McGrady and Fardon are soon to remove to 65 Union street.
—George F. Richardson has purchased a fine driving horse.
—Miss Alice Chandler has returned to her home in Chicago.
—Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Clavin have returned from the West.
—Mr. George Chaffee of Troy, Vt., is here for a short time.
—Mr. G. G. Emery and family have taken a house on Ballard street.
—A Halloween party will be held in Circuit hall on Tuesday evening.
—Mrs. A. E. Lawrence of Beacon street is passing the week in Cambridge.
—Mr. and Mrs. Edward Armstrong have returned from their wedding trip.
—Rev. Dr. Boynton and family of Langley road have moved to Gibbs street.
—Miss Shepard of the Pelham house is entertaining her sister from the West.
—Mr. G. H. Damon and family of Chicago, have rented a house on Oxford road.
—Miss Sybil Spaulding of Foxboro, formerly of Warren street, this place, is visiting here.
—Mrs. Edith Flagg has gone to Newton after a visit with relatives on Beacon street.
—Mr. Metcalf (Melcher) of Norwood avenue left this morning for Hot Springs, Virginia.
—Miss L. Sawyer and sister of Manchester, New Hampshire, were visiting friends this week.
—This week at the Mason school a fire drill is being practised by the scholars and teachers.
—Mr. J. J. Storror, Jr., and family have returned to Oak Hill and reopened their residence there.
—Mr. and Mrs. F. E. McIntyre of Institution avenue returned this week from an enjoyable vacation.
—The topic of the meeting at the First Baptist church this evening will be, "Jesus Standing on the Shore."
—The topic for the prayer meeting at the Methodist Episcopal church this evening, will be, "When Jesus Prayed."
—The "Power of Personality" will be the topic for Sunday evening's sermon at the Methodist Episcopal church.
—Mr. D. S. Farnham, at last accounts, was traveling in southern Colorado through the wild scenes of the Rockies.
—At the Congregational church last Wednesday evening the church members enjoyed a supper and informal social.
—Mr. Geo. G. Gammons and family of Portland, Oregon, are visiting his father, who is confined to the house by illness.
—At the Unitarian church next Sunday services will be conducted by Rev. C. W. Wendte. Services at 10.30. Sunday school at 12.
—Mrs. N. H. George and Mrs. Crowell gave a reception at Mrs. George's house on Gray Cliff road, Friday afternoon, from 4 until 6.
—Mr. and Mrs. Henry W. Crowell have returned from a trip in Maine. Mr. Crowell was successful in shooting some fine specimens of deer.
—The "Thespians" will repeat "Our Regiment" in the entertainment rooms of the Newton Centre Unitarian church next Tuesday evening.
—A pocket book containing about $100, was lost a few evenings ago on the walk in front of White's block. The lady missed it and returned in ten or fifteen minutes and found it.
—The delivery service at the Newton Centre postoffice has been extended in the Oak Hill and Waban districts. An additional carrier has also been assigned to the office.
—The young ladies of the Unitarian church will hold a cake and candy sale in the entertainment rooms of the church, Saturday afternoon, Nov. 4th, from 2.30 to 5 o'clock.
—At the parochial residence of the Church of the Sacred Heart, Wednesday afternoon, Harry Bennett and Bridget McCarthy were married. They will make their home on Summer street.
—Mr. and Mrs. Alanson Bigelow of Chestnut Hill, and their young daughter, Miss Dorothy Bigelow, were among those booked on the Oceanic, which sailed Wednesday morning for New York for Liverpool.
—The Woman's Auxiliary of Trinity church will hold an apron and fancy work sale on the afternoon and evening of Tuesday, Nov. 7. Cake, ice cream, candy and lemonade will be for sale. A tea table will also be a feature of the sale.
—An entertainment was held by the ladies of the First church, Wednesday evening, which was largely attended. There was a number of short original poems read telling how a dollar had been earned to swell the chapel fund.
—We understand that the cosy and attractive house on Paul street, recently vacated by Rev. B. F. McDaniel, will be painted, and interior renovated to suit the taste of the tenant. Application should be made to William B. Young, the agent.
—An accident to one of the city's steam rollers delayed traffic on the Newton Highlands branch of the Common wealth avenue street railway last Wednesday noon. An axle of the steam roller broke and the big machine was helpless until the arrival of another steam roller.
—There is to be a sale tomorrow afternoon in the Oak Hill school house, for the purpose of securing funds to be added to the Oak Hill chapel fund. Already the project of organizing a chapel has met with a generous response. The land has been given for the proposed building and many have signified their willingness to aid in the plan.
—Newton Centre loses one of her best families, by the departure of Rev. B. F. McDaniel for Dorchester. During the six years that Mr. McDaniel has had his home among us, he has won an enviable reputation for integrity and genuine philanthropic interest in young and old. His appointment as superintendent of the Barnard Memorial, Boston, promises much for those with whom he will come in contact.
—Wednesday evening at the home of the bride's parents on Maple park, took place the marriage of Miss Margaret P. Armstrong, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George C. Armstrong, to Mr. Warren Ellsworth Corkum of this place. The ceremony was performed at 7.30 by Rev. G. H. Spencer, pastor of the Methodist church. A reception followed, which was largely attended by relatives and friends. After a wedding tour Mr. and Mrs. Corkum will reside in Newton Centre.
—The first social assembly of the Newton Centre wheelmen held last Friday evening in Associates hall off Centre street was a decided success. Many cyclists from this city and out-of-town were present and dancing was enjoyed until after midnight. The dinner was in charge of William F. Woodman, who was assisted by William Webb, Fred Boieser, B. L. Musgrove, Richard Webb, William Fulton, A. Muldoon and Frank Osborne. The committee on arrangements included E. A. Sanderson, Warren Ellis and James F. Fennessy.

—Wedding gifts at J. A. Beverly's, jeweler
—The first marriage ceremony to be solemnized in the newly dedicated church of the Sacred Heart was held Wednesday morning. Mr. William Hickey of Brookline and Miss Mary McGrath of Brookline were the interested parties. The ceremony was performed by the pastor, Rev. D. J. Wholey, who celebrated a nuptial high mass. Mr. Frank Hickey and Miss Mary Hickey were in attendance. Boston, Brookline and Newton friends of both parties were present in large numbers. Bride and maid were tastefully arrayed in white satin gowns, with trains, and carried bouquets of white American carnations. Mr. and Mrs. Hickey will reside in Brookline.

NEWTON HIGHLANDS.

—Mrs. Moors of Bowdoin street is visiting at Groton.
—Mrs. Guiler of Lake avenue has as her guest her sister from Seattle.
—Mrs. Eaton has returned from a stay of several weeks in New York.
—Mrs. Hammond has gone to North Carolina on a visit to her mother.
—A fair and sale is in preparation to be held at the Methodist church Nov. 7 and 8.
—The West End Literary club will meet next Monday with Mrs. Tarbell, Lincoln street.
—Mr. Frederic R. Griffin of the Harvard Divinity school will conduct the Unitarian services next Sunday.
—Rev. Frederick B. Allen of the Boston City Mission will speak next Sunday morning, at 10.45, at St. Paul's church.
—Mr. H. G. Burgess of Eliot, who has been ill with typhoid fever for several weeks is now nearly recovered.
—The next social of the Congregational society will be held on Wednesday evening, Nov. 1st, and will be in charge of Mrs. Draper.
—At a matinee whist club held at Mrs. Barnes' Hyde street, the prizes were won by Mrs. C. M. Bacon and Mrs. F. E. Marston.
—The C. L. S. C. will meet with Mrs. E. J. Hyde next Monday, Oct. 30. The special day entertainment will be in charge of Mrs. Hyde.
—Miss M. L. Brackett, who has spent the summer with her sister, Mrs. E. H. Greenwood, has gone to her home in Brooklyn, N. Y.
—A meeting of the executive committee of the Improvement association will be held next Thursday evening with Mr. Seward W. Jones.
—Mr. J. H. Foulds, who formerly resided here, is having the house owned by him on Lake avenue put in thorough repair, and we hear that he will occupy it.
—Mr. F. B. Spear, who is ill of nervous prostration, is giving up housekeeping and with his family will have his home at Upper Falls with Mr. J. W. Howe.
—The first fall meeting of the Woman's Foreign Missionary society, connected with the Congregational church, was held on Thursday of this week at the chapel.
—Mrs. E. C. Wheeler, who is sojourning at Amherst, was one of the invited guests on the platform at the inauguration of President Harris of Amherst college.
—The Roundabout club met at the home of Mr. James Simpson this week and elected Mr. James Simpson pres., Mrs. J. F. Heckman sec., and Mr. G. B. Lapham treas.
—Mr. W. K. Dunham, who has a provision market at Upper Falls, has opened the market in the village, in Patterson block, formerly conducted for a short time by F. J. Hoyt & Co.
—Quite a number of ladies from this district attended the 20th annual meeting of the Home Missionary association held in Berkeley Temple on Wednesday afternoon and evening.
—Mr. G. F. Hardy, who has occupied the house on Forest street, formerly the home of the Taylor family, has removed to the house on the same avenue belonging to Mr. Chubb of So. Framingham.
—The Monday club will meet with Mrs. Minerva C. Stone, Dunklee street, Oct. 30. Miss M. E. Rowe, president of the State Federation, will lecture on "The Heredity of Character and Ability."
—Miss Mary McDonald has the Eliot Convalescent home now ready for the reception of patients. They will have the most careful nursing and care, and can remain under the treatment of their own physician.
—The annual meeting of the Shakespeare club took place last Saturday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Eaton, and the following are the officers elected: Pres., Mrs. Eaton; vice-pres., Mrs. Estabrook; sec., Miss Morrill; treas., Mrs. Holt.
—Mr. C. E. Stewart, the dealer in dry and furnishing goods in Newhall building, has taken the house on Forest street belonging to Mr. F. F. Dudley, and formerly occupied by Mr. G. A. Cotey, and will occupy it as soon as his housekeeping goods arrive from the west.
—At the Methodist church next Sunday evening at 7.30 there will be a special service. The Rev. Richard Windsor, for 30 years a missionary of the American Board of Missions in India, and who was one of the committee of Relief during the late famine in India, and who is now on leave of absence in this country, will speak. His subject will be "The Late Famine and Bubonic Plague in India." The pastor will preach in the morning at 10.45.

—The C. L. S. C. will meet with Mrs. E. J. Hyde next Monday, Oct. 30. The special day entertainment will be in charge of Mrs. Hyde.
—Miss M. L. Brackett, who has spent the summer with her sister, Mrs. E. H. Greenwood, has gone to her home in Brooklyn, N. Y.
—A meeting of the executive committee of the Improvement association will be held next Thursday evening with Mr. Seward W. Jones.
—Mr. J. H. Foulds, who formerly resided here, is having the house owned by him on Lake avenue put in thorough repair, and we hear that he will occupy it.
—Mr. F. B. Spear, who is ill of nervous prostration, is giving up housekeeping and with his family will have his home at Upper Falls with Mr. J. W. Howe.
—The first fall meeting of the Woman's Foreign Missionary society, connected with the Congregational church, was held on Thursday of this week at the chapel.
—Mrs. E. C. Wheeler, who is sojourning at Amherst, was one of the invited guests on the platform at the inauguration of President Harris of Amherst college.
—The Roundabout club met at the home of Mr. James Simpson this week and elected Mr. James Simpson pres., Mrs. J. F. Heckman sec., and Mr. G. B. Lapham treas.
—Mr. W. K. Dunham, who has a provision market at Upper Falls, has opened the market in the village, in Patterson block, formerly conducted for a short time by F. J. Hoyt & Co.
—Quite a number of ladies from this district attended the 20th annual meeting of the Home Missionary association held in Berkeley Temple on Wednesday afternoon and evening.
—Mr. G. F. Hardy, who has occupied the house on Forest street, formerly the home of the Taylor family, has removed to the house on the same avenue belonging to Mr. Chubb of So. Framingham.
—The Monday club will meet with Mrs. Minerva C. Stone, Dunklee street, Oct. 30. Miss M. E. Rowe, president of the State Federation, will lecture on "The Heredity of Character and Ability."
—Miss Mary McDonald has the Eliot Convalescent home now ready for the reception of patients. They will have the most careful nursing and care, and can remain under the treatment of their own physician.
—The annual meeting of the Shakespeare club took place last Saturday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Eaton, and the following are the officers elected: Pres., Mrs. Eaton; vice-pres., Mrs. Estabrook; sec., Miss Morrill; treas., Mrs. Holt.
—Mr. C. E. Stewart, the dealer in dry and furnishing goods in Newhall building, has taken the house on Forest street belonging to Mr. F. F. Dudley, and formerly occupied by Mr. G. A. Cotey, and will occupy it as soon as his housekeeping goods arrive from the west.
—At the Methodist church next Sunday evening at 7.30 there will be a special service. The Rev. Richard Windsor, for 30 years a missionary of the American Board of Missions in India, and who was one of the committee of Relief during the late famine in India, and who is now on leave of absence in this country, will speak. His subject will be "The Late Famine and Bubonic Plague in India." The pastor will preach in the morning at 10.45.

—The C. L. S. C. will meet with Mrs. E. J. Hyde next Monday, Oct. 30. The special day entertainment will be in charge of Mrs. Hyde.
—Miss M. L. Brackett, who has spent the summer with her sister, Mrs. E. H. Greenwood, has gone to her home in Brooklyn, N. Y.
—A meeting of the executive committee of the Improvement association will be held next Thursday evening with Mr. Seward W. Jones.
—Mr. J. H. Foulds, who formerly resided here, is having the house owned by him on Lake avenue put in thorough repair, and we hear that he will occupy it.
—Mr. F. B. Spear, who is ill of nervous prostration, is giving up housekeeping and with his family will have his home at Upper Falls with Mr. J. W. Howe.
—The first fall meeting of the Woman's Foreign Missionary society, connected with the Congregational church, was held on Thursday of this week at the chapel.
—Mrs. E. C. Wheeler, who is sojourning at Amherst, was one of the invited guests on the platform at the inauguration of President Harris of Amherst college.
—The Roundabout club met at the home of Mr. James Simpson this week and elected Mr. James Simpson pres., Mrs. J. F. Heckman sec., and Mr. G. B. Lapham treas.
—Mr. W. K. Dunham, who has a provision market at Upper Falls, has opened the market in the village, in Patterson block, formerly conducted for a short time by F. J. Hoyt & Co.
—Quite a number of ladies from this district attended the 20th annual meeting of the Home Missionary association held in Berkeley Temple on Wednesday afternoon and evening.
—Mr. G. F. Hardy, who has occupied the house on Forest street, formerly the home of the Taylor family, has removed to the house on the same avenue belonging to Mr. Chubb of So. Framingham.
—The Monday club will meet with Mrs. Minerva C. Stone, Dunklee street, Oct. 30. Miss M. E. Rowe, president of the State Federation, will lecture on "The Heredity of Character and Ability."
—Miss Mary McDonald has the Eliot Convalescent home now ready for the reception of patients. They will have the most careful nursing and care, and can remain under the treatment of their own physician.
—The annual meeting of the Shakespeare club took place last Saturday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Eaton, and the following are the officers elected: Pres., Mrs. Eaton; vice-pres., Mrs. Estabrook; sec., Miss Morrill; treas., Mrs. Holt.
—Mr. C. E. Stewart, the dealer in dry and furnishing goods in Newhall building, has taken the house on Forest street belonging to Mr. F. F. Dudley, and formerly occupied by Mr. G. A. Cotey, and will occupy it as soon as his housekeeping goods arrive from the west.
—At the Methodist church next Sunday evening at 7.30 there will be a special service. The Rev. Richard Windsor, for 30 years a missionary of the American Board of Missions in India, and who was one of the committee of Relief during the late famine in India, and who is now on leave of absence in this country, will speak. His subject will be "The Late Famine and Bubonic Plague in India." The pastor will preach in the morning at 10.45.

—The C. L. S. C. will meet with Mrs. E. J. Hyde next Monday, Oct. 30. The special day entertainment will be in charge of Mrs. Hyde.
—Miss M. L. Brackett, who has spent the summer with her sister, Mrs. E. H. Greenwood, has gone to her home in Brooklyn, N. Y.
—A meeting of the executive committee of the Improvement association will be held next Thursday evening with Mr. Seward W. Jones.
—Mr. J. H. Foulds, who formerly resided here, is having the house owned by him on Lake avenue put in thorough repair, and we hear that he will occupy it.
—Mr. F. B. Spear, who is ill of nervous prostration, is giving up housekeeping and with his family will have his home at Upper Falls with Mr. J. W. Howe.
—The first fall meeting of the Woman's Foreign Missionary society, connected with the Congregational church, was held on Thursday of this week at the chapel.
—Mrs. E. C. Wheeler, who is sojourning at Amherst, was one of the invited guests on the platform at the inauguration of President Harris of Amherst college.
—The Roundabout club met at the home of Mr. James Simpson this week and elected Mr. James Simpson pres., Mrs. J. F. Heckman sec., and Mr. G. B. Lapham treas.
—Mr. W. K. Dunham, who has a provision market at Upper Falls, has opened the market in the village, in Patterson block, formerly conducted for a short time by F. J. Hoyt & Co.
—Quite a number of ladies from this district attended the 20th annual meeting of the Home Missionary association held in Berkeley Temple on Wednesday afternoon and evening.
—Mr. G. F. Hardy, who has occupied the house on Forest street, formerly the home of the Taylor family, has removed to the house on the same avenue belonging to Mr. Chubb of So. Framingham.
—The Monday club will meet with Mrs. Minerva C. Stone, Dunklee street, Oct. 30. Miss M. E. Rowe, president of the State Federation, will lecture on "The Heredity of Character and Ability."
—Miss Mary McDonald has the Eliot Convalescent home now ready for the reception of patients. They will have the most careful nursing and care, and can remain under the treatment of their own physician.
—The annual meeting of the Shakespeare club took place last Saturday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Eaton, and the following are the officers elected: Pres., Mrs. Eaton; vice-pres., Mrs. Estabrook; sec., Miss Morrill; treas., Mrs. Holt.
—Mr. C. E. Stewart, the dealer in dry and furnishing goods in Newhall building, has taken the house on Forest street belonging to Mr. F. F. Dudley, and formerly occupied by Mr. G. A. Cotey, and will occupy it as soon as his housekeeping goods arrive from the west.
—At the Methodist church next Sunday evening at 7.30 there will be a special service. The Rev. Richard Windsor, for 30 years a missionary of the American Board of Missions in India, and who was one of the committee of Relief during the late famine in India, and who is now on leave of absence in this country, will speak. His subject will be "The Late Famine and Bubonic Plague in India." The pastor will preach in the morning at 10.45.

—The C. L. S. C. will meet with Mrs. E. J. Hyde next Monday, Oct. 30. The special day entertainment will be in charge of Mrs. Hyde.
—Miss M. L. Brackett, who has spent the summer with her sister, Mrs. E. H. Greenwood, has gone to her home in Brooklyn, N. Y.
—A meeting of the executive committee of the Improvement association will be held next Thursday evening with Mr. Seward W. Jones.
—Mr. J. H. Foulds, who formerly resided here, is having the house owned by him on Lake avenue put in thorough repair, and we hear that he will occupy it.
—Mr. F. B. Spear, who is ill of nervous prostration, is giving up housekeeping and with his family will have his home at Upper Falls with Mr. J. W. Howe.
—The first fall meeting of the Woman's Foreign Missionary society, connected with the Congregational church, was held on Thursday of this week at the chapel.
—Mrs. E. C. Wheeler, who is sojourning at Amherst, was one of the invited guests on the platform at the inauguration of President Harris of Amherst college.
—The Roundabout club met at the home of Mr. James Simpson this week and elected Mr. James Simpson pres., Mrs. J. F. Heckman sec., and Mr. G. B. Lapham treas.
—Mr. W. K. Dunham, who has a provision market at Upper Falls, has opened the market in the village, in Patterson block, formerly conducted for a short time by F. J. Hoyt & Co.
—Quite a number of ladies from this district attended the 20th annual meeting of the Home Missionary association held in Berkeley Temple on Wednesday afternoon and evening.
—Mr. G. F. Hardy, who has occupied the house on Forest street, formerly the home of the Taylor family, has removed to the house on the same avenue belonging to Mr. Chubb of So. Framingham.
—The Monday club will meet with Mrs. Minerva C. Stone, Dunklee street, Oct. 30. Miss M. E. Rowe, president of the State Federation, will lecture on "The Heredity of Character and Ability."
—Miss Mary McDonald has the Eliot Convalescent home now ready for the reception of patients. They will have the most careful nursing and care, and can remain under the treatment of their own physician.
—The annual meeting of the Shakespeare club took place last Saturday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Eaton, and the following are the officers elected: Pres., Mrs. Eaton; vice-pres., Mrs. Estabrook; sec., Miss Morrill; treas., Mrs. Holt.
—Mr. C. E. Stewart, the dealer in dry and furnishing goods in Newhall building, has taken the house on Forest street belonging to Mr. F. F. Dudley, and formerly occupied by Mr. G. A. Cotey, and will occupy it as soon as his housekeeping goods arrive from the west.
—At the Methodist church next Sunday evening at 7.30 there will be a special service. The Rev. Richard Windsor, for 30 years a missionary of the American Board of Missions in India, and who was one of the committee of Relief during the late famine in India, and who is now on leave of absence in this country, will speak. His subject will be "The Late Famine and Bubonic Plague in India." The pastor will preach in the morning at 10.45.

—The C. L. S. C. will meet with Mrs. E. J. Hyde next Monday, Oct. 30. The special day entertainment will be in charge of Mrs. Hyde.
—Miss M. L. Brackett, who has spent the summer with her sister, Mrs. E. H. Greenwood, has gone to her home in Brooklyn, N. Y.
—A meeting of the executive committee of the Improvement association will be held next Thursday evening with Mr. Seward W. Jones.
—Mr. J. H. Foulds, who formerly resided here, is having the house owned by him on Lake avenue put in thorough repair, and we hear that he will occupy it.
—Mr. F. B. Spear, who is ill of nervous prostration, is giving up housekeeping and with his family will have his home at Upper Falls with Mr. J. W. Howe.
—The first fall meeting of the Woman's Foreign Missionary society, connected with the Congregational church, was held on Thursday of this week at the chapel.
—Mrs. E. C. Wheeler, who is sojourning at Amherst, was one of the invited guests on the platform at the inauguration of President Harris of Amherst college.
—The Roundabout club met at the home of Mr. James Simpson this week and elected Mr. James Simpson pres., Mrs. J. F. Heckman sec., and Mr. G. B. Lapham treas.
—Mr. W. K. Dunham, who has a provision market at Upper Falls, has opened the market in the village, in Patterson block, formerly conducted for a short time by F. J. Hoyt & Co.
—Quite a number of ladies from this district attended the 20th annual meeting of the Home Missionary association held in Berkeley Temple on Wednesday afternoon and evening.
—Mr. G. F. Hardy, who has occupied the house on Forest street, formerly the home of the Taylor family, has removed to the house on the same avenue belonging to Mr. Chubb of So. Framingham.
—The Monday club will meet with Mrs. Minerva C. Stone, Dunklee street, Oct. 30. Miss M. E. Rowe, president of the State Federation, will lecture on "The Heredity of Character and Ability."
—Miss Mary McDonald has the Eliot Convalescent home now ready for the reception of patients. They will have the most careful nursing and care, and can remain under the treatment of their own physician.
—The annual meeting of the Shakespeare club took place last Saturday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Eaton, and the following are the officers elected: Pres., Mrs. Eaton; vice-pres., Mrs. Estabrook; sec., Miss Morrill; treas., Mrs. Holt.
—Mr. C. E. Stewart, the dealer in dry and furnishing goods in Newhall building, has taken the house on Forest street belonging to Mr. F. F. Dudley, and formerly occupied by Mr. G. A. Cotey, and will occupy it as soon as his housekeeping goods arrive from the west.
—At the Methodist church next Sunday evening at 7.30 there will be a special service. The Rev. Richard Windsor, for 30 years a missionary of the American Board of Missions in India, and who was one of the committee of Relief during the late famine in India, and who is now on leave of absence in this country, will speak. His subject will be "The Late Famine and Bubonic Plague in India." The pastor will preach in the morning at 10.45.

—The C. L. S. C. will meet with Mrs. E. J. Hyde next Monday, Oct. 30. The special day entertainment will be in charge of Mrs. Hyde.
—Miss M. L. Brackett, who has spent the summer with her sister, Mrs. E. H. Greenwood, has gone to her home in Brooklyn, N. Y.
—A meeting of the executive committee of the Improvement association will be held next Thursday evening with Mr. Seward W. Jones.
—Mr. J. H. Foulds, who formerly resided here, is having the house owned by him on Lake avenue put in thorough repair, and we hear that he will occupy it.
—Mr. F. B. Spear, who is ill of nervous prostration, is giving up housekeeping and with his family will have his home at Upper Falls with Mr. J. W. Howe.
—The first fall meeting of the Woman's Foreign Missionary society, connected with the Congregational church, was held on Thursday of this week at the chapel.
—Mrs. E. C. Wheeler, who is sojourning at Amherst, was one of the invited guests on the platform at the inauguration of President Harris of Amherst college.
—The Roundabout club met at the home of Mr. James Simpson this week and elected Mr. James Simpson pres., Mrs. J. F. Heckman sec., and Mr. G. B. Lapham treas.
—Mr. W. K. Dunham, who has a provision market at Upper Falls, has opened the market in the village, in Patterson block, formerly conducted for a short time by F. J. Hoyt & Co.
—Quite a number of ladies from this district attended the 20th annual meeting of the Home Missionary association held in Berkeley Temple on Wednesday afternoon and evening.
—Mr. G. F. Hardy, who has occupied the house on Forest street, formerly the home of the Taylor family, has removed to the house on the same avenue belonging to Mr. Chubb of So. Framingham.
—The Monday club will meet with Mrs. Minerva C. Stone, Dunklee street, Oct. 30. Miss M. E. Rowe, president of the State Federation, will lecture on "The Heredity of Character and Ability."
—Miss Mary McDonald has the Eliot Convalescent home now ready for the reception of patients. They will have the most careful nursing and care, and can remain under the treatment of their own physician.
—The annual meeting of the Shakespeare club took place last Saturday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Eaton, and the following are the officers elected: Pres., Mrs. Eaton; vice-pres., Mrs. Estabrook; sec., Miss Morrill; treas., Mrs. Holt.
—Mr. C. E. Stewart, the dealer in dry and furnishing goods in Newhall building, has taken the house on Forest street belonging to Mr. F. F. Dudley, and formerly occupied by Mr. G. A. Cotey, and will occupy it as soon as his housekeeping goods arrive from the west.
—At the Methodist church next Sunday evening at 7.30 there will be a special service. The Rev. Richard Windsor, for 30 years a missionary of the American Board of Missions in India, and who was one of the committee of Relief during the late famine in India, and who is now on leave of absence in this country, will speak. His subject will be "The Late Famine and Bubonic Plague in India." The pastor will preach in the morning at 10.45.

—The C. L. S. C. will meet with Mrs. E. J. Hyde next Monday, Oct. 30. The special day entertainment will be in charge of Mrs. Hyde.
—Miss M. L. Brackett, who has spent the summer with her sister, Mrs. E. H. Greenwood, has gone to her home in Brooklyn, N. Y.
—A meeting of the executive committee of the Improvement association will be held next Thursday evening with Mr. Seward W. Jones.
—Mr. J. H. Foulds, who formerly resided here, is having the house owned by him on Lake avenue put in thorough repair, and we hear that he will occupy it.
—Mr. F. B. Spear, who is ill of nervous prostration, is giving up housekeeping and with his family will have his home at Upper Falls with Mr. J. W. Howe.
—The first fall meeting of the Woman's Foreign Missionary society, connected with the Congregational church, was held on Thursday of this week at the chapel.
—Mrs. E. C. Wheeler, who is sojourning at Amherst, was one of the invited guests on the platform at the inauguration of President Harris of Amherst college.
—The Roundabout club met at the home of Mr. James Simpson this week and elected Mr. James Simpson pres., Mrs. J. F. Heckman sec., and Mr. G. B. Lapham treas.
—Mr. W. K. Dunham, who has a provision market at Upper Falls, has opened the market in the village, in Patterson block, formerly conducted for a short time by F. J. Hoyt & Co.
—Quite a number of ladies from this district attended the 20th annual meeting of the Home Missionary association held in Berkeley Temple on Wednesday afternoon and evening.
—Mr. G. F. Hardy, who has occupied the house on Forest street, formerly the home of the Taylor family, has removed to the house on the same avenue belonging to Mr. Chubb of So. Framingham.
—The Monday club will meet with Mrs. Minerva C. Stone, Dunklee street, Oct. 30. Miss M. E. Rowe, president of the State Federation, will lecture on "The Heredity of Character and Ability."
—Miss Mary McDonald has the Eliot Convalescent home now ready for the reception of patients. They will have the most careful nursing and care, and can remain under the treatment of their own physician.
—The annual meeting of the Shakespeare club took place last Saturday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Eaton, and the following are the officers elected: Pres., Mrs. Eaton; vice-pres., Mrs. Estabrook; sec., Miss Morrill; treas., Mrs. Holt.
—Mr. C. E. Stewart, the dealer in dry and furnishing goods in Newhall building, has taken the house on Forest street belonging to Mr. F. F. Dudley, and formerly occupied by Mr. G. A. Cotey, and will occupy it as soon as his housekeeping goods arrive from the west.
—At the Methodist church next Sunday evening at 7.30 there will be a special service. The Rev. Richard Windsor, for 30 years a missionary of the American Board of Missions in India, and who was one of the committee of Relief during the late famine in India, and who is now on leave of absence in this country, will speak. His subject will be "The Late Famine and Bubonic Plague in India." The pastor will preach in the morning at 10.45.

—The C. L. S. C. will meet with Mrs. E. J. Hyde next Monday, Oct. 30. The special day entertainment will be in charge of Mrs. Hyde.
—Miss M. L. Brackett, who has spent the summer with her sister, Mrs. E. H. Greenwood, has gone to her home in Brooklyn, N. Y.
—A meeting of the executive committee of the Improvement association will be held next Thursday evening with Mr. Seward W. Jones.
—Mr. J. H. Foulds, who formerly resided here, is having the house owned by him on Lake avenue put in thorough repair, and we hear that he will occupy it.
—Mr. F. B. Spear, who is ill of nervous prostration, is giving up housekeeping and with his family will have his home at Upper Falls with Mr. J. W. Howe.
—The first fall meeting of the Woman's Foreign Missionary society, connected with the Congregational church, was held on Thursday of this week at the chapel.
—Mrs. E. C. Wheeler, who is sojourning at Amherst, was one of the invited guests on the platform at the inauguration of President Harris of Amherst college.
—The Roundabout club met at the home of Mr. James Simpson this week and elected Mr. James Simpson pres., Mrs. J. F. Heckman sec., and Mr. G. B. Lapham treas.
—Mr. W. K. Dunham, who has a provision market at Upper Falls, has opened the market in the village, in Patterson block, formerly conducted for a short time by F. J. Hoyt & Co.
—Quite a number of ladies from this district attended the 20th annual meeting of the Home Missionary association held in Berkeley Temple on Wednesday afternoon and evening.
—Mr. G. F. Hardy, who has occupied the house on Forest street, formerly the home of the Taylor family, has removed to the house on the same avenue belonging to Mr. Chubb of So. Framingham.
—The Monday club will meet with Mrs. Minerva C. Stone, Dunklee street, Oct. 30. Miss M. E. Rowe, president of the State Federation, will lecture on "The Heredity of Character and Ability."
—Miss Mary McDonald has the Eliot Convalescent home now ready for the reception of patients. They will have the most careful nursing and care, and can remain under the treatment of their own physician.
—The annual meeting of the Shakespeare club took place last Saturday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Eaton, and the following are the officers elected: Pres., Mrs. Eaton; vice-pres., Mrs. Estabrook; sec., Miss Morrill; treas., Mrs. Holt.
—Mr. C. E. Stewart, the dealer in dry and furnishing goods in Newhall building, has taken the house on Forest street belonging to Mr. F. F. Dudley, and formerly occupied by Mr. G. A. Cotey, and will occupy it as soon as his housekeeping goods arrive from the west.
—At the Methodist church next Sunday evening at 7.30 there will be a special service. The Rev. Richard Windsor, for 30 years a missionary of the American Board of Missions in India, and who was one of the committee of Relief during the late famine in India, and who is now on leave of absence in this country, will speak. His subject will be "The Late Famine and Bubonic Plague in India." The pastor will preach in the morning at 10.45.

—The C. L. S. C. will meet with Mrs. E. J. Hyde next Monday, Oct. 30. The special day entertainment will be in charge of Mrs. Hyde.
—Miss M. L. Brackett, who has spent the summer with her sister, Mrs. E. H. Greenwood, has gone to her home in Brooklyn, N. Y.
—A meeting of the executive committee of the Improvement association will be held next Thursday evening with Mr. Seward W. Jones.
—Mr. J. H. Foulds, who formerly resided here, is having the house owned by him on Lake avenue put in thorough repair, and we hear that he will occupy it.
—Mr. F. B. Spear, who is ill of nervous prostration, is giving up housekeeping and with his family will have his home at Upper Falls with Mr. J. W. Howe.
—The first fall meeting of the Woman's Foreign Missionary society, connected with the Congregational church, was held on Thursday of this week at the chapel.
—Mrs. E. C. Wheeler, who is sojourning at Amherst, was one of the invited guests on the platform at the inauguration of President Harris of Amherst college.
—The Roundabout club met at the home of Mr. James Simpson this week and elected Mr. James Simpson pres., Mrs. J. F. Heckman sec., and Mr. G. B. Lapham treas.
—Mr. W. K. Dunham, who has a provision market at Upper Falls, has opened the market in the village, in Patterson block, formerly conducted for a short time by F. J. Hoyt & Co.
—Quite a number of ladies from this district attended the 20th annual meeting of the Home Missionary association held in Berkeley Temple on Wednesday afternoon and evening.
—Mr. G. F. Hardy, who has occupied the house on Forest street, formerly the home of the Taylor family, has removed to the house on the same avenue belonging to Mr. Chubb of So. Framingham.
—The Monday club will meet with Mrs. Minerva C. Stone, Dunklee street, Oct. 30. Miss M. E. Rowe, president of the State Federation, will lecture on "The Heredity of Character and Ability."
—Miss Mary McDonald has the Eliot Convalescent home now ready for the reception of patients. They will have the most careful nursing and care, and can remain under the treatment of their own physician.
—The annual meeting of the Shakespeare club took place last Saturday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Eaton, and the following are the officers elected: Pres., Mrs. Eaton; vice-pres., Mrs. Estabrook; sec., Miss Morrill; treas., Mrs. Holt.
—Mr. C. E. Stewart, the dealer in dry and furnishing goods in Newhall building, has taken the house on Forest street belonging to Mr. F. F. Dudley, and formerly occupied by Mr. G. A. Cotey, and will occupy it as soon as his housekeeping goods arrive from the west.
—At the Methodist church next Sunday evening at 7.30 there will be a special service. The Rev. Richard Windsor, for 30 years a missionary of the American Board of Missions in India, and who was one of the committee of Relief during the late famine in India, and who is now on leave of absence in this country, will speak. His subject will be "The Late Famine and Bubonic Plague in India." The pastor will preach in the morning at 10.45.

—The C. L. S. C. will meet with Mrs. E. J. Hyde next Monday, Oct. 30. The special day entertainment will be in charge of Mrs. Hyde.
—Miss M. L. Brackett, who has spent the summer with her sister, Mrs. E. H. Greenwood, has gone to her home in Brooklyn, N. Y.
—A meeting of the executive committee of the Improvement association will be held next Thursday evening with Mr. Seward W. Jones.
—Mr. J. H. Foulds, who formerly resided here, is having the house owned by him on Lake avenue put in thorough repair, and we hear that he will occupy it.
—Mr. F. B. Spear, who is ill of nervous prostration, is giving up housekeeping and with his family will have his home at Upper Falls with Mr. J. W. Howe.
—The first fall meeting of the Woman's Foreign Missionary society, connected with the Congregational church, was held on Thursday of this week at the chapel.
—Mrs. E. C. Wheeler, who is sojourning at Amherst, was one of the invited guests on the platform at the inauguration of President Harris of Amherst college.
—The Roundabout club met at the home of Mr. James Simpson this week and elected Mr. James Simpson pres., Mrs. J. F. Heckman sec., and Mr. G. B. Lapham treas.
—Mr. W. K. Dunham, who has a provision market at Upper Falls, has opened the market in the village, in Patterson block, formerly conducted for a short time by F. J. Hoyt & Co.
—Quite a number of ladies from this district attended the 20th annual meeting of the Home Missionary association held in Berkeley Temple on Wednesday afternoon and evening.
—Mr. G. F. Hardy, who has occupied the house on Forest street, formerly the home of the Taylor family, has removed to the house on the same avenue belonging to Mr. Chubb of So. Framingham.
—The Monday club will meet with Mrs. Minerva C. Stone, Dunklee street, Oct. 30. Miss M. E. Rowe, president of the State Federation, will lecture on "The Heredity of Character and Ability."
—Miss Mary McDonald has the Eliot Convalescent home now ready for the reception of patients. They will have the most careful nursing and care, and can remain under the treatment of their own physician.
—The annual meeting of the Shakespeare club took place last Saturday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Eaton, and the following are the officers elected: Pres., Mrs. Eaton; vice-pres., Mrs. Estabrook; sec., Miss Morrill; treas., Mrs. Holt.
—Mr. C. E. Stewart, the dealer in dry and furnishing goods in Newhall building, has taken the house on Forest street belonging to Mr. F. F. Dudley, and formerly occupied by Mr. G. A. Cotey, and will occupy it as soon as his housekeeping goods arrive from the west.
—At the Methodist church next Sunday evening at 7.30 there will be a special service. The Rev. Richard Windsor, for 30 years a missionary of the American Board of Missions in India, and who was one of the committee of Relief during the late famine in India, and who is now on leave of absence in this country, will speak. His subject will be "The Late Famine and Bubonic Plague in India." The pastor will preach in the morning at 10.45.

—The C. L. S. C. will meet with Mrs. E. J. Hyde next Monday, Oct. 30. The special day entertainment will be in charge of Mrs. Hyde.
—Miss M. L. Brackett, who has spent the summer with her sister, Mrs. E. H. Greenwood, has gone to her home in Brooklyn, N. Y.
—A meeting of the executive committee of the Improvement association will be held next Thursday evening with Mr. Seward W. Jones.
—Mr. J. H. Foulds, who formerly resided here, is having the house owned by him on Lake avenue put in thorough repair, and we hear that he will occupy it.
—Mr. F. B. Spear, who is ill of nervous prostration, is giving up housekeeping and with his family will have his home at Upper Falls with Mr. J. W. Howe.
—The first fall meeting of the Woman's Foreign Missionary society, connected with the Congregational church, was held on Thursday of this week at the chapel.
—Mrs. E. C. Wheeler, who is sojourning at Amherst, was one of the invited guests on the platform at the inauguration of President Harris of Amherst college.
—The Roundabout club met at the home of Mr. James Simpson this week and elected Mr. James Simpson pres., Mrs. J. F. Heckman sec., and Mr. G. B. Lapham treas.
—Mr. W. K. Dunham, who has a provision market at Upper Falls, has opened the market in the village, in Patterson block, formerly conducted for a short time by F. J. Hoyt & Co.
—Quite a number of ladies from this district attended the 20th annual meeting of the Home Missionary association held in Berkeley Temple on Wednesday afternoon and evening.
—Mr. G. F. Hardy, who has occupied the house on Forest street, formerly the home of the Taylor family, has removed to the house on the same avenue belonging to Mr. Chubb of So. Framingham.
—The Monday club will meet with Mrs. Minerva C. Stone, Dunklee street, Oct. 30. Miss M. E. Rowe, president of the State Federation, will lecture on "The Heredity of Character and Ability."
—Miss Mary McDonald has the Eliot Convalescent home now ready for the reception of patients. They will have the most careful nursing and care, and can remain under the treatment of their own physician.
—The annual meeting of the Shakespeare club took place last Saturday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Eaton, and the following are the officers elected: Pres., Mrs. Eaton; vice-pres., Mrs. Estabrook; sec., Miss Morrill; treas., Mrs. Holt.
—Mr. C. E. Stewart, the dealer in dry and furnishing goods in Newhall building, has taken the house on Forest street belonging to Mr. F. F. Dudley, and formerly occupied by Mr. G. A. Cotey, and will occupy it as soon as his housekeeping goods arrive from the west.
—At the Methodist church next Sunday evening at 7.30 there will be a special service. The Rev. Richard Windsor, for 30 years a missionary of the American Board of Missions in India, and who was one of the committee of Relief during the late famine in India, and who is now on leave of absence in this country, will speak. His subject will be "The Late Famine and Bubonic Plague in India." The pastor will preach in the morning at 10.45.

—The large tract of land off Linden street formerly known as the Billings estate, has been purchased by a land syndicate from Boston, and is being cut